OFFICE OF THE REVENUE COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE,
Dated Bangalore, the 19th August 1915.

K. DORASWAMI IYER,
Revenue Commissioner.

Letter No. 12557—12578-W., dated the 28th July 1915, from the Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry, to all Chambers of Commerce and Associations.

In continuation of my letter No. 11215-11236-W., dated the 12th July 1915, I am directed to forward herewith, for the information of your Chamber/Association, and for communication to its members, copies of each of the following revised lists showing articles the export of which is prohibited or restricted from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, the Netherlands, Italy, Russia, Switzerland, Greece, Spain, Portugal and Egypt.

"Copy"
D. M. NARASINGA RAO,
Officiating Secretary to Government,
General Department.

C

Lists of articles the exportation of which is prohibited from the following countries:—

Norway.	Netherlands.	Russia.	Roumania.*	Portugal.
Sweden.	Italy.	Switzerland.	Bulgaria.*	Egypt.
Denmark.	France.*	Greece.	Spain.

NORWAY.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

June 18, 1915.

NOTES.

(1) All articles required for a ship about to undertake a voyage may be exported for the use of the ship, even if they are of a kind the exportation of which is prohibited.

(2) As regards transit, all goods coming to Norway and consigned to a foreign (non-Norwegian) destination, even if they are of a kind the exportation of which is prohibited, may be re-exported without special permission. On the other hand, foreign goods falling within the scope of the prohibition of export, if consigned to a place in Norway, cannot be re-exported without permission, even if they were intended for re-export.

(3) The Norwegian Government reserve to themselves the right to grant, in exceptional cases, permission to export any of the prohibited articles.

Acids:—see Citric acid, Hydrochloric acid, Lactic acid, Salicylic acid, Sulphuric acid, Tartaric acid; and also under Dyes, and under Medicaments.
Alcohol (absolute).
Aluminium, unwrought (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin), scrap aluminium, and aluminium worked up into plates, bands, tubes, rods, rings, wire and castings.
Ammunition.

NOTE AS TO DRUGS, MEDICAMENTS, ETC.

The Norwegian Law of the 29th August 1908 (Law relative to the trade in poisons and apothecaries' goods), contained three Schedules (A, B and C) of drugs, medicaments, etc.

SCHEDULE A contains a list of drugs, etc., which may only be sold in Norway by chemists. It includes poisons, arcana (all simple and compound materials offered for sale as medicines and the compsoition of which is kept secret), and medicamina (all materials which are used for preventing or curing sickness, without regard as to whether their simple ingredients are or are not articles of general commerce: excluded from this as exceptions are specially mentioned preparations mentioned in Schedule C, 2 of the Law under collective groups, also materials which belong to Schedule C, 1, when these are used as bandages, for disinfecting, in cosmetics, for technical or other non-medicinal purposes, and not as advertisements, circulars, or in any other manner offered for sale or recommended as materials which may be employed for healing sickness). Medicamina are divided into three categories, viz.:—

(a) Medicamina composita (composite medicines and drugs):
[The Law contains a long list, including, inter alia, aquæ destillatæ et extemporaneæ medicinales, chartæ medicinales, decocta medicinalia, emulsiones medicinales, extracta medicinalia, linimenta medicinales, pastæ, pastillæ, tabulettæ et trochisci medicinales, salia medicinalia, mixta, sapones medicinales, solutiones medicinales, tincturæ medicinales, vina medicinalia, etc., etc.]

(b) Medicamina simplicia (simple medicines or drugs):
This is again sub-divided into—
1. Animalium variæ species. (Examples: Cantharides, castoreum lapis cancrorum).
2. Præparata chemica.
[A long list is specified, including, inter alia, acetanilide, acetylsalicylic acid and aspirin, benzoic acid, carbolic acid, æther nitrosus spirituosus, etc., alkaloids, and their combinations, antifebrine, antipyrine, arsenic and its combinations, chloral hydrate, chloroform, diuretine and theobrominesalicylate of soda, hexamethylentetramine and urotropine, iodoform and iodol, acetate and tartrate of potash, lysoform, naphthol, nitro-benzol, paraldehyde, pepsine, phosphorus, resorcin, saccharin, veronal, etc., etc.]
3. Pyrolea.
4. Vegetabilium variæ species:
[A long list is specified under this head.]

(c) Medicaminum variæ species:
[The list specified under this head includes, inter alia, serums.]

SCHEDULE B contains a list of drugs, etc., which may be sold by chemists and also by specially licensed tradesmen. It covers the following:—

Aloes.
Ammonium bromide, bromammonium.
Ammonium iodide, iodammonium.
Trichloride of antimony, butter of antimony.
Oxide of antimony.
Barium bromide, brombarium.
Barium iodide, iodbarium.
Barium chlorate, chloric and barytes.
Barium hydrate, caustic baryta.
Benzinoform.

Lead oxide, sugar of lead.
Lead nitrate.
Bromine.
Tartar emetic, antimony tartrate.
Caustic baryta, barium hydrate.
Caustic potash, potassium hydrate (in metal containers of less than 40 kilog.; for quantities of 500 gr. or less the container may be of glass).
Caustic lithia, lithium hydrate.
Caustic soda, sodium hydrate (in metal containers of less than 40 kilog.; for quantities of 500 gr. or less the container may be of glass).
Hydrofluoric acid.
Phosphorus, amorphous, red phosphorus.
Iron oxalate, ferrous oxalate.
Iodine.
Cadmium bromide, bromide of cadmium.
Cadmium iodide, iodide of cadmium.
Calcium bromide, bromide of calcium.
Calcium iodide, iodide of calcium.
Pottasium hydrate. (See under Caustic potash.)
Potassium bromide, bromide of potash.
Potassium iodate, iodate of potash.
Potassium iodide, iodide of potash.
Potassium oxalate, neutral and acid.
Potassium perchlorate, perchlorate of potash.
Caustic Soda. (See above.)
Copper acetate, verdigris.
Copper nitrate, nitrate of copper.
Cobalt chloride, chloride of cobalt.
Chromic acid.
Lithium hydrate, caustic lithia.
Sodium bromide, bromide of soda.
Sodium iodide, iodide of soda.
Sodium oxalate, oxalate of soda.
Sodium hydrate. (See under Caustic soda).
Oxalic acid.
Pyridine.
Zinc chloride, chloride of zinc.
Strontium bromide, bromide of strontium.
Strontium iodate, iodate of strontium.
Corbon disulphide.
Liver of sulphur.

[SCHEDULE C relates to goods which may be sold practically without restriction. The following articles from Schedule C have been prohibited to be exported and are included specifically in the list on pages 1—4, viz., absolute alcohol, citric acid and its salts, tartaric acid, collodion, chemically pure hydrochloric acid, chemically pure sulphuric acid, lactic acid, formaldehyde solution and other formaldehyde preparations, balsam of Peru, wool-fat (all kinds), vaseline and vaseline oil.]

Information has been received, while this list was in the press, that certain further goods (brownstone, graphite, galvanic elements, gum-lac, vegetable dyestuffs, and certain potash salts) have been prohibited to be exported from Sweden.

A revised point of this list will be issued as soon as a copy of the Swedish Decree imposing these further prohibitions is received.—Board of Trade, June 24, 1915.

SWEDEN.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORT OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

June 23, 1915.

NOTES.

1. A Swedish Royal Decree of the 9th January, 1915, definitively prohibited the transit through Sweden of arms, ammunition, and other war material. The articles to which this prohibition of transit applies are indicated by a cross (×) in the list printed below.

2. The numbers and letters quoted below relate to the headings of the "Statistical Index of Goods" under which the prohibited articles fall.

The numbers are the same as those of the Swedish Customs Tariff*; the letters indicate the sub-divisions of the numbers, and are found only in the "Statistical Index"—which is considerably more detailed in classification than the Customs Tariff.

ex 1258	Acetylsalycilicacid.
	Acids:—See under the respective headings—Acetylsalycilic, Carbolic, Citric, Hydrobromic and hydroiodic Olein, etc., Salicylic, Sulphuric, Tannic, Tartaric.
ex 1258	Adrenaline and salts and preparations thereof.
ex 1250	Agar-agar.
1196	Alizarine and aniline dyes, and other tar colours, not specially mentioned in the Statistical Index. (See also Indigo, synthetic, and under Aniline and Tar colours).
ex 1258	Aloes.
ex 953	Aluminium and wares thereof. (See under Copper.)
ex 1258	Alypin.
1196	Aniline and alizarine dyes, and other tar colours, not speciallly mentioned in the Statistical Index. (See also Indigo, synthetic,
1197	Aniline oil, napthol, napthylamine, and paranitraniline and salts thereof.
	Animals living. (See under Horses, Oxen, Pigs).
	Animals, cloven footed, and meat therefrom [export prohibited to Denmark only]. [See Note to heading for meat.]
ex 1258	Antifebrine.
ex 953†	Antimony, unmanufactured or in the rough, also scrap.
ex 1258	Antipyrine (phenyldimethylic pyrazolone).
ex 1258	Arecoline and its salts.
×	Arms. (See under War Materials and Weapons.)
	Articles of sheet iron. (See iron sheets.)
230 G	Aspenwood, unmanufactured.
ex 1258	Atropine and its salts.
	Balata, unworked. (See under Rubber.)
ex 1178 D	Balsam of Peru.
	Bandaging articles, with the exception of cellulose wadding, bandage gauze, charpie, and preparations thereof.
ex 764½	Barbed wire.
232 A, ex 232 C ‡	Bark—fir bark, and other bark, not specially mentioned, used for tanning. (See also Cinchona bark and Sagrada bark.)
	Barley. (See under Cereals.)
ex 168 F and 168 E	Beans and peas preserved in hermetically closed or air-tight receptacles. [Beans and peas, other—see under Cereals, unground.]
ex 1256 A and B	Binoculars, telescopes, and fieldglasses (kikarey), and parts thereof.
	Biscuits. (See under Bread.)

‡ 232 B [not prohibited] relates to cork bark.

ex 953, ex 1258 and ex 1259	Bismuth and bismuth compounds.
ex 401 and ex 552 C	Blankets (woollen), in the piece or shaped in manufacture, even if hemmed or bordered.
	Bone-fat. (See under Fats, animal.)
ex 209—211	Boots (men's boots of greased leather).
84 A-F	Bran (of oats, wheat, maize, rice, rye, and other kinds).
	Brass, bronze, and other copper alloys. (See under Copper.)
148 A-B	Bread, etc.—small fancy bread, pastry, cakes, gingerbread, and other similar bakers' wares, not being preserves.
149 A-B	Bread, not specially mentioned (including dog biscuits).
	Briquetts. (See under Coal.)
1145 H, ex 1258, ex 1259	Bromine, potassium bromide, sodium bromide, ammonium bromide, and other inorganic bromides, also bromates; organic bromide compounds.
ex 1258	Bromural and preparations thereof.
ex 1258	Caffeine and salts, combinations and preparations thereof.
ex 73 B	Calves' stomachs.
ex 1216	Camphor, refined.
×	Cannon, howitzers, mortars, etc. (See under War Materials.)
ex 1176	Carbolic acid, cresol and metacresol.
	Carriages and vehicles, and parts thereof, viz.:—
1098 F. ×	Carriages and vehicles without motors, for carrying goods. (The transit of these articles through Sweden has been definitively prohibited. See Note 1 on p. 1089.)
1098 G. H. ×	Carriages and vehicles, with motors, for carrying passengers or goods. (The transit of these articles through Sweden has been definitively prohibited. See Note on p. 1089.)
ex 1098 I	Frames for carriages and vehicles (without motors) for carrying goods; frames for carriages and vehicles (with motors), for carrying passengers or goods.
ex 1098 K	Wheels for automobiles.
	[NOTE.—The prohibition of export of motor carriages and vehicles applies also to unspecified parts of such carriages and vehicles.]
×	Cartridges, etc. (See under gunpowder.)
	Castor oil. (See under oils, vegetable, fatty.)
ex 1325, ex 1298	Catgut; cords of catgut.
	Cattle foods. (See under oilcake, and feeding stuffs.)
ex 374 F	Cattle hair.
	Cattle hides. (See hides).
74 A—E; 75 A—F; 76; 77; 78	Cereals, unground:—(rye, wheat, barley, peas and beans, (including soya beans), oats, vetches, malt (even if crushed), maize, and other cereals, unground.
79 A—K	Cereals, ground:—Flour and groats of oats, wheat, barley, maize, rye, and other cereals, including flour of arrowroot and other vegetables not specified under any other heading of the Statistical Index.
1099 L	Ceresine.
ex 1258	Chloral hydrate.
ex 1258	Chlorides—ethyl chloride and methyl chloride; cocaine chloride.
ex 1258	Chloroform.

ex 953*	Chrome, unmanufactured or in the rough, also scrap.
ex 1285—1286	Chronometer, watches.
1290	Chronometers, ships.
ex 1258	Cinchona bark.
ex 1140	Citric acid and tartaric acid.
41 A—K†	Coal—anthracite, gas-coal and coke-coal, steam-coal, and other coal; peat; coke; wood charcoal; briquettes (of coal or peat); other fuel not specially mentioned [not including unmanufactured retort carbon].
	Coal-tar dyes. (See under Tar colours.)†
ex 1258	Coca leaves.
ex 1258	Cocaine chloride.
	Cocoa butter; coconut oil. (See under fats, vegetable.)
	Codeine. (See under morphine.)
ex 1258	Colchicine; colchicum seeds (semen colchici) and preparations thereof.
1178 A, ex D	Colopheny; common turpentine resin.
ex 953*	Copper and alloys thereof with zinc, tin, and other non-precious metal, such as brass, bronze, German silver, Britannia metal, also aluminium, nickel, chrome, and antimony:—
897 A—E and ex F	Unmanufactured or in the rough [with the exception of refined copper produced from raw material (not from scrap) at a Swedish refinery‡].
ex 897 G	Copper anodes, cast, even if with ears.
897 H	Scrap.
	Copper and alloys thereof with zinc, tin, and other non-precious metal, such as brass, bronze, German silver, Britannia metal; also aluminium:—
	Manufactures, viz:—
	Sheets and hoops:
	Of a thickness of at least 0·2 mm:
898 and 899	Rolled or pressed, even if with sheared edges (rectangular, and other kinds).
900	Hammered, bent, bell-shaped, with turned-up edges, including × cup-shaped materials for making cartridges, etc., provided with holes, polished or otherwise worked, and not falling under No. 901. (The transit through Sweden of cup-shaped materials of copper and brass for making cartridges has been definitively prohibited. See Note 1 on p. 1089.)
901	Less than 0·2 mm. thick; also perforated sheets, including so-called strainer plates.
902 and 903	Rods (even if in bundles or coils), rolled, drawn, hammered or profile pressed, but not further worked, whatever be the shape of the section.
904	Solder, moulded, crushed, or granulated.

* No. 953 provides that aluminium, nickel, and metals not specially mentioned in the Index (alone or in compositions) are to be assimilated to copper. At present aluminium and aluminium wares of the kinds specified in Nos. 897—910 and 923 and 924 are prohibited to be exported; but nickel, antimony, and chrome are only prohibited if in the unmanufactured or rough state, or in scrap.

† 41 L [not prohibited] relates to unmanufactured retort carbon.

‡ His Majesty's Minister at Stockholm has been informed that this exception applies solely to copper imported from Norway and refined at Helsingborg. (The quantity refined at Helsingborg in 1913 was about 7,000 tons, and the quantity exported about 1,300 tons.)

905	Nails and rivets; also bolts, wormed or not.
906 and 907	Pipes and tubes, whatever be the shape of the section, even if turned on the exterior and interior.
908-910 *	Wire, rolled or drawn, whatever be the shape of the section; including so-called trolley wire (contact wire).
923 and 924	Woven wire (gauze, wire tissue, etc.)
	Copper and alloys thereof with zinc, tin, and other non-precious metal, such as brass, bronze, German silver, Britannia metal:
912	Wire twisted into cords or cables, not insulated.
913-914	Wire furnished with sheath of lead or other metal, with or without armouring, even if in combination with other materials; also electric cables or lines with similar sheaths, with or without armouring.
915-918	Wire insulated with rubber, gutta-percha, etc., even if in combination with other materials; also electric cables, lines, and cords insulated in this way.
919-920	Wire insulated with textile materials, paper, asbestos, or varnish, even if in combination with other materials; also electric cables, lines, and cords insulated in this way.
921	Wire, electric cables, lines, and cords, insulated in any other way.
474	Cotton uncarded (even if bleached, dyed or chemically cleaned).
476	Cotton waste.
	Cotton-seed cake (see under Oilcake); cotton-seed oil (see under Oils, vegetable, fatty).
	Cresol and metacresol. (See under Carbolic acid.)
ex 660	Crucibles of graphite composition.
	Degras. (See under Fats, animal.)
ex 1258	Diethylmalonylurea (veronal) and its salts.
ex 1258	Digitalis leaves and preparations thereof, such as digalin and digitotal.
140	Dripping (rendered fat).
ex 1258	Duboisin and its salts and combinations.
	Dyes (coal-tar). (See under Aniline, Indigo, Tar colours.)
	× Dynamite and other explosives. (See under Gunpowder.)
	Earthnuts and earthnut cake (see under Oil-cake); earthnut oil (see under Oils, vegetable, fatty).
	Eggs.†
ex 1087 D	Electro-magnetic igniting apparatus for motor ignition, detached.
	Emetic salt [tartras stibico-kalicus].
1100 C	Engine and cart grease.
ex 1258	Epinephrine and salts and preparations thereof.
ex 1258	Epirenine and salts and preparations thereof.
ex 1258	Ethyl chloride and methyl chloride.
ex 1258	Eucaine.
	× Explosives. (See under Gunpowder.)

* No. 911 [not prohibited] relates to gilt or silvered wire.

† The export of eggs is prohibited from 16th June to 16th August 1915.

1109 F—I	Fats:—Animal fats* not specified elsewhere in the Statistical Index, such as spermaceti, blubber of marine animals, bone-fat; wool-fat, also lanoline; degras (tanners' fat). (See also under Dripping, Tallow, Oleomargarine, Margarine.)
1108 A—D	Fats:—Vegetable fats, such as palm oil, palm-nut oil, cocoanut oil, cocoa butter, Japan wax, and other vegetable fatty substances, which under ordinary temperatures do not as a rule assume a liquid form.
105 A—D	Feeding stuffs (cattle foods), not specially mentioned, such as brewers' grains and wash, gluten food, meal of maize cakes and of other oil cakes and maize-germ meal, even if with admixture of animal substances. (See also Oilcake.)
707 B and C	Ferrochrome; ferromanganese and spiegeleisen.
ex 1265 A and C	Fieldglasses, telescopes, and binoculars, (kikare) and parts thereof.
	× Firearms. (See Weapons.)
417 A—B, ex G, H	Flax, hackled or not; flax waste; flax tow.
	Flour of cereals and of arrowroot, etc. (see under Cereals, ground); rice flour (see Rice).
1184	Formalin in solid form (paraformaldehyde).
	Fuel. (See under Coal.)
	Furriers' goods, viz:—
ex 222	Not dressed—of dogs, [reindeer]†, wolves, or common sheep.
ex 223	Dressed, loose—of dogs, [reindeer]†, wolves, or common sheep.
ex 226	Dressed skins, sewn together, and partly manufactured articles, such as linings—of dogs, reindeer, wolves, or common sheep.
ex 228	Finished articles having fur for their covering or lining, such as caps, muffs, boas, fur coats, cloaks, and carriage aprons—of dogs, reindeer, wolves, or common sheep.
ex 1249	Gelatine for bacteriological use.
	Gloves, woollen, for men. (See under Woollen goods.)
1112 A and B ×	Glycerine, raw or purified. (The transit of glycerine through Sweden has been definitively prohibited. See Note 1 on p. 1089.) ex 966 A and 968	Gold ingots; gold coin.‡
ex 660	Graphite crucibles.
1100 C	Grease (engine and cart grease).
	Groats of cereals (see under Cereals, brround); rice groats (see Rice).
82 A and B	Groats, not specially mentioned (sago and other groats).
1231-1238 ×	Gunpowder, common (1231); gun-cotton (1232); smokeless powder (1233); dynamite and other explosives not specially mentioned (1234); detonating caps (ignition caps) (1235); igniting material not specially mentioned, for projectiles and guns, such as percussion and precipitation fuses, time fuses, double fuses, detonators aud primers (1236); cartridges not specially mentioned, (loaded or not) (1237); safety fuse and blasting fuse (1238). (The transit of these articles through Sweden has been definitely prohibited. See Note 1 on p. 1089.)

* It is understood that the prohibitions of export now in force apply to all animal fats, without exception. [April 10, 1915.]

† Until further notice, undressed reindeer skins and dressed (loose) reindeer skins may be exported [April 30, 1915].

‡ Travellers may take with them 200 kr. in gold and silver coin.

	Gutta-percha, unworked. (See under Rubber.)
ex 314, ex 1258	Gutta-percha paper; gutta-percha plasters (mercurial and mercurial-carbolic).
ex 374 F	Hair of cattle.
91 A and B	Hay and straw.
417 C—D, ex G, I	Hemp, hackled or not; hemp waste; hemp tow.
	Hemp oil (see under Oils, vegetable, fatty); hemp-seed cake (see under Oilcake).
ex 1258	Hexamethylinetetramin (urotropin, formin, aminoform) and its salts.
	Hides and skins which cannot be classed as furriers' goods, not dressed, viz:—cattle hides:—
ex 198 E	Fresh or salted—not cleaned, weighing more than 14 kilog. each, and cleaned or divided, of any weight.
ex 198 F and ex 198 G.	Dry or limed—not cleaned, weighing more than 3 kilog. each, and cleaned or divided, of any weight.
	Hides and skins which cannot be classed as furriers' goods, dressed and partly dressed; viz:—
	Sole and insole leather, and walrus and hippopotamus hide:
199 A—C	Bend leather, cleaned.
199 D	Leather for machine beltings.
200 A—D	Whole and half hides, and pieces thereof, not coming under No. 199.
	Other kinds:—
201 A—C	In pieces weighing at least 1 kilog. net per article* (even if coloured or varnished).
49 and 50	Horses (including foals, stallions, etc.).
ex 1258	Hydrastis root and preparations thereof.
ex 1259	Hydrobromic and hydro-iodic acids.
1169	Hydrogen, peroxide of.
1194 B	Indigo synthetic.
1260 E	Instruments, nautical of all kinds.
	[For other instruments, of which the export is prohibited, see under the respective heading, e.g., Range finders, telescopes, chronometers, Thermometers.]
1145 I, ex 1258, ex 1259	Iodine, potassium iodide, sodium iodide, ammonium iodide, and other inorganic iodide salts; also organic iodide compounds.
ex 1258	Iodoform.
ex 1258	Ipecacuanha root.
741	Iron plates or sheets, cut or uncut, coated with pure tin or with tin containing lead.
754 B	Iron plates or sheets, articles of, not specially mentioned in the Index—other kinds,† weighing less than 1 kilog. net per article.
874	Iron scrap (scrap of pig iron and of malleable iron).
	Jerseys, Iceland; men's jerseys (not underwear) of hosiery tissue. (See Woollen goods.)
417 E, ex G	Jute and jute waste.
	Jute sacks. (See Sacks.)
	Jute tissues, without admixture of any other textile:—
446 and 447	Sacking and pack cloth, unbleached and undyed.
448	Other kinds.
	Jute yarn, without admixture of any other textile (unbleached, bleached, dyed, printed):—
421 and 422	Single.

* Such leather, in pieces weighing less than 1 kilog. net per article, falls under Nos. 202 and 203, and is not prohibited.

† I.e., other than gilt or silvered, enamelled, coated with nickel, copper, brass, or bronze, or lacquered, and other than parts of machines.

423—425	Of two or more strands.
	Lanoline. (See under Fats, animal.)
57 A and B	Lard, natural or artificial.
	Lard oil. (See under Oils, animal.)
ex 1006-1011	Leathes for working metals.
ex 2 F	Lead ore.
932 A and B ×	Lead, unmanufactured, or scrap. (The transit of manufactured or scrap lead through Sweden has been definitively prohibited. See Note 1 on p. 1089.)
	Lead, manufactured :—
933 A—C	Sheets, pipes and parts of pipes, wire and lines, also rods, and lead wool.
934 ×	Shot and bullets. (The transit of these articles through Sweden has been definitively prohibited. See Note 1 on p. 1089.)
	Leather (dressed hides). (See under Hides.)
	Leather and skin : pieces, stamped or cut out, but not further manufactured, not specially mentioned :—
206 A and B	Of sole or insole leather, also backs of horsehides and parts thereof.
	Other kinds :—
207 A and B	Lacquered, or of gold or silver leather.
208 A and B	Other, including also bands, even if pieced together (uppers for boots, and other kinds).
	Leather manufactures. (See Boots, and Saddlers' goods.)
	Linseed cake (see under Oilcake) ; linseed oil and linseed oil acid (see under Oils, vegetable, fatty).
ex 1206	Litmus.
1100 D and E	Lubricants :— Lubricating oils consisting of a mixture of fatty oil and mineral oil, provided the latter is the chief component ; also other lubricating substance, not specially mentioned, containing fat or oil. [See also Vaseline, Oils (mineral), and Grease.]
ex 1258	Luminal.
ex 1125	Lysol (cresol soap solution).
82 C	Macaroni and vermicelli.
ex 3 H	Magnesite.
650 C	Magnesite bricks.
	Maize (see under Cereals) ; maize oil (see under Oils, vegetable, fatty).
	Malt, even if crushed. (See under Cereals, unground.)
139	Margarine (artificial butter).
ex 1178 D, ex 1117, ex 1119	Mastic and mastic preparations.
	Meal of cereals (see under Cereals, ground) ; of rice (see under Rice) ; of oilcake (see under Feeding stuffs).
	Meat of cloven-footed animals [export prohibited to Denmark only].
	[NOTE.—By " meat " is understood both meat in the ordinary sense and other parts of cloven-footed animals serviceable for human food, but the term does not include guts or meat preserved by thorough boiling and exported in hermetically closed receptacles.]
ex 1167, ex 1258, ex 1259	Mercury and salts thereof ; preparations thereof for medicinal use, e.g., mercurial and mercurial-carbolic gutta-percha plasters.
ex 1006-1011	Metal-working lathes.
ex 1258	Methyl chloride and ethyl chloride.
	Mineral oils. (See Oils, mineral.)
1099 K	Mineral wax (ozokerite).

ex 1258	Morphine and other products of opium, such as codeine, etc.
×	Motor-cars and parts thereof. (See under Carriages.)
1092 and 1093 ×	Motor-cycles, finished, and parts thereof, not specially mentioned.* (The transit of these articles through Sweden has been definitively prohibited. See Note 1 on p. 1089.)
	Naphthol, naphthylamine, paranitraniline and its salts. (See under Aniline oil.)
1260 E	Nautical instruments of all kinds.
ex 1258	Neosalvarsan and Salvarsan.
ex 953†	Nickel, unmanufactured or in the rough, also scrap.
ex 1258	Novocaine.
417 K	Oakum.
	Oats. (See under Cereals.)
	Oil of turpentine. (See Turpentine oil.)
104 A—L	Oilcake (cotton seed cake, hemp seed cake, earthnut cake, linseed cake, rape and turnip seed cake, soya-bean cake, sunflower seed cake, and other oilcake); cakes made of maize flour pressed together; acorns, ground or not; also arachides or earthnuts. (See also Feeding stuffs.)
1109 B—E	Oils:—Animal oils (such as train-oil, sperm-oil, lard-oil, and other kinds).
	Oils, lubricating. (See under Lubricants.)
1099 A—G	Oils:—Mineral oils, native or crude [petroleum waste (massut) and other kinds]; mineral oils, purified (illuminating oils, lubricating oils, light or dark, petroleum benzine, and gasolene and other kinds).
	Oils:—Vegetable fatty oils:—
1102 and 1103	Linseed oil, raw or boiled, also linseed oil acid;
1104	Turnip and rape-seed oil, also turnip and rape-seed oil acids.
1105 A—D and 1106 A, B	Olive oil, earthnut or arachides oil, sesame oil and cotton-seed oil.
1107 A—C	Other kinds of vegetable fatty oil, not falling under any other heading in the Statistical Index, such as castor oil, hemp oil, maize oil, and soya-bean oil.
	[For solid vegetable oils (palm oil, etc.) see under Fats.]
1110	Olein and other fatty acids not specially mentioned in the Statistical Index‡. [See also under Oils, vegetable, fatty (Nos. 1130 and 1104).]
61	Oleomargarine.
ex 1324 and ex 1258	Opium, opium tincture, and other preparations of opium for medicinal purposes. (See also Morphine.)
51 B	Oxen.
1099 K	Ozokerite (mineral wax).
	Palm oil, palm nut oil. (See under Fats, vegetable.)
1099 H and I	Paraffin, crude or purified.
1184	Paraformaldehyde (formalin in solid form).
ex 1258	Paranephrin and salts and preparations thereof.
	Paranitranilline and its satls. (See under Aniline oil).
168 E ex 168 F	Peas and beans preserved in hermetically closed or airtight receptacles. [Peas and beans, other—see under Cereals.]
ex 147	Peptone for bacteriological use.
1169	Peroxide of hydrogen.

* Unspecified rubber parts of motor cycles (parts of pedals, etc.) come under No. 642, and do not appear to be prohibited. (See, however, under Rubber for tyres, inner tubes, etc.)

‡ This does not include stearic acid (stearin), which comes under No. 1111, and is not prohibited.

ex 698	Petri dishes (s. k. petriskalar).
	Petrol and petroleum. (See under Oils, mineral.)
ex 1258	Phenacetin.
ex 1258	Physostigmin.
53 A and B	Pigs.
ex 830-833	Pincers and shears fot cutting wire:
ex 1145 H and I, ex 1259	Potassium bromide and potassium iodide: permanganate of potash.
94-96	Potatoes (even if cut and dried).
83 C	Potato starch.
ex 183 C and 184 D	Potato spirit.
	Premier jus. (See under Tallow.)
	× Projectiles. (See under War material.)
ex 1258	Proponal.
ex 1258	Pyramidon (dimetylamino-antipyrine).
	Quicksilver and salts thereof. (See under Mercury.)
ex 1258	Quinine, quinine salts, and quinine combinations.
1323 A	Rags.
ex 1260	Range-finders and parts thereof.
	Rape-seed cake (see under Oilcake); rape-seed oil and rape-seed oil acid (see under Oils, vegetable, fatty).
ex 1178 D	Resin (common turpentine resin). (See also Colophany, Mastic, Styrax.)
ex 1258	Rhizoma veratri (white hellebore root).
ex 1258	Rhubarb root, medicinal, and preparations thereof.
80	*Rice, unhusked, or with the outer husk only removed.
81 A and B	*Rice ground (groats and flour).
631	Rubber, guttapercha and balata, raw; also so-called reclaimed rubber.
648	Rubber waste and worn-out articles of rubber.
	Rubber articles for medical or hygienic use.
ex 545	Rubber (elastic) bandages (kautschukshafta).
	Rubber—manufactures of soft rubber:—
636 A	Solid tyres, even if in lengths.
639 A	Inner tubes, unfitted, not joined, without valve patches and valves.
ex 642 A	Tyres, and parts thereof, for cycles and motor-cycles.
ex 642 B	Inner tubes for cycles and motor-cycles, in (plain) rings, or fitted with a valve or provided with hole or support for inserting a valve.
ex 643	Motor-car tyres and parts thereof, of soft rubber, alone or in combination with other materials.
	Rye. (See under Cereals.)
ex 555	Sacks of jute tissue, evidently used and worn out.
ex 556 B	Sacks of jute tissue (other than those evidently used and worn out), other than so-called dropping sacks.

ex 1258	Sagrada bark (cascara sagrada) and preparations thereof.
1141, ex 1258 and ex 1259	Salicylic acid and salicylic acid salts.
ex 1258	Salipyrine (antipyrine salicylate).

* His Majesty's Minister at Stockholm reports that all rice is included in the export prohibitions [April 29, 1915.] (For rice bran, see under Bran; rice starch is not prohibited.)

1145 A—C	Salt, common (chloride of sodium):—rock salt in pieces or ground, marine salt, saline salt (so-called dairy salt), and table salt.
ex 1258	Salvarsan and neo-salvarson.
ex 1258	Santonin and preparations thereof.
ex 1258	Scopolamine (hyoscine) and its salts.
	Scrap iron (see under Iron); scrap tin (see under Tin); lead scrap (see under Lead); scrap of copper or copper alloys, aluminium, nickel, chrome, or antimony (see under Copper); Scrap Zinc (see under Zinc); scrap rubber (see under Rubber).
ex 1258	Senega root.
ex 1258	Senna pods (foculi sennæ), senna leaves.
ex 1258	Serums and vaccine for medicinal and diagnostic use.
	Sesame oil. (See under Oils, vegetable, fatty).
ex 830-833	Shears and pincers for cutting wires.
	Sheepskins. (See under Furriers' goods.)
ex 355	Silk for surgical use.
ex 970 A and 974	Silver ingots; silver coin.*
	Skins—of cattle (see Hides); of dogs, reindeer,† wolves or common sheep (see Furriers' goods).
ex 273	Ski staves, of cane.
ex 251 and ex 257-262	Skis and ski staves, of wood.
ex 1125	Soap solution of cresol (lysol).
ex 1145 H and I	Sodium bromide and sodium iodide.
ex 147 A	Soap squares.
	Soya-beans (see under Cereals); soya-bean cake (see under Oilcake); soya-bean oil. (See under Oils, vegetable, fatty.)
	Sperm oil. (See under Oils, animal.)
	Spermaceti. (See under Fats, animal.)
707 B and C	Spiegeleisen and ferromanganese; ferrochrome.
	Stockings, woollen, for men. (See under Woollen goods.)
83 C	Starch (potato).
ex 755-758	Steel tubes for sharpnel.
ex 880-890 and ex 894-896	Steel tubes for rifle barrels.
ex 885-896	Steel, turned, for shells.
ex 73 B	Stomachs of calves.
91 A and B	Straw and hay.
ex 1178 D	Styrax, crude or refined.
ex 1258	Sublimate pastilles.
ex 183 I and ex 184 D	Sulphite spirit.
1129 A	Sulphur.
1132	Sulphuric acid and sulphuric anhydride.
ex 1258	Suprarenine and salts and preparations thereof.
ex 1260	Suture needles.
53 A and B	Swine.
60 A—C	Tallow, including premier jus and compressed tallow.
ex 1243	Tannic acid.
1242 A—M	Tanning materials, vegetable, such as oak-bark, myrobalans, and quebracho wood, whole or in pieces, grated, ground or otherwise divided, and tanning extracts, liquid or solid; also gallnuts. (See also under Bark.)
	Tar colours. (See under Aniline, and Indigo, synthetic.)

* Travellers may take with them 200 kr. in gold and silver coin.

† Until further notice, undressed reindeer skins and dressed (loose) reindeer skins may be exported [April 30, 1915.]

1198-1199	Tar colours and dyestuff extracts with the addition of solvents and mordants, such as acetic acid, acetin, tannic acid, or alum or other mettalic salt.
ex 1140	Tartaric acid and citric acid.
ex 1160	Tartras stibico-kalicus (emetic salt).
ex 1265 A and C	Telescopes, fieldglasses and binoculars. (kikare) and parts thereof.
ex 1258	Theobromine and salts and preparations thereof.
ex 1267	Thermometers (clinical).
230 G	Timber, unmanufactured, of aspen.
939	Tin, unmanufactured, also scrap.
940	Tin, manufactured—pipes and parts thereof (except pipes, of the dimensions of wire, containing soldering paste), sheets, wire, and rods.
	Tinplates and articles thereof. (See Iron plates.)
	Tissues of wool. (See Woollen tissues.)
×	Torpedoes. (See War materials).
417 H and I	Tow of flax and hemp.
ex 1258	Tropacocaine and salts and preparations thereof.
ex 755-758	Tubes (steel) for sharpnel.
ex 880-890 and ex 894-896	Tubes steel) for rifle-barrels. [for tubes (pipes) of copper, lead, tin, etc., see under the respective metal.]
ex 1181	Turpentine oil (except that produced in Sweden, as shown by certificate of origin).
	Tyres (rubber). (See under Rubber.)
ex 1258	Vaccines and serums for use in medicine and diagnosis.
1100 A and B	Vaseline (even if artificial.)
82 C	Vermicelli and macaroni.
ex 1258	Veronal (diethylmalonylurea) and its salts.
872 873 A—G ×	War material, not specially mentioned in the Statistical Index, and parts thereof:—Armour plate; cannon, howitzers, and mortars, and sights and other aiming appliances belonging thereto; projectiles; cartridge cases (empty, or filled with ammunition ready for use); gun carriages, limber carriages, and ammunition waggons; torpedoes, and other war material. (The transit of these articles through Sweden has been definitively prohibited. See Note 1 on p. 1089.) [See also Steel tubes for sharpnel, and Steel, turned, for shells.]
	Wax. (See Paraffin, Ozokerite, Ceresine, and Fats, vegetable.)
	Weapons:—
837 and 838 ×	Foils, sabres, cutlasses, bayonets, swords and similar weapons (with or without the scabbards belonging to them), also parts thereof—even gilt, silvered, nickelled, or etched. (The transit of these articles through Sweden has been difinitively prohibited. See Note 1 on p. 1089.)
871 B*, D, E ×	Revolvers and pistols, machine-guns and battery guns without carriages; and other firearms of all kinds [except sporting firearms and air and spring guns]; also finished parts of such arms. (The transit of these articles through Sweden has been definitively prohibited. See Note 1 on p. 1089.) [See also steel tubes for rifle-barrels.]
	Wheat. (See under Cereals.)

* 871 A [not prohibited] relates to sporting firearms, and 871 C [not prohibited] to air and spring guns.

ex 764½	Wire barbed. [For wire of copper, tin, led, etc., see under the respective metals.]
ex 830-833	Wire-cutting shears and shears and pincers.
230 G	Wood (aspen), unmanufactured.
374 A—D	Wool (sheep and lambs')* undyed and dyed (combed and other).
375 A and B	Wool, artificial (shoddy) and (mungo), undyed and dyed.
375 C	Wool waste, including so-called wood dust, undyed or dyed.
	Wool-fat. (See under Fats, animal.)
ex 401 and ex 552 C	Woollen blankets, in the piece, or shaped in manufacture, even if hemmed and bordered.
	Woollen goods :—
ex 412	Men's woollen stockings.

DENMARK.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

June 29, 1915.

NOTES.

1. As regards goods in transit and transhipment goods (in the Copenhagen free port and all other Danish harbours), all such goods, if of a kind prohibited to be exported from Denmark, are covered by the prohibition unless they are on a thorough bill of lading to a port in a foreign (non-Danish) country.

The prohibition is therefore applicable in cases where the goods are either shipped to a Danish port "to order," or where the goods are redestined to another port than the one originally mentioned in the bill of lading (unless it is only a question of redestination to another port in the same country).

2. According to an official notice published in the "Berlingske Tidende" of the 12th February, 1915, permissions to export granted by the Ministry of Justice are valid only for one month from the day on which permission was granted, unless other conditions are determined in the permit itself.

Aluminium (see Materials, raw); aluminium salts.
Ammonia sulphate (see Manures).
Ammunition of all kinds, and distinctive component parts thereof.
Aniline and aniline combinations (see Tar colours).
Antimony (see Materials, raw); alloys of antimony.
Arms (see Weapons).
Artificial manures (see Manures).
Asbestos (see Materials, raw).
Bandaging and dressing materials (including tarred jute and hygroscopic cotton).
Barbed wire.
Barley (included under Cereals).
Beans (see Fodder-stuffs).
Benzine (petrol); benzol.
Bilberries, dried.
Bones, raw and calcined, bone dust (see Manures; bonefat and bone-oil (see Lubricants).
Bran (see Fodder-stuffs).
Brass plates, brass bars, old brass scrap (see Materials, raw).
Bread (see Flour).
Cables, electric.
Candles (paraffin candles).
Carrots (see Fodder-stuffs).
Cattle-foods (see Fodder-stuffs).
Cereals.
Chrome ore.
Clover seed.
Coal and coke.
Cocoanut yarn and cordage made thereof.
Colours (tar colours) and organic ingredients for producing tar colours, including aniline and aniline combinations.
Copper ore and slag derived therefrom.
Copper of all kinds, old and new,* copper scrap (see Materials, raw).
Copper vitriol (copper sulphate.)
Copra.
Cordage made of hemp, jute, or cocoanut yarn.
Corn offals (see Fodder-stuffs).
Cotton and cotton yarn; cotton waste (cleaning waste).

* The term "copper" includes all kinds of copper, also manufactured copper [December 4, 1914].

Cotton seed.
Cresol and metacresol.
Crucibles (graphite).
Dressings (see Bandages).
Driving-belts of leather.
Drugs of all kinds (all goods specified in the Decree of 1st August, 1914, containing regulations respecting goods dealt in by apothecaries,* with the exception of soap, perfumes, ordinary retail skin cream and powder).
Dyes (tar dyes) (see Tar colours).
Earth nuts.
Electric cables.
Explosives and gunpowder, as well as raw materials for their manufacture (including sulphur, sulphuric acid, saltpetre [including Chile saltpetre] nitric acid and glycerine).
Ferrochrome; ferromanganese; ferromolybdenum; ferronickel; ferrosilicon; ferrotitanium; ferrotungsten; ferrovanadium.
Flour (including bread of all kinds).
Fodder-stuffs (including oil-cakes, hay, straw, malt-germs, crushed soya beans, bran, corn offals, carrots, swedes, bloodmeal, blood feeding cake, peas [both cooking and fodder pease] beans, and lentils).
†Fuel-stuffs (coal, coke, petroleum of all kinds, benzine, and other materials for fuel).
Glycerine [see Lubricants and explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Gold and silver coin ‡ or bars (including foreign coinage of gold and silver,‡ silver in plates and gold in leaves).
Graphite and graphite crucibles.
Groats (including maizena, sago groats, rice groats, and buckwheat groats).
Gunpowder (see explosives).
Haematite iron ore, haematite pig iron, iron pyrites "svovlkis" and "jernkis").
Hay (see Fodder-stuffs).
Hemp, raw, and cordage and yarn made thereof.
Hides (raw, cattle-hides, and salted calf-skins of at least 8 kilogrammes salted weight, and dried calf-skins of at least 4 kilogrammes each).
Hides and skins, prepared (except goat-skins).
Horses, including foals and colts.
Instruments and apparatus, designed exclusively for the manufacture of munitions of war or for the manufacture or repair of arms or materials for warfare by land or sea.

Lubricants (including lubricating oils, vaseline, glycerine, and bonefat and bone-oil).

Maize (included under Cereals).
Malt and malt-germs.
Manganese and manganese ore.

*Manures:—Manufactured artificial manures, including superphosphates, blood manure, bone dust, sulphate of ammonia, and raw materials for the manufacture of manure, including raw and calcined bones, and gas water.
Margarine.

Materials, raw, for building or repairing iron or steel ships, as also for the manufacture of arms or ammunition (including all aluminium, antimony, asbestos, lead of all kinds, old and new, tinned or galvanised iron plates, galvanised iron nails for ships' use, copper of all kinds, old and new, brass plates, brass bars, old brass, unwrought nickel, nickle wire, seamless steel tubes (boiler and steam tubes), tin of all kinds, old and new, zinc in blocks or sheets, metal scrap—of brass, copper, gunmetal, and lead).

Materials, raw, for making powder and explosives (including sulphur, sulphuric acid, saltpetre [including Chile saltpetre], nitric acid, and glycerine).
Medicinal stores (see Drugs).
Mineral oils, etc. (see Fuel-stuffs).
Motor spirit (see Fuel-stuffs).

Motor vehicles and motor cycles (including their component parts, also tubes and tyres).

Needles—knitting-machine needles.
Nickel ore.
Nickel, unwrought, nickel wire (see Materials, raw).
Nitric acid [see Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].

Oats (included under Cereals).
Oil-cake (see Fodder-stuffs).
Oils for lubricating and illuminating; oil of turpentine.
Oils, mineral (see Fuel-stuffs).
Oils and stearines, vegetable, for the manufacture of margarine (also compound lard).
Ores:—Chrome ore, copper ore and slag derived therefrom, hæmatite iron ore, manganese ore, nickel ore.

Palmkernels.
Paraffin; paraffin candles.
Pease (both cooking and fodder-pease).
Petroleum of all kinds; petrol.
Pig iron (hæmatite).
Pigs, live.
Pigskins.
Potatoes.

* Raw and pulverised manurial lime are not included within the scope of the prohibition.

Pyrites "svovlkis" and "jernkis."
Rags (woollen and half-woollen).
Raw materials for building or repairing iron or seetl ships, or for the manufacture or repair of arms or ammunition (see Materials, raw).
Resin.
Rice groats.
Rubber goods—cycle inner tubes and covers and other goods principally made of rubber.
Rubber, raw (including rubber solution); reclaimed rubber; rubber waste.
Sacks, empty (cotton and jute); sackcloth of jute.
Saddlemakers' wares of all kinds, in the production of which the workers' wage does not, in the opinion of the Ministry of Justice, amount to at least 30 per cent of the value of the leather employed.
Saltpetre, including Chile saltpetre [see Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Scrap brass, scrap copper, scrap gunmetal, scrap lead (see Materials raw).
Sesame-seed.
Shoddy.
Silver and gold coin* or bullion (including foreign coins*), silver in plates.
Skins (lamb and sheepskins, prepared or not prepared, pigskins).
Soya beans.
Stearine, vegetable, for the manufacture of margarine.
Straw (see Fodder-stuffs).
Sulphate of ammonia (see Manures); sulphate of copper (copper vitriol).
Sulphur and sulphuric acid [see Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Superphosphates (see Manures).
Swedes (see Fodder-stuffs).
Syringes, hand, for medical use.
Tanning materials.
Tapioca.
Tar colours and organic ingredients for producing tar colours, including aniline and aniline combinations.
Thermometers for medical use.
Tin of all kinds, old and new (see Materials, raw).
Tinned or galvanised iron plates (see Materials, raw).
Turpentine oil, rectified and unrectified.
Tyres (covers) and tubes (cycle, motor cycle, and motor vehicles).
Varnish (linseed oil varnish).
Vaseline (see Lubricants).
Vegetable oils and stearines for the manufacture of margarine.
Wastes:—Cotton wastes (cleaning waste); rubber waste.
Weapons of all kinds (including sporting guns, and distinctive component parts thereof).
Wheat (included under Cereals).
Wire, barbed.
Wood, in blocks, beams, and boards.
Wool (sheep and lambs).
Woollen and half-woollen rags and shoddy.
Woollen and worsted yarn.
Woollen goods—woven and knitted woollen tricotage goods, whatever be the proportion of wool contained therein; all woven woollen goods (with the exception of curtain and furniture stuffs and passementerie).
Yarns—woollen and worsted; cotton; hemp; jute; cocoanut.
Zinc in blocks or sheets (see Materials, raw).

*Travellers may carry with them gold and silver coins not exceeding 200 kroner in value.

NETHERLANDS.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORT OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

June 9, 1915.

NOTE.

The Crown reserves to itself the right to grant exceptions in certain cases from the prohibitions of export established by Royal Decree.

A Royal Decree of 28th August 1914, authorised the Netherlands Minister of War in special cases to grant exemptions from any prohibitions to export specified goods which had then been issued or which might in future be issued.

Special bureaux [central bureau] have been established by the Netherlands Government for the regulation of the exportation of certain commodities [butter, cheese, pork]. The commodities in question may only be exported from the Netherlands when accompanied by a special export certificate [uitvoerconsent] issued by the bureau.

Acetone.
Acids—nitric, sulphuric (see also under Medicines, etc.).
Aeroplanes, etc., (see under Flying machines).
Ammonium sulphate, ammonia superphosphate (see Fertilisers).
Ammunition and parts of ammunition.
Arachides, arachides cake, and arachides meal.
Arms, except sporting arms..
Automobiles and parts thereof (including tyres), and motor cycles and parts thereof.
Bacon (spek), fresh, salted, dried, and smoked. (See also under Pork and Meat.)

The prohibition does not apply to exports to Dutch oversea Colonies and Possessions, nor to bacon in railway trains and on ships and boats and intended solely for the use of the persons in such trains or vessels. [3-6-15.]

Bandaging articles and materials therefor (see under Medicines).
Barbed wire (see Wire).
Barley, barley meal, and all articles produced from barley.
Beans (see Pulse).
Beef.

Exception is made to this prohibition in respect of cured beef, and of fresh meat from newborn and fat calves (except newborn heifer calves). [3-6-15]

Beets (sugar beets).
Benzine.
Biscuits, etc., (see under Bread).
Blankets and blanket material, woollen.
Bones; bone-meal, (under Fertilisers).
Brass, bronze, etc., (see Copper and alloys thereof).
Bread, ship and other biscuits, cakes, etc., (all articles produced from wheat and spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, and maize).

The Dutch military authorities are empowered to allow the export of certain quantities of bread for supplying the daily requirements of the inhabitants of foreign territory in the immediate vicinity of the Dutch frontier, if such inhabitants are unable to obtain bread in their own country, or can only do so under very onerous circumstances. [1-1-15.]

Briquettes (except charcoal briquettes).
Buckwheat, buckwheat groats, buckwheat meal, and all other articles produced from buckwheat.
Butter (except butter accompanied by a special export certificate).
Calcium acetate; calcium cyanamide (nitrite of lime) and calcium nitride (lime nitrogen) (see Fertilisers).

Carbonate of potassium, caustic potash (including potash lye), potassium salts.

Carts and carriages for horse traction; motor cars and parts thereof.

Cattle, living.

Cereals and articles produced therefrom (see under the headings for Barley, Buckwheat, Maize, Oats, Rye, Wheat, Bread, Flour, Groats, Macaroni, Malt, and Grain waste).

Cheese (except cheese accompanied by a special export certificate).

Such certificates will be granted in respect of 80-90 per cent of the cheese purchased or produced in the Netherlands—the percentage varying according to the Province and the description of the cheese. [1-5-15.]

Chicory in any form (including chicory roots), and coffee substitutes made from various roots.

Chile saltpetre (see Fertilisers).

Cloth, military, and clothing made therefrom.

Coal; coal tar; coal tar dyes (see under Tar dyestuffs).

Bunker coal may be exported in any ship in a quantity sufficient to carry the ship to its next port of destination. [3-6-15.]

Cocoa beans, raw (including shelled and broken cocoa beans and also cocoa dust, as well as roasted cocoa beans); cocoa paste; cocoa in the lump.

Coffee substitutes made from various roots, including chicory in any form.

Cotton raw.

Cotton seed (see Oilseeds), cotton-seed cake, cotton-seed meal.

Cotton waste; cotton yarn.

Copper and alloys thereof, whether raw or manufactured (unless used as part of any manufactured article of which copper or copper alloy does not constitute a main component part).

The Minister of Finance shall decide whether copper or copper alloy constitutes a "main component part" of any manufactured article. [3-3-15.]

Copper sulphate; copper oxide.

Diuretinum.

Dyestuffs (tar dyestuffs) (see under tar dyestuffs).

Earthnuts, earthnut cake, and earthnut meal.

Electric pocket lamps, parts thereof, and raw materials for the manufacture thereof.

Engine (machine) and lubricating oils.

This prohibition does not apply to Chinese wood oil (obtained from the seeds of aleuritis cordata) ground-nut oil, cotton-seed oil, linseed oil, maize oil, oleic acid, palm-kernel oil, or soya oil. [3-6-15.]

Ether.

Fat:—All melted and unmelted animal fats or mixtures of these fats with each other or with vegetable oils or fats. (See also Tallow.)

A Notice published by the Ministry of Agriculture on the 7th June explained that this prohibition is intended to prevent entirely the export of unmixed fat of cattle and pigs. The exportation of the following articles to a limited extent, under export licenses, will be permitted.

(1) Certain mixtures suitable for use as substitutes of fat of cattle or of pigs;

(2) Certain products of the fat of cattle or pigs, imported into the Netherlands from abroad, e.g., neutral lard, premier jus, oleomargarine, etc.

(3) Animal fats other than cattle and pig fat (e.g., mutton fat, hardened fish-oil, etc.).

Margarine may be freely exported in so far as by its preparation with milk and milk products it has been rendered suitable for use as a butter substitute.

It is understood that the prohibition does not apply to exports of fat to Dutch Colonies and Possessions, not to fats for the actual use of passengers on railway trains or ships or boats.

Fecula and products manufactured therefrom.

This prohibition applies to potato meal, potato starch, tapioca-meal, sago, arrowroot, dextrine, glucose, etc. [3-6-15.]

Potato fibre (aardappelvezeles) which has been entirely worked up may be exported without permits. Fibre containing, in the dry material, more than 50 per cent of ficula is not regarded as having been worked up. [3-6-15.]

Fertilisers:—Chile saltpetre, lime saltpetre (nitrate of lime), lime nitrogen (calcium nitride), nitrite of lime (calcium cyanamide), ammonia sulphate, ammonia superphosphate, guano and other nitrogenous fertilisers, superphosphates; crude phosphates.

Flannel (except cotton flannel) and underwear made therefrom.

Flax waste suitable for tow-yarn spinning mills; flax (linen) yarns.

Flying machines and parts thereof.

Flour and meal of wheat and spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, and maize; also potato flour (including potato sago and potato starch).

Force feeding cake, and meal and waste thereof.

Fuel, liquid (see also Benzine, Briquettes, Gas oil, Petroleum, and Coal).

Gas-oil.

Gold coin and bullion (bars, rods, etc.).

The prohibition does not apply to gold coins carried by bonâ fide travellers.

Grain waste.

This prohibition does not apply to Vienna glue or shoemakers' glue. [3-6-15.]

Grass seeds.

Groats.

Ground-nuts, ground-nut cake and ground-nut meal.

Guano (see Fertilisers).

Gunpowder.

Half-woollen (mixed woollen) goods (see under Woollen goods).

Hay.

A notice was published in the "Nederlandsche Staatseourant" for the 22nd April stating that it was intended to grant permits for the exportation of certain parcels of hay which cannot be consumed in the Netherlands in view of the approaching grazing season.

Hemp yarns, resembling linen yarns, and destined for weaving (not including hemp for binding twine, manila hemp, sisal, etc.).

Hides and skins. (See also Sheep fleeces.)

This prohibition applies to all hides and skins, and also to peltry but not furriers' wares. In the case of slaughtered calves and other slaughtered cattle, the hides may not be exported with the carcass. [3-6-15.]

Hogwash, dried.

Horses.

Instruments, surgical.

This prohibition does not apply to rubber articles for the sickroom, such as air-pillows, ice-bags, etc. No restriction is imposed on the exportation of surgical instruments to the Dutch Indies. [3-6-15.]

Iron wire, barbed wire, and other articles made of iron wire; sheet iron tinned (tinplate).

Jute, raw; jute cloth and jute yarns.

Tailors' linen, consisting of cotton or linen warp with jute weft, does not fall within the scope of the prohibition. [3-6-15.]

Knitting machine needles.

Lard (see Fat).

Lead and its alloys (including tin solder—an alloy consisting of 30 per cent of lead and 70 per cent of tin); waterpipes and watermains of lead or of tinned lead.

Leather and articles manufactured therefrom.

Lime, nitrate of (lime saltpetre); nitrite of (calcium cyanamide), lime nitrogen (calcium nitride) (see Fertilisers).

Linen yarns.

Linseed (see Oilseeds), linseed-cake, linseed-meal.

Lubricating and machine oils.

This prohibition does not apply to Chinese wood oil (obtained from the seeds of aleuritis cordata) ground-nut oil, cotton-seed oil, linseed oil, maize oil, oleic acid, palm-kernel oil, or soya oil. [3-6-15.]

Macaroni and vermicelli.

Magnesium salts (including crude or purified carbonate of magnesium and magnesia alba, but not including crude calcined magnesite).

Maize, maize meal, maizena, maize germ meal, maize starch, and all other articles produced from maize.

Malt, malt germ.

Manures (see Fertilisers).

Meal of pulse; meal and other products of wheat, spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, maize, and rice; meat-meal.

Meat preparations and provisions containing meat, preserved in tins or other airtight receptacles.

Medicines, and bandaging articles and materials for making them.

The prohibition is temporarily withdrawn in respect of theobromine, cinchona bark and products derived therefrom, cocaine, coca, and cubebs. The following articles, among others, are not as a rule regarded as being covered by the prohibition:—Amonia, carbonate of ammonia, acetic acid, barium chloride, bleaching powder, blood albumen, cocoa butter, caseine, Chinese wood oil, licorice acorn coffee, gelatine, gypsum, glycerine, Glauber's salts, iris root (rhizoma calami), carraway-oil, linden blossom, sugar of milk, musk, clove oil, paraffin, peppermint, saccharin, sanatogen, star aniseed, vanilline, and silicate of soda, and certain specialities of A. M. Boom, of Arnhem, and other firms.

The following, inter alia, are covered by the prohibition:—

Alum, borax, bicarbonate of soda, iodine, iodic acid, and other iodine combinations, camphor and camphor acid, creosote and cresol, codliver oil, sugar of lead, magnesia alba, magnesia usta, (pure magnesium oxide), lactic acid, napthalene, peppermint oil, arsenic, sal ammoniac, thymol, tartaric acid, hydrochloric acid;

opium and its derivatives; morphine, codeine, pantopon, laudanum, etc.;

salicylate, aspirine, novaspirine, diaspirine, antifebrine, lactophenine, antipyrine, and other medicinal compounds derived from salicilyte and aniline;

further, mercury and mercury salts, salvarsan and neosalvarsan, bromine salts and other bromine compounds, bismuth, carbolic acid or phenol (purified or crude) castor oil, and patent medicines for inducing sleep, such as adaline, veronal and trional. [3-6-15]

Military cloth and clothing made therefrom.

Motor cars and parts thereof, including tyres; motor cycles and parts thereof.

Needles (knitting machine needles).

Nickel, whether raw or manufactured (unless used as part of any manufactured article of which nickel does not constitute a main component part).

The Minister of Finance shall decide (if necessary) whether nickel constitutes a "main component part" of any manufactured article. [16-4-15.]

Nitrate of lime (lime saltpetre), nitrate of sodium (Chile saltpetre) (see Fertilisers).

Nitric acid.

Nitride of calcium (lime nitrogen) and nitrite of lime (calcium cyanamide) (see Fertilisers).

Oats, oat groats, oatmeal and all other articles produced from oats.

Offals of cereals.

This prohibition does not apply to Vienna glue or shoemakers' glue. [3-6-15]

Oilcakes (ground-nut cake, cotton-seed cake, linseed cake, etc.) see Force feeding cake.

Oil-seeds:—linseed, rape-seed, ground nuts, hemp-seed, palm kernels, sunflower seeds, etc., but not carraway seed, mustard seed and blue poppy seed.

Oils:—See under Gas-Oil; lubricating and machine oils; rape-seed oil; petroleum; benzine; (fuel liquid); turpentine.

Peas (see Pulse).

Permission will be given to export green peas of any kind. Applications for permission will not be considered unless the applicant has stored in the Amsterdam position a quantity of green peas or marrow peas equal to at least one-third of the quantity to be exported. [20-5-15.]

Petroleum; benzine.

Phosphates, crude.

Pigs, living.

Pocket lamps (electric), parts thereof, and raw materials for the manufacture of the same.

Pork (varkensvleesch), in any form including sausages and other preserved pigs' meat (except that accompanied by a special export certificate). (See also Bacon, and Meat preparations, etc.)

Potash (potassium carbonate), caustic potash (including potash lye), potassium salts.

Potatoes cut in pieces or mashed, and waste of potatoes; potato flour (including potato sago and potato starch).

Potato fibre (aardappelvezels) is prohibited under the heading of potato waste. Potato fibre which has been entirely worked up may, however, be exported without permits. Fibre containing, in the dry material, more than 50 per cent of fecula is not regarded as having been worked up. [3-6-15.]

Poultry, alive or dead.

Pulp, dried and sugar pulp.

Pulse and pulse-meal; preparation and preserves of pulse-seeds.

See Note under Peas.

Pyrites.

Rags, woollen and half-woollen.

Rape-seed, (see Oilseeds), rape-cake, rape-cake meal, rape-seed oil.

Rennet preparations.

Rice, rice waste, and all products of rice (including rice strach).

Resin.

This prohibition applies only to the product known to the trade as resin (pine resin), and not to products such as gum damar, gum copal, and shellac. So-called pitch consisting almost entirely of resin, including brewers pitch, is covered by the prohibition, but real pitch (coal-tar pitch) is not. [3-6-15.]

Rubber waste; rubber tyres (see under Tyres).

Motor tyres with worn-out treads (doorgehakte hielen) fall under the prohibition of export of rubber waste. [3-6-15.]

Rye, rye meal, and all other articles produced from rye.

Sacks, empty.

Sacks which have been imported into the Netherlands filled may be re-exported in an empty condition after the necessary permission has been obtained. In order to obtain this permission it must be proved that an equal number of sacks of the same sort, filled, was previously imported from the country to which the empty sacks are destined. [16-11-14.]

Salt.

Salted vegetables.

Saltpetre, Chile; saltpetre, lime (see Fertilisers); common saltpetre (see Potash salts).

Scythes.

Seeds (grass).

Sheep, living; sheep fleeces.

Shoddy (artificial wool).

Skins (see Hides).

Soap—soft yellow and green soap.

The prohibition of export does not apply to glycerine soap, brown soap, blue soap, nor to soft white soap. [3-6-15.]

Sodium nitrate (Chile saltpetre) (see Fertilizers).

Spades.

Spelt and wheat, and groats, meal, and all other articles produced therefrom.

Starch (rice starch, potato starch, maize starch, and other kinds).

Stomachs of calves.

Straw (including chaff).

Straw-bands, also straw used for packing goods, do not fall within the scope of the prohibition. Straw used for covering and protecting potatoes, vegetables, and fruit, up to a maximum of 300 kilogs. per waggon, is also excepted from the prohibition. [3-6-15.]

Sugar; sugar pulp (see also Syrups); sugar beets.

On the 23rd September, 1914, the Dutch Government permitted the exportion of 60 per cent of new season's sugar, beginning September-October. This percentage was reduced to 40 per cent by a Decree of the 7th June, 1915.

Sulphate of ammonia (see Fertilizers); sulphate of copper.
Sulphuric acid.
Superphosphates (see Fertilizers).
Surgical instruments.
This does not apply to rubber articles for the sick room, such as air pillows, ice bags, etc. No restriction is imposed on the exportation of surgical instruments to the Dutch Indies. [3-6-15.]
Syrups (not including apple syrup, molasses, and mollasses of cattle food).
Tallow.
Denatured tallow (tallow unfit for consumption) is not prohibited to be exported. [15-1-15.]
Tanning materials and tanning extracts.
The prohibition does not apply to logwood, barium chloride, gall-nuts and extracts therefrom, hemlock bark, kino and extracts therefrom, and quercitron bark or fustin. [3-6-15.]
Tar (coal tar); tar dyestuffs, and all substances derived from tar which may be used for the preparation or application of tar dyestuffs.
Inter alia, aniline oil, benzol and naphthalene, fall under this prohibition. Dry colours, consisting principally of heavy spar, sodium sulphate, and other cheap materials, coloured with at most 5 per cent of aniline colour, are not prohibited. [3-6-15.]
Tinned sheet iron (tinplate); empty tins.
Tinned meats or provisions containing meat.
Toluol.
Turpentine.
Tyres for motors (as parts of automobiles); tyres for cycles, including tyres attached to cycles.
Used tyres on the wheels of cycles used in bonâ fide frontier traffic are not covered by the prohibition of export of cycle tyres. [3-6-15.]
Vaseline.
Vegetables, salted.
Vehicles for horse traction; motor cars and parts thereof.
Vermicelli and macaroni.
Waste of flax suitable for tow-yarn spinning mills; waste of wool; cotton waste; rubber waste.
Motor tyres with worn-out treads (doorgehakte hielen) fall under the prohibition of the export of rubber waste. [3-6-15.]
Waste of grain; rice waste; potato waste.
See Note to Grain waste and to Potato waste.
Waterpipes and watermains, of lead or of tinned lead.
Weapons (except sporting weapons).
Wheat and spelt, and groats, meal, starch, and all other articles produced therefrom.
Wire:—iron wire, barbed wire, and other articles made of iron wire.
Wool (including angora wool, camel hair, and alpaca), raw and washed; artificial wool (shoddy); wool waste; sheep fleeces.
Woollen blankets and blanket material.
Woollen or half-woollen goods; flannel (except cotton flannel) and underwear made therefrom. (See also Military cloth.)
Woollen and half-woollen rags.
Woollen yarns and woollen mixed yarns.
Yarns:—See under cotton, jute, hemp, linen, woollen.
Zinc sheets.

ITALY.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

June 17, 1915.

NOTES.

(1) Exceptions to the prohibitions of export noted below may be made by the Minister of Finance with the approval of the President of the Council of Ministers and of the Ministers of Agriculture, Industry, and Commerce.—Decree of August 1, 1914.

(2) The prohibition of exportation covers re-exportation from warehouse or in discharge of "temporary admission" permits.—Decree of August 6, 1914.

(3) Merchandise, the exportation of which is prohibited, cannot be re-exported to foreign countries under process of transit or transhipment if it has arrived in an Italian port with bills of lading indicating Italy as the original destination, or if there is no clear indication of destination.

For this purpose, consignments provided with bills of lading "to order," not indicating by name a foreign (non-Italian) destination, and those having only bills of lading "to bearer," will be considered as destined for the internal use of the State (i.e., in Italy).—Decree of November 13, 1914.

Acetic acid and acetates.
Acetone.
Acids:—Acetic, carbolic, nitric, picric, salicylic, sulphuric (including sulphuric anhydride).
Acorns (see Fodder).
Aeroplanes, and parts thereof (see Vehicles).
Alums (chrome and potash alums).
Aluminium; sulphate of aluminium.
Ammonia, sulphate of ammonia, nitrate of ammonia and ammonical salts in general.
Aniline dyes.
Antimony.
Arachides (groundnuts) and their products.
Arms (see Munitions of war.)

Articles made wholly or in part from raw material of which the exportation is prohibited, or from the products of such materials.

Artificial (chemical) manures.
Asbestos and articles thereof.
Bacon.
Barley.
Beetroot pulp.
Benzine (petrol): benzol.
Bone, horn, and other similar materials, raw.
Bone-fat.
Bran.
Brass and bronze.
Bread and ships' biscuits.
Cables, steel, of high tensile strength.
Calcium carbide; calcium cyanamide.
Camphor of all kinds.
Candles.
Carbolic acid.
Carbonate of sodium.
Carob beans.
Carriages (see Vehicles).
Cast-iron (scrap); cast-iron, even in castings.
Castor oil, and other vegetable oils.
Cattle.
Cellulose.
Cements.
Cereals, not named. (See also barley, maize, oats, rice, rye, and wheat).
Ceresin.
Chaff (see Fodder).
Cheese, hard paste.* (See also Foodstuffs).
Chestnuts.
Chlorate of potash.
Chrome and potash alums; chrome salts.

---

* Cheese, hard—export up to 2,000 tons allowed.—(September 27, 1914.)

Clothing and equipment for troops, as well as prepared hides, cloths, and, generally, all materials required for the manufacture of such articles.*
Coal.
Cocoa in the bean. (See also Foodstuffs).
Cocoanut oil, and other vegetable oils.
Coffee.†
Coin.
Colophany and other resins.
Copper ‡ ; copper sulphate.
Cotton and cotton waste, bleached and unbleached.
Cylinders, for compressed gas.
Dirigibles and spare parts thereof (see Vehicles).
Donkeys.
Dyes, aniline.
Edible pastes, such as macaroni and vermicelli.
Eggs.
Equipment and clothing for troops, as well as prepared hides, cloths, and, generally, all materials required for the manufacture of such articles.*
Explosives (included under Munitions of war, q.v.)
Feculæ.
Ferro-alloys (see under Iron).
Fertilisers (manures), chemical.
Fish, fresh, in brine, or preserved in any way.
Fish oils and fish grease.
Flour and meal.
Fodder:—Acorns, olive-husks and all other products suitable for feeding animals (including offals of cereals, chaff, rice husks, and grape kernels).
Food preserves prepared with or containing any proportion of articles of which the export is prohibited. (See also Foodstuffs).
Foodstuffs—all fresh or preserved foodstuffs.

[NOTE.—The various foodstuffs specified in this list, e.g., bacon, eggs, flour, meat, etc., have been definitively prohibited by Royal Decrees. On the 13th June 1915, the prohibition was extended to cover all fresh or preserved foodstuffs which had not hitherto been prohibited.]

Glycerine.
Gold bullion and coin.
Grape kernels (see Fodder).
Graphite.
Groundnuts (arachides) and their products.
Gutta-percha (raw).
Hæmatite and other iron ore.
Hay.
Hemp, raw.§
Hides, prepared (see clothing and equipment for troops).

---

* This prohibition does not apply to tissues of all kinds for women's clothing, fancy stuffs for men's clothing, silk tissues, velvets, plushes, printed cotton tissues, and such coloured cotton tissues as cannot be used for military clothing. On the other hand, bleached or unbleached cotton tissues suitable for the manufacture of men's body linen, or bed linen cloths for military uniforms, tissues for tents, bags, and tissues for making them, packing cloth of all kinds, and articles of body linen and knitted wares which can be used for military purposes are prohibited to be exported.—(August 8, 1914.)

† The exportation of coffee lying in free deposit has been authorised up to 15 per cent of the amounts now stored, and to 50 per cent of any future quantities deposited.—(October 23, 1914.)

‡ Under this head the export of single or double conducting cords for telegraphic and telephonic installations is prohibited, but not that of electric cables and wires which can be used only for common internal installations for illumination or heating.—(Circular of August 8, 1914.)

§ It is understood that special arrangements have been made as regards the export of hemp from Italy to the United Kingdom. [16562]

Hides and skins, raw (but excluding goat and lamb skins, whether raw or tanned, for glovemaking).*
Horn, bone, and other similar materials, raw.
Horses.
India rubber (see Rubber).
Iron and steel plates coated with tin or zinc.
Iron ores (hæmatite and other); iron pyrites; iron metallic alloys†; cast iron, even in castings; scrap iron and steel.
Jute raw; jute sacks, etc., (see Note * on p. 1118).
Lard.
Lead.
Leather (prepared hides) (see clothing and equipment for troops).
Lubricating materials.
Macaroni and vermicelli.
Machine tools.
Maize.
Manganese and manganese ore.
Manures, chemical.
Margarine (included under Tallow, vegetable and animal).
Materials, lubricating.
Materials, for the manufacture of clothing and equipment for troops.‡
Materials, rubber lined.
Materials, sanitary, in general.
Meal and flour.
Meat, fresh (including frozen); salted meat, and meat of all kinds, in whatever way preserved (including tinned meat).
Medicines and sanitary material in general.
Medicinal instruments and articles.
Motor-boats (see Ships); motor cars (see Vehicles).
Mules.
Munitions of war, namely; guns, rifles, carbines, revolvers, pistols, swords and other arms (fire-arms or side-arms) of all kinds, munitions of war, military equipment of every sort, and, in general, everything which, without further manipulation, can be of immediate use for military or naval armaments.
Naphthalene and its nitro-derivatives.
Nickel and its alloys.
Nitrate of ammonia; nitrate of potassium; nitrate of sodium.
Nitric acid.
Oats.
Offals of cereals (see Fodder).
Oils:—Fish oils, Lubricating materials, Petroleum and petrol, Turpentine oil, Vegetable oils (including castor oil, coconut oil, and palm oil).
Oilcake from nuts and other materials.
Oilseeds; oilseed cakes.
Ores, metallic.

---

* It is understood that no difficulties are raised as regards the export of heavy hides from Italy to the United Kingdom [19-1-15]: the Italian Government consider as "heavy hides" for export purposes green hides weighing 33 kilog. and upwards [17-2-15]. Fresh or dried horse hides and fresh and dried ox and goat hides without hair may also be exported, but the exportation of sheep and goat skins with wool or hair, as also the skins of rabbits, hares, etc., is prohibited.

† According to Italian excise regulations, metallic iron alloys include ferromanganese containing more than 30 per cent of manganese, ferrosillicon-manganese containing more than 30 per cent of silicon and manganese together, aluminium iron containing more than 10 per cent of aluminium, ferrochrome containing more than 10 per cent of chrome, ferrosilicon containing more than 4 per cent of silicon, ferrotungsten. Spiegeleisen is also covered by the prohibition.

‡ See Note * on page 1118.

Palm oil and other vegetable oils.
Paraffin. *
Pastes, edible, such as vermicelli and macaroni.
Peroxides, metallic.
Petroleum; petrol.
Picric acid.
Pigs.
Pigeons, live.
Potatoes.
Potassium nitrate; chlorate of potash; potash salts; potash alums.
Poultry.
Pulse.
Pyrites.
Rags of all kinds.
Railways, portable (including both rails and cars).
Resins (colophany and other).
Rice†; rice husks (see Fodder).
Rubber raw (India rubber); rubber-lined materials.
Rubber:—all products of elastic and vulcanised rubber (prohibited to be exported to belligerent countries).
Rye.
Sacks and sack-cloth. (See Note † on page 1118).
Salicylic acid.
Sanitary materials in general.
Scrap-iron (fragments of wrought or cast iron and steel).
Semolina.
Sheep.
Ships of all kinds on the Italian register; vessels, boats, and craft of all kinds for use in harbours and for coast traffic, and fishing boats, tugs, salvage ships, etc.; pleasure boats, motor-boats for uses other than those indicated above.
Ships' biscuit.
Silicon.
Skins (see under Hides).
Sodium carbonate; sodium nitrate.
Spiegeleisen (see under Iron metallic alloys).
Spirit, pure.
Stearine.
Steel and iron (scrap).
Steel cables of high tensile strength.
Straw.
Sugar.
Sulphate of ammonia, and ammoniacal salts in general; sulphate of aluminium; sulphate of copper.
Sulphur.
Sulphuric acid; sulphuric anhydride.
Tallow, vegetable and animal.
Tanning extracts; tanning materials of all kinds.‡
Tar.
Timber (including timber specially adapted for aeronautic construction).
Tin (including salts and other preparations of tin).
Tinplates (See Iron and steel plates).
Turpentine oil (acqua da ragia).
Tyres (See Vehicles).
Valonia.

---

*It is understood that the prohibition applies to all refined paraffin, including paraffin wax.

† "It is not intended to grant further dispensations for the exportation of rice at present."—(February 7, 1915.)

‡ Permission to export tanning materials is granted for quantities proportionate with monthly exports during 1914.

Vaseline.
Vegetable oils.
Vegetables, dry (see Pulse); vegetables, fresh.
Vehicles of all kinds,* including aeroplanes and dirigibles, as well as separate motors and spare parts belonging to them (including tyres), rubber-lined materials, cylinders for compressed gas, steel cables of high tensile strength and timber specially adapted for aeronautic construction.
Vermicelli and macaroni.
Weapons. (See Munitions of war.)
Wheat.
Wool:—merino wool and all other kinds of wool.
Woollen waste; woollen rags (See under Rags).
Zinc.

RUSSIA.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

June 15, 1915.

NOTES.

1. The exportation of certain articles direct to Allied countries, in Russian or Allied vessels, is authorised without special application in the case of each consignment. These articles are: maize, colza, oilcake, bran and oilcake of all kinds, bacon, butter, dead poultry and game, live poultry, eggs, intestines, fish, tobacco of the first quality, (certified by excise), wood materials, oilseeds, clover seeds and other forage seeds, furskins, except sheepskins and goatskins.

The exportation to the United Kingdom of butter, game, poultry, eggs and bacon, is authorised, without special authorisation in the case of each consignment, if the goods are despatched (from the Finland Station, Petrograd) by the "direct oversea Scandinavian route," i.e., viâ Raumo or Montyluoto.

2. The exportation of goods of all kinds is prohibited from Baltic ports situated in the Governments of Petrograd, Esthonia, Livonia, and Courland.

3. The prohibitions of export noted below do not apply to exports to Finland from Russia. The exportation of goods from Finland to foreign countries is effected in accordance with special regulations in force in the Grand Duchy.

†Automobiles.
†Bacon.

NOTE.—As regards the export of bacon to Allied countries, see Note 1.

Barley.
Beans, kidney beans, and peas.
Beetroot.
†Benzine (including gasoline and ligroine).
†Bran, oilcake, and other fodder for livestock.

NOTE.—As regards the export of bran and oilcake direct to allied countries, see Note 1.

* Motor bicycles and their parts do not fall under the prohibition of exportation.
† Export prohibited over land frontiers of Europe, and by ports of the Baltic, White, and Black Seas, and of the Sea of Azov.

Brass and copper, in the form of metal, scrap, and manufactures.
Buckwheat.
Butter.

NOTE.—As regards the export of butter direct to Allied countries, see Note 1.

Cabbages.
*Camels.
†Capsules.
Cattle, large and small.
†Coal and coke.
Conserves.
Copper and brass, in the form of metal, scrap and manufactures.
Cotton ends.
†Down and wool.
†Eggs.

NOTE.—As regards the export of eggs to Allied countries, see Note 1.

Fat (animal).
†Fish.

NOTE.—As regards the export of fish direct to Allied countries, see Note 1.

†Flour of grain (all kinds).
†Fodder for livestock (including bran and oilcake).

NOTE.—As regards the export of bran and oilcake direct to Allied countries, see Note 1.

†Furs (all kinds); †sheepskins and goatskins in all forms, including manufactures thereof.

NOTE.—As regards the export of furskins (except sheepskins and goatskins) direct to Allied countries, see Note 1.

†Fuses.
†Game and poultry (dead or alive).

NOTE.—As regards the export of game and poultry to Allied countries, see Note 1.

Hay and straw.
Hides and skins dressed and undressed, viz., ox, bull, cow, camel, baffalo, horse and asses' hides, and calf and pig skins.
‡Horses.
†Intestines.

NOTE.—As regards the export of intestines direct to Allied countries, see Note 1.

†Iron ore.
†Kerosene (see under Oils).
§Lead.
Leather (see Hides, dressed).
Lentils.
†Licopodium.
Macaroni.
†Manganese ore.
Meat of pigs, except bacon; †bacon.

NOTE.—As regards the export of bacon to Allied countries, see Note 1.

Millet.
†Motor cars (automobiles).

SWITZERLAND.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORT OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

June 25, 1915.

NOTES.

1. The Federal Council reserves to itself the right to authorise exceptions to the prohibitions of exportation which have been established in respect of the following goods by successive Decrees of the Federal Council.

2. Notwithstanding the prohibition of export, prohibited goods may be sent in transit through Switzerland in sealed wagons.

3. The importation of cereals (wheat, spelt, barley, rye, oats, maize), of the products resulting from the grinding thereof, including forage meal and bran, as also of all concentrated forage necessary for the feeding of cattle, is reserved exclusively to the Confederation. The re-exportation of such imported products is absolutely prohibited. [Decree of January 7, 1915.]

4. The numbers quoted below are those of the Swiss Customs Tariff. When a number is quoted without qualification all goods classified under that Tariff number are included within the scope of the prohibition. On the other hand, the prefixing of "ex" to a Tariff number indicates that only the articles specially mentioned fall within the scope of the prohibition, other articles classified under the Tariff number being allowed to be exported.

ex 974*b*	Acetanilide (antifebrine).*
ex 1051	Acetic acid, crude or purified, having an empyreumatic odour.
	Acetic acid, other, containing more than 12 per cent. of acetic acid. (See under Vinegar.)
ex 1051	Acetone.
ex 974*b*	Acetylsalicylic acid.*
	Acids:—See under the respective headings—acetic, acetylsalicylic, benzonic, carbolic, chlorosulphuric, formic, gallic, hydrochloric (muriatic), nitric, phithalic, sulphuric, sulphurous, tannic.

GENERAL NOTE.

The following is a brief summary of the more important variations in the figures for 1913-14 as compared with those of 1912-13.

PART I—Agricultural Statistics.

The total area of the State is approximately 19 million acres and is 4,534 acres less as compared with the previous year. Excluding the extent for which no returns are received, the net area for which statistics are given is nearly 17½ million acres. Of this a little less than 2·1 million acres are occupied by forests and more than 6·8 million acres are not available for cultivation. The area under forests has decreased by more than 1½ lakhs of acres. A little less than a million acres are culturable waste lands available for cultivation. The total extent under occupation is 7,636,858 acres of which 6,056,463 acres were cultivated during the year under report.

PART IV—Rainfall.

The average rainfall in the State was 32·13 inches as against 46·23 in the preceding year, there being a decrease of nearly 14 inches. The decrease in rainfall occurred in all the districts.

PART I.

The net area cropped during the year fell from 6,319,019 acres to 6,056,463 there being a decrease of 263,546 acres. The decrease occurred in all the districts, except Shimoga, where there was a slight increase. The extent of irrigated land appreciably increased in the Mysore and Shimoga Districts, the total irrigated area for the State showing an increase of 2,833 acres. There was a slight increase in the areas under paddy in the Hassan, Shimoga and Kadur Districts, while in the Mysore District the increase was appreciably large. There was a large shrinkage in the area under paddy in the Kolar District. The area under ragi decreased in all the districts, the shrinkage in the Tumkur District being particularly large. The area under cotton similarly decreased, the shrinkage being large in the Tumkur and Chitaldrug Districts.

The total area under cholam increased while the area under horse gram diminished. The area under sugar-cane cultivation remained unchanged.

TABLE C.

The incidence of land revenue (excluding cesses) per head of the population shows an increase of one pie, and that on fully assessed area a decrease by five pies.

TABLE D.

The number of holdings under raiyatwar tenure fell from 1,096,345 to 1,088,343, there being an increase of 54,138 acres in the gross area held on such tenures. The average area of each holding was 6·63 acres and the average assessment 8·91 rupees as against 6·53 acres and 8·73 rupees respectively. The number of estates held wholly or partially revenue free was 98,054 as against 98,029. The average area and assessment of these estates was 18·38 acres and 5·51 rupees as against 18·09 acres and 5·32 rupees.

TABLE E.

The number of transfers of land by order of Court during the year was 482 involving an area of 3,363 acres as against 790 involving an area of 4,461 acres. The number of transfers by private contract or gift was 16,984 as against 17,404, the areas involved being 94,108 and 90,805 acres respectively.

146 PART II—Estimated outturn of crops.

The average outturn of paddy for the State was 8·7 annas as against 10·7 in the previous year, the outturn being poor in the Kolar and Tumkur Districts. The average outturn of ragi was 6·9 annas as against 10·4 in the previous year, the yield not being satisfactory in the Bangalore, Kolar, Tumkur, Mysore and Chitaldrug Districts. The outturn of horse gram was similarly bad being 5·7 annas as against 9·2 in the previous year, the yield in the Bangalore, Kolar, Tumkur, Mysore and Chitaldrug Districts being poor. The outturn of cholam and sugar-cane though less than that of the previous year was not below the normal.

PART III—Prices.

The prices of good grains were generally higher in almost all the districts. The average price of rice (1st and 2nd sort) was slightly lower in the Tumkur, Mysore and Chitaldrug Districts and the average price of ragi higher in all the districts, except Mysore, where it was slightly lower.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM ON THE ANNUAL AGRICULTURAL STATISTICAL RETURNS A TO E AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPILING THEM.

1. The revenue year commences on 1st July and ends on 30th June. The returns are due in this office on or before the 15th August following.

2. Table A.—Table A consists of four sections, viz., A.-1, A.-2, A.-3 and A.-4, and contains figures for districts (pages 7-15) as well as for taluks (pages 28-102).

3. Table A-1.—Column 2 shows the gross area as ascertained by the Survey and Settlement Department, and is subject to correction according as errors are discovered in resurvey of tracts.

(a) Column 3 shows the areas of alienated tracts (such as Jahgir, Jodi, Sarvamanyam and Kayamgutta villages) for which the statistics required for the other sections of the table are not at present forthcoming in whole or in part. When such statistics become available, the area in this column will be reduced and that in column 4 will correspondingly be increased.

(b) Column 4 gives the remainder which is dealt with in Tables A-2 and A-3.

4. Table A-2.—Column 2 "Forest" means any land classified or administered as forest under the Forest Rules, and includes District Forests and State Forests and Plantations separately mapped. Details of these should be invariably noted at foot of the return.

(a) Column 3 includes land absolutely unfit for cultivation, land reserved as pasture (gomal lands and kavals of sorts), public topes and Government plantations, and also all lands covered by buildings, roads, water, etc., or otherwise devoted to uses other than agriculture. When, with due sanction, any of these areas are made available for cultivation, they should be transferred from this column to column 5 or 6. The extent of "Pot Kharab" forming part of survey numbers should be included under this column, the same being excluded from columns 4, 5 and 6.

(c) Columns 5 and 6 show the areas of assessed occupied land not cultivated ("Kabulibanjar") and cultivated respectively as found in the abstract at foot of the Pahani Account (Village Account Form No. 3). Minor Inams in Government villages are included herein. In Mysore there is no system of fallows properly so called. Column 5 will therefore show land in occupation kept uncultivated from whatever cause.

(d) The total of these five columns will, of course, equal to figures shown in column 4 of Table A-1.

(e) Columns 8 to 12 show only the actual area of irrigated land, areas (if any) cropped more than once being reckoned but once.

(f) Columns 14 to 17 should contain the actual area of irrigated crops, areas cropped more than once being counted as separate areas for each crop.

5. Table A-3.—This is based entirely on the Pahani Account (Village Account Form No. 3), and shows the gross cultivated area under each crop irrespective of irrigation and double cropping, the area under the latter being included in the statement but subtracted in column 42. The area dealt with is that shown in column 6 of Table A-2. In cases where two or more crops are grown together, an estimate is made of the area covered by each, and the areas so estimated are separately returned. The estimate is made by the shanbhog on his own judgment. The areas comprised in this return are the areas actually sown, whether the crop comes to maturity or not. The failure of the crop should affect not its area but its outturn. Where fields, owing to the failure of the first sowings, have been devoted to other crops, the area sown by the first sowing should be omitted. The crops to be selected for inclusion in certain heads of this table are as follows:—

Column 9.—Gram (pulse) should include horse gram, Bengal gram, green and black grams.

Column 10.—Other food grains including pulses.—Samè, haraka, navane, avare or ballar, tuwar or togari, tadagani or alasandi, etc.

Column 15.—Others (oil-seeds).—Castor, oil-seeds, inferior sesamum (hutchellu), groundnut or nelakadalekayi, honge, ippe, etc.

Column 17.—Condiments and spices.—Pepper, cardamom, chillies, cummin seeds, coriander seeds, ginger, mustards, turmeric, onions, garlic, menthya, etc.

Column 22.—Others (fibres).—Pundi, sanabu, etc.

Column 27.—Others (dyes).—Rangumale, etc.

Column 29.—Coffee should be both malnad and maidan. The area covered by both mature and immature plants should be entered.

Column 36.—Fodder crops. Kaki, jola, etc.

Column 37.—Orcharās and garden produce.—Mango, apples, figs, plantains, oranges, pomegranates, etc. The area of cocoanut, areca and betel-leaf gardens should also be included.

Column 38.—Miscellaneous food crops.—Vegetable gardens, potatoes, etc.

Column 39.—Miscellaneous non-food crops.—Mulberry, etc.

6. Table A-4.—This table deals with agricultural stock and should include live-stock in Municipalities. Oxen and buffaloes not old enough for work or to produce young should be treated as "young stock" in this return.

Until 1898-99, statistics of live-stock were collected every year by the shanbhog and patel of each village by enquiry and inspection, as a part of the year's jamabandi routine. Government directed, in their Order No. 7601—615, dated 24th April 1899, a quinquennial census to be taken and the repetitions of the figures of such census as statistics for the ensuing four years. The figures contained in the statement for the two years 1912-13 and 1913-14 are those obtained at the census of January 1911.

7. Table B.—This is a statement showing the average for the year of the prices current of certain articles. It is printed in this collection, as Part III.

Table C.—This table indicates the relation between area, population and land revenue, or in the other words, the mean burden of the State assessment on the land assessed to it and on the community at large. The tenure to which this table (for the Mysore State) relates is entirely raiyatwari.

(a) Column 3 (a) represents the area of alienated villages, plus the area of unoccupied assessed waste land in Sirkar villages (4 of Table A-2.) The area of minor inams is not, however, included in this column, as a proportionate deduction cannot be made in the corresponding population.

(b) Columu 3 (b) represents the area withdrawn from cultivation and should therefore exhibit the total of the areas shown in columns 2 and 3 of Table A-2.

(c) Column 4 (a) exhibits the area of occupied lands (Sirkar and minor Inam) in Government villages and should therefore equal the sum total of the figures in column 5 and column 6 of Table A-2 (current fallows and net area cropped during the year).

(d) Column 4 (b) exhibits the area actually cultivated. The figure under column 6 of Table A-2 will therefore be repeated here.

(e) Column 5 should exhibit the total realizable Land Revenue including Miscellaneous Land Revenue of the whole district for the year after excluding arrears for past years. The figure to be entered here will therefore be that which represents the fixed demand under these heads plus Miscellaneous Land Revenue and minus remissions under defined rules, and minus also irrigation cess merged in the assessment as shown in the list appended to Government Proceedings No. R. 212, dated 30th July 1894.

(f) Columns 6 and 11.—The population according to the most recent decennial census will be entered in column 6 subject to such alterations as are necessitated by any change in the constitution of the districts, and the figures in column 11 are subject to such alterations as may be necessitated by alteration in the area of "fully assessed land" by the resumption of alienated villages or other causes.

(g) Column 7 is arrived at by column 5 being divided by column 6.

(h) Column 8 does not include Miscellaneous Land Revenue and Land Revenue on alienated villages which are included in column 5.

(i) Column 9 is arrived at by column 8 being divided by column 4 (a).
Column 10 is arrived at by column 8 being divided by column 4 (b).
Column 12 is arrived at by column 8 being divided by column 11.

9. Table D.—The form prescribed by the Government of India is intended to show the principal varieties of tenure held direct from Government. For Mysore (where the prevailing tenure is raiyatwari and the accounts are kept villagewar), the first four classes and classes VII and VIII will be left blank, all raiyatwari holdings will be included in class V, the heading thereof being altered from "peasant proprietors paying separately" to "small holdings held separate and direct from Government (raiyatwar tenure)" and all inams (Jahgirs, whole Inam and Kayamgutta villages and minor Inams in Sirkar villages) will be entered in class VI, Lease-holders of gold mines will be shown under class IX "others."

(a) Number of estates.—This represents practically the number of separate pattas issued or khates recorded in the Land Revenue Register. Two or more estates belonging to the same proprietor, if they are separately recorded in the Revenue Ledgers and form the subjects of separate pattas, will be separately reckoned for this return.

(b) Number of villages.—This shows the total number of villages (primary, of course) populated and unpopulated, i.e., the areas constituted as villages by the Survey and Settlement Department.

(c) Number of holders.—One proprietor may be reckoned twice or oftener as the owner of two or more estates separately recorded according to the number of pattas held by him.

(d) Item 5½, gross assessment.—Between items 5 and 6 of the Government of India form, an item numbered 5½ should be opened to show "gross assessment." This, in the case of raiyatwari lands, will be the survey assessment and water-tax, and in the case of alienated lands, it will be combined quit-rent and water-rate (if any) payable to Government: in both cases without deducting remissions and other deductions, if any.

10. Table E.—This table is intended to show the number of voluntary and compulsory transfers of ownerships of lands and the area so transferred. By "voluntary transfers" are meant transfers made by actual contract or gift. Transfers by inheritance are not to be taken into account, nor non-permanent transfers such as leases, mortgages, etc. Only permanent transfers (for instance by sale or gift) should be included when the parties concerned apply for and obtain transfer of "Revenue Registry." These voluntary transfers will be entered in columns 4 and 5 and columns 8 and 9 (private contract or gift). On the other hand, under heading "By order of Court," columns 2 and 3 and columns 6 and 7 are included—

(1) Changes of registry under decrees of Civil and Revenue Courts whether the decrees were passed on disputes regarding title or by reason of debts incurred by the judgment-debtors, and

(2) (a) All cases in which lands are sold for arrears of revenue due to Government and purchased by private parties.

(b) Cases in which lands are sold for arrears of revenue due to Government or bought by Government will be excluded from this table.

The particulars contained in columns 2 to 21 should be entered for each district opposite to details under column I "Class of tenure," viz., (a) Revenue-paying and (b) wholly or partially revenue-free.

The information contained in Table E will be entirely based upon that furnished for each village in Village Account Form No. 6 (Statement of Increase and Decrease) and its enclosure.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM ON THE STATISTICS RELATING TO AREA AND YIELD OF PRINCIPAL CROPS.

The estimates of out-turn of crops comprised in the following pages are based upon the Village Account Form No. 3 (Pahani Takhta).

2. In this account, the area, assessment and other particulars of each field are entered from the permanent village accounts; and for each survey number, the estimated area under each crop is entered by actual field inspection every year. The inspection is to be made twice in the year to correspond with cultivation and crop time. An abstract is subjoined to the account showing the aggregate estimated area under each of the fifteen principal crops enumerated in the prescribed form.

3. In 1897, the opportunity was taken to utilize this account for estimating the year's yield of the harvest under each of five selected crops, viz., paddy, ragi, horse gram, cholum and sugar cane. It was ordered that this estimate should be made by tabulating the area under each crop in the village, in a form which was prescribed as an enclosure to the "Pahani Takhta, Village Account Form No. 3." It was directed that as a rule, that is to say, except when the Deputy Commissioner would otherwise direct under Section 10 of the Mysore Famine Code, the return should correspond with the two pahani inspections, viz., once before the jamabandi about the second fortnight of October, while the crops are standing, and a second time after the cultivation season is over at the end of January following. Under these orders, the return is, in the first instance, prepared for each village by its shanbhog and submitted to the taluk office, where, after being examined, it is compiled for the entire taluk and transmitted to the Deputy Commissioner who, in his turn, submits to this office an abstract statement, talukwar, for his district before the end of April every year.

4. The out-turn is estimated for each village taken separately by the shanbhog and patel who, from their intimate knowledge of the locality, may be relied upon to judge in this matter as well as possible for the purposes of a rough approximate estimate.

5. The out-turn is stated in annas, viz., '20 annas,' '16 annas,' '8 annas' and '4 annas' and less which would respectively represent 'bumper,' 'average,' middling,' and 'bad harvests.'

6. The aggregate estimated area under each crop as per pahani abstract is distributed under these four classes, and arithmetically reduced to the equivalent area under a normal, that is to say, a fair average or 16 anna crop. The standard actual yield of a normal crop per acre (16 annas) in a fairly good season is fixed for the taluk as a whole, after careful local enquiry once for all, and not afterwards altered without the previous sanction of Government. The estimated out-turn for the entire taluk is calculated on this basis, and the results for the years 1912-13 and 1913-14 are exhibited in the following pages :—

(1) Government Proceedings No. 6150—R. 2096, dated 9th January 1897.

(2) Government Proceedings No. 7866—R. F. 130-93, dated 10th March 1897.

(3) Government Proceedings No. 5713—R. F. 130-93, dated 21st February 1899.

Cartridges, charges of all kinds, and their component parts;
Celluloid;
Chemicals, drugs, dyes and dye stuffs, medicinal and pharmaceutical preparations, and tanning extracts, namely :—
- Aceto-celluloses;
- Acetone;
- Acetylsalicylic acid (aspirin);
- Alcohol methylic;
- Ammonium nitrate, perchlorate and sulphocyanide;
- Amyl acetate;
- Anthracene oil and green oil;
- Antipyrine (phenazone);
- Anti-tetanus serum;
- Belladonna, its alkaloids and preparations, including belladonna plaster;
- Benzol;
- Caffeine and its salts;
- Calcium acetate and all other mettalic acetates;
- Cantharides and its preparations;
- Carbolic acid;
- Carbon disulphide;
- Chloral and its preparations, including chloramid;
- Chlorates, perchlorates, and nitrates, all metallic;
- Coal tar distillation products, being the fractions of the distillation products of coal tar between benzol and cresol;
- Coal tar products for use in die manufacture, including aniline oil and aniline salt;
- Colladion;
- Cresol, and all preparations of cresol (includding cresylic acid) and nitrocresol (except saponified cresol);
- Cyanamide;
- Diethylbarbituric acid (veronal) and veronal sodium;
- Dimethylaniline;
- Dyes and dye stuffs manufactured from coal tar products;
- Emetin and its salts;
- Ergot of rye, not including liquid extract or other medicinal preparations of ergot;
- Eucaine hydrochlor;
- Fusel oil (amyl alcohol);
- Gentian and its preparations;
- Glycerine, crude and refined;
- Henbane and its preparations;
- Hydroquinone:
- Indigo, natural;
- Ipecacuanha root;
- Manganese, peroxide of;
- Methylaniline;
- Neo-salvarsan;
- Nitric acid;
- Nitrotoluol;
- Novocain;
- Opium and its preparations and alkaloids;
- Paraffin, liquid medicinal;
- Paraformaldehyde and trioxymethylene;
- Paraldehyde;
- "Peptone Witte;"
- Phenacetin;
- Picric acid and its components;
- Potash, caustic;
- Potassium cyanide;
- Potassium permanganate;
- Protargol, not including silver proteinate;
- Pyridine.
- Saccharin (including "saxin");
- Salicylic acid, methyl salicylate, sodium salicylate, and theobromine sedium salicylate;
- Solol;
- Salvarsan;
- Tantonin and its preparations;
- Sulphonal;
- Sulphur, and spent oxide of sulphur;
- Sulphur dioxide, liquefied;
- Sulphuric acid;
- Tanning, extracts for use in, the following:—
  - Chestnut extract;
  - Oakwood extract;
- Thorium, oxide and salts of;
- Thymol and its preparations;
- Toluol and mixtures containing toluol;
- Trephenyl phosphate;
- Trional.
- Valonia;

Coal tar, crude;
Compasses, other than ships' compasses
Cotton fabric, suitable for aircraft;

NORWAY.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

July 21, 1915.

NOTES.

(1) All articles required for a ship about to undertake a voyage may be exported for the use of the ship, even if they are of a kind the exportation of which is prohibited.

(2) As regards transit, all goods coming to Norway and consigned to a foreign (non-Norwegian) destination, even if they are of a kind the exportation of which is prohibited, may be re-exported without special permission. On the other hand, foreign goods falling within the scope of the prohibition of export, if consigned to a place in Norway, cannot be re-exported without permission, even if they were intended for re-export.

(3) The Norwegian Government reserve to themselves the right to grant, in exceptional cases, permission to export any of the prohibited articles.

Acids :—see Citric acid, Hydrochloric acid, Lactic acid, Salicylic acid, Sulphuric acid, Tartaric acid ; and also under Dyes, and under Medicaments.
Alcohol (absolute).
Aluminium, unwrought (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin), scrap aluminium, and aluminium worked up into plates, bands, tubes, rods, rings, wire, and castings.
Ammunition.
Aniline (see under Dyes).
Animal oil.§
Animals, living—cattle, goats, horses, pigs, reindeer, sheep.
Antimony, unwrought or crude, and scrap; alloys of antimony; sulphides and oxides of antimony.
Apparatus and instruments for medical, surgical, veterinary, and dental use, and for sick nursing in general.
Arachides (see Margarine, etc.,) ; arachides oil or ground-nut oil.
Arms and parts of arms.
Asbestos, crude (except that of Norwegian production and accompanied by a certificate of origin).

* This list has been issued for the first time.

† This list has not been reprinted as it is the same as the one forwarded with the letter from the Department of Commerce and Industry, No. 9100-9121—W., dated the 16th June 1915.

‡ These lists have not been reprinted as they are the same as those forwarded with the letter from the Department of Commerce and Industry, No. 12557-12578—W., dated the 28th July 1915.

§ The only animal oils not prohibited are whale and fish oils and waste tallow and fat from tanneries and slaughter-houses which could not be used as lubricants or as human food.

Asbestos goods, even if mixed or in combination with other material.

Aspen timber.
Balata, crude, and partly worked products thereof.
Balsam of Peru.
Barbed wire.
Batteries (dry) for electric pocket lamps.
Benzol (see under Dyes).
Bones of ruminants; bone-fat, bone-oil, neat's-foot oil (except bone-fat produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Boots (covered by "Hides and skins, and their products").
Bottles, empty.
Brass, bronze and other copper alloys. (See under Copper.)
Camphor, purified.
Caps (dynamite percussion caps).
Carbons for search-lights and for arc-lights.
Castor oil.
Cattle.
Ceresine, mineral wax (ozokerite).
Chlorate and bichlorate of potash (see under Potassium salts).
Citric acid and its salts.
Coal and coke; peat.
Coal-tar dyes, etc. (see under Dyes.)
Cocos oil or coco-nut oil.
Collodion.
Copper, and alloys of copper with common metals:—
- Copper, unwrought (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin); alloys of copper with common metals, unwrought.
- Scrap of copper and of copper alloys.
- Wholly or partly manufactured wares of copper or alloys of copper with common metals, viz:—
  - Plates and sheets.
  - Ribbons.
  - Rods.
  - Cup-shaped materials for use in the manufacture of cartridges.
  - Bolts, rivets, nails.
  - Tubes and shaped pieces.
  - Wire, rolled or drawn.
  - Wire twisted into ropes or cables, without insulation; fitted with mantle, armoured or unarmoured; also cables covered with insulating materials of all kinds.
  - Wire gauze.
  - Castings.

Copper sulphate.
Copra.
Cotton, raw; cotton waste; cotton wool.
Cotton yarns and thread; woven cotton goods (with the exception of curtains of cotton tricot).
Cottonseed oil or cotton oil.
Cresol and cresol preparations, including creolin and lysol (see under Dyes).
Crucibles (see under Graphite).*
Dental apparatus and instruments (see under Instruments).
Drugs. (See Medicaments.)
Dyes made from tar and organic bye-products for producing tar-dyes (such as aniline, naphthol, naphthylamines, naphthylaminesulphonic acids, benzol, cresol and cresol preparations, including creolin and lysol, salicylic acid, etc.).
Dynamite percussion caps.
Electrical machinery of all kinds (except machinery manufactured in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Electro-magnetic ignition apparatus for motors, unattached.
Fats:—Fat of ruminants (with the exception of bone-fat produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin); greases containing resin; wool-fat; palm kernel fat. (See also under the headings for Margarine, Oils, Tallow.)
Fertiliser— potash 37 per cent fertiliser (see under Potassium salts).

* Graphite crucibles are the only crucibles specifically prohibited. In the case of other crucibles, the nature of the component material determines whether the crucibles are or are not prohibited to be exported.

Field-glasses.
*Foodstuffs (except fish and fish products, condensed milk, butter, cheese, berries, game, poultry, eggs, coffee, tea, spices).
*Forage, including meal of herrings, of whale meat, and of liver, but not including whale and fish manure.
Formaldehyde solution and other formaldehyde preparations.
Glycerine, raw, refined, or purified.
Goats.
Gold minted or unminted.†
Graphite, unwrought or crude (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin); graphite for use in foundries, including crucibles.
Greases containing resin. (See also under Fats.)
Ground-nuts (see Margarine, etc.); ground-nut or arachides oil.
Gutta-percha, crude, and partly worked products thereof.
Hemp, raw and combed.
Hempseed oil.
Hides and skins, and their products.
Horses (living); horseshoes.
Hydrochloric acid, chemically pure.
Instruments and apparatus for medical, surgical, veterinary, and dental use and for sick nursing in general.
Jute, raw; jute products and jute waste.
Jute sacking (except sacking used in packing other goods destined for export).
Kainite (see under Potassium salts).
Kelp ash.
Lactic acid.
Lard (see Margarine, etc.); lard oil (see under Oils).
Lead.
Leather and products thereof.
Linseed and linseed oil.
Lubricants of all kinds, with the exception of oils of fish and other marine animals.
Lysol. (See Cresol.)
Machinery, electrical, of all kinds (except machinery manufactured in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Machines intended for the manufacture of ammunition.
Maize oil.
Margarine, and raw materials, either solid or liquid, for the manufacture of margarine such as oleo stock, lard, arachides, cotton (sic), and cocos. (See also under Oil.)
Medical apparatus and instruments (see under Instruments).
Medicaments included in Schedules A and B of the Law of 29th August 1908.‡
Mineral oils. (See also Lubricants.)
Mineral wax (ozokerite), ceresine.
Molybdenum, unwrought or crude; molybdenite (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Motors of more than 15 horse-power, with more than 600 revolutions per minute, and weighing less than 25 kilogs. per horse-power; also motor boats fitted with such motors.
Motor boats. (See under preceding heading.)
Motor cars, and tyres therefor; motor cycles and spare parts thereof.
Naphthol, naphthylamines, naphthylaminesulphonic acids, etc. (see under Dyes.)
Nickel ore; nickel, unworked (except nickel produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Nitre salt (see under Potassium salts.)
Oils:—oil of turpentine (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin); rapeseed oil, olive oil or sweet oil§, hempseed oil, maize oil, soya oil, castor oil, ground-nut or arachides oil, sesame oil, cottonseed oil or cotton oil, palm oil, palm kernel fat, cocos oil, or coco-nut oil; linseed oil; vaseline oil; mineral oils; animal oils.‖
Oleo stock. (See Margarine, etc.).
Olive oil or sweet oil.‖

* The terms "food stuffs" and "forage" include everything used for nourishing men or animals.
† Gold worked up into jewellery or articles of use may be exported.

‖ The only animal oils not prohibited are whale and fish oils and waste tallow and fat from tanneries and slaughter-houses which could not be used as lubricants or as human food.

Ozokerite (mineral wax).
Palm oil, palm kernel fat.
Paraffin wax.
Peat.
Percussion caps (dynamite percussion caps).
Petroleum, crude and distillates. (See Mineral oils.)
Pigs.
Potassium salts (chloride of potash, 37 per cent potash fertiliser and kainite, and products thereof), such as chlorate of potash, bichlorate of potash, nitre salt, and caustic potash. [See also Note as to Drugs, etc., p. 1255.]
Rapeseed oil.
Reindeer.
Rosin.
Rubber, crude (gummi elasticum), and partly worked products thereof; rubber waste.
Sacks, empty.*
Salicylic acid.
Scheelite (expect that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Sesame oil.
Sheep.
Shellac.
Silver, minted or unminted.†
Skins and hides, and their products.
Skis and ski sledges.
Soya oil.
Stearine (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by certificates of origin).
Sulphate of copper.
Sulphur and flowers of sulphur.
Sulphuric acid, chemically pure.
Surgical apparatus and instruments (see under Instruments).
Tallow, animal.
Tanning materials.
Tar dyes, etc. (see under Dyes.)
Tartaric acid.
Tin unmanufactured; tin in rolls, bars, sheets, and filings.
Tinplates (including decorated tin, parts of tinplates, worked tin, and ready-made tin packing).‡
Turpentine oil (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Tyres for motor cars and for cycles.
Vanadium, unwrought or crude.
Vaseline and vaseline oil.
Veterinary apparatus and instruments (see under Instruments).
Wax:—paraffin wax, mineral wax (ozokerite), ceresine.
Wire, barbed. (For copper and brass wire, see under Copper; for aluminium wire, under Aluminium.)
Wolfram, unwrought or crude.
Wolframite (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Wool and woollen goods (including all sorts of woollen waste).
Wool-fat (all kinds).
Zinc, unwrought and wrought; scrap zinc.

NOTE AS TO DRUGS, MEDICAMENTS, ETC.

The Norwegian Law of the 29th August, 1908 (Law relative to the trade in poisons and apothecaries' goods), contained three Schedules (A, B and C of drugs, medicaments, etc.)

SCHEDULE A contains a list of drugs, etc., which may only be sold in Norway by chemists. It includes poisons, arcana (all simple and compound materials offered for sale as medicines and the composition of which is kept secret), and medicamina (all materials which are used for preventing or curing sickness, without regard as to whether their simple

* Permission to export is granted when the sacks have entered Norway containing goods and are proved to belong to the exporters of such goods and also when the sacks are urgently required by foreign firms who are shipping goods to Norway.

† Silver worked up into jewellery or articles of use may be exported.

‡ It is understood that permission to export will be granted in respect of tins (biscuit tins which have entered Norway containing goods, the procedure being the same as that followed in the case of sacks (see Note 1* on page 1255).

ingredients are or are not articles of general commerce: excluded from this as exceptions are specially mentioned preparations mentioned in Schedule C 2, of the Law under collective groups, also materials which belong to Schedule C, 1, when these are used as bandages, for disinfecting, in cosmetics, for technical or other non-medicinal purposes, and not as advertisements, circulars or in any other manner offered for sale or recommended as materials which may be employed for healing sickness). Medicamina are divided into three categories, viz.:—

(a) Medicamina composita (composite medicines and drugs):

[The Law contains a long list, including, inter alia, aquæ destillatæ et extemporaneæ medicinales, chartæ medicinales, decocta medicinalia, emulsiones medicinales, extracta medicinalia, linimenta medicinales, pastæ, pastillæ tabulettæ et trochisci medicinales salia medicinalia mixta, sapones medicinales, solutiones medicinales, tincturæ medicinales, vina medicinalia, etc., etc.]

(b) Medicamina simplicia (simple medicines or drugs):

This is again sub-divided into—

1. Animalium variæ species. (Examples.: Cantharides, castoreum, lapis cancrorum.)
2. Præparata chemica.

   [A long list is specified, including inter alia, acetanilide, acetylsalicylic acid and aspirin, benzoic acid, carbolic acid, æther nitrosus spirituosus, etc., alkaloids and their combinations, antifebrine, antipyrine, arsenic and its combinations, chloral hydrate, chloroform, diuretine, and theobromine-salicylate of soda, hexamethylen tetramine and urotropine, iodoform and iodol, acetate and tartrate of potash, lysoform, naphthol, nitrobenzol, paraldehyde, pepsine, phosphorus, resorcin, saccharin, veronal, etc., etc.]
3. Pyrolea.
4. Vegetabilium variæ species:

   [A long list is specified under this head.]

(c) Medicaminum variæ species:

[The list specified under this head includes, inter alia, serums.]

SCHEDULE B contains a list of drugs, etc., which may be sold by chemits and also by specially licensed tradesmen. It covers the following:—

Aloes.
Ammonium bromide; ammonium iodide.
Trichloride of antimony, butter of antimony.
Oxide of antimony.
Barium bromide; barium iodide; barium chlorate, chloric and barytes; barium hydrate (caustic baryta).
Benzinaform.
Lead oxide, sugar of lead; lead nitrate.
Bromine.
Tartar emetic, antimony tartrate.
Potassium bromide; potassium iodide; ootassium iodate; potassium oxalate (neutral and acid); potassium perchlorate.
(Caustic potash, potassium hydrate in metal containers of less than 40 kilog.; for quantities of 500 gr. or less the container may be of glass). [See also under Potassium salts on page 1255.]
Caustic lithia (lithium hydrate).
Sodium bromide; sodium iodide; sodium oxalate.
Caustic soda, sodium hydrate (in metal containers of less than 40 kilog.; for quantities of 500 gr. or less the container may be of glass).
Hydrofluoric acid.
Phosphorus, amorphous, red phosphorus.
Iron oxalate, ferrous oxalate.
Iodine.
Cadmium bromide; cadmium iodide.
Calcium bromide; Calcium iodide.
Copper acetate, verdigris.
Copper nitrate.
Cobalt chloride.
Chromic acid.

Oxalic acid.
Pyridine.
Zinc chloride.
Strontium bromide; strontium iodate.
Carbon disulphide.
Liver of sulphur.

[SCHEDULE C relates to goods which may be sold practically without restriction. The following articles from Schedule C have been prohibited to be exported, and are included specifically in the list on pp. 1—1255, viz., absolute alcohol, citric acid and its salts, tartaric acid, collodion, chemically pure hydrochloric acid, chemically pure sulphuric acid, lactic acid, formaldehyde solution and other formaldehyde preparations, balsam of Peru, wool-fat (all kinds), vaseline and vaseline oil.]

SWEDEN.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORT OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

July 21, 1915.

NOTES.

1. A Swedish Royal Decree of the 9th January, 1915, definitively prohibited the transit through Sweden of arms, ammunition, and other war material. The articles to which this prohibition of transit applies are indicated by a cross (×) in the list printed below.

2. The numbers and letters quoted below relate to the headings of the "Statistical Index of Goods" under which the prohibited articles fall.

The numbers are the same as those of the Swedish Customs Tariff*; the letters indicate the sub-divisions of the numbers, and are found only in the "Statistical Index"—which is considerably more detailed in classification than the Customs Tariff.

ex 1258	Acetylsalicylic acid.
	Acids:—See under the respective headings—Acetylsalicylic, Carbolic, Citric, Hydrobromic and hydroiodic, Olein, etc., Salicylic, Sulphuric, Tannic, Tartaric.
ex 1258	Adrenaline and salts and preparations thereof.
ex 1250	Agar-agar.
1196	Alizarine and aniline dyes, and other tar colours, not specially mentioned in the Statistical Index. (See also Indigo, synthetic, and under Aniline and Tar colours.)
ex 1258	Aloes.
ex 953†	Aluminium and wares thereof. (See under Copper.)
ex 1258	Alypin.
1196	Aniline and alizarine dyes, and other tar colours, not specially mentioned in the Statistical Index. (See also Indigo, synthetic.)
1197	Aniline (aniline oil), naphthol, naphthylamine and paranitraniline and salts thereof.
	Animals, living. (See under Horses, Oxen, Pigs.)
	Animals, cloven-footed, and meat therefrom [export prohibited to Denmark only]. [See Note to heading for Meat.]
ex 1258	Antifebrine.
ex 953†	Antimony, unmanufactured or in the rough, also scrap.
ex 1258	Antipyrine (phenyldimethylic pyrazolone.)
ex 1258	Arecoline and its salts.
	× Arms. (See under War Materials and Weapons.)
	Articles of sheet iron. (See Iron sheets.)
230 G	Aspenwood, unmanufactured.
ex 1258	Atropine and its salts.
	Balata, unworked. (See under Rubber.)
ex 1178 D	Balsam of Peru.

* The most convenient form in which the Swedish Customs Tariff in its present form can be consulted is the translation published by the International Customs Tariff Bureau at Brussels (No. 93, Second Edition, March 1912).

Yarns of jute (see Jute yarns); yarns of wool (see Woollen yarns).

Zinc:

ex 946 Unmanufactured (with the exception of zinc produced from raw material (not from scrap) at a Swedish refinery); also scrap.

947 A Sheets, even with a coating of other nonprecious metal.

ex 947 B Wire, pipes and parts of pipes; anodes, even if provided with ears, with or without holes.

947 C Rolled sheets furnished with holes (so-called boiler zinc).

948 Rods.

DENMARK.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

July 14, 1915.

NOTES.

1. As regards goods in transit and transhipment goods (in the Copenhagen free port and all other Danish harbours), all such goods, if of a kind prohibited to be exported from Denmark, are covered by the prohibition unless they are on a through bill of lading to a port in a foreign (non-Danish) country.

The prohibition is therefore applicable in cases where the goods are either shipped to a Danish port "to order," or where the goods are redestined to another port than the one originally mentioned in the bill of lading (unless it is only a question of redestination to another port in the same country).

2. According to an official notice published in the "Berlingske Tidende" of the 12th February, 1915, permissions to export granted by the Ministry of Justice are valid only for one month from the day on which permission was granted, unless other conditions are determined in the permit itself.

Aluminium (see Materials, raw); aluminium salts.
Ammonia sulphate (see Manures); ammonia and ammoniacal salts.
Ammunition of all kinds, and distinctive component parts thereof.
Aniline and aniline combinations (see Tar colours).
Antimony (see Materials, raw); alloys of antimony.
Arms (see Weapons).
Artificial manures (see Manures).
Asbestos (see Materials, raw).
Bandaging and dressing materials (including tarred jute and hygroscopic cotton).
Barbed wire.

* The following tissues are specially mentioned in the index, and are therefore excepted from the prohibition, viz., press cloth; machine-felt, endless or woven round for factory use [393]; carpets mats, and rugs [394-9], velvet and plush [400]; tissues shaped in manufacture not specially mentioned [except woollen blankets of this kind [401]; double-mounted tissues, not combined with other textile materials, unbleached or bleached, weighing 100 grammes or less per square metre [402]; dress cloths weighing 300 grammes or more per square metre, containing threads wholly or partly of silk, the silk not exceeding 3 per cent of the total weight of the tissue [403].

Barley (included under Cereals).
Beans (see Fodder-stuffs).
Benzine (petrol); benzol.
Bilberries, dried.
Bones, raw and calcined, bone dust (see Manures); bonefat and bone-oil (see Lubricants).
Bran (see Fodder-stuffs).
Brass plates, brass bars, old brass, brass scrap (see Materials, raw).
Bread (see Flour).
Cables, electric.
Candles (paraffin candles).
Carrots (see Fodder-stuffs).
Cattle-foods (see Fodder-stuffs).
Cereals.
Chrome (ore).
Clover seed.
Coal and Coke.
Cocoanut yarn and cordage made thereof.
Colours (tar colours) and organic ingredients for producing tar colours including aniline and aniline combinations.
Copper ore and slag derived therefrom.
Copper of all kinds, old and new*, copper scrap (see Materials, raw).
Copper vitriol (copper sulphate).
Copper vitriol (copper sulphate).
Copra.
Cordage made of hemp, jute, or cocoanut yarn.
Corn offals (see Fodder-stuffs).
Cotton and cotton yarn; cotton waste.
Cotton seed.
Cresol and metacresol.
Crucibles (graphite).
Dressings (see Bandages).
Driving-belts of leather.
Drugs of all kinds (all goods specified in the Decree of 1st August, 1914, containing regulations respecting goods dealt in by apothecaries†, with the exception of soap, perfumes, ordinary retail skin cream and powder).
Dyes (tar dyes) (see Tar colours).
Earth nuts.
Electric cables.
Explosives and gunpowder, as well as raw materials for their manufacture (including sulphur, Sulphuric acid, saltpetre [including Chile saltpetre], nitric acid and glycerine).
Ferrochrome; ferromanganese, ferromolybdenum; ferronickel; ferrosilicon; ferrotitanium; ferrotungsten; ferrovanadium.
Flour (including bread of all kinds).
Fodder-stuff (including oil-cakes, hay, straw, malt-germs, crushed soya beans, bran, corn offsals, carrots, swedes, bloodmeal, blood feeding cake, peas [both cooking and fodder pease], beans, and lentils).
‡ Fuel-stuffs (coal, coke, petroleum of all kinds, benzine, and other materials for fuel).
Gas cleaning material, used.
Glycerine [see Lubricants and Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Gold and silver coin § or bars (including foreign coinage of gold and silver §, silver in plates and gold in leaves).
Graphite and graphite crucibles.
Groats (including maizena, sago groats, rice groats, and buckwhet groats).
Gunpowder (see Explosives).
Haematite iron ore, haematite pig iron, pyrites ("svovlkis" and "jernkis").
Hay (see Fodder-stuffs).
Hemp, raw, and cordage and yarn made thereof.
Hides (raw cattle-hides, and salted calf-skins of at least 8 kilogrammes salted weight, and dried calf-skins of at least 4 kilogrammes each).

* The term "copper" includes all kinds of copper, also manufactured copper [December 4, 1914].

† One copy of this Decree is on file at the Board of Trade (12049); and one copy at the War Trade Department (38368 W. O. 2).

‡ All the preparations covered by the expression "mineral oils and motor spirit." distillates of mineral oils, such as petroleum liquid, fuel gas oil, etc., come within the scope of the prohibition [December 4, 1914].

§ Travellers may carry with them the gold and silver coins not exceeding 200 kroner in value.

Hides and skins, prepared (except goat-skins).
Horses, including foals and colts.
Instruments and apparatus designed exclusively for the manufacture of munitions of war or for the manufacture or repair of arms or materials for warfare by land or sea.
Iron nails (galvanised) for ships' use (see materials, raw).
Iron ore (haematite) pig iron (haematite), pyrites ("svovlkis" and "jernkis").
Iron plates, tinned or galvanised (see Materials, raw).
Jute, raw, and cordage and yarn made thereof; jute sackcloth; jute sacks.
Kainite (see Potash salts).
Knitting-machines; knitting-machine needles.
Lamb and sheep skins, prepared and unprepared.
*Lard; compound lard.
Lead of all kinds, old and new; scrap lead (see Materials, raw).
Leather.
Leather wares:—leather goods, not fully worked, including all semi-manufactured leather goods which are merly cut out, stuck or sewn together; leather driving-belts; all kinds of saddlemakers' wares in the production of which the workers' wage does not, in the opinion of the Ministry of Justice, amount to at least 30 per cent of the value of the leather employed.
Lentils (see Fodder-stuffs).
Linseed; linseed oil (included under Vegetable oils); linseed oil varnish.
Lubricants (including lubricating oils, vaseline, glycerine, and bonefat and bone-oil).
Maize (included under Cereals); maize starch.
Malt and malt-germs.
Manganese and manganese ore.
†Manures:—manufactured artificial manures, including superphosphates, blood manure, bone dust, sulphate of ammonia, and raw materials for the manufacture of manure, including raw and calcined bones, and gas water. (See also under Potash.)
Margarine.
Materials, raw, for building or repairing iron or steel ships, as also for the manufacture of arms or ammunition (including all aluminium, antimony, asbestos, lead of all kinds, old and new, tinned or galvanised iron plates, galvanised iron nails for ships' use, copper of all kinds, old and new, brass plates, brass bars, old brass, unwrought nickel, nickel wire, seamless steel tubes (boiler and steam tubes), tin of all kinds, old and new, zinc in blocks or sheets, metal scrap—of brass, copper, gun-metal, and lead).
Materials, raw, for making powder and explosives (including sulphur, sulphuric acid, saltpetre [including Chile saltpetre], nitric acid, and glycerine).
Medicinal stores (see Drugs)
Mineral oils, etc. (see Fuel-stuffs).
Motor spirit (see Fuel-stuffs).
Motor vehicles and motor cycles (including their component parts, also tubes and tyres).
Needles—knitting-machine needles.
Nickel ore.
Nickel, unwrought, nickel wire (see Meterials, raw).
Nitrate of potash (see Potash salts); nitrate of soda (Chile saltpetre) [see Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Nitric acid [see Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Oats (included under Cereals).
Oil-cake (see Fodder-stuffs).
Oils for lubricating and illuminating; oil of turpentine.
Oils, mineral (see Fuel-stuffs).
Oils and stearines, vegetable, for the manufacture of margarine (also compound lard).
Oleo stock, oleo oil, oleo and oleomargarine, oleo stearine.
Onions, edible.
Ores:—chrome ore, copper ore and slag derived therefrom, haematite iron ore, manganese ore, nickel ore.
Palmkernels.

* This prohibition does not apply to Danish-produced lard for human consumption, packed, fastened, and marked in a special manner, nor to Danish-produced lard for technical uses (i.e., lard not suitable for human consumption, but used for technical and industrial purposes, such as soap-making, etc., packed in a specil manner and marked "inedible."

† Raw and pulverised manurial lime are not included within the scope of the prohibition.

Paraffin; paraffin candles.
Pease (both cooking and fodder pease).
Petroleum of all kinds; petrol.
Pig iron (haematite).
Pigs, live.
Pigskins.
Potash salts (including kainite), potash manure, chloride of potash, potash lye, chlorate and perchlorate of potash, nitrate of potash.
Potatoes; potato starch.
Premier jus.
Pyrites ("svovlkis" and "jernkis").
Rags (woollen and half-woollen).
Raw materials for building or repairing iron or steel ships, or for the manufacture or repair of arms or ammunition (see Materials, raw).
Resin.
Rice groats; rice starch.
Rubber goods—cycle inner tubes and covers and other goods principally made of rubber.
Rubber, raw including rubber solution); reclaimed rubber; rubber waste.
Sacks, empty (cotton and jute); sackcloth of jute.
Saddlemakers' wares of all kinds, in the production of which the workers' wage does not, in the opinion of the Ministry of Justice, amount to at least 30 per cent of the value of the leather employed.
Saltpetre, including Chile saltpetre [see under Potash and Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Scrap brass, scrap copper, scrap gunmetal, scrap lead (see Materials, raw).
Sesame-seed.
Shoddy.
Silver and gold coin* or bullion (including foreign coin*), silver in plates.
Skins (lamb and sheep skins, prepared or not prepared, pigskins).
Soya beans.
Starch (maize starch, rice starch, potato starch, sago starch, and wheat starch).
Stearine, vegetable, for the manufacture of margarine.
Straw (see Fodder-stuffs).
Sulphate of ammonia (see Manures); sulphate of copper copper vitriol).
Sulphur and sulphuric acid [see Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Superphosphates (see Manures).
Swedes (see Fodder-stuffs).
Syringes, hand, for medical use.
Tallow (both beef and mutton tallow).
Tanning materials.
Tapioca.
Tar colours and organic ingredients for producing tar colours, including aniline and aniline combinations.
Thermometers for medical use.
Tin of all kinds, old and new (see Materials, raw); tin ore; chloride of tin; oxide of tin.
Tinned or galvanised iron plates (see Materials raw); waste of tinned iron sheets.
Turpentine oil, rectified and unrectified.
Tyres (covers) and tubes (cycle, motor cycle, and motor vehicles).
Varnish (linseed oil varnish).
Vaseline (see Lubricants).
Vegetable oils and stearines for the manufacture of margarine.
Wastes:—cotton waste; rubber waste; waste of tinned iron sheets.
Weapons of all kinds (including sporting guns, and distinctive component parts thereof).
Wheat (included under Cereals); wheat starch.
Wire, barbed.
Wood, in blocks, beams, and boards.
Wool (sheep and lambs).
Woollen and half-woollen rags and shoddy.
Woollen and worsted yarn.
Woollen goods—woven and knitted woollen tricotage goods, whatever be the proportion of wool contained therein; all woven woollen goods (with the exception of curtain and furniture stuffs and passementerie).
Yarns—woollen and worsted; cotton; hemp; jute; cocoanut.
Zinc in blocks or sheets (see Materials, raw).

* Travellers may carry with them gold and silver coins not exceeding 200 kroner in value.

NETHERLANDS.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORT OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

July 10, 1915.

NOTES.

The Crown reserves to itself the right to grant exceptions in certain cases from the prohibitions of export established by Royal Decree.

A Royal Decree of 28th August, 1914, authorised the Netherlands Minister of War in special cases to grant exemptions from any prohibitions to export specified goods which had then been issued or which might in future be issued.

Special bureaux [centraal tureau] have been established by the Netherlands Government for the regulation of the exportation of certain commodities [butter, cheese, pork]. The commodities in question may only be exported from the Netherlands when accompanied by a special export certificate [uitvoerconsent] issued by the bureau.

[The notes printed in small type under certain headings in the list below are in the nature of explanations of the scope, etc., of the prohibitions to which they refer. The majority of such explanatory notes are translations of Notes appended to the list of prohibited goods which are printed from time to time in the official Dutch paper the "Handelsberichten," and it should be borne in mind that they are in the nature of decisions on the part of the authorities administering the prohibitions, and appear to be liable to alteration or modification as the result of later decisions.]

Acetone.
Acids—nitric, sulphuric. (See also under Medicines, etc.)
Aeroplanes, etc. (see under Flying machines).
Ammonia sulphate, ammonia superphosphate (see Fertilisers).
Ammunition, gunpowder, and parts thereof.
Arachides, arachides cake, and arachides meal; almond substitute made from arachides.
Arms, except sporting arms.
Automobiles and parts thereof (including tyres), and motor cycles and parts thereof.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, speedometers are not regarded as coming under the prohibition applicable to parts of automobiles, nor are bodies (koetswerken) for automobiles.

[See under Rubber waste for worn-out motor tyres.]

Bacon (spek), fresh, salted, dried, and smoked. (See also under Pork and Meat.)

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, the prohibition does not apply to exports to Dutch oversea Colonies and Possessions, nor to bacon in railway trains and on ships and boats and intended solely for the use of the persons in such trains or vessels. [See also Note to "Pork, etc."]

Bandaging articles and materials therefor (see under Medicines).
Barbed wire (see Wire).
Barley, barley meal, and all articles produced from barley. (See also under Cereals.)
Beans (see pulse).
Beef.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, exception is made to this prohibition in respect of cured beef and of fresh meat from newborn and fact calves (except newborn heifer calves).

Beets (sugar beets).
Benzine.
Biscuits, etc. (see under Bread).
Blankets and blanket material, woollen. (See Wool.)
Bones; bone-meal (see under Fertilisers).
Brass, bronze, etc. (see Copper and alloys thereof).
Bread, ship and other biscuits, cakes, etc. (all articles produced from wheat and spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, and maize).

A Royal Decree of the 1st January, 1915, empowered the Dutch military authorities to allow the export of certain quantities of bread for supplying the daily requirements of the inhabitants of foreign territory in the immediate vicinity of the Ducth frontier, if such inhabitants are unable to obtain bread in their own country, or can only do so under very onerous conditions.

Briquettes (except charcoal briquettes).

Buckwheat and all articles produced from buckwheat. (See also under cereals Butter (except butter accompanied by a special export certificate).

Calcium acetate; calcium cyanamide (nitrite of lime) and calcium nitride (lime nitrogen) (see Fertilisers).

Carbonate of potassium, caustic potash (including potash lye), potassium salts.

Carts and carriages for horse traction; motor cars and parts thereof.

[See Note to Motor cars.]

Cattle, living.

Cereals and articles produced therefrom.

The "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, contains the following explanations as to the scope of the prohibition under this head:—

The following are prohibited:—buckwheat, barley, barley meal, goats, oats, maize, maize meal, rye, rye meal, wheat, wheat meal (flour), and all products derived from buckwheat, barely, oats, maize, rye, spelt and wheat.

Beer, yeast, gin, maize oil, and malt wine do not fall under the prohibition, but the following, products do:—biscuits including ship's biscuit, dog's biscuit, and other biscuits, cakes, porridge, gingerbread, macaroni, malt coffee, wafers, pudding powder prepared with grain meal, racahout, triscuit, vermicelli, waffles, and similar articles.

Oat flakes which have been specially prepared for sufferers from diabetes may, however, be freely exported.

Cheese (except cheese accompanied by a special export certificate).

His Majesty's Minister at The Hague reported on the 26th April, 1915, that the State Central Bureau for the Export of Cheese had determined that on and after the 1st May certificates would be granted in respect of 80—90 per cent. of the cheese purchased or produced in the Netherlands—the percentage varying according to the Province and the description of the cheese.

Chicory in any form (including chicory roots), and coffee substitutes made from various roots (peekoffie).

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, coffee syrup (burnt molasses does not fall under the prohibition of export).

Chile saltpetre (see Fertilisers).

Cloth, military, and clothing made therefrom. (See under Wool.)

Coal; coal-tar dyes (see under Tar dyestuffs).

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, bunker coal may be exported in any ship in a quantity sufficient to carry the ship to its next port of destination.

Cocoa beans, raw; cocoa paste; cocoa in the lump.

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, the prohibition of cocoa beans applies also to shelled and broken cocoa beans, to cocoa dust, and to roasted cocoa beans. As regards cocoa husks and meal thereof, see under Force feeding cake.

Coffee substitutes made from various roots (peekoffie). (See under Chicory).

Cotton, raw.

Cotton seed (see Oilseeds), cotton-seed cake, cotton-seed meal.

Cotton waste; cotton yarn.

Copper and alloys thereof, whether raw or manufactured (unless used as part of any manufactured article of which copper or copper alloy does not constitute a main component part).

A Royal Decree of the 3rd March, 1915, provided that the Minister of Finance shall decide whether copper or copper alloy constitutes a "main component part" of any manufactured article.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, electric incandescent lamps may be exported, as copper does not constitute the main component. This does not apply to unserviceable incandescent lamps, which are prohibited as scrap copper.

Copper sulphate; copper oxide.

Diuretinum.

Dyestuffs (tar dystuffs) (see under Tar dyesuffs.)

Earthnuts, earthnut cake, and earthnut meal; almond substitute made from earthnuts.

Electric pocket lamps, parts thereof, and raw materials for the manufacture thereof.

Engine (machine) and lubricating oils.

[See Note under Lubricating oil.]

Ether.

Fat—all melted or unmelted animal fats, mixtures of these fats with each other, or mixtures thereof with vegetable oils or fats. (See also Tallow.)

A notice published by the Ministry of Agriculture on the 7th June explained that this prohibition is intended to prevent entirely the export of unmixed fat of cattle and pigs. The exportation of the following articles to a limited extent, under export licenses, will be permitted:—

(1) Certain mixtures for use as substitutes of fat of cattle or of pigs;

(2) Certain products of the fat of cattle or pigs, imported into the Netherlands from abroad (e.g., neutral lard, premier jus, oleomargarine, etc.).

(3) Animal fats other than cattle and pig fat (e.g., mutton fat, hardened fish oil, etc.).

Margarine may be freely exported in so far as by its preparation with milk and milk products it has been rendered suitable for use as a butter substitute.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, the prohibition does not apply to exports of fat to Dutch oversea Colonies and Possessions, nor to fats for the actual use of passengers on railway trains or ships or boats.

Fecula, and products manufactured therefrom.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, this prohibition applies, inter alia, to potato meal, potato starch, tapioca, sago, arrowroot, dextrine, glucose (grape sugar), manihot, etc.

Fertilisers :—Chile saltpetre, lime saltpetre (nitrate of lime), lime nitrogen (calcium nitride), nitrite of lime (calcium cyanamide), ammonia sulphate, ammonia superphosphate, guano and other nitrogenous fertilisers, superphosphates; crude phosphates.

Flannel (except cotton flannel) and underwear made therefrom. (See Wool.)

Flax (linen) yarns.

Flying machines and parts thereof.

Flour and meal, of wheat and spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, and maize; also potato flour (including potato sago and potato starch.)

Force feeding cake [see also those specially mentioned in the list], and meal and waste thereof.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, this prohibition does not apply to cocoa husks, cocoa husk meal, copra, groundnut husk meal (finely ground groundnut shells), and linseed husks.

The articles known in the trade as palm-kernel cakes and copra meal or cocos meal are generally obtained by grinding or powdering palm-kernel cakes and copra cakes, or cocos cakes or are to be regarded as waste thereof, and thus fall under the prohibition of export applicable to meal and waste of force feeding cakes.

Mowra cakes, the residue from expressing Mowra seeds, come under the prohibition of export of force feeding cakes.

Fuel (see under Benzine, Briquettes, Gas oil, Liquid fuel, Petroleum, Coal, Coal-tar, and Tar colours.)

Gas oil.

Gold coin and bullion (bars, rods, etc.).

The prohibition does not apply to gold coins carried by bonâ fide travellers.

Grain waste.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, this prohibition does not apply to Vienna glue or shoemakers' glue made from waste in the manufacture of wheat starch. Molasses cattle feed mixed with grain waste falls under this prohibition. Chaff falls under the prohibition of grain waste or straw.

Grass seeds.

Groats. (For oat groats, see under Cereals.)

Groundnuts, groundnut cake and groundnut meal; almond substitute made from groundnuts.

Guano (see Fertilisers.)

Gunpowder. (See under Ammunition.)

Half-woollen (mixed woollen) goods (see under Wool.)

Hay.

A notice was published in the "Nederlandsche Staatscourant" for the 22nd April stating that it was intended to grant permits for the exportation of certain parcels of hay which cannot be consumed in the Netherlands in view of the approaching grazing season.

Hemp yarns, resembling linen yarns, and destined for weaving (not including hemp for binding twine, manila hemp, sisal, etc.).

Hides and skins. (See also Sheep fleeces.)

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies to all hides and skins, and also to peltry, but not to furriers' wares. In the case of slaughtered calves and other slaughtered cattle, the hides may not be exported with the carcass.

Hogwash, dried.

Horses.

Instruments, surgical.

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to rubber articles for the sickroom, such as air-pillows, ice-bags, etc. No restriction is imposed on the exportation of surgical instruments to the Dutch Indies.

Iron, raw, of all kinds.

Iron and steel wire, and articles made of iron or steel wire; barbed wire; sheet iron, tinned (tinplate.)

Jute, raw; jute cloth; jute yarns.

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, tailors' linen, consisting of cotton or linen warp with jute weft, does not fall within the scope of the prohibition of jute cloth.

Knitting machine needles.

Lard (see fat.)

Lead and its alloy; waterpipes and watermaines of lead or of tinned lead.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, tin solder, consisting of 30 per cent. of lead and 70 per cent. of tin, is prohibited as a lead alloy. Lead ashes, which, besides lead oxide, often contain an appreciable proportion of metallic lead, are also prohibited to be exported.

Leather and articles manufactured therefrom.

Lime, nitrate of (lime saltpetre), nitrite of (calcium cyanamide), lime nitrogen (calcium nitride) (see Fertilisers.)

Linen yarns.

Linseed (see Oilseeds), linseed-cake, linseed-meal.

Liquid fuel.

Lubricating and machine oils.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to Chinese wood oil (obtained from the seeds of aleuritis cordata), groundnut oil, cotton-seed oil, linseed oil, maize oil, oleic acid, palm-kernel oil or soya oil. Solid fat (consistenvet) and other similar lubricating grease, and hydrogenised castor oil (i.e., castor oil hardened by chemical means) fall under the prohibition.

Macaroni and vermicelli.

Magnesium salts.

The "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, contains the following explanations as to the scope of the prohibition of "Magnesium salts".—

Crude carbonate of magnesium or magnesite and refined carbonate or magnesium, called magnesia alba or merely magnesia, fall under the prohibition of the export of magnesium salts.

Magnesium oxide, burnt magnesia, calcined magnesia, or magnesia usta, which, in the unrefined state, is known in the trade as burnt or calcined magnesite, is not really a salt, and therefore does not fall under the prohibition of magnesium salts. Refined magnesium oxide for medicinal use falls under the prohibition of the exportation of medicines.

Maize, maize meal, and all articles produced from maize. (See also under Cereals).

Manures (see Fertilisers).

Meal of pulse; meal and othor products of wheat, spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, maize, and rice; meat-meal.

Meat preparations and provisions containing meat, preserved in tins or other airtight receptacles.

Medicines and bandaging articles, and materials for making them.

The "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, contains the following explanations under this heading:—

The prohibition is temporarily withdrawn in respect of theobromine, chinchona bark and products derived therefrom, cocaine, coca, and cubebs. The following articles among others, are not as a rule regarded as being covered by the prohibition:—ammonia, carbonate of ammonia, acetic acid, barium chloride, bleaching powder, blood albumen, cocoa, butter, caseine, Chinese wood oil, licorice, acorn coffee, gelatine, gypsum, glycerine, Glauber's salts, iris root (rhizoma calami), carraway-oil, linden blossom, sugar of milk, musk, clove oil, paraffin, peppermint, saccharin, sanatogen, star aniseed, vanilline, and silicate of soda, and certain specialities prepared by A. M. Boom, of Arnhem, and other firms.

The following inter alia, are covered by the prohibition:—

Alum, borax, bicarbonate of soda, iodine, iodic acid and other iodine combinations, camphor and camphor acid, creosote and oresol, codliver oil, sugar of lead, magnesia alba, magnesia usta, (pure magnesium oxide), lactic acid, naphthalene, peppermint oil, arsenic, sal ammoniac, thymol, tartaric acid, hydrochloric acid;

opium and its derivatives: morphine, codeine, pantopon laudanum, etc.;

salicylate, aspirine, novaspirine, diaspirine, antifebrine, lactophenine, antipyrine and other medicinal compounds derived from salicylate and aniline; further, mercury and mercurry salts, salvarsan and neosalvarsan, bromine, salts and other bromine compounds, bismuth, carbolic acid or phenol (purified or crude), castor oil, and patent medicines for inducing sleep, such as adaline, veronal, and trional.

Military cloth and clothing made therefrom.

Molasses; molasses cattle food.

Motor cars and parts thereof, including tyres; motor cycles and parts thereof.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, speedometers are not regarded as coming under the prohibition applicable to parts of motor cars, nor are bodies (koetswerken) for motor cars.

[See under Rubber waste for worn-out motor tyres.]

Needles (knitting machine needles).

Nickel, whether raw or manufactured (unless used as part of any manufactured article of which nickel does not constitute a main component part).

A Royal Degree of the 16th April, 1915, authorised the Minister of Finance to decide (if necessary) whether nickel constitutes a "main component part" of any manufactured article.

Nitrate of lime (lime saltpetre), nitrate of sodium (Chile saltpetre (see Fertilisers); nitrate of potash (see Potash salts).

Nitric acid.

Nitride of calcium (lime nitrogen) and nitrite of lime (calcium cyanamide) (see Fertilisers).

Oats and all articles produced from oats. (See also under Cereals.)

Offals of cereals.

[See Note to Grain waste.]

Oilcakes (groundnut cake, cotton-seed cake, linseed cake, etc.) (see Force feeding cake).

Oilseeds:—linseed, rape-seed, and other oil seeds, but not carraway seed, mustard seed, and blue poppy seed.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, the following fall under the prohibition of the exportation of oilseeds:—anacardi nuts, cashew nuts, canary seeds (canariumpitten), groundnuts (arachides) and almond substitute made therefrom, hempseed, illippi nuts, mowra seeds, shea nuts and all other Bassia seeds, kapok seeds, niger seeds, palm kernels, and sun flower seeds. By "canary seeds" (canariumpitten) are meant the seeds of various kinds or canary used in place of almonds, and the term does not therefore apply to canary seeds used as birds' food, which may be freely exported, Bombay kernels (the seeds of prunus bokhariensis), cedar-wood nuts (the seeds of pinus cembra), and myrrha beans (the seeds of pineal.) are also exempt from prohibition.

Oils:—see under Gas-oil; Lubricating and machine oils; Rape-seed oil; Petroleum: Benzine; Liquid fuel; Turpentine.

Peas (see Pulse).

According to a notice in the Official Gazette of the 20th May, 1915, permission will be given to export green peas of any kind. Applications for permission will not be considered unless the applicant has stored in the Amsterdam position a quantity of green peas or marrow peas equal to at least one-third of the quantity to be exported.

Petroleum; benzine.

Phosphates, crude.

Pigs, living.

Pocket lams (electric), parts thereof, and raw materials for the manufacture of the same.

Pork (varkensvleesch), in any form (except that accompanied by a special export certificates).

(See also Bacon, and Meat preparations, etc.).

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies also to sausages and any other form of preserved pigs' meat. The prohibition is not, however, applicable to exports to Dutch oversea Colonies and Possessions.

The same publication states that export certificates may only be used for native (Dutch) products, and that they cannot be used for American bacon or other foreign bacon or meat.

Potash (potassium carbonate), caustic potash (including potash lye), potassium salts.

Potatoes cut in pieces or mashed, and waste of potatoes; potato flour (see under Fecula).

According to a notice published by the Minister of Agriculture on the 6th May, potato fibre (aardappelvezels) is prohibited under the heading of potato waste. Potato fibre which has been entirely worked up may, however, be exported without permits. Fibre containing, in the dry material, more than 50 per cent. of fecula is not regarded as having been worked up.

Poultry, alive or dead.

Pulp, dried, and sugar pulp.

Pulse and pulse meal; preparations and preserves of pulse-seeds.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, groundnuts and almond substitute made therefrom, vetch seeds, and hop-seeds, fall under this prohibition, but not green unripe pulse seeds which are to be used as vegetables.

[See also Note under peas.]

Pyrites.

Rags, woollen and half-woollen.

Rape-seed (see Oilseeds), rape, cake, meal, rape-seed oil.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, butter oil (consisting of refined rape-seed oil) comes under the prohibition of rape-seed oil.

Rennet preparations.
Rice, rice waste, and all products of rice (including rice starch).
Resin.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies only to the product known to the trade as resin (pine resin), and not to products such as gum damar and gum copal. So-called pitch consisting almost entirely of resin, including brewers' pitch, is covered by the prohibition, but real pitch (coal-tar pitch) is not.

Rubber waste; rubber tyres (see under Tyres).

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, motor tyres with worn-out treads (doorgehakte hielen) fall under the prohibition of export of rubber waste.

Rye, rye meal, and all articles produced from rye. (See also under Cereals.)
Sacks, empty.

A notice was published by the Ministers of Finance and Agriculture on the 18th November, 1914, to the effect that sacks which have been imported into the Netherlands filled may be re-exported in an empty condition after the necessary permission has been obtained. In order to obtain this permission it must be proved that an equal number of sacks of the same sort, filled, was previously imported from the country to which the empty sacks are destined.

Salt.
Salted vegetables.
Saltpetre—Chile and lime saltpetres (see Fertilisers); common saltpetre (See Potash salts).
Scythes.
Seeds (grass).
Sheep, living; sheep fleeces.
Shellac.
Shoddy (artificial wool).
Skins (see Hides).
Soap—all soaps which are not in the form of powder, bar, or cakes (pieces).
Sodium nitrate (Chile saltpetre) (see Fertilisers).
Spades.
Spelt (see Wheat).
Starch (rice starch, potato starch, maize starch, and other kinds).
Steel and iron wire, and articles made of steel or iron wire.
Stomachs of calves.
Straw.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, straw-bands, also straw, used for packing goods, do not fall within the scope of the prohibition. Straw used for covering and protecting potatoes, vegetables, and fruit, up to a maximum of 300 kiloges per waggon, is also excepted from the prohibition.

Chaff is covered by the prohibition of the exportation of grain waste or of straw.

Sugar: sugar pulps (see also Syrups); molasses; sugar beets.

On the 23rd September, 1914, the Dutch Government permitted the exportation of 60 per cent. of new season's sugar, beginning September-October. This percentage was reduced to 40 per cent. by a Decree of the 7th June, 1915.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, edible and potable wares prepared with sugar are not prohibited to be exported unless they are covered by some heading, other than sugar, on the prohibited list.

Sulphate of ammonia (see Fertilisers); sulphate of copper.
Sulphuric acid.
Superphosphates (see Fertilisers).
Surgical instruments.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to rubber articles for sick room, such as air-pillows, ice bags, etc. No restriction is imposed on the exportation of surgical instruments to the Dutch Indies.

Syrups (not including apple syrup).
Tallow.

Denatured tallow (tallow unfit for consumption) is not prohibited to be exported.

Tanning materials and tanning extracts.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to logwood, barium chloride, gall-nuts and extract therefrom, hemlock bark, kino and extracts therefrom, and quercitron bark or fustin.

Tar (coal-tar); tar-dyestuffs, and all substances derived from tar which may be used for the preparation or application of tar dyestuffs.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies, inter alia, to aniline oil, benzol and naphthalene. Dry colours, consisting principally of heavy spar, sodium sulphate, and other cheap materials, coloured with at most 5 per cent. of aniline colour, are not prohibited.

Tinned sheet iron (tinplate) ; empty tins.
Tinned meats or provisions containing meat.
Toluol.
Turpentine.
Tyres for motors (as parts of automobiles) ; tyres for cycles, including tyres attached to cycles.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, used tyres on the wheels of cycles used in bonâ fide frontier traffic are not covered by the prohibition of export of cycle tyres. As regards wornout motor tyres, see Note to Rubber waste.

Vaseline.
Vegetables, salted.
Vehicles for horse traction ; motor cars and parts thereof.

[See Note to Motor cars.]

Vermicelli and macaroni.
Waste of wool ; cotton waste ; rubber waste.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, motor tyres with worn-out treads (doorgehakte hielen) fall under the prohibition of the export of rubber waste.

Waste of grain ; rice waste ; potato waste.

[See Note to Grain waste and to Potato waste.]

Waterpipes and watermains, of lead or of tinned lead.
Weapons (except sporting weapons).
Wheat, wheat flour, and all articles produced from wheat. (See also under Cereals.)
Wire :—barbed wire ; iron and steel wire, and articles made of iron and steel wire.
Wool, raw and washed ; artificial wool (shoddy) ; wool waste ; sheep fleeces ; woollen yarns and woollen mixed yarns ; woollen blankets and blanket materials ; woollen or half-woollen goods ; flannel (except cotton flannel) and underwear made therefrom. (See also Military cloth.)

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, the prohibition of the export of woollen and half woollen goods is not to be applied to goods in the piece except in the case of those specially named, e.g., flannel, military cloth, and woollen blanket material.

Half-wool, Jaeger cloth or flannel comes under the prohibition of flannel.

Mohair or angora wool, camel hair, and alpaca hair are regarded as wool for the purpose of the export prohibitions.

Carpets (tapijten) do not come under the prohibition of export.

Woollen and half-woollen rags.
Yarns :—see under cotton, jute, hemp, linen, woollen.
Zinc sheets ; zinc, whether raw or manufactured (unless used as part of any manufactured article of which zinc does not form a main component part).

A Royal Degree of the 25th June, 1915, empowered the Minister of Finance to decide, if necessary, whether zinc constitutes a "main component part" of any manufactured article.

ITALY.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

July 22, 1915.

NOTES.

(1) Exceptions to the prohibitions of export noted on pages 1279 to 1282 may be made by the Minister of Finance with the approval of the President of the Council of Ministers and of the Ministers of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce.—Decree of August 1, 1914.

(2) The prohibition of exportation covers re-exportation from warehouse or in discharge of "temporary admission" permits.—Decree of August 6, 1914.

(3) Merchandise, the exportation of which is prohibited, cannot be re-exported to foreign countries under process of transit or transhipment if it has arrived in an italian port with bills of lading indicating Italy as the original destination, or if there is no clear indication of destination.

For this purpose, consignments provided with bills of lading "to order," not indicating by name a foreing (non-Italian) destination, and those having only bills of lading "to bearer," will be considered as destined for the internal use of the State (i.e., in Italy).—Decree of November 13, 1914.

(4) A Royal Decree of the 10th June, 1915, prohibited the exportation of articles made wholly or in part from raw material of which the exportation is prohibited or from the products of such materials. His Majesty's Ambassador at Rome reported on the 4th July that, the Italian Minister of Finance had issued to the Italian Customs authorities explanatory instructions with regard to this Decree, from which it appears that, while the absolute prohibition of exportation of all products and manufactures which can serve for military equipment (imposed by the Royal Decree of the 1st August, 1914) still remains in force, the Customs authorities are on their own initiative to apply the regulations contained in the Decree of the 10th June to the products or manufactures which come under the following categories :—

1. Goods of all kinds manufactured with metals of which the export is prohibited (e.g., copper, tin, zinc., etc.) ;
2. Articles made with gutta-percha and Indiarubber ;
3. Newspaper paper in rolls ;
4. Medicines and chemical products any of the ingredients of which are materials of which the export is prohibited, or such products which are in any way prepared by the use of prohibited materials ;
5. Products made from mineral oils, fats, soaps, and fatty and lubricating materials ;
6. Colouring material containing aniline colours and salts.

As the necessity arises, the Ministry of Finance will issue instructions to the Customs in regard to goods which are not comprised in the above-mentioned categories, but in regard to which it is considered necessary to apply the principles of the Decree of the 10th June.

Acetic acid and acetates. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Acetone. [See also note 4 on page 1279.]
Acids :—See under the respective headings, viz.: Acetic, Carbolic, Nitric, Picric, Salicylic, Sulphuric, and also under the heading Medicines. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Acorns (see Fodder).
Aeroplanes, and parts thereof (see Vehicles).
Alums (chrome and potash alums). [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Aluminium ; sulphate of aluminium. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Ammonia, sulphate of ammonia, nitrate of ammonia, and ammonical salts in general. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Aniline dyes. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Antimony. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Arachides (groundnuts) and their products.
Arms (see Munitions of war).
Articles made wholly or in part from raw material of which the exportation is prohibited, or from the products of such materials. [See Note 4 on page 1279.]
Artificial (chemical) manures.
Asbestos and articles thereof.
Bacon.
Barley.
Beetroot pulp.
Benzine (petrol) ; benzol. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Bone, horn, and other similar materials, raw.
Bone-fat. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Bran.
Brass and bronze. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Bread and ship's biscuits.
Cables, steel, of high tensile strength.
Calcium carbide ; calcium cyanamide. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Camphor of all kinds. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Candles.
Carbolic acid. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Carbonate of Sodium. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Carob beans.
Carriages (see Vehicles).
Cast-iron (scrap) ; cast-iron, even in castings. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Castor oil, and other vegetable oils.
Cattle
Cellulose. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]
Cereals, not named. (See also barley, maize, oats, rice, rye, and wheat.)
Ceresin. [See also Note 4 on page 1279.]

Chaff (see Fodder.)
Cheese, hard-paste.* (See also Foodstuffs.)
Chestnuts.
Chlorate of potash; potash salts. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Chrome and potash alums; chrome salts. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Clothing and equipment for troops, as well as prepared hides, cloths, and, generally, all materials required for the manufacture of such articles.†
Coal.
Cocoa in the bean. (See also Foodstuffs.)
Cocoanut oil, and other vegetable oils.
Coffee.‡
Coin.
Colophany and other resins.
Copper; copper sulphate. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Copra. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Cotton and cotton waste, bleached and unbleached.
Cylinders for compressed gas.
Dirigibles and spare parts thereof (see Vehicles).
Donkeys.
Dyes, aniline. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Edible pastes, such as macarani and vermicelli.
Eggs.
Equipment and clothing for troops, as well as prepared hides, cloths, and, generally, all materials required for the manufacture of such articles.§
Explosives (included under Munitions of war, q. v.).
Feculæ.
Ferro-alloys (see under Iron).
Fertilisers (manures), chemical.
Fish, fresh, in brine, or preserved in any way.
Fish oils and fish grease.
Flour and meal.
Fodder:—Acorns, olive-husks and all other products suitable for feeding animals (including offals of cereals, chaff, rice husks, and grape kernels).
Food preserves prepared with or containing any proportion of articles of which the export is prohibited. (See also Foodstuffs.)
Foodstuffs—all fresh or preserved foodstuffs.

[NOTE.—The various foodstuffs specified in this list, e.g., bacon, eggs, flour, meat, etc., have been definitively prohibited by Royal Decrees. On the 10th June, 1915, the prohibition was extended to cover all fresh or preserved foodstuffs which had not hitherto been prohibited.]

Glycerine. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Gold bullion and coin.
Grape kernels (see Fodder).
Graphite.‖ (See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Groundnuts (arachides) and their products.
Gutta-percha (raw). [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Hæmatite and other iron ore. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Hay.
Hemp, raw.¶

---

* Cheese, hard—export up to 2,000 tons allowed—(September 27, 1914.)

† This prohibition was imposed by Royal Decree of the 1st August 1914. According to a Customs Circular of the 8th August 1914, it does not apply to tissues of all kinds for women's clothing, fancy stuffs for men's clothing, silk tissues, velvets, plushes, printed cotton tissues, and such coloured cotton tissues as cannot be used for military clothing. On the other hand, bleached or unbleached cotton tissues suitable for the manufacture of men's body linen or bed linen, cloths for military uniforms, tissues for tents, sacks, and tissues for making them, packing cloth of all kinds, and articles of body linen and knitted wares which can be used for military purposes are prohibited to be exported.—(August 3, 1914.)

The exportation of merino wool tissues to belligerent countries is strictly prohibited.—(April 13, 1915.)

‡ The exportation of coffee lying in free deposit has been authorized up to 15 per cent of the amounts now stored, and to 50 per cent of any future quantities deposited.—(October 23, 1914.)

§ See Note (2) on page 1273.

‖ The exportation of graphite will be permitted when the usual application is made and if the Italian Government is satisfied that the graphite will not be re-exported. [12-6-15.]

¶ It is understood that special arrangements have been made as regards the export of hemp from Italy to the United Kingdom. [16-5-62.]

Hides, prepared (see Clothing and equipment for troops).
Hides and skins, raw (but excluding goat and lamb skins, whether raw or tanned, for glovemaking).*
Horn, bone, and other similar materials, raw.
Horses.
Indiarubber (see Rubber).
Iron and steel plates coated with tin or zinc. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Iron ores (hæmatite and other); iron pyrites; iron metallic alloys†; cast-iron even in castings; scrap iron and steel. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Jute, raw; jute sacks, etc. (see Note ‡ on page 1273.)
Lard.
Lead. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Leather (prepared hides) (see Clothing and equipment for troops).
Lubricating materials. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Macaroni and vermicelli.
Machine tools.
Maize.
Manganese and manganese ore. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Manures, chemical.
Margarine (included under Tallow, vegetable and animal).
Materials, lubricating. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Materials for the manufacture of clothing and equipment for troops.
Materials, rubber-lined. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Material, sanitary, in general. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Meal and flour.
Meat, fresh (including frozen); salted meat, and meat of all kinds, in whatever way preserved (including tinned meat).
Medicines and sanitary material in general. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Medicinal instruments and articles.
Motor-boats (see Ships); motor-cars (see Vehicles).
Mules.
Munitions of war, namely: guns, rifles, carbines, revolvers, pistols, swords and other arms (fire-arms or side-arms) of all kinds, munitions of war, military equipment of every sort, and, in general, everything which, without further manipulation, can be of immediate use for military or naval armaments.
Naphthalene and its nitro-derivatives. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Nickle and its alloys. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Nitrate of ammonia; nitrate of potassium; nitrate of sodium. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Nitric acid. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Oats.
Offals of cereals (see Fodder).
Oils:—Fish oils, Lubricating materials, Petroleum and petrol, Turpentine oil, Vegetable oils (including castor oil, cocoanut oil, and palm oil). [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Oilcake from nuts and other materials.
Oilseeds; oilseed cakes.
Ores, metallic.
Palm oil and other vegetable oils. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Paraffin§. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Pastes, edible, such as vermicelli and macaroni.
Peroxides, metallic. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Petroleum; petrol. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Picric acid. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]

* The Italian Government will permit the export to the United Kingdom of heavy hides of a salted weight of 33 kilog. or more in exchange for light hides for use in the manufacture of army boots. [10-7-15.]

Fresh or dried horsehides and fresh and dried ox and goat hides without hair may also be exported, but the exportation of sheep and goat skins with wool or hair, as also the skins of rabbits, hares, &c., is prohibited.

The Italian Government are unable to allow the exportation of fresh light hides. [25-5-15.]

† According to Italian excise regulations, metallic iron alloys include ferromanganese containing more than 30 per cent of manganese, ferrosillicon-manganese containing more than 30 per cent of sillicon and manganese together, ferro-aluminium, containing more than 10 per cent of aluminium, ferrochrome containing more than 10 per cent of chrome, ferrosillicon containing more than 4 per cent of sillicon and ferrotungston. Spiegeleisen is also covered by the prohibition.

‡ See note on page 1273.

§ It is understood that the prohibition applies to all refined paraffin, including paraffin wax.

Pigs.
Pigeons, live.
Potatoes.
Potassium nitrate; chlorate of potash; potash salts; potash alums. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Poultry.
Pulse.
Pyrites.
Rags of all kinds.
Railways, portable (including both rails and cars.)
Resins (colophany and other.)
Rice*; rice husks (see Fodder.)
Rubber (raw indiarubber); rubber-lined materials. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Rye.
Salicylic acid. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Sanitary materials in general. [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Scrap-iron (fragments of wrought or cast iron and steel). [See also Note 4 on page 1272.]
Semolina.
Sheep.
Ships of all kinds on the Italian register; vessels, boats, and craft of all kinds for use in harbours and for coast traffic, and fishing boats, tugs, salvage ships, etc.; pleasure boats, motor-boats for uses other than those indicated above.

* "It is not intended to grant further dispensations for the exportation of rice at present."—(February 7, 1915.)

† Permission to export tanning materials extracts from Italy cannot at present be granted on account of military requirements, but it is probable that small quantities will be allowed shortly. [26-6-15.]

‡ Motor bicycles and their parts do not fall under the prohibition of exportation.

FRANCE.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

July 19th, 1915.

By Presidential Decrees of December 21st, 1914, January 9th, February 4th, March 6th and 30th, April 1st and 3rd, May 26th, and July 3rd, 1915, the exportation and re-exportation from France (in process of entrepot, transit, or transhipment) of the articles mentioned in the list on pages 2—7 has been prohibited. Exemptions from these prohibitions may, however, be accorded under conditions to be laid down by the Ministry of Finance.

Exportation to Allied Countries, etc.—By a series of Ministerial Decrees the prohibition of the exportation and re-exportation of a number of articles has been abrogated, so far as concerns consignments which are destined for the United Kingdom, the British Dominions, Colonies, and Protectorates (including Egypt), the uninvaded territory of Belgium, Japan, Montenegro, Russia,* Serbia,* or the United States of America.† The articles to which this abrogation of the prohibition applies are printed in italic type in the list below.

Exportation to French Colonies.—According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, goods, the export of which from France is prohibited, may be sent to French Colonies, Tunis, or the French zone in Morocco, subject only to the production of a bond for their due arrival at their destination, except in the case of certain goods (arms, explosives, munitions of war, military stores, rubber, scrap iron, copper, scrap copper, etc., sulphur, etc.), in respect of which special authorisation must be obtained.

Relaxations of Prohibition of Transit.—According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, goods of Swiss or Italian origin, even if of a kind prohibited to be exported from France, may be sent in transit through France when consigned to Allied or neutral countries, and cotton of Switzerland and Italy, silk waste (of extra-European origin) for Switzerland, and postal parcels from the United Kingdom to Spain may also be sent in transit through France without special formality.

An arrangement (concluded between the French and Swiss Governments in January 1915 and modified in May 1915) provides that certain maximum monthly quantities of petroleum (4,500 tons), petrol (1,500-2,000 tons), lubricating oils and fats (1,300 tons), and special oil for Diesel engines (500 tons) may be allowed to pass in transit through France to Switzerland. The bills of lading in respect of these oils must be endorsed to the "Commissaire des Guerres de l'Armée suisse," and the oils must be landed at a French Mediterranean port, or, if landed elsewhere, this fact must immediately be notified to the French Government.

His Majesty's Ambassador at Paris reported on March 13th, 1915, that the French Government have decided to allow the exportation of seeds from France to Switzerland, and that a general authorisation has also been given for the transit of seeds through France to Switzerland.

RUSSIA.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

July 20, 1915.

NOTES.

1. The exportation of certain articles direct to Allied countries, in Russian or Allied vessels, is authorised without special application in the case of each consignment. These articles are: maize, colza oilcake, bran and oilcake of all kinds; bacon, butter, dead poultry and game, live poultry eggs, intestines, fish, tobacco of the first quality (certified by excise), wood materials, oilseeds, clover seeds and other forage seeds, furskins, except sheepskins and goatskins.

With regard to the export of these goods to Allied countries direct in neutral ships, special guarantees have to be obtained each time from the neutral Legation in Petrograd, in agreement with the British Embassy (if the articles are going to the United Kingdom direct), that the goods are proceeding to the Allied countries named and will not be re-exported to an enemy country.

The exportation to the United Kingdom of butter, game, poultry (dead), eggs and bacon, is authorised, without special authorisation in the case of each consignment, if the goods are despatched (from the Finland Station, Petrograd) by the "direct oversea Scandinavian route," i.e., viâ Raumo or Montyluoto.

2. Exceptions from the prohibitions of export may be made by the Minister of Finance in favour of Allied and friendly countries on separate application in the case of each consignment, apart from the exceptions already referred to in Note 1.

3. The exportation of goods of all kinds is prohibited from Baltic ports situated in the Governments of Petrograd, Esthonia, Livonia, and Courland. The Gulf of Finland and the Gulf of Riga are closed to oversea (lit., foreign) navigation.

4. The prohibitions of export noted below do not apply to exports to Finland from Russia.

The exportation of goods from Finland to foreign countries is effected in accordance with special regulations in force in the Grand Duchy. The Finnish prohibitions, however, do not affect the export of Russian goods in transit via Finland to places abroad.

[Unless otherwise indicated by a footnote, the prohibitions of export noted below apply to all frontiers of the Empire.]

SWITZERLAND.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORT OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

July 12, 1915.

NOTES.

1. The Federal Council reserves to itself the right to authorise exceptions to the prohibitions of exportation which have been established in respect of the following goods by successive Decrees of the Federal Council.

2. Notwithstanding the prohibition of export, prohibited goods may be sent in transit through Switzerland in sealed wagons.

3. The importation of cereals (wheat, spelt, barley, rye, oats, maize), of the products resulting from the grinding thereof, including forage meal and bran, as also of all concentrated forage necessary for the feeding of cattle, is reserved exclusively to the Confederation. The re-exportation of such imported products is absolutely prohibited. [Decree of January 7, 1915.]

4. The numbers quoted below are chosen of the Swiss Customs Tariff. When a number is quoted without qualification all goods classfied under that Tariff number are included within the scope of the prohibition. On the other hand, the prefixing of "ex" to a Tariff number indicates that only the articles specially mentioned fall within the scope of the prohibition, other articles classified under the Tariff number being allowed to be exported.

ADDRESS

DEWAN OF MYSORE

TO THE

DASARA REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY

19th OCTOBER 1915.

I.—Preliminary.

GENTLEMEN,

By command of His Highness the Maharaja, it is my pleasing duty to welcome you to the thirty-second session of the Dasara Representative Assembly, and to address you, in accordance with precedent, upon the past year's administration of the State and on the more important measures which will engage the attention of His Highness' Government in the current and coming years.

2. As was done on the last two occasions, the address is presented in two parts. The first part is intended to give the salient features of the year's work and the second part, which will be taken as read, deals with less important details. The two parts together will, it is believed, give all the information that is likely to interest the public in the operations of the Government Departments during the official year 1914-15.

The War.

3. To us, as to the rest of the civilised world, the great European war continues to be an object of supreme concern. The destruction of treasures of art, historic buildings and ships, means the loss, in the course of a few months, of the fruits of generations of skilled human labour. The distressing events that are happening and the barbarous methods of the enemy have served to emphasise the moral significance of the struggle and have won for the Allies the sympathy and respect of the entire civilised world. The end is not, perhaps, as yet in sight, but the thoroughness and determination with which the allied nations are organising their resources, make it certain that their final victory cannot be far distant.

Despatch of Mysore troops.

4. Since we last met, His Highness' offer of our troops for the war has been accepted and our Imperial Service Regiment left Bangalore for active service on the 13th October 1914 under the command of Col. J. Desaraj Urs, C.I.E., M.V.O. Its members, from all accounts received, have been behaving in a manner of which their countrymen may well be proud. The strength of the Depôt at Bangalore has been temporarily raised to replace casualties in the field. Government have also undertaken to train some remounts belonging to the Imperial Government.

Having regard to the magnitude of the operations, the help we can give is, after all, very little, but that little has been, and will continue to be given, without stint to the fullest measure of our limited resources.

5. The war has affected our finances and trade in various directions and a period of tension is upon us. Prices of food grains continue to rule high and machinery and materials for manufacture are difficult to procure. During the current year also, we shall probably have to forego a substantial portion of our sandalwood revenue. All this will doubtless change when the war is over, and we may hope that when progress is resumed, it will be at a pace which the interruption will only have served to accelerate.

Agricultural conditions, 1914-15.

Seasonal prospects 1915-16.

7. The current monsoon began very well. The mungar rains were satisfactory over the greater part of the State. There was a break in the month of August and part of September but the heavy showers we have had within the past six weeks have served to ease the situation. Although we still want more rain, the prospects of the season, so far as present indications go, seem to be on the whole satisfactory.

2.—Administration—General.

8. Before proceeding to a description of the work of the departments, I shall refer to a few subjects of general administrative interest.

First and foremost I may be permitted to refer to the distinction of G.C.I.E. conferred by His Majesty the King-Emperor on Sir Sri Narasimharaja Wadiyar Bahadur, the Yuvaraja of Mysore. I have no doubt you will all join me in offering our respectful congratulations to the Yuvaraja on the distinction he has so worthily earned and on the important part he is taking in the administration of the State as Extraordinary Member of Council.

The Representative Assembly.

9. The session of the Representative Assembly last year extended over seven days, namely, from 1st to 7th October. Two hundred and ninety-two subjects were discussed, of which 149 have been finally dealt with The number of subjects still under consideration is 143 or, including those pending from previous years, 216.

10. It is the wish of His Highness the Maharaja that the elected representatives of the people in this Assembly should become more closely acquainted with the objects and plans of Government by a discussion of the State budget, and I shall be glad if you will suggest how this wish might be most conveniently given effect to.

The budget will have been passed at the beginning of the official year, but the suggestions of the members may be utilised in framing the following year's budget. If any of the suggestions be such as could be adopted without interfering with the integrity of the budget, Government may be able to give immediate effect to the same. At all events they will have an opportunity of gauging, and bringing the budget in line with, the reasonable wishes of the representatives of the people as far as possible.

The Legislative Council.

11. The Legislative Council met four times and considered nine bills, including three pending from the previous year. With a view to render budget discussions more informing and useful, a preliminary meeting was held in July of this year, at which members were afforded an opportunity of obtaining information before they met for formal discussion.

Secretariat Changes.

13. A few changes of importance have been made in regard to the Government Secretariats. For facility of work five Secretariats with distinct functions have been constituted. The Military Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja has ceased to perform Secretariat functions in respect of the Departments under his executive control, and the State Geologist, who is now designated Director of Mines and Geology, has been afforded similar relief. The office of the Engineer-in-Chief for Railways has been separated from the Railway Secretariat. Measures are under contemplation for ensuring a greater degree of uniformity than exists at present in the methods of work followed in the different Secretariats.

3.—Finance.

Revised Estimate for 1914-15.

14. Turning now to the finances of the State, the revenue for the year 1914-15, according to the revised estimates, stood at Rs. 278·14 lakhs and the ordinary expenditure at Rs. 254·15 lakhs, showing a surplus in the ordinary account of Rs. 23·99 lakhs. Including extraordinary expenditure and the capital outlay on new railway and irrigation works amounting to Rs. 86·96 lakhs, the total expenditure came to Rs. 393·11 lakhs or Rs. 114·97 lakhs in excess of the year's revenue. In the budget the net outgoings had been estimated at Rs. 73·54 lakhs. The situation was thus less favourable than what was anticipated by Rs. 41·43 lakhs. The circumstances which brought about this result were the payment of a contribution of Rs. 52 lakhs to the Imperial War Funds, and a fall in the revenue to the extent of about Rs. 6·95 lakhs, due mainly to a set back in the sandalwood revenue, counterbalanced by savings in expenditure to the extent of Rs. 17·52 lakhs.

Budget Estimate for 1915-16.

15. The State budget for the current year was presented to the Legislative Council on the 28th June 1915 and was discussed by that body on the 27th July following. The estimates as finally approved provide for a gross revenue of Rs. 274·02 lakhs and a gross ordinary expenditure of Rs. 273·70 lakhs. The total expenditure of the year amounts to Rs. 340·05 lakhs, including special grants on account of the following large public works :—

	Lakhs. Rs.
Cauvery Reservoir and allied works	25·00
Capital outlay on State railways and steam tramways	26·35
Subsidised or aided railways	7·00
Bangalore electric tramways	6·00
Cauvery Power Scheme—IV Installation ...	2·00
Total ...	66·35

16. The year's budget shows practically an equilibrium between receipts and ordinary expenditure. This is due to an anticipated decline of Rs. 15 lakhs in the sandalwood revenue, as a result of the war conditions, and to the continuance of the provision made for certain special items of expenditure for the economic and social improvement of the people, amounting to roughly Rs. 11 lakhs. The present circumstances are of an unusual character and cannot obviously last long or recur with frequency, and it is not considered prudent to interrupt the continued operation of measures for the welfare of the people. Taking the experience of the past four years, during which the ordinary account showed a favourable balance amounting (in round figures) to rupees 19, 52, 40, and 24 lakhs, respectively, it is not too sanguine to expect a surplus of at least 20 lakhs in normal years in future.

S69

17. During the past four years, Government have spent nearly a crore and a half rupees on large productive public works, viz., railways, the Cauvery Reservoir and additions to the hydro-electric works known as the Cauvery Power Scheme. These works will eventually yield a substantial return on the outlay incurred and will prove assets of great permanent value to the State. It is a matter for satisfaction that we have been able to carry out, from accumulated balances and current savings, works of this magnitude and character which, in other countries, would ordinarily be constructed from borrowed funds.

18. But our present method of financing has its limitations. The Government balance which was roughly Rs. 120 lakhs at the end of June last, according to the statement of assets and liabilities hereto appended, will, it is expected, be reduced to about Rs. 53 lakhs by the end of the official year. As this balance does not admit of further reduction, we have to consider whether the construction of new works of a productive character should be deferred till sufficient funds accumulate, or whether recourse should be had to borrowing.

19. Our policy will always be to maintain an annual surplus of, say, Rs. 10 to 20 lakhs, and, so far as we can see at present, it is unlikely that we shall ever have to borrow for current expenses.

If we borrow at all, it will be to create property, to build up assets which will bring dividends, and increase the non-tax revenues of the State. Productive works of this kind, chiefly railways and irrigation works, are constructed exclusively out of loan funds in British India. We have to consider if it will not be expedient in this State also to employ loan funds more largely than we have done in recent years for the execution of such works. To construct the works from loan funds would be quite in accordance with approved principles of public finance and the practice of civilised countries. If financed solely from current savings, works of this class cannot be carried out rapidly. Besides, it is unfair to the present generation that they should be made to pay for assets the benefits of which will accrue, even in a larger measure, to their successors.

20. Up to the end of last year Government have invested on productive railway, irrigation and other works not less than Rs. 504 lakhs. Towards this outlay, loan funds provided Rs. 200 lakhs; that is, Rs. 180 lakhs for railway construction and Rs. 20 lakhs for the Cauvery Power Scheme. For the repayment, sinking funds have been created from current revenues and the balances to the credit of these funds on 1st July 1915, stood at about Rs. 90 lakhs and Rs. 12 lakhs respectively. Government have thus got, in their railway, irrigation and power supply works, unencumbered assets worth Rs. 406 lakhs created out of current revenues. Of this amount, assets worth Rs. 150 lakhs have been built up, as already stated, within the past three or four years.

21. If we should decide to borrow, as we well may in view of the considerations above set forth, we may either raise a loan from the public or draw upon the deposits with Government, which at present amount to over Rs. 2 crores. The latter course will mean that instead of investing the deposits in foreign banks, or in Government of India securities, we will be utilising a safe portion of them on productive works within the country itself, to the great advantage of both the people and Government.

22. But the question is not free from difficulties, not the least of which is the sinister association attached to borrowing in the popular mind. His Highness' Government are giving careful consideration to the matter, and you may rely upon it that the decision taken will be in conformity with the permanent interests of the State and the best informed opinion on the subject.

Account Department.

23. The gazetted staff of the Account Department was strengthened by the addition of two officers for the growing work in the Public Works and Railway Branches. The appointment of a Commercial Auditor was sanctioned for the audit of commercial concerns in which Government are interested and also of Government concerns in which accounts are kept on a commercial basis.

The Mysore Bank.

24. In spite of the war, the Bank of Mysore had a satisfactory year. The deposits of the public with the Bank rose from about Rs. 6,90,000 on the 1st July 1914, to over Rs. 20,32,000 on the 1st July 1915. The total transactions which amounted to Rs. 26 lakhs on 1st July 1914, stood at over Rs. 41 lakhs on 1st July 1915, and a net profit of Rs. 1,10,000 was realised during the year.

4.—Revenue Department.

25. During last year's session of this Assembly, the defective character of the law relating to the rights and responsibilities of holders of inam villages and their tenants was brought to the notice of Government. Legislation has been undertaken authorising the introduction of survey and settlement into inam villages, if not less than three-fourths of the co-sharers agree to the measure. But as this will only partially solve the difficulties pointed out, Government have appointed a committee of officers and non-official gentlemen to consider the whole question and their recommendations will, it is hoped, enable Government to settle this vexed question in a satisfactory manner.

In December 1914, Government sanctioned a scheme for the creation of large landed estates; and details of blocks of lands available for the purpose in each district have been published for general information.

Survey and Settlement.

26. Revision settlement was introduced in the Tirthahalli Taluk of the Shimoga District. The average dry rate was unaffected by the revision, but the wet rate was increased by 12 per cent, and the garden rate was reduced by 8 per cent. The net result for the entire tract was an increase of 4·42 per cent. over the revenue collected in 1909-10. Proposals for the revision settlement of the Maddagiri and Belur Taluks are under consideration.

Excise.

27. The Excise revenue contiuues to increase. The gross receipts during 1914-15 amounted to Rs. 58,33,170 against Rs. 55,23,999 in 1913-14, giving an increase of more than 3 lakhs over the previous year's figure, which itself constituted a record at the time. The consumption of arrack, foreign liquor and ganja has declined during the year, and that of toddy and opium shows only an insignificant increase. Country beer is the only article in the consumption of which there has been some increase.

28. In connection with the expansion of the Excise revenue, some unfavourable criticism has been levelled against the policy of Government. But two important circumstances have to be borne in mind in this connection. The first is that the increased revenue has not been accompanied by a proportionate increase in consumption. The revenue has increased since 1911-12 by 28 per cent; while the incidence of consumption of arrack per head of population, which stood at 3·5 drams in 1911-12 has actually gone down to 3·3 drams in 1914-15. Again, Government have steadily pursued measures calculated to check consumption as far as possible. The duty on arrack has been raised from Rs. 4-12-0 to Rs. 5-4-0 per gallon at which it stands at present, and its strength has been reduced from 20° to 25° u.p. A further reduction in strength is under consideration. The tree-tax has been raised to Rs. 2 in the case of date trees, and to Rs. 3 in the case of cocoanut trees. Ganja now pays a duty of Rs. 12-8-0 per seer. During the last ten years about 900 shops have been closed and a commencement has been made in restricting the hours of sale in the shops.

Forest Department.

29. One outstanding feature of the working of the Forest Department during the year was the large reduction in the revenue from sandalwood owing to the dislocation of the European market. The quantity offered for sale was reduced to 1,314 tons, of which less than a third was sold for Rs. 3,42,258 leaving about 946½ tons unsold. The total revenue of the department under all heads was Rs. 22,22,320 as against Rs. 32,71,336 in the previous year, and the expenditure was Rs. 9,60,449.

Some activity was displayed in the economic exploitation of our forest resources during the year. A large quantity of sleepers required for the State railways now under construction was prepared by the department. The officers placed on special duty for taking stock of the available raw material for the manufacture of paper pulp and matches have completed their investigations. The possibilities of supplying charcoal on a large scale for iron smelting from the Shimoga and Kadur forests were examined, and experiments were conducted to ascertain the comparative results of preparing charcoal by the Brisbane retort and the methods now in vogue.

5.—Protection.

Judicial Department.

30. The abolition of the Munsiff's Court at Yedahalli (now Narasimharajapura) had led to some inconvenience and there were persistent representations for its revival. Government have therefore sanctioned the re-establishment of the Court with effect from the 1st July 1915. An additional Munsiff has been posted to Tumkur since 24th May 1915. Sanction has been given to the formation of Bench Magistrates' Courts at Tumkur, Chikmagalur, Hassan and Shimoga. The scale of pay of the establishments of Civil Courts has been revised and the prospects of the subordinates have been improved, at an additional annual expenditure of over Rs. 23,000.

573

Police Department.

31. The sanctioned strength of the permanent force on the 30th June 1915 was 865 officers and 5,177 men. There was an increase in the less important class of offences, but the state of crime during the year was mostly normal. The Police Training School was re-organised during the year and a wholetime Principal and an additional Inspector were appointed. Provision has been made for a shooting range and other essential equipment.

Military.

32. The pay and status of the Infantry officers and men have been improved by the scheme for revision sanctioned by Government in August 1914.

Medical and Public Health Departments.

33. The Maternity at Robertsonpet referred to in some of the previous Addresses was opened on 7th October 1914. The Female Dispensary at Champion Reefs was at first absorbed in the new institution but as its abolition was represented to be attended with inconvenience, the dispensary was re-opened on 4th March 1915. In order to meet the difficulty hitherto experienced in obtaining qualified candidates for the subordinate women medical service, more liberal stipends and salaries have been sanctioned. The school for the training of Sanitary Inspectors has been re-opened and will be maintained for a period of three years.

6.—Progress, Moral and Material.

34. I now propose to deal with the activities of the State under Education, Agriculture, Industries and Commerce and Co-operation.

Education.

Primary Education.

35. Under the new scheme for opening more village elementary schools with the aid of the people, by offering a Government contribution of half the cost of each school, 1,100 grant-in-aid schools have been started, the liability incurred by Government being an annual maximum recurring charge of Rs. 84,000. An additional provision of Rs. 84,000 has been made in this year's budget for opening 1,000 more aided schools. One hundred and thirty new Government schools have been sanctioned at a recurring cost of Rs. 22,878 and also improvements to existing schools at a cost of Rs. 52,787. The scale of pay of village schoolmasters was revised at a cost of Rs. 84,000. With a view to encourage the study of English in rural areas, the rate of contribution, payable by the villagers concerned, for village English schools was reduced. One hundred adult night schools were sanctioned, though many of them could not be opened before the close of the year. A sum of 1½ lakhs of rupees was allotted for new village school buildings. The experiment of making itinerant teachers go round small villages situated close together to impart elementary instruction at intervals, is being tried in the taluks of Bangalore, Mysore and Tumkur.

Compulsory Education.

36. The scheme for the introduction of compulsory education in selected centres has had a modest start. Out of 16,000 children of the "compulsory" age in the areas in question, 10,800 were attending school and facilities have been afforded for the education of about 1,200 more. It has been decided to extend the scheme to 12 new centres.

Secondary and Practical Education.

37. Sanction has been accorded to the establishment of three Kannada High or Upper Secondary schools for boys, at Dodballapur, Hole-Narsipur and Tirthahalli, and two for girls at Tumkur and Bangalore.

A scheme has been sanctioned with the object of making vocational courses part of the secondary school curriculum, so as to give a more practical direction to education imparted in towns and villages. Forty centres have been selected and work has been started in a few schools. The department hopes to make substantial progress in the current year.

Collegiate Education.

38. There was an increase in the number of candidates that graduated both from the Central College and the Maharaja's College, but the number is inadequate for the requirements of the State.

Female Education.

39. Female education is also making fair progress. The year's list of successful candidates for the public examinations included the names of two ladies who took the

575

B.A. degree. The improvements in the Maharani's College and other institutions for the education of girls referred to in the last year's address have been carried out. A special provision of Rs. 7,000 has been made for the grant of scholarships and school-books to deserving girls in all the taluk and district schools.

Technical Education.

40. A scheme for opening industrial schools at all the district head-quarter towns and for improving existing ones is under the consideration of Government. The Mechanical Engineering School at Bangalore and the Chamarajendra Technical Institute at Mysore have been doing useful work. A qualified Superintendent from England has just been appointed to take charge of the latter school.

Commercial Education.

41. Classes for the advanced or higher courses have been opened in the Bangalore Commercial School. A vernacular section has been organized in which instruction is given in the indigenous system of accounts, elements of banking, commercial geography, etc., through the medium of Kannada.

Normal Training.

42 The improved arrangements for the normal training of teachers explained in the last year's address were given effect to. The Normal Schools now working provide for the training of 500 teachers in all. The vacation classes held during last summer were attended by 120 teachers.

43. Owing to the large increase in the number of schools, the Inspectorate has been strengthened by the addition of 12 officers. An additional European Assistant Inspectress has been appointed for girls' schools. A scheme for the grant of foreign scholarships was sanctioned during the year. Eleven scholarships were awarded for the study of various technical subjects, such as paper manufacture, banking, systems of education, organic chemistry, mechanical engineering and actuarial science.

44. There has been an increase of expenditure on education of over three lakhs of rupees during the past three years. The total number of public and private institutions during these years has increased from 4,568 to 6,134 and their strength from 156,440 to 217,717. Of the total number of pupils in 1914-15, 179,866 were boys and 37,846 were girls. The corresponding figures in 1912-13 were 129,000 and 27,431, respectively. The percentage of male scholars to male population of school-going age was

29·8 in 1912-13. It rose to 35·7 in 1913-14 and to 41·6 in 1914-15. The percentage of female scholars to female population of school-going age which stood at 6·4 in 1912-13 rose to 7·9 in 1913-14 and to 8·9 in 1914-15. The percentages of the total number of pupils under instruction to the total population of school-going age during the three years 1912-13, 1913-14 and 1914-15 were, respectively, 18·0, 21·19 and 25·4.

The progress indicated by these figures is not confined to the lower grades of education only. The number of pupils receiving collegiate education during the three years in question rose from 619 to 930 and of those receiving secondary education from 41,481 to 46,855. As regards distribution of schools, while on an average there was, in the year 1913-14, one public school for every 10 square miles, the area was reduced to 7 square miles, and including both public and private schools, to 5 square miles in 1914-15.

45. One of the most hopeful features in the situation is that the people are fully alive to the advantages of education and are evincing keen interest by coming forward with liberal contributions for maintaining teachers and constructing school houses.

The proposed Mysore University.

46. His Highness' Government fully recognise that the educational system will be seriously defective without a local University, and necessary steps are being taken to prepare a working scheme. Government hope to be able to place the scheme before the public before very long.

Department of Agriculture.

47. The experimental and scientific work done by the department included further investigations into sandal spike and green bug on coffee. Implements were sold during the year of the value of Rs. 16,626 against Rs. 12,022 in the previous year. A large number of requisitions could not be complied with owing to the delay in the arrival of ploughs from abroad, and the question of making arrangements for their manufacture in the local P. W. Workshop is under consideration.

Department of Industries and Commerce.

48. The work of the department was somewhat hampered owing to the difficulty of getting machinery and dyes from abroad.

At the beginning of the year, 26 pumping and other plants were at work and 13 plants under erection. Thirty-two installations have been taken in hand. The Director has stated in his annual report that during the last 2½ years since this work was started, 71 installations have come into existence costing about 4½ lakhs of rupees and yielding probably a lakh of rupees a year as direct profit to their owners, and that, though, having regard to the area of the State and its population, the results may not be considered very remarkable, they afford evidence of some enterprise and of an increasing eagerness on the part of the people to adopt labour-saving appliances. Ten loans amounting to Rs. 43,750, and 16 hire purchases amounting to Rs. 41,480, were sanctioned, and a total sum of Rs. 13,281 was recovered on account of repayments.

A local syndicate at Tirthahalli has undertaken to construct a tile factory and the buildings and plant are in course of erection. Companies have also been formed at Channapatna and Tumkur for starting tile factories.

As the outbreak of the war had greatly reduced the demand for sandalwood, investigations were made into the possibilities of manufacturing oil on a profitable scale within the State. The result of the enquiries made in England having been satisfactory, it is intended to open a small experimental factory at a cost of about one lakh of rupees for sandalwood oil distillation.

Co-operative Societies.

49. The co-operative movement in the State showed steady and continuous progress. During the year the number of societies rose from 530 to 725, the membership from 40,479 to 53,267, the working capital from Rs. 21,47,340 to Rs. 30,85,747, and the reserve fund from Rs. 56,238 to Rs. 96,669. The net profit earned is calculated at Rs. 1,61,521 and the saving in interest at Rs. 3,00,000. In the malnad also, there was a satisfactory increase in the number of societies, namely, from 50 to 90. The staff of the department has been considerably strengthened and it has therefore been possible to devote greater attention to the consolidation of the work of the societies.

One general Co-operative Conference, opened by the Yuvaraja of Mysore, and seventeen District and Taluk Conferences, were held during the year. It is difficult to over-estimate their value as an agent for educating the public in co-operative matters. The present year's State Conference which, as you are aware, held its sittings in this City between the 10th and 13th of this month, was graciously opened, as on former occasions, by the Yuvaraja, and was presided over by the Hon'ble Mr. Lallubhai Samaldas Mehta of Bombay.

Economic Conference.

50. I explained to you at some length last year the objects of the Conference and the need for expenditure in preparing the people for economic progress. The cost of the Conference now amounts to nearly two lakhs of rupees a year. Though the Committees were not able to complete many schemes of a constructive character during the year, steady progress has been made in the investigation of a large number of subjects of economic interest and in the collection of useful information. The Conference held its annual session between the 21st and 26th June last and the proceedings of that assembly have been already published.

During the year, the Standing Committee met twice and the three Central Committees of Education, Agriculture, and Industries and Commerce, ten, eleven and nine times, respectively. Since the last session of the Conference, the Standing Committee and all the Central Committees are having monthly meetings on the same day. The enlarged Standing Committee, comprising all the three Committees, meets for about an hour with a view to take stock of progress and to ensure greater harmony and co-operation between all workers and all branches of the organization. At the Standing Committee meetings, the Chairmen of Committees explain the progress made on the subjects included in the programme and the plans of the Committees as regards work in the succeeding months.

51. The District Economic Superintendents, three of whom were appointed from non-officials, have proved themselves of great help to the Deputy Commissioners in work connected with economic improvement. Once in two months they meet the heads of departments concerned and the Secretaries of the Conference and the Committees, and in this way form a useful link between the work of the central bodies on the one hand and that of the local District and Taluk Progress Committees on the other.

52. The rules regarding the constitution and working of the Taluk and Town Progress Committees were revised during the year. The new rules are expected to make the work of these bodies more efficient. In accordance with the resolutions of the Conference, the Mysore Economic Journal was started in January 1915, for spreading useful information on economic subjects.

Education Committee.

53. The most important subjects considered during the year were the providing of further facilities for the education of the masses, the establishment of rural libraries, the training of teachers, the introduction of physical education and the employment of itinerant teachers for imparting education in villages too small to have schools of their own. A system of lectures for the education of adults was instituted and four travelling lecturers have been appointed. The Committee have organized Public Libraries in the cities of Bangalore and Mysore. A Conference was held under the auspices of the Committee to discuss the best methods of improving the Kannada language and literature. It was presided over by Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya, C.I.E., and was attended also by delegates from the Madras and Bombay Presidencies.

Agricultural Committee.

54. The improvement of the sericultural industry engaged much of the attention of this Committee. In accordance with a scheme for dairy farming prepared by the Committee, a private dairy has been established at Bangalore for which a loan of Rs. 10,000 has been granted by Government. The Committee issued 20 English and 20 Kannada publications on various subjects. The Mysore Silk Association carried on experiments in throwing and preparing silk for the loom and is training boys and girls in these processes.

Industries and Commerce Committee.

55. Investigations were made in regard to the manufacture of matches, pencils, paper and soap and the establishment of a cotton mill.

With the object of ascertaining the subsidiary occupations which people in the State usually follow, and the scope which exists for their improvement, an officer was deputed for a survey of the various kinds of home industries and occupations in the cities of Bangalore and Mysore. His report has just been published.

Besides the establishment and promotion of industries, the Committee have investigated other questions intimately connected with the economic welfare of the people, such as the inauguration of a scheme of Life Insurance managed by the State and the opening of Village Savings Banks. They have also prepared schemes for offering facilities to merchants to travel abroad and for the appointment of commercial correspondents for the development of trade.

7.—Technical Departments.

Public Works.

56. The total expenditure on Public Works from all sources, including Local Funds, amounted to about Rs. 70¼ lakhs against Rs. 57½ lakhs in the preceding year. Of this amount, Rs. 39 lakhs were spent on Irrigation works and Rs. 31¼ lakhs on Civil Works and Military Buildings.

57. Satisfactory progress has been made in the construction of the Cauvery Reservoir at Kannambadi. The dam has risen to a height of 51·50 feet in the river bed and 55 to 74 feet at the flanks. With the aid of scouring sluices fixed in the dam, the discharge in the river, except during high floods, can be regulated according to requirements. The storage thus far secured will enable us not only to guarantee water to the existing power supply to the Kolar Gold Mines up to 9,321 H.P., but to provide, according to the new agreement with the Mining Companies, additional power to the extent of 5,000 H.P. The outlay on the construction of the dam during the year was Rs. 26,92,000, bringing the total expenditure up to the end of June 1915 to Rs. 71,45,000. A scheme for the generation of electric power, by utilising the head available in the reservoir, is under consideration. Storage Works.

Fair progress has also been made with the channel works undertaken for resettling the raiyats drowned out by the reservoir. Water was supplied for the irrigation of about 2,500 acres of new land under the Hemagiri and Mandagere channels as also for some distance down the Chamaraj South Bank Channel and the two low level canals. The expenditure on these channel works amounted to Rs. 5,39,000. Proposals for the extension of sugar-cane cultivation under existing channels are being matured.

The award of the Arbitration Committee appointed for settling the differences between the Government of Madras and this Government regarding the storage of the Cauvery waters is still under the consideration of the Government of India.

58. The results of the block system of irrigation introduced in connection with the Marikanve reservoir have so far proved encouraging. The area irrigated and the demand for irrigable land and canal water have been steadily increasing. There is also a noticeable improve- Irrigation Improvements.

ment in the health of the canal villages. To facilitate the smooth working of the system, the rules have been revised in the light of recent experience. The canal area has begun to attract settlers from outside.

Minor Tanks.

59. The question of the restoration and proper maintenance of minor tanks, on which the prosperity of the ryots so largely depends, was fully discussed at the last session of this Assembly. As a result, the old rules were revised, offering more liberal concessions than before, and additional Maramat establishment was sanctioned. Government trust that, with these facilities, the ryots will take more interest in the restoration of their tanks than they have evinced hitherto and enable the Deputy Commissioners to show greater progress in future.

Buildings.

60. The principal civil buildings under construction during the year were additions to the New Palace, improvements at the north and south gates of the Fort, the General Hospital and the Chamarajendra Technical Institute at Mysore; the extension of the Public Offices and the Public Works Workshop and Stores at Bangalore, and new Taluk Cutcherries at Sidlaghatta and Honnali. The construction of a travellers' bungalow and of quarters for Indian guests and the Representative Assembly members at Mysore, and of a large block for the Mechanical Engineering School at Bangalore and a new Taluk Cutcherry at Chickmagalur, were some of the other important works started during the year.

Miscellaneous public improvements.

61. The principal items of work under this head consisted of the construction of roads and drains in the Extensions, and improvements to the Cubbon Park, in the Bangalore City, the roofing in of the water service reservoir on the Kolar Gold Fields, the installation of a Jewell-Filter for improving the water supply of the Mysore City, the new water supply installations for the towns of Nanjangud and Davangere and certain improvements in connection with the Ghati Subramanyaswami temple in the Dodballapur Taluk.

Time scale for Engineer officers.

62. To improve the prospects of Engineer officers, a new time scale of pay has been introduced with effect from 1st July of this year, in supersession of the one sanctioned in 1909. The recruitment to the Sub-Assistant Engineer class will be confined to graduates of distinction. The number of Executive Engineers has been increased from 10 to 14 on account of the increase of divisional charges.

882

Electrical Department.

63. The Fourth Installation works, which were undertaken to generate additional power to be supplied to the Mining Companies, were completed during the year and the machinery came into operation even before the date stipulated for the additional supply.

The capital outlay on the Cauvery Power Scheme during the year amounted to Rs. 28,000, and the total outlay to the end of June 1915 aggregated Rs. 84,88,053 exclusive of the expenditure of Rs. 18,72,350 incurred on the Fourth Installation works. The gross earnings during the year from the Cauvery Power Scheme amounted to Rs. 18,72,350 against Rs. 17,03,888 during the previous year, showing an increase of Rs. 1,68,462 which was due to an increase in the power supply to the mines. The working expenses amounted to Rs. 7,05,889 including a sum of Rs. 2,94,887 set apart for depreciation, and Rs. 37.762 spent in connection with the channels conservancy operations. The net profit, after deducting the interest charges of Rs. 2,78,598 at 4 per cent on the capital outlay of Rs. 84,88,053, was Rs. 8,73,857, which represents a return of 10·29 per cent on the total capital expenditure.

The rates for the supply of electric power to small consumers were further reduced in Bangalore and Mysore as a temporary measure for encouraging the growth of minor industries.

Bangalore Tramways.

64. Government regret that the project for constructing an Electric Tramway Service in Bangalore has, after many vicissitudes, been again held in abeyance owing to the difficulty of getting the required materials at reasonable rates on account of the war.

Railway Department.

State lines worked by the Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway Company.

65. The year's results of the working of the State lines by the Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway Company show gross earnings amounting to Rs. 36,09,078 which is about Rs. 3 lakhs less than in the previous year. The decrease is mainly due to smaller movements of food grains, raw cotton and oil seeds and to a general falling off under coaching, due to war conditions. The expenses amounted to Rs. 20,36,742 or about Rs. 2 lakhs less than in 1913-14 and the net earnings to Rs. 14,98,355. The percentage of return on the total capital outlay of Rs. 2,58,03,840 works out to 5.81. After deducting from the net earnings the interest on the sterling loan of £1,200,000, the actual realisation from these lines amounted to Rs. 7,78,561, and this gives a net return of 3 per cent on the outlay. A portion of this return is, however, being spent annually on the Railway itself, that is, on improvements to the open lines worked by the Company.

Lines constructed and worked by State Agency

66. Fair progress was made on the Mysore-Arsikere Railway which, it is expected, will be opened for traffic about the close of the year 1915-16. The Kolar-Srinivaspur section of the Kolar-Chickballapur loop is likely to be ready for traffic about December next. Work on the Lakvalli-Narasimharajapura Tramway is in progress, and the line will be placed on a proper working basis during the current official year.

Surveys for the feeder railways in the Shimoga District were begun during the year. The projects for the Hassan-Chickmagalur, Chickmagalur-Kadur, and Chickjajur-Chitaldrug lines are still under consideration.

67. The Kolar District Board Railway between Bowringpet and Kolar, the Yelahanka-Devanhalli section of the Bangalore-Chickballapur Light Railway and the Tarikere-Lakvalli section of the Tarikere-Narasimharajapura Tramway were working at the close of the year. The section between Devanhalli and Chickballapur of the Bangalore-Chickballapur Light Railway, has also since been opened for traffic.

New Railways.

68. Among other lines under investigation by His Highness' Government may be mentioned the Bangalore-Hosur connection to link up with the Morappur-Hosur line and the Mysore-Coorg connection for which preliminary surveys have been sanctioned.

Nanjangud-Erode Link.

69. For a satisfactory development of the trade and commerce of the State, two main arterial connections are of vital importance. The metre gauge system in the State now terminates at Nanjangud and unless it is continued and connected with the same system in south India at a point near Erode, the Mysore railway system will remain incomplete. This question, which is of over thirty years' standing, is again under correspondence with the Government of India.

Connection to the West Coast.

A railway line is also urgently needed to connect the State railway system with a suitable port on the West Coast. A project for a line from Arsikere to Mangalore, via Hassan, has long been under consideration and His Highness' Government were at one time very keen about it. But fuller enquiries have damped our enthusiasm and we have had to reconsider our attitude.

In the first place, the port of Mangalore is not open to shipping for at least three months in the year and what the permanent interests of the State require is a port which would be open throughout the year. In the second place, the original project was for a narrow gauge line and, as our trunk lines are all on the metre gauge, its construction would have involved a break of gauge. A metre gauge connection to the west coast down the Manjarabad ghat would cost the State over a crore of rupees and, in view of the altered conditions due to the war, we cannot afford this outlay. The narrow gauge line would not have answered the wants of our State because, at the Mysore end, there would have been a break of gauge and, at the west coast end, an unsatisfactory port. I have no doubt any one who thoroughly examines the conditions and resources of the country will uphold the soundness of the final decision arrived at by the Durbar.

Investigations are on foot for an alternative line ending in a more satisfactory port. We have been in search of a connection to the west coast for over 30 years, and even now our ability to construct one will depend, in a large measure, on the state of our resources in the near future.

70. I cannot conclude this portion of the address without referring to the services rendered by Mr. E. A. S. Bell, late Engineer-in-Chief and Secretary for Railways, to His Highness' Government. Mr. Bell had to organise and train a new staff and his high professional ability was of great advantage to the State in the economical construction of the new lines. His services were recalled in June last but we are grateful to the Government of India for lending us the services of another high officer in his place.

Department of Mines and Geology.

71. The number of leases and licenses current during the year was 142 as against 184 in 1913-14. The output of gold from the Kolar Mines amounted to 568,847 ozs. of an approximate value of Rs. 327 lakhs, showing an increase in output of 9,015 ozs. valued at Rs. 3,22,785 over the results of the previous year. The royalty expected for the year is Rs. 18,95,740 against Rs. 18,95,018 in 1913-14.

With a view to the better utilisation of the mineral resources of the State, the Department of Geology was re-organised in February last. This department was started in 1894 with a definite programme for carrying out a complete geological survey of the State, publishing geological maps and bulletins, and training young men as geologists and mining engineers. This programme was tentative and after a careful consideration, a revised programme has now been sanctioned, with a view to ensure greater attention by the department to the investigation of questions having a direct economic interest. The production and manufacture of special metals, such as pig-iron and steel, ferro-manganese, ferro-chrome, etc., and the question of iron smelting, are some of the more important matters on which the department will concentrate attention in the near future.

To help the public to take a practical interest in the development of mineral resources, the department will shortly publish a brief bulletin, in English and Kannada, giving an account of the mineral resources and metallurgical possibilities of the State. Steps have also been taken to train a few young men as qualified geologists and mining engineers to meet the needs of the department as well as of private capitalists interested in mining.

8—Miscellaneous Departments.

Muzrai Department.

72. The report of the Muzrai Committee referred to in last year's Address is still engaging the consideration of Government. Rules have been issued under Sections 13, 15 and 35 of the Muzrai Regulation, dealing with the maintenance of accounts in religious and charitable institutions, the conduct of business by Dharmadarsis and other cognate matters.

Government Press.

73. There was an increase in the outturn of work during the year both in the Central Press at Bangalore and the Branch Press at Mysore. The expenditure was Rs. 1,12,096 and Rs. 6,540 respectively against Rs. 1,05,484 and Rs. 6,048 in the previous year. The number of books and periodicals registered during the year was 124 as against 117 in the previous year. Copyright was taken for 50 new books.

74. As stated in my Address last year, a scheme of work has been laid down for the department for the next three years, and additional establishment has been temporarily sanctioned in order that the programme may be carried out. The revision of the Mysore Gazetteer, which has been undertaken by this department, has made fair progress. Archæological Department.

75. The question of improving the hill stations in the State has engaged the consideration of Government, and it has been decided that a beginning should be made with Nandidroog. The bungalows on the hill have been renovated and several conveniences have been provided for visitors. This hill possesses unique advantages of scenery and climate and it is to be hoped that the measures taken, synchronising as they do with the advent of the railway to the neighbourhood, will serve to revive the popularity which the place enjoyed in the days of the British Commission. The other hill stations, which will probably be taken up for improvement as funds become available, will be the Chamundi Hill near Mysore, the Devaroydrug near Tumkur, and Kalhathigiri on the Bababudans. Hill Stations.

9.—Local Self-Government.

76. The number of Municipalities at the end of June 1915 was 89, of which 36 were governed by the Municipal Regulation. The income of all Municipalities in the State during the year amounted to Rs. 10,80,920, and the expenditure to Rs. 9,98,136. Including previous accumulations, there was a balance of Rs. 10,65,432 at the end of the year in favour of the Municipalities. Municipalities.

The Mysore Municipal Regulation was amended, so as to empower Municipalities, amongst other things, to raise loans, with the sanction of Government, for constructing works of a permanent nature.

The Bangalore City Improvement Committee, the formation of which was referred to in my last Address, submitted a preliminary report dealing with the more urgent requirements of the City. Government have recently passed orders approving generally of the Committee's proposals, and agreeing as funds become available to bear a substantial share of the cost of the improvements, if the Municipal Council are prepared to bear the remainder.

Government have also sanctioned certain proposals of the Mysore Improvement Trust Board for improvements to the Mysore City. The proposals include extensions to the Devaraj Market, re-laying the market square, construction of a new Municipal office and a scheme for housing the poor. In view of the increase in the number of works to be undertaken, the grant to the Trust Board has been temporarily raised to 3½ lakhs per annum.

District Boards.

77. The receipts under District Funds amounted to Rs. 13,23,503 and the expenditure to Rs. 11,18,846. The income and expenditure under Local Funds General were Rs. 2,06,470 and Rs. 1,58,400, respectively. In exercise of the power recently conferred on District Boards, a Railway cess was for the first time levied in the Kolar District which yielded a revenue of over Rs. 47,000. The District Boards of Tumkur and Chitaldrug have been authorised to collect a similar cess in their districts from 1st July last. The District Board of Shimoga are raising funds for the construction of railways in the interior of that district.

Reforms in Local Self-Government.

78. The question of introducing reforms in Local Self-Government in municipal and rural areas with a view to placing it on a more popular basis has been the subject of earnest consideration for some time past. To examine the subject from various points of view, Government appointed two Committees, one presided over by Mr. M. Kantaraj Urs, C.S.I., to deal with the constitution and functions of local bodies, and the other with Rajamantra Pravina Mr. C. Srinivasiengar, as Chairman, to consider the question of the improvement of their financial resources. The reports of the two Committees have been published for general information. Their recommendations were also discussed at the Local Boards and Municipal Conference held in Mysore in June last, under the presidency of Mr. K. P. Puttanna Chetty. It is worthy of note that this Conference owed its origin and success chiefly to non-official initiative.

It is generally admitted that Local Self-Government in Mysore has not progressed satisfactorily and that local bodies are not playing their legitimate rôle in the administration of the country. The apathy displayed by these bodies is attributed chiefly to a deficiency in the elected popular element and to the want of reasonable powers of control over their own funds. His Highness' Government have therefore come to the conclusion that steps should be taken to associate the representatives of the people more largely with the administration of local affairs.

79. The main lines on which Government propose to take action may be briefly referred to here.

In regard to Municipal Councils it is proposed to constitute three classes of Municipalities, viz., 'City,' 'Town' and 'Minor', on the basis of population. The elected element will be not less than two-thirds in City, half in Town, and one-third in Minor Municipalities. Presidents in selected cases, and Vice-Presidents more largely than now, may be elected in City and Town Municipal Councils. Larger powers will be conceded to the Councils as regards establishments, works and budget. The scrutiny of Government over budgets will be limited to a few specified points. The effect of these changes will be to increase very largely the popular character of the Councils and the powers they can exercise within their areas.

As regards the constitution of the District and other rural Boards, the proportion of the elected element will be raised to at least two-thirds in the case of District Boards, and at least half in the case of Taluk Boards and Unions. It is proposed to sanction, with some modifications, the recommendations of the Local Self-Government Committee that the Taluk Boards and Unions should not be merely the agents of District Boards but should have a real corporate existence, independent funds and budget, and should be able to exercise within their own jurisdiction all the functions of the District Board. The powers of rural bodies with regard to establishment and budget will also be increased.

An important change is contemplated regarding the enlargement of the functions of these bodies. It is proposed to transfer tentatively the control over primary education, medical relief and veterinary dispensaries to selected local bodies and to invest the District and Taluk Boards with power to pass and submit resolutions for the consideration of Government in matters, which, though not coming within the sphere of their ordinary duties, relate to local wants and grievances and the administration of the district or taluk generally.

The chief difficulty which hampers the progress of Local Bodies is the general unsatisfactory condition of their finances. The Local Finance Committee which dealt with this question has recommended that the Local Funds General and the Village School Fund should be abolished as distinct funds and made over to Local Boards and that the mohatarfa now credited to State Funds should also be assigned to Local Bodies. In addition to the assignment of these revenues, they were in favour of large grants-in-aid from Government. These recommendations involve considerable expenditure from State revenues and require further consideration before Government are able to accept them.

80. I have outlined a few of the salient features of the proposals which have tentatively commended themselves to Government, with a view to obtain the opinion of this Assembly in case the members desire to offer any suggestions.

10.—Efficiency of the Administration.

Efficiency Audit.

81. The efficiency audit staff of the General Secretariat continued to devote attention to questions connected with the efficiency of the services. A further development in the lines of work has been lately sanctioned by making the services of the staff available to Heads of Departments and Deputy Commissioners for the investigation of irregularities, etc., in Government departments and offices.

Efficiency of Departments and Offices.

82. Several measures have been undertaken for ensuring system and regularity in the various branches of the administration. As stated already, greater uniformity is being introduced in the work of the Secretariats. The departments are being re-organised and establishments revised, one by one, with a view to placing their working on an up-to-date basis. A set of sample rules has been issued in order to standardise office methods, and in the case of the larger offices requiring more elaborate instructions, the rules have been expanded into office manuals. Eight of these manuals have been recently prepared. Rules have been framed to secure prompt consideration of petitions, and the question of introducing a new system of correspondence and record arrangement in Government offices with a view to greater celerity and orderliness in the disposal of public business is engaging the consideration of Government. The systematic inspection of all offices at periodical intervals has been arranged for, and returns of business statistics have been prescribed in order that the state of inspection and office work of Heads of Departments and Deputy Commissioners may come to the notice of Government.

Personnel.

83. The question of the personnel of the services also received considerable attention during the year. Certain suggestions indicating the standards of efficiency and conduct to which Government officers are expected to conform have been issued, and it is hoped that compliance with them, which is at present largely a matter of discipline, will soon become one of habit. A new system of qualification reports has been instituted in order to enable Government to obtain, from time to time, more detailed information than has been hitherto available regarding the work and capacity of the several officers. A scheme for encouraging officers to visit foreign countries has been lately sanctioned.

The Civil Service.

84. The second examination under the new Civil Service Scheme will be held in November next. There were 45 applicants of whom 27 have been admitted to the examination. Orders have been recently passed with a view to rendering the training of Probationary Assistant Commissioners more practical.

Recruitment and Training of Officials

85. The rules governing the recruitment and promotion of subordinate officials have also been examined, and it is under contemplation to introduce some changes calculated to afford greater encouragement to men of high educational attainments and to eliminate irregularities in the exercise of patronage. No system of recruitment can be deemed sound unless it gives preference to merit rather than to seniority, and secures a fair representation of all communities, as far as possible, in the public service. The question of giving systematic training to subordinate officials in the technique and principles of their work and in the elements of public administration, is also engaging attention.

District Administration.

86. With a view to ensure efficiency in the District administration, and to take stock of progress made in the various special schemes, tours have been undertaken by the Members of Council and the Dewan, and during the year, 51 taluks and 5 sub-taluks were visited. The important wants and grievances of taluks have been catalogued, in order that continuous attention may be bestowed upon them both by officers of Government and the people.

Hand-books.

87. In addition to compilations of departmental interest, hand-books of general information have been prepared for all the districts and, with the exception of those for Kadur and Chitaldrug, have also been printed. Several Taluk hand-books have been completed. Booklets giving essential facts have been published in respect of nearly twenty Municipal towns. Compilations of this character will be useful to officials as well as the non-official public, and are intended to help people to think in definite figures instead of in vague generalities, when questions connected with improvements and expenditure come up for consideration.

11.—Development and other Special Schemes.

88. In describing the operations of the several departments, I have already dealt with some of the special measures undertaken by Government. It might probably be an advantage to give here a perspective view of what is being done in two important directions, viz., the development of the natural resources of the country and the improvement of the efficiency of the people.

Development of Natural Resources.

Roads.

89. Taking communications first, we have at present a road mileage of one mile for every 1,047 inhabitants and one mile per 5·5 square miles of country. Very few new roads have been constructed in recent years and more road mileage is needed in many tracts; but the work is retarded because District Boards have not the wherewithal to provide for the high cost of maintenance.

Railways.

90. Owing to the cessation of all Railway activity for over twelve years, the State lagged behind the rest of India in railway development. Till 1912, the progress on rail road construction was 1 mile for every 12,554 inhabitants while the corresponding figure for all India was 1 mile per 8,873. A Railway Construction Department was organised in 1912, and since then project estimates amounting to Rs. 96 lakhs have been sanctioned. I have already referred to the progress made in the construction of each of these projects. The system of levying a railway cess has greatly facilitated the construction of feeder railways. If the people of the districts who appear to be keen on railways raise the necessary capital locally, as some of them have already done, in addition to paying a cess, an ideal state of things will have been brought into existence for the extension of railways. When the new lines are completed and brought into working order, our railway system, besides affording occupations to the people and bringing the local producer and the manufacturer into closer touch with the markets of the world, will also form a remunerative investment bringing a steady annual revenue to the State.

Hydro-Electric Power Works.

91. There is increased demand for power supply and there is also scope for further extension of the Cauvery Power Scheme. Alternative projects for increasing the power supply are under investigation.

Cauvery Reservoir and irrigation in the Cauvery Valley

92. The first stage of the Cauvery Reservoir is expected to be completed in 1916-17. The storage already secured is sufficient to guarantee the stipulated power supply to the mines and the works have begun to earn an enhanced revenue of Rs. 6 to 8 lakhs per annum from July last. The construction of subsidiary works, intended mainly to bring under command land meant to be given in exchange for the area submerged in the bed of the Reservoir, and to enable the drowned-out raiyats to settle down in the neighbourhood of their old villages, has been sanctioned at an aggregate cost of about Rs. 21½ lakhs. The works will also afford irrigation facilities to a large extent of land, already under private holding, and are expected to prove remunerative to Government.

Major and Minor Tanks.

93. I have referred elsewhere to the revision of the rules for the restoration of minor tanks sanctioned during the year in accordance with the understanding arrived at in this Assembly last year. The question of the restoration of the major tanks in the State is also receiving consideration. In future, the selection of these tanks for restoration or repairs will be more systematic, and will depend on the relative importance of the tanks in point of revenue or their special value to the raiyats of the localities concerened.

Another question requiring careful attention is as regards the measures necessary to make up for the loss in capacity due to the silting up of these reservoirs and to establish a closer correspondence between their capacity and the atchkat below. It is not intended to undertake immediately an extensive survey all over the State but such of the tanks, particularly in the Kolar District, as may have failed to answer the requirements of cultivation will be examined and suitable remedies adopted.

Development of Forest Resources.

94. The normal forest revenue of the State may be taken at about Rs. 22 lakhs though, in the years immediately preceding the war, a very much larger revenue was being realised owing to the exceptionally good prices secured for sandalwood. We are advised that there are great possibilities of augmenting our forest revenues by developing communications and carrying operations into the interior of the forests. Lack of communications has been a great difficulty in working these forests on a commercial scale. The construction of the Tarikere-Narasimharajapura Tramway is expected to greatly assist the department in exploiting forest areas hitherto untouched. The forest staff is being strengthened for the same purpose.

Development of Mineral Resources.

95. Our mineral resources await exploitation. There are possibilities in the iron deposits of the Bababudans and a profitable industry in iron and steel may be created if the problem of smelting iron ore with charcoal on a commercial scale is satisfactorily solved. Government recently engaged the services of an expert, Mr. C. P. Perin, Consulting Engineer to the Tata Iron & Steel Company, to examine and report on the prospects of an iron and steel industry and though his detailed report has not yet been received, his general opinion is understood to be favourable.

Improving the Efficiency of the People.

96. The chief agency for the improvement of the people is education. I have already dealt with this subject in another part of the Address. His Highness the Maharaja is anxious for the more rapid spread of education and provision of increased facilities for elementary and higher professional training. With the establishment of a University now under consideration, His Highness hopes to make the educational system in the State self-contained and better adapted to the needs of the country.

The operations of the Economic Conference have already been described. With the aid of this agency Government are doing all they can to spread sound and up-to-date ideas about economic improvement in the country, to make the people think and act for themselves and to help private industrial activities in various ways.

With a view to revive the old village communal spirit, schemes relating to Village Improvement, Minor Tanks, Rural Water-supply, Village Forests, Village Courts and Tank Panchayets, have been introduced.

97. Of these the one that is full of hopeful auguries for the future is the Village Improvement Scheme. During the two years it has been in operation, 7,745 Village Committees have been constituted for 13,860 villages or about 79 per cent of the total number of villages in the State. In 2,966 villages, the Committees are reported to be holding weekly gatherings regularly for attending to works of improvement and sanitation in and around villages. In 2,659 villages, newspapers are being subscribed for, and 2,039 Village Committees have been holding weekly meetings for disseminating useful information. The value of works of permanent utility undertaken during the year is estimated at Rs. 2·75 lakhs of which the villagers' voluntary contribution in cash or by labour amounted to Rs. 1·5 lakhs, the balance being met by Government. The actual amount spent by the Committees during the year 1914-15 amounted to about Rs. 75,000. Village Improvement Scheme.

It is gratifying to note that the advantages of the scheme have been fully realised by the villagers who are co-operating cordially with Government officers.

Other Village Schemes.

99. The other village schemes have only recently begun to work. One hundred and forty-three Village Courts have been established and many of them have begun to hear cases. The number of Tank Panchayets constituted is 65. Proposals are being received for the formation of village forests and are under consideration. A sum of rupees one lakh per annum has been set apart for an extensive programme of well works in villages, in addition to the amounts included for this purpose in the grant to the Village Improvement Scheme and the budgets of the District Boards.

Town Planning.

100. A sum of Rs. 25,000 has been set apart in the current year's budget for town-planning work. The necessity for a Town-Planning Bill has been urged for the consideration of Government.

Malnad Improvement Scheme.

101. The scheme inaugurated in February 1914 for the sanitary and economic improvement of the malnad portions of the districts of Shimoga, Kadur and Hassan was in operation during the year. The measures, chiefly adopted on the recommendation of the Committees, related to the shifting of villages from insanitary areas, provision of increased medical and maternity facilities—such as free distribution of quinine, appointment of more midwives and establishment of female hospitals in selected central places, removal of rank vegetation in and round villages, provision of better drinking water, popularising vaccination and spreading elementary education by increasing the number of schools. The Committees have yet to work out plans for increasing communications, for relieving agricultural indebtedness, for better drainage in villages and for providing more occupations to the people, such as minor industries connected with forest produce. The problem of labour supply in the malnad is one of the most important subjects engaging the attention of the Committees. The operations of the Committees were greatly hampered at the beginning by the difficulty and delay in finding suitable subordinate staff for the executive work of the improvement scheme.

12.—A Comparative View.

102. From the list of measures of improvement and reform which I have just enumerated, many people in this country may perhaps be inclined to the view that everything is all right with us, that we are attempting too much rather than too little and that there is small need for further effort. But this is not so. A closer view, you will see, reveals an unsatisfactory state of things.

The test of a country's condition must be based, after all, on its relative position with reference to more advanced countries in all the essentials that constitute progress. Let us see how we stand under this test in a few respects.

Taking education first, the literate population in Mysore numbered 6 per cent in 1911. It is perhaps 8 per cent now. In progressive countries, the proportion is over 80 per cent.

103. Occupation and production in the country are chiefly confined to the most primitive of professions in the world, viz., agriculture. The total production in Mysore is valued at Rs. 31 per head. The corresponding figures for Canada and Australia are reported to be Rs. 1,110 and Rs. 621 respectively.

Recently, the Bureau of Standards of the New York Board of Estimate found, upon enquiry, that the lowest yearly income upon which an unskilled labourer's family of five in that City can maintain a standard of living, consistent with American ideals, was Rs. 2,520. This is equivalent to Rs. 504 per head or more than sixteen times the Mysore average.

The figures available for our local trade show that the yearly exports and imports together amount to Rs. 26 per head. The corresponding figures for Canada and Australia are Rs. 480 and Rs. 495 respectively, that is, about eighteen times that of Mysore.

We obtain nearly all the manufactured articles, which require science, skill and enterprise to produce, from foreign countries and pay for them by exporting from the country food and other raw products, in some years at the risk of underfeeding our local population.

Neither the abundant natural resources of the country nor the vast stores of brain energy of the people are properly cultivated and utilised to increase production and wealth in the country.

The country suffers from a low level of industry, a low level of education, a low standard of earning and living, a low capacity for co-operation and low ideals of aspiration and effort generally. There is no gainsaying the fact that a wide gulf divides us, from the more advanced people, in all that constitutes prosperity and enlightenment.

104. The present low standard of living, as past experience has shown, is a source of danger. It leaves no margin for bad times. Our rainfall is so uncertain that a break in the monsoon, such as we experienced in August last, keeps our population in a state of anxious suspense. A partial failure of rain is attended with much suffering and a severe drought may cause even loss of life. The poorer classes who are sensitive to the calamities of the seasons require training in diligence and thrift. By steady labour for three or four years, a working man can lay by enough money or grain, for himself and family, to tide over a couple of years of scarcity or distress. There is abundant demand for well-paid labour in the country at present and no honest labourer has any excuse for neglecting such an insurance against a year of scarcity. The people should get accustomed to work longer hours and take more largely to industries, manufactures and trade. If these conditions are fulfilled, famines would be as rare in this land as they have become rare, on account of similar precautions, in European countries.

13.—Conclusion.

105. I have placed the ideals of advanced countries before you, because it is safe for us to follow the well-trodden paths of people already in the van of progress. It may be that, on account of climatic and other conditions, we shall never be able to reach their level of efficiency and prosperity. But that is no reason why we should not strive for what is within our reach, namely, to raise our standards, and double or treble our earning capacity in the near future. The very low level at which we stand is itself a measure of the opportunities before the country, and an augury that our efforts will meet with a speedy reward.

have put our hand. The co-operation is needed both from the official and the non-official public, and it should be co-operation which suggests and asks for opportunities to make itself useful, instead of waiting for a call.

107. It is pleasing to observe that the co-operation we need has also begun to come. Last year, I acknowledged the services of about 60 members of this Assembly in connection with the village improvement scheme, and this year, it is my privilege to thank some 200 influential persons throughout the State, many of whom are members of this Assembly, for help rendered in connection with the Economic Conference movement. After such a gratifying response, His Highness' Government have no doubt that, in the present and future years, more of this informal but invaluable assistance, will be forthcoming.

108. Gentlemen, you will agree that this Address would be incomplete if I failed to voice the widespread feeling of regret which His Highness the Maharaja and his subjects feel at the approaching termination of the beneficent Viceroyalty of His Excellency Lord Hardinge. His Excellency has been a sincere well-wisher and a warm-hearted friend in whose sympathy and sense of justice the Native States have learnt to place implicit confidence.

Also, I know you will feel much regret if I remind you that this will be perhaps the last occasion on which the Hon'ble Col. Sir Hugh Daly, our Resident, will attend this function. He came to us with a high reputation, and, during his term of office, the relations of the Durbar with the Residency have been exceedingly frank and cordial. He has been a true friend of the State and has worthily maintained the highest traditions of British statesmanship. He will carry with him, in his retirement, the warm regard of His Highness the Maharaja and the best wishes of the people of Mysore.

PART II.

The principal features of the past year's administration having been already explained, matters of comparatively minor importance and details of the operations of the departments will be referred to, in this part of the address, under the following heads :—

I. Finance;
II. Revenue;
III. Protection;
IV. Progress, moral and material;
V. Technical departments;
VI. Miscellaneous departments;
VII. Local Self-Government.

1.—FINANCE.

Account Department.

2. Improvements were made in the system of accounts in the Electrical Department. By arrangement with the Government of India, the accounts of State railways worked by the Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway Company were examined during the year by officers of the Durbar.

The accounts of almost all the District and Municipal Boards in the State up to the end of 1913-14 were locally audited. Those of the Bangalore City Municipality were subjected, in addition, to a special audit on account of certain irregularities brought to light. A few other special audits were undertaken under the orders of Government.

Arrangements have been made with the Government of India to enable holders of Mysore Government stock to obtain payment of interest on their securities from Treasuries in British India.

In March 1915, the Government of India paid the sum of Rs. 9·23 lakhs on account of the balance of the surplus revenues of the Civil and Military Station due to the end of 1910-11.

The Mysore Spinning and Manufacturing Co., in which, as you know, Government are financially interested, continued to work satisfactorily and declared a dividend of 6 per cent.

Savings Banks.

3. The amount at the credit of the depositors on the last day of the year 1914-15 was Rs. 66,52,812 as against Rs. 74,65,817 at the close of the previous year. The decrease is the result of a reduction in deposits combined with an increase in withdrawals. The latter were particularly heavy from September to December 1914, as a result of the disturbed conditions created by the war. Excessive withdrawals have ceased since January 1915, but the balance of deposits has not yet regained the last year's level.

State Life Insurance.

4. During the year 1914-15, 1,278 proposals were accepted, 128 were rejected, and 217 were left pending. Out of the 1,278 policies issued, 3 were cancelled before completion and the remaining 1,275 policies assured a bonus of Rs. 7,87,909 for a monthly premium of Rs. 3,058. At the close of the year, there remained on the books, 16,814 policies held by 8,523 persons, assuring a bonus of Rs. 85,60,403-6-0, for a monthly premium of Rs. 30,006. The closing balance of the fund on 30th June 1915 amounted to Rs. 32,68,446. The benefits of the State Life Insurance were extended to such of the State-aided schools as conform to the Insurance rules, and to the members of the piece-work establishment of the Government Press. On the advice of the actuary who investigated the affairs of the Insurance fund, Government sanctioned the grant, out of its surplus, of a reversionary bonus of one per cent per annum, on the amount assured on all policies in force on 30th June 1912.

2.—REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

5. The rules relating to the recruitment of Sheikdars were revised so as to secure a higher standard of general education among this important class of public servants. The publication of the Revenue and Agricultural Gazette has been discontiuued from the beginning of this calendar year, in view of the starting of the Economic Journal.

Cattle Shows and Exhibitions.

6. Cattle shows were held during the year at 24 places, and at two of these for the first time. Agricultural and Industrial Exhibitions were held in connection with some of these shows. The Bangalore City Municipality organised an exhibition in aid of the St. John's Ambulance Fund. The annual Dasara Exhibition was held at Mysore, under the management of the Industries and Commerce Committee aided by the Committees of Agriculture and Education. The exhibition buildings were extended permanently to accommodate the increasing number of exhibits.

Civil Veterinary Department.

7. The number of fresh admissions into the Veterinary hospitals was 16,937 against 18,622 during the previous year, and the total number of cases treated daily was 61,843 against 66,934 in the previous year. Three thousand three hundred and seventy-two cattle were inoculated against rinderpest and 24 against black quarter and anthrax. The formation of a mobile corps of Veterinary assistants was sanctioned during the year for undertaking, in co-operation with the Madras Civil Veterinary Department, an organised campaign against rinderpest in the frontier taluks.

Excise.

8. The expenditure of the department amounted to Rs. 3,41,200, as against Rs. 3,39,246 in 1913-14. The special detective staff was retained throughout the year. Thirteen cases of Inamdars' claims to excise revenue pertaining to 13 villages were adjudicated. The total number of offences reported was 2,971, as against 2,645 in the previous year.

Forests.

9. Five blocks with an aggregate area of 73·44 square miles were notified under section 17 of the Forest Regulation. The area of State Forests was thereby increased to 2,823·4 square miles. The Bikkode State Forest in the Hassan District, comprising an area of 159 acres, was disafforested and the lands were given out for coffee cultivation.

Settlement operations were completed in respect of 32 blocks covering an area of 260·82 square miles. The area remaining to be settled is 350·74 square miles, comprising 32 blocks. The Forest Settlement office was abolished in February 1915.

An area of 132·83 square miles was surveyed during the year. Two additional surveyors have been sanctioned to expedite the completion of the survey work.

The saw mill at Kumsi supplied 2,91,562 sleepers to the State Railway Construction Department and 4,450 to private individuals, and had, in addition, a stock of 91,303 sleepers awaiting inspection and approval of the Railway authorities.

About 849,133 cubic feet of timber were collected departmentally and sold for Rs. 12,96,998, while 308,877 cubic feet valued at Rs. 1,66,354 were removed under permits by purchasers.

Certain improvements in the system of departmental account, which had been under contemplation for many years, were brought into force from 1st July 1915.

Stamps.

10. The revenue derived from the sale of stamps rose from Rs. 10,66,357 to Rs. 10,84,615, giving an increase of Rs. 18,258, which was mostly contributed by the sale of court fee stamps. There was also an increase under general stamps, copy stamps and receipt stamps.

The establishment and other charges amounted to Rs. 48,726 against Rs. 57,178 in the year previous. The office establishments of the Superintendent of Stamps and of the Stamp Manufactory were revised.

Registration.

11. The total number of documents registered fell to 105,724 from 109,000 in the year previous. There was a corresponding reduction in the income of the department which amounted to Rs. 2,03,074, as against Rs. 2,08,178 in the previous year.

The expenditure of the department rose from Rs. 87,787 to Rs. 90,579 or by Rs. 2,792.

Joint-stock Companies.

12. Five new companies were registered during the year and four wound up, leaving a total of 84 companies working at the close of the year, or one more than the number at the end of the year previous. The number of literary, scientific and charitable societies registered was three, the total number of such societies existing at the end of the year being 22, as against 19 at the end of last year. The number of documents filed and recorded was 176 against 198, the amount of fees realised being Rs. 1,145 against Rs. 2,003 in the preceding year.

Revenue Survey and Inam.

13. Three inam villages were surveyed in detail and original classification work was done in 7 inam villages and one Government kaval comprising 1,148 fields, with an area of 4,354 acres. A survey officer was deputed for the special work of sub-dividing and classifying fields in the Kankanhalli taluk and Closepet sub-taluk of the Bangalore District, with a view to make the lands available for raiyats of small means and expedite the disposal of darkhasts. The sub-division operations were conducted in 185 villages comprising 3,417 fields, with an area of 17,766 acres.

Re-survey operations were completed in 318 villages, and re-classification of water-supply to wet and garden lands in 17 villages.

One land inam and two ready-money inams were confirmed, and 21 land inams were resumed and struck off. Fourteen land inams were revised. The net result was that the inam revenue was reduced by Rs. 117 and the land assessment increased by Rs. 256. Final title deeds for 7,050 minor inams and 1,625 whole inam villages were issued.

3.—PROTECTION.

Legislation.

14. The following six Regulations were passed into law after receiving the assent of His Highness the Maharaja :—

(1) A Regulation further to amend the Mysore Municipal Regulation 1906.
(2) A Regulation to amend the Mysore Mines Regulation 1906.
(3) A Regulation further to amend the Code of Civil Procedure.
(4) A Regulation further to amend the Mysore Local Boards Regulation 1902.
(5) A Regulation to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure 1904. and (6) The Emergency Continuance Regulation.

Besides these, five emergency Regulations were passed under Section 15 of the Mysore Legislative Council Regulation, viz. :—

(1) The Mysore Naval and Military News Regulation.
(2) The Foreigners' Regulation.
(3) The Ingress into Mysore Regulation.
(4) The Commercial Intercourse with Enemies Regulation. and (5) The Indian Soldiers' Litigation Regulation.

Rules and notifications under several enactments in operation were also issued during the year.

Judicial

15. There was a slight increase in the amount of the civil litigation, the percentage being ·51. The increase under criminal offences tried by Courts was 10·28 per cent, the number of persons convicted being 15·76 per cent over that of the previous year.

609

Police.

16. The cost of the Police administration, including equipment and clothing, was about Rs.10,89,000 against Rs. 10,00,600 in the year previous. The excess was chiefly due to (1) the extra pay sanctioned to the constabulary having been drawn throughout the year instead of for only nine months as in the previous year, (ii) the grain compensation allowance sanctioned owing to bad seasons, (iii) the cost of temporary staff maintained for irrigation and railway works, (iv) the travelling allowance bills of several of the previous years being audited and cashed, and (v) the re-organisation of the Police Training School.

The percentage of cases which ended in conviction to cases reported and pending rose from 19·6 in 1913-14 to 23·9 in 1914-15, and the percentage of convictions to cases decided was as high as 70·4. The number of cases struck off as undetectable was considerably less, and much discretion and judgment were apparently exercised in refusing investigation.

In regard to heinous crime, the percentage of conviction in cases of murder and culpable homicide were 43·4 and 56· 2 respectively, and in cases of burglary and aggravated forms of theft, 73·3 and 93·7 respectively.

The value of property recovered was 34·4 per cent of the value of property lost.

Amrut Mahal.

17. The net receipts of the Department for the year were about Rs.43,290 and the expenditure was Rs. 33,500. Owing to insufficient and ill-timed rainfall, some difficulty was experienced for fodder and the casualties among cattle were rather heavy. The number of cattle at the end of the year amounted to 7,236 as against 8,096 at the commencement.

Enquiries are being instituted with a view to ascertain on definite data the extent of grazing ground required by the department, and to make available the excess, if any, for cultivation or other profitable use by the people.

Medical.

18. One hundred and fifty-five medical institutions were working at the beginning of the year, and six new ones were opened. The total number of patients treated was 1,625,791 against 1,598,272 in the year previous. Of these 10,665 were in-patients. The Maternity Hospitals at Bangalore and Robertsonpet and the Vanivilas Hospital at Mysore continued to do useful work. The number of labour cases attended to in these hospitals was 702, 12 and 336 respectively. Building grants to the extent of Rs. 5,000 and Rs. 3,500 were given by Government to the

600

Mission hospitals at Mandagadde and Channapatna respectively.

The condition of lepers in the State came under consideration, and it was decided that arrangements should be made, without resort to compulsion, to keep lepers under observation and prevent them from pursuing occupations likely to endanger the public health. Some improvements were sanctioned to the buildings of the Leper Asylum at Bangalore, and steps were directed to be taken, if possible, to brighten the life of the inmates, by enlisting the sympathy of non-sectarian philanthropic bodies on their behalf.

Public Health.

19. The registered birth and death rates for the year were 19·74 and 16·69 per mille against 18·12 and 17·90, respectively, in the year previous. As compared with last year, there was a noticeable increase in deaths from plague; while there was a decrease under those due to cholera and small-pox. The total number of vaccinations was 112,185 as against 117,380 in the year previous. Primary vaccinations numbered 104,754 and re-vaccinations 7,431.

Prisons and Jails.

20. At the beginning of the year there were 1,174 prisoners of all classes in the several jails and lock-ups of the State. The new admissions were 10,464, and the number discharged was 10,289, leaving a balance of 1,349 prisoners at the end of the year. The gross expenditure was Rs. 1,13,529 against Rs. 1,03,635 in the year previous. Convict labour brought in a revenue of Rs. 15,224 against Rs. 12,708 in the preceding year. Thus, the net cost of maintenance worked out to an average of Rs.78 per head, or Rs. 5 more than last year, the dearness of provisions being the chief cause of this increase.

4.—PROGRESS, MORAL AND MATERIAL.

Education.

21. The Central College has been affiliated to the University in Group III of the Intermediate course. A proposal to affiliate the College for the B. A. Honours course in Mathematics has been sanctioned.

The Mysore Normal Training School was raised to the grade of a Training College and new sections were added, viz., a Graduates' Training Class, Elementary English Training Class, Agricultural Training Class and a Vacation Class. A new Normal Training School was opened at Tumkur last year, another has since been opened at Bangalore and it is under contemplation to open one more at Chitaldrug.

The clerical establishment of the office of the Inspector General of Education was revised and strengthened. To facilitate his work, certain enhanced powers for sanctioning grants-in-aid, etc., have been given to the Inspector General of Education.

The Special Committee appointed to determine the lines on which Sanskrit education could be further developed in the State has not yet completed its investigation.

Department of Agriculture.

22. The demand for improved agricultural implements during the year increased. The department sold 600 ploughs against 446 in the previous year. In order to popularise the use of oilcake as manure, the department was allowed to supply it to the raiyats at cost price. Two hundred tons of oilcake were purchased and distributed in small lots to growers of sugar-cane.

In addition to work in connection with Koleroga, the manuring and cultivation of different varieties of the areca palm engaged attention. Work has commenced in regard to the testing of varieties of paddy and sugar-cane, with reference to their suitability for malnad tracts. The spraying for Koleroga has been continued and has become very popular. Spraying work was carried out on seventy-four estates. The treatment of the garden at Agumbi, which, so far, has been attended with favourable results, has been suspended, in order to ascertain if the disease has been permanently stamped out. Another important disease of areca known as Anaberoga has been further investigated at Tarikere. Experiments have also been made concerning two important diseases of coffee upon which work is being done at Koppa and in the Bababudans, and also certain diseases of mangoes, potatoes, etc.

23. Six hundred demonstrations were held extending practically over every taluk of the State in regard to the use of improved implements, seed selection of ragi and paddy, manuring of sugar-cane, etc. Including demonstrations connected with Mycology and Entomology, the number of demonstrations held amounted to about one thousand.

The Agricultural School continued to do good work. A short course of instruction in the vernacular was held as in previous years for the benefit of persons engaged in agriculture. The number of such courses was five and each course was attended on an average by about 48 raiyats.

24. Owing to the unfavourable character of the rainfall and other causes, it is reported that much work could not be done in extending the introduction of improved methods of manufacturing jaggery. Two new plants were established for crushing sugar-cane, (in addition to the three previously installed), one by a private individual, and the other at Government expense, on the understanding that it will be eventually taken over by the raiyats. The high price of jaggery has given a great impetus to the demand for power-driven mills and five applications have been received during this year. Department of Industries and Commerce.

25. The work in the Government weaving factory at Bangalore was of a varied character. Silk and cotton fabrics to suit local tastes and woollen rugs and kamblies were prepared and met with a ready sale. The total sales in the factory amounted to Rs. 25,665 while the net expenditure was Rs. 18,984. In addition to elementary instruction in weaving provided in the factory, demonstrations were held in 27 villages by 9 demonstrators, and 428 fly-shuttles were supplied to the weavers. The question of organizing a proper market for the disposal of the increased outturn due to these improved looms has been taken up for investigation.

26. In the matter of financing co-operative societies a good deal of useful work was done by the Bangalore Central Bank, Limited, and by the Co-operative Federal Unions. The latter have increased from 9 to 15 and are in various stages of development, the one at Tumkur having shown the best results. Co-operative Societies.

There was increased co-operation between the Co-operative Department and the Agricultural and the Industries Departments. So far, most of the Co-operative institutions in the State have been credit societies. The possibilities of developing other forms of co-operation in the State are being investigated and societies for the co-operative production of jaggery and rice, for co-operative irrigation, for the supply of seed and manure and the like are coming into existence and have a promising future before them. Societies are also being started for the benefit of weavers, brass-workers, sandalwood carvers, shoemakers and other small artizans.

27. There are three Agricultural Banks in the State, viz., at Palhalli, Hongenhalli and Nanjangud. They have discharged their liabilities to Government in full and Agricultural Banks.

exist merely in name. Out of the loans due to Government, a sum of Rs. 10,848 towards principal and Rs. 1,119 towards interest, was collected during the year, leaving a balance of Rs. 47,922 outstanding against 17 banks. Three Co-operative societies were started during the year for the benefit of people likely to be inconvenienced by the winding up of Agricultural Banks.

Public Works.

28. Among the more important irrigation works in progress may be mentioned the construction of new tanks at Mavatur in the Kankanhalli Taluk, Harige in the Hunsur Taluk, Halsur Anicut in the Heggaddevankote Taluk, and Sowlunga tank in the Honnali Taluk; as also a feeder from the Naganna anicut to the tanks in the Tarikere valley in the Kadur District, the restoration of the Madhavamantri anicut, the Mellur tank and the Machipatna tank in the Mysore District, the Bolappanahalli tank in the Bangalore District and the improvement of the Sriramadevaru south channel in the Hassan District.

The Military buildings in progress during the year were the Lines for the Local Service Regiment at Mysore and the Barr Sepoy lines at Bangalore and Tumkur.

Under communications, the widening of the bridle path from Kogaru to Hopparige in the Shimoga District and the improvement of the Chickmagalur-Tarikere road in the Kadur District were in progress; as also the construction of large bridges across the Tungabhadra at Honnali in the Shimoga District and across the Bhrigu on the Hunsur-Begur road in the Mysore District.

Electrical.

29. The number of power and lighting installations in the cities of Mysore and Bangalore and the Civil and Military Station increased during the year to 1,942 from 1,539, the number at the end of the previous year, showing an increase of 26 per cent.

Geology and Mining.

30. Gold.—The number of gold mines at work during the year was 9 against 15 in the previous year. The reduction was due to suspension of work on three blocks in the Kolar and Kadur Districts and the abandonment of three blocks in the Mysore and Shimoga Districts.

The condition of the mines was on the whole satisfactory. With the exception of the Mysore mine, all the working mines showed distinct improvement compared with the previous year.

Manganese.—Two mining leases and eight prospecting licenses were current for manganese during 1914-15 against 2 and 19 respectively in the preceding year. Work was in progress on three blocks. There was an appreciable increase in the quantity of ore mined and exported, the figures being 19,000 and 19,629 tons against 13,944 and 5,953 respectively in the year previous. The amount of royalty earned was Rs. 4,907 against Rs. 1,461 in the previous year. The blocks in the Shimoga District continued to be the chief sources of production.

Chrome Ore.—Though the number of licenses current remained much the same as in the preceding year (16 against 17) the quantity mined was very poor and consequently the royalty also diminished. The proposals of the Director of Mines and Geology to revise the rate of royalty on this mineral are under the consideration of Government.

Magnesite.—Ten licenses were current for magnesite against 11 in the previous year but there was no output. The Tata Iron and Steel Company have applied for a mining lease in respect of one of the blocks.

Iron Ore.—There was one prospecting license current for iron ore during 1914-15 against seven during the previous year. The license refers to a block in the Tumkur District and is held by the Tata Iron and Steel Company. No work has yet been done on the block.

Mica, Asbestos and Corundum.—Though licenses were current for each of these minerals the output was very little.

Copper.—There were three prospecting licenses current for copper. Some work was done on the block in the Mysore District and some samples of copper ore have been obtained.

In all, 27,754 persons were employed in the mining industry during the last calendar year. Of these, 26,290 were engaged on the gold mines.

Explosives.

31. The total number of licenses issued during 1914 was 274 against 263 in the previous year. There were two cases of accident due to the use of explosives in the Bangalore District. There were 17 accidents on the Kolar Gold Fields involving the death of six persons and serious injuries to 21 others. Most of these were due to boring into or close by old holes containing small quantities of unexploded blasting gelatine.

615

6.—MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENTS.

Muzrai.

32. Eighty-seven Muzrai buildings were repaired during the year at a cost of Rs. 70,687, of which Rs. 61,169 came from the surplus funds of the institutions concerned and contributions from the interested devotees, the balance of Rs. 9,518 being met from State funds. The presiding priests of two important Matts, namely, the Parakala Matt and the Vyasaraya Matt, passed away during the year.

Government Press.

33. A sum of Rs. 3,214 was realised by the sale of the Government Gazette as against Rs. 2,838 in the previous year. The number of subscribers was 739.

Stationery.

34. English and Indian articles of stationery of the value of Rs. 94,660 and Rs. 27,816, respectively, were purchased, the value of purchases during the year previous being Rs. 89,002 and Rs. 16,792. The total cost of the stationery issued including paper and binding materials supplied to the Press amounted to Rs. 1,30,036 against Rs. 1,33,177 in the preceding year. The balance of stock left at the close of the year was of the value of Rs. 59,629. There was no appreciable inconvenience caused by the war, as most of the stock had been secured before its outbreak.

Government Gardens.

35. Considerable improvements have been sanctioned to the Lal Bagh and the Sunkal Farm. The usual half-yearly flower shows in the Lal Bagh were held with success and the exhibits came up to the average. An annual flower show was inaugurated in the Mysore City during the year. The Seed Depôt in the Lal Bagh continued to do good work, the year's sales being Rs. 5,487 against Rs. 5,562 in the previous year.

Orchard and garden owners were helped in the eradication of insect pests by sending out a spraying party who inspected and sprayed the affected plants. Some 24 gardens were successfully operated upon in this manner. Good progress has been made in planting up the economic garden section of the Lal Bagh. The Bureau of Economic Botany was kept up to date and the public made good use of it.

Archæology.

36. Parts of the Magadi and Nelamangala Taluks in the Bangalore District and of the Krishnarajpete and Nagamangala Taluks in the Mysore District were resurveyed and 280 new records discovered. The Jaina Sculptures at Sravanabelagola were photographed for illustrating the revised edition of the Sravanabelagola volume, the Roman portion of which is under print.

The department prepared a supplement to volumes III and IV of the Epigraphica Carnatica, consisting of 800 newly discovered inscriptions of the Mysore District. Six plates illustrating four temples were also prepared for the architectural portfolio. The number of new records copied was 334. Among the discoveries of the year, a copper plate from the Malur Taluk is of considerable interest.

Ethnographic Survey.

37. Fifteen castes were dealt with during the year and the accounts of twelve of them are nearly ready.

Meteorology.

38. The self-recording instruments installed in the Bangalore Observatory gave accurate records which were reduced and tabulated by the staff. The eye observations in this and other observatories in the State were satisfactorily made. The Director-General of Observatories visited the Central Observatory on 11th February 1915 and was well impressed with the work. Of the 225 rain gauge stations in working on the 30th June 1915, 194 were inspected during the year, giving a percentage of 86 against 87 in the previous year.

Government Museum.

39. Many sections received additions during the year, the number of additions both by purchase and presentation being 273. The cost of exhibits purchased was Rs. 334. Many exhibits were re-classed and provided with fresh labels of a descriptive character. The manuscript of the catalogue of exhibits was completed and is under print. The number of visitors to the Museum fell from 477,309 to 315,099 during the year; the decrease is said to have been due to the closing of the Museum for two months on account of repairs and improvements to the building.

Municipalities.

40. The Municipal Councils showed great activity during the year in framing rules and bye-laws under the Municipal Regulation. The Bangalore City Municipal Council were authorised to conduct their cash transactions with the Mysore Bank instead of with the District Treasury, Bangalore, and several Municipalities were permitted to deposit their surpluses in approved Banks or invest them in Government securities.

Mysore City Improvement Trust Board.

41. The total expenditure incurred by the Board was Rs. 3,76,788. The income from sale of lands, houses, and old materials was Rs. 23,987.

Local Boards.

42. Rules under the Local Boards Regulation were revised during the year and issued. The chief features of the revision were :—(1) Delegation to Deputy Commissioners of the power of appointing non-official Members to Union Panchayets and (2) representation on the Taluk Board of every Municipal Council in a taluk.

Revenue Commissioner.

EDUCATION AND AGRICULTURE.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

No. 2048-9—A. & I. 152-14-4, DATED 11TH NOVEMBER 1915.

ORDER.—As some misapprehension seems to exist as to the extent to which Government officers can give their support to the Co-operative movement, the following instructions are laid down for their guidance.

2. Government officers will be allowed to actively assist the movement, so far as they can, without prejudice to their legitimate duties and in their spare hours. They may become members of Co-operative Societies, taking shares in them, and serve on Committees of Management of such institutions, but will not be allowed to accept any remuneration without the special sanction of Government in the case of officers whose salaries are Rs. 100 and above and of the Heads of the Departments concerned in other cases. It should be distinctly understood that whenever any officer of whatever grade joins these Societies and helps them in their work he is expected to do so in his private capacity as a citizen, and he should not use his official position or influence in any manner which would militate against their non-official character.

M. SRINIVASA RAO,
For Sanitary Commissioner with the Government of Mysore.

Letter No. 15891—97-W., dated the 15th October 1915, from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry, Customs, to all Chambers of Commerce and Associations.

In continuation of my letter No. 13932-W., dated the 3rd September 1915, I am directed to forward herewith for the information of your Chamber/Association, and for communication to its members copies of each of the following revised lists, showing articles the export of which is prohibited or restricted from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, the Netherlands, Italy, France, the French Colonies, Russia, Switzerland, Greece, Romania, Bulgaria, Spain, Portugal and Egypt.

"Copy"

D. M. NARASINGA RAO,
Secretary to Government,
General Department.

C.

Lists of articles the exportation of which is prohibited from the following countries :—

Norway.	The Netherlands.	The French Colonies.	Greece.	Spain.
Sweden.	Italy.	Russia.	Roumania.	Portugal.
Denmark.	France.	Switzerland.	Bulgaria.	Egypt.

NORWAY.

August 6, 1915.

NOTES.

(1) All articles required for a ship about to undertake a voyage may be exported for the use of the ship, even if they are of a kind the exportation of which is prohibited.

(2) As regards transit, all goods coming to Norway and consigned to a foreign (non-Norwegian) destination, even if they are of a kind the exportation of which is prohibited, may be re-exported without special permission. On the other hand, foreign goods falling within the scope of the prohibition of export, if consigned to a place in Norway, cannot be re-exported without permission, even if they were intended for re-export.

(3) The Norwegian Government reserve to themselves the right to grant, in exceptional cases, permission to export any of the prohibited articles.

Acids :—see Citric acid, Hydrochloric acid, Lactic acid, Salicylic acid, Sulphuric acid, Tartaric acid ; and also under Dyes, and under Medicaments.
Alcohol (absolute).
*Alloys of antimony ; * alloys of copper (see under Copper).
Alum.
Aluminium, unwrought (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin), scrap aluminium, and aluminium worked up into plates, bands, tubes, rods, rings, wire, and castings.
Ammunition.†
Aniline (see under Dyes).
Animal oil.‡
Animals, living—cattle, goats, horses, pigs, reindeer, sheep.
Antimony, unwrought or crude, and scrap ; alloys of antimony ; sulphides and oxides of antimony.

*A Norwegian Customs Circular of the 3rd July, 1915, states that metallic alloys are not subject to prohibitions of export unless they are specially mentioned in the prohibitions, as in the case of the export prohibitions regarding antimony and copper. This ruling, however, only applies to cases in which the constitution of the alloy is normal ; and where metallic alloys contain an unusual amount of a metal of which the exportation is prohibited, the export prohibition applies also to the alloy.

†According to a Norwegian Customs Circular of the 9th July, shell cases come under this prohibition.

‡ The only animal oils not prohibited are whale and fish oils and waste tallow and fat from tanneries and slaughter-houses which could not be used as lubricants or as human food.

NOTE AS TO DRUGS, MEDICAMENTS, ETC.

The Norwegian Law of the 29th August, 1908 (Law relative to the trade in poisons and apothecaries' goods), contained three Schedules (A, B and C) of drugs, medicaments, etc.

SCHEDULE A contains a list of drugs, etc., which may only be sold in Norway by chemists. It includes poisons, arcana (all simple and compound materials offered for sale as medicines and the composition of which is kept secret), and medicamina (all materials which are used for preventing or curing sickness, without regard as to whether their simple ingredients are or are not articles of general commerce : excluded from this as exceptions are specially mentioned preparations mentioned in Schedule C 2, of the Law under collective groups, also materials which belong to Schedule C 1, when these are used as bandages, for disinfecting, in cosmetics, for technical or other non-medicinal purposes, and not as advertisements, circulars or in any other manner offered for sale or recommended as materials which may be employed for healing sickness). Medicamina are divided into three categories, viz. :—

(a) Medicamina composita (composite medicines and drugs) :

[The Law contains a long list, including, inter alia, aquæ destillatæ et extemporaneæ medicinales, chartæ medicinales, decocta medicinalia, emulsiones medicinales, extracta medicinalia, linimenta medicinales, pastæ, pastillæ tabulettæ et trochisci medicinales salia medicinalia mixta, sapones medicinales, solutiones medicinales, tincturæ medicinales, vina medicinalia, etc., etc.]

(b) Medicamina simplicia (simple medicines or drugs) :

This is again sub-divided into—

1. Animalium variæ species. (Examples. : Cantharides, castoreum, lapis cancrorum.)
2. Præparata chemica.

   [A long list is specified, including inter alia, acetanilide, acetylsalicylic acid and aspirin, benzoic acid, carbolic acid, æther nitrosus spirituosus, etc., alkaloids and their combinations, antifebrine, antipyrine, arsenic and its combinations, chloral hydrate, chloroform, diuretine, and theobromine-salicylate of soda, hexamethylen tetramine and urotropine, iodoform and iodol, acetate and startrate of potash, lysoform, naphthol, nitrobenzoll, paraldehyde, pepsine, phosphorus, resorcin, saccharin, veronal, etc., etc.]
3. Pyrolea.
4. Vegetabilium variæ species :

   [A long list is specified under this head.]

(c) Medicaminum variæ species :

[The list specified under this head includes, inter alia, serums.]

SCHEDULE B contains a list of drugs, etc., which may be sold by chemists and also by specially licensed tradesmen. It covers the following :—

Aloes.
Ammonium bromide; ammonium iodide.
Trichloride of antimony, butter of antimony.
Oxide of antimony.

Barium bromide; barium iodide; barium chlorate, chloric and barytes; barium hydrate (caustic baryta).
Benzinform.
Lead oxide, sugar of lead; lead nitrate.
Bromine.
Tartar emetic, antimony tartrate.
Potassium bromide; potassium iodide; patassium iodate; potassium oxalate (neutral and acid); potassium perchlorate.
(Caustic potash, potassium hydrate in metal containers of less than 40 kilog.; for quantities of 500 gr. or less the container may be of glass). [See also under potassium salts on page 5.]
Caustic lithia (lithium hydrate).
Sodium bromide; sodium iodide; sodium oxalate.
Caustic soda, sodium hydrate (in metal containers of less than 40 kilog.; for quantities of 500 gr. or less the container may be of glass).
Hydrofluoric acid.
Phosphorus, amorphous, red phosphorus.
Iron oxalate, ferrous oxalate.
Iodine.
Cadmium bromide; codmium iodide.
Calcium bromide; Calcium iodide.
Copper acetate, verdigris.
Copper nitrate.
Cobalt chloride.
Chromic acid.
Oxalic acid.
Pyridine.
Zinc chloride.
Strontium bromide; strontium iodate.
Carbon disulphide.
Liver of sulphur.

[SCHEDULE C relates to goods which may be sold practically without restriction. The following articles from Schedule C have been prohibited to be exported, and are included specifically in the list on pp. 1447-1451, viz., absolute alcohol, citric acid and its salts, tartaric acid, collodion, chemically pure hydrochloric acid, chemically pure sulphuric acid, lactic acid, formaldehyde solution and other formaldehyde preparations, balsam of Peru, wool-fat (all kinds), vaseline and vaseline oil.]

SWEDEN.

August 24, 1915.

NOTES.

(1) A Swedish Royal Decree of the 9th January, 1915, definitively prohibited the transit through Sweden of arms, ammunition, and other war material. The articles to which this prohibition of transit applies are indicated by a cross (×) in the list printed below.

Under the rules at present enforced by the Swedish Government, the transit through Sweden to Russia of all goods on the Swedish export prohibition list is also prohibited. This prohibition of transit was extended, on the 3rd August, so as to apply also to goods sent through Sweden by parcel post.

(2) As from the 22nd April, 1915, the export is prohibited of goods with regard to which no special prohibition of export has been enforced, but which are produced wholly or in part from the working-up or improvement of materials of which the exportation is prohibited, if moreover it appears from the quantity or condition of such goods that the working-up or improvement is merely intended to facilitate the exportation of the material of which the goods consist, but of which the export is prohibited.

(3) The numbers and letters quoted below relate to the headings of the "Statistical Index of Goods" under which the prohibited articles fall.

The numbers are the same as those of the Swedish Customs Tariff *; the letters indicate the sub-divisions of the numbers, and are found only in the "Statistical Index"—which is considerably more detailed in classification than the Customs Tariff.

* The most convenient form in which the Swedish Customs Tariff in its present form can be consulted is the translation published by the International Customs Tariff Bureau at Brussels (No. 93, Second Edition, March 1912).

ex 1258	Acetylsalicylic acid. [See under Druggists' wares.]
	Acids:—See under the respective headings—Acetylsalicylic, Carbolic, Citric, Hydrobromic and hydroiodic, Olein, etc., Salicylic, Sulphuric, Tannic, Tartaric.
ex 1258	Adrenaline and salts and preparations thereof. [See under Drugists' wares.]
ex 1250	Agar-agar.
1196	Alizarine and aniline dyes, and other tar colours, not specially mentioned in the Statistical Index. (See also Indigo, synthetic, and under Aniline and Tar colours.)
114 A and B	Almonds, whether shelled or not.
ex 1258	Aloes. [See under Druggists' wares.]
ex 953*	Aluminium and wares thereof. (See under Copper.)
ex 1258	Alypin. [See under Druggists' wares.]
1196	Aniline and alizarine dyes, and other tar colours, not specially mentioned in the Statistical Index. (See also Indigo, synthetic.)
1197	Aniline (aniline oil), naphthol, naphthylamine and paranitraniline and salts thereof.
	Animals, living. (See under Horses, Oxen, Pigs.)
	Animals, cloven-footed, and meat therefrom [export prohibited to Denmark only]. [See Note to heading for Meat.]
ex 1258	Antifebrine. [See under Druggists' wares.]
ex 953†	Antimony, unmanufactured or in the rough, also scrap.
ex 1258	Antipyrine (phenyldimethylic pyrazolone.) [See under Druggists' wares.]
	Arachides and arachides cake (see under Oil-cakes); arachides oil (see under Oils, vegetable, fatty.)
ex 1258	Arecoline and its salts. [See under Druggists' wares.]
	× Arms. (See under War Materials and Weapons.)
	Articles of sheet iron. (See Iron sheets.)
230 G	Aspenwood, unmanufactured.
ex 1258	Atropine and its salts. [See under Druggists' wares.]
	Balata, unworked. (See under Rubber.)
	Balsam of Peru. (See under Resins.)
	Bandaging articles, with the exception of cellulose wadding, bandage gauze, charpie, and preparations thereof.
ex 764½	Barbed wire.
ex 232 A, ex 232 C‡	Bark—fir bark, and other bark, not specially mentioned, used for tanning. (See also Cinchona bark and Sagrada bark.)
	Barley (see under Cereals).
1068	Batteries, galvanic.
ex 168 F, 168 E	Beans and peas, preserved (in hermetically closed or airtight receptacles.) [Beans and peas, other—see under Cereals, unground.]
ex 426	Binder twine (sködegarn).
ex 1265 A and B	†Binoculars, telescopes and fieldglasses (kikare), and parts thereof.
	Biscuits (See under Bread.)
ex 953, ex 1258 § and ex 1259	Bismuth and Bismuth compounds (pharmaceutical, etc.).
ex 401 and ex 552 C	Blankets (woollen), in the piece or shaped in manufacture, even if hemmed or bordered.
	Bone-fat (See under Fats, animal.)
1230 A	Bone meal and horn meal.
ex 209-211	Boots and shoes (men's) of greased leather.
84 A-F	Bran (of oats, wheat, maize, rice, rye, and other kinds.)
	Brass, bronze, and other copper alloys (See under Copper.)

	Cattle foods (See under Oilcake, and Feeding stuffs).
ex 374 F	Cattle hair.
	Cattle hides (see Hides).
	Caustic potash (see under Potassium salts).
ex 1143 74 A-E; 75 A-F; 76; 77; 78;	Cereals unground:—Rye, wheat, barley, peas and beans (including soya beans), oats, vetches, malt, (even if crushed), maize, and other cereals, unground.
79 A-K	Cereals, ground:—Flour (meal) and groats of oats, wheat, barley, maize, rye, and other cereals, including flour of arrowroot and other vegetables, not specified under any other heading of the Statistical Index.
1099 L and K	Ceresine and ozokerite.
ex 1258	Chloral hydrate. [See under Druggists' wares.]
1147 A, ex 1259	Chlorate and perchlorate of potash. (See Potassium salts.)
ex 1258	Chlorides:—Ethyl chloride, methyl chloride, and cocaine chloride. [See under Druggists' wares.]
1146	Chloride of lime.
1145 D	Chloride of potassium. [For chloride of sodium, see under Salt.]
ex 1128 C	Chlorine gas, condensed.
ex 1258	Chloroform. [See under Druggists' wares.]
ex 953†	Chrome, unmanufactured or in the rough, also scrap.
ex 1285-1286	Chronometer watches.
1290	Chronometers, ships'.
ex 1258	Cinchona bark. [See under Druggists' wares.]
ex 1140	Citric acid and tartaric acid.
41 A-K‡	Coal—anthracite, gas-coal and coke-coal, steam-coal, and other coal; peat; coke; wood charcoal; briquettes (of coal or peat); other fuel not specially mentioned [not including unmanufactured retort carbon].

* See under heading for Druggist's wares.

† No. 953 provides that aluminium, nickel, and metals not specially mentioned in the Index (alone or in composition) are to be assimilated to copper. At present aluminium and aluminium wares of the kinds specified in Nos. 897-910 and 923 and 924 are prohibited to be exported; but nickel, antimony, and chrome are only prohibited if in the unmanufactured or rough state, or in scrap.

‡ 41 L [not prohibited] relates to unmanufactured retort carbon.

	Coal-tar dyes. (See under Tar colours.)
ex 1258	Coca leaves. [See under Druggists' wares.]
ex 1258	Cocaine chloride. [See under Druggists' wares.]
	Cocoa butter; coconut oil or cocos oil (see under Fats, vegetable).
	Codeine. (See under Opium).
ex 1258	Colchicine; colchicum seeds (semen colchici) and preparations thereof. [See under Druggists' wares.]
	Colophany (see Resin).
	Copper and alloys thereof with zinc, tin, or other non-precious metal, such as brass, bronze, German silver, Britannia
ex 953*	metal, etc.; also aluminium, nickel, chrome, and antimony:—
897 A-E and ex F	Unmanufactured or in the rough with the exception of refined copper produced from raw material (not from scrap) at a Swedish refinery†].
ex 897 G	Copper anodes, cast, even if with ears, with or without holes.
897 H	Scrap.
	Copper and alloys thereof with zinc, tin, or other non-precious metal, such as brass, bronze, German silver, Britannia metal, etc., also aluminium:—
	Manufactures, viz.:—
	Sheets and hoops:
	Of a thickness of at least 0·2 mm.
898 and 899	Rolled or pressed, even if with sheared edges (rectangular, and other kinds).
900	Hammered, bent, bell-shaped, with turned-up edges, including × cup-shaped materials for making cartridges, etc., provided with holes, polished or otherwise worked, and not falling under No. 901. (*The transit through Sweden of cup-shaped materials of copper and brass for making cartridges has been definitively prohibited. See Note * on p.* 1447.)
901	Less than 0·2 mm. thick; also perforated sheets, including so-called strainer plates.
902 and 903	Rods (even if in bundles or coils), rolled, drawn, hammered or profile pressed, but not further worked, whatever be the shape of the section.
904	Solder, moulded, crushed, or granulated.
905	Nails and rivets; also bolts, wormed or not.
906 and 907	Pipes and tubes, whatever be the shape of the section, even if turned on the exterior and interior.
908-910‡	Wire, rolled or drawn, whatever be the shape of the section; including so-called trolley wire (contact wire).
923 and 924	Woven wire (gauze, wire tissue, etc.).
	Copper and alloys thereof with zinc, tin, and other non-precious metal, such as brass, bronze, German silver, Britannia metal, etc.:
912	Wire twisted into cords or cables, not insulated.
913-914	Wire furnished with sheath of lead or other metal, with or without armouring, even if in combination with other materials; also electric cables or lines with similar sheaths, with or without armouring.
915-918	Wire insulated with rubber, guttapercha, etc., even if in combination with other materials; also electric cables, lines and cords insulated in this way.
919-920	Wire insulated with textile materials, paper, asbestos, or varnish, even if in combination with other materials; also electric cables, lines, and cords insulated in this way.

* Vide note * on page 1450.

† His Majesty's Minister at Stockholm has been informed that this exception applies solely to copper imported from Norway and refined at Helsingborg. (The quantity refined at Helsingborg in 1913 was about 7,000 tons, and the quantity exported about 1,300 tons.)

‡ No. 911 [not prohibited] relates to gilt or silvered wire.

921 Wire, electric cables, lines, and cords, insulated in any other way.

474* Cotton, uncarded (even if bleached, dyed, or chemically cleaned).

476* Cotton waste, including unpicked cotton (trassel).

Cotton-seed cake (see under Oilcake); cotton-seed oil (see under Oils, vegetable, fatty).

Cresol and metacresol. (See under Carbolic acid); cresol soap solution (see Lysol).

ex 660 Crucibles of graphite composition.

Degras. (See under Fats, animal.)

ex 1258 Diethylmalonylurea (veronal) and its salts. [See under Druggists' wares.]

ex 1258 Digitalis leaves and preparations thereof, such as digalin and digitotal. [See under Druggists' wares.]

140 Dripping (rendered fat).

1258 Druggists' wares, not specially mentioned in the Statistical Index, simple or compound, including saccharine and other artificial sweetening substances.

Note.—Certain druggists' wares coming under No. 1258 were prohibited by Royal Decrees of October 22, 1914, and March 3, 1915, and the wares so prohibited are indicated specifically in alphabetical order in this list. On August 3, 1915, the prohibition of export was extended to all druggists' wares classified under No. 1258.]

ex 1258 Duboisin and its salts and combinations. [See under Druggists' wares.]

Dyes (coal-tar). (See under Aniline, Indigo, Tar colours.)

1195 Dyewoods and other plants or parts of plants for use in dyeing, not falling under any other heading in the Statistical Index, whole, or in pieces, grated, ground, or otherwise divided; extracts, of vegetable dyestuffs, liquid or solid.

× Dynamite and other explosives. (See under Gunpowder.)

Earthnuts and earthnut cake (see under Oilcake); earthnut oil (see under Oils, vegetable, fatty).

142 A Eggs.

ex 1087 D Electro-magnetic igniting apparatus for motor ignition, detached.

ex 1160 Emetic salt (tartras stibico-kalicus).

1100 C Engine and cart grease.

ex 1258 Epinephrine and salts and preparations thereof. [See under Druggists' wares.]

ex 1258 Epirenine and salts and preparations thereof. [See under Druggists' wares.]

ex 1258 Ethyl chloride and methyl chloride. [See under Druggists' wares.]

ex 1258 Eucaine. [See under Druggists' wares.]

× Explosives. [See under Gunpowder.]

1109 F-I Fats:—Animal fats † not specified elsewhere in the Statistical Index, such as spermaceti, blubber of marine animals, bonefat; wool-fat, also lanoline; degras (tanners' fat). (See also under Dripping, Tallow, Oleomargarine, Margarine.)

1108 A-D Fats:—Vegetable fats, such as palm oil, palmnut oil, cocos oil or coco-nut oil, cocoa butter, Japan wax, and other vegetable fatty substances, which under ordinary temperatures do not as a rule assume a liquid form.

105 A-D Feeding stuffs (cattle foods), not specially mentioned, such as brewers' grains and wash, gluten food, meal of maize cakes and of other oilcakes and maize-germ meal, even if with admixture of animal substances. (See also Oilcake.)

707 B and C Ferrochrome; ferromanganese and spiegeleisen.

Fertilisers, artificial:

* No. 475 [not prohibited] relates to carded cotton.

† It is understood that the prohibitions of export now in force apply to all animal fats, without exception. [April 10, 1915.]

DENMARK.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

August 10, 1915.

NOTES.

1. As regards goods in transit and transhipment goods (in the Copenhagen free port and all other Danish harbours), all such goods, if of a kind prohibited to be exported from Denmark, are covered by the prohibition unless they are on a through bill of lading to a port in a foreign (non-Danish) country.

The prohibition is therefore applicable in cases where the goods are either shipped to a Danish port "to order," or where the goods are redestined to another port than the one originally mentioned in the bill of lading (unless it is only a question of redestination to another port in the same country).

(20928.)

2. According to an official notice published in the "Berlingske Tidende" of the 12th February, 1915, permissions to export granted by the Ministry of Justice are valid only for one month from the day on which permission was granted, unless other conditions are determined in the permit itself.

Sesame-seed.
Shellac.
Shoddy.
Silver and gold coin* or bullion (including foreign coins*), silver in plates.
Skins (lamb and sheep skins, prepared or not prepared, pigskins).
Soya beans.
Starch (maize starch, rice starch, potato starch, sago starch, and wheat starch).
Stearine, vegetable, for the manufacture of margarine.
Straw (See Fodder-stuffs).
Sulphate of ammonia (see Manures); sulphate of copper (copper vitriol).
Sulphur and sulphuric acid [See Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Superphosphates (see Manures).
Swedes (See Fodder-stuffs).
Syringes, hand, for medical use.
Tallow (both beef and mutton tallow).
Tanning materials.
Tapioca.
Tar colours and organic ingredients for producing tar colours, including aniline and aniline combinations.
Thermometers for medical use.
Tin of all kinds, old and new (See Materials, raw); tin ore; chloride of tin; oxide of tin.
Tinned or galvanised iron plates (See Materials raw); waste of tinned iron sheets.
Turpentine oil, rectified and unrectified.
Tyres (covers) and tubes (cycle, motor cycle, and motor vehicles).
Varnish (linseed oil varnish).
Vaseline (See Lubricants).
Vegetable oils and stearines for the mannfacture of margarine.
Wastes:—cotton waste; rubber waste; waste of tinned iron sheets.
Weapons of all kinds (including sporting guns, and distinctive component parts thereof).
Wheat (included under Cereals); wheat starch.
Wire, barbed.
Wood, in blocks, beams, and boards.
Wool (sheep and lambs).
Woollen and half-woollen rags and shoddy.
Woollen and worsted yarn.
Woollen goods—woven and knitted woollen tricotage goods, whatever be the proportion of wool contained therein; all woven woollen goods (with the exception of curtain and furniture stuffs and passementerie).
Yarns—woollen and worsted; cotton; hemp; jute; cocoanut.
Zinc in blocks or sheets (see Materials, raw).

NETHERLANDS.

July 28, 1915.

NOTE.

The Crown reserves to itself the right to grant exceptions in certain cases from the prohibitions of export established by Royal Decree.

A Royal Decree of 28th August, 1914, authorised the Netherlands Minister of War in special cases to grant exemptions from any prohibitions to export specified goods which had then been issued or which might in future be issued.

Special bureaux [central bureau] have been established by the Netherlands Government for the regulation of the exportation of certain commodities [butter, cheese, pork]. The commodities in question may only be exported from the Netherlands when accompanied by a special export certificate [uitvoerconsent] issued by the bureau.

* Travellers may carry with them gold and silver coins not exceeding 200 kroner in value.

[The notes printed in small type under certain headings in the list below are in the nature of explanations of the scope, etc., of the prohibitions to which they refer. The majority of such explanatory notes are translations of Notes appended to the list of prohibited goods which are printed from time to time in the official Dutch paper the "Handelsberichten," and it should be borne in mind that they are in the nature of decisions on the part of the authorities administering the prohibitions, and appear to be liable to alteration or modification as the result of later decisions.]

Acetone.
Acids—nitric, sulphuric. (See also under Medicines, etc.)
Aeroplanes, etc. (See under Flying machines).
Ammonia sulphate, ammonia superphosphate (see Fertilisers).
Ammunition, gunpowder, and parts thereof.
Arachides, arachides cake, and arachides meal; almond substitute made from arachides.
Arms, except sporting arms.
Automobiles and parts thereof (including tyres), and motor cycles and parts thereof.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, speedometers are not regarded as coming under the prohibition applicable to parts of automobiles, nor are bodies (koetswerken) for automobiles.

[See under Rubber waste for worn-out motor tyres.]

Bacon (spek), fresh, salted, dried, and smoked. (See also under Pork and Meat.)

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, the prohibition does not apply to exports to Dutch oversea Colonies and Possessions, nor to bacon in railway trains and on ships and boats and intended solely for the use of the persons in such trains or vessels. [See also Note to "Pork, etc."]

Bandaging articles and materials therefor (See under Medicines).
Barbed wire (see Wire).
Barley, barley meal, and all articles produced from barley. (See also under Cereals.)
Beans (see pulse).
Beef.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, exception is made to this prohibition in respect of cured beef and fresh meat from newborn and fat calves (except newborn heifer calves).

Beets (sugar beets).
Benzine.
Biscuits, etc. (see under Bread).
Blankets and blanket material, woollen. (See Wool.)
Bones; bone-meal (see under Fertilisers).
Brass, bronze, etc. (See Copper and alloys thereof).
Bread, ship and other biscuits, cakes, etc. (all articles produced from wheat and spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, and maize).

A Royal Decree of the 1st January, 1915, empowered the Dutch military authorities to allow the export of certain quantities of bread for supplying the daily requirements of the inhabitants of foreign territory in the immediate vicinity of the Dutch frontier, if such inhabitants are unable to obtain bread in their own country, or can only do so under very onerous conditions.

Briquettes (except charcoal briquettes).
Buckwheat and all articles produced from buckwheat. (See also under cereals).
Butter (except butter accompanied by a special export certificate).
Calcium acetate; calcium cyanamide (nitrite of lime) and calcium nitride (lime nitrogen) (see Fertilisers).
Carbonate of potassium, caustic potash (including potash lye), potassium salts.
Carts and carriages for horse traction; motor cars and parts thereof.

[See Note to Motor cars.]

Cattle, living.
Cereals and articles produced therefrom.

A Notice issued by the Minister of Agriculture, Commerce, and Industry on the 12th July, 1915, states that the prohibition of the export of wheat, rye, oats, barley, and buckwheat is to apply to the new (1915) harvests of these cereals.

The "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, contains the following explanations as to the scope of the prohibition under the heading "Cereals":—

The following are prohibited:—buckwheat, barley, barley meal, goats, oats, maize, maize meal, rye, rye meal, wheat, wheat meal (flour), and all products derived from buckwheat, barely, oats, maize, rye, spelt and wheat.

Beer, yeast, gin, maize oil, and malt wine do not fall under the prohibition, but the following, products do :—(biscuits including ship's biscuit, dog's biscuit, and other biscuits,) cakes, porridge, gingerbread, macaroni, malt coffee, wafers, pudding powder prepared with grain meal, racahout, triscuit, vermicelli, waffles, and similar articles.

Oat flakes which have been specially prepared for sufferers from diabetes may, however, be freely exported.

Cheese (except cheese accompanied by a special export certificate).

His Majesty's Minister at the Hague reported on the 26th April, 1915, that the State Central Bureau for the Export of Cheese had determined that on and after the 1st May certificates would be granted in respect of 80—90 per cent. of the cheese purchased or produced in the Netherlands—the percentage varying according to the Province and the description of the cheese.

Chicory in any form (including chicory roots), and coffee substitutes made from various roots (peekoffie).

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, coffee syrup (burnt molasses does not fall under the prohibition of export).

Chile saltpetre (see Fertilisers).

Cloth, military, and clothing made therefrom. (See under Wool.)

Coal; coal-tar dyes (See under Tar dyestuffs).

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, bunker coal may be exported in any ship in a quantity sufficient to carry the ship to its next port of destination.

Cocoa beans, raw; cocoa paste; cocoa in the lump.

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, the prohibition of cocoa beans applies also to shelled and broken cocoa beans, to cocoa dust, and to roasted cocoa beans. As regards cocoa husks and meal thereof, see under Force feeding cake.

Coffee substitutes made from various roots (peekoffie). (See under Chicory).

Cotton, raw.

Cotton seed (see Oilseeds), cotton-seed cake, cotton-seed meal.

Cotton waste; cotton yarn.

Copper and alloys thereof, whether raw or manufactured (unless used as part of any manufactured article of which copper or copper alloy does not constitute a main component part).

A Royal Decree of the 3rd March, 1915, provided that the Minister of Finance shall decide whether copper or copper alloy constitutes a "main component part" of any manufactured article.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, electric incandescent lamps may be exported, as copper does not constitute the main component. This does not apply to unserviceable incandescent lamps, which are prohibited as scrap copper.

Copper sulphate; copper oxide.

Diuretinum.

Dyestuffs (tar dye-stuffs) (see under Tar dyestuffs.)

Earthnuts, earthnut cake, and earthnut meal; almond substitute made from earthnuts.

Electric pocket lamps, parts thereof, and raw materials for the manufacture thereof.

Engine (machine) and lubricating oils.

[See Note under Lubricating oil.]

Ether.

Fat—all melted or unmelted animal fats, mixtures of these fats with each other, or mixtures thereof with vegetable oils or fats. (See also Tallow.)

A Notice published by the Ministry of Agriculture on the 7th June explained that this prohibition is intended to prevent entirely the export of unmixed fat of cattle and pigs. The exportation of the following articles to a limited extent, under export licenses, will be permitted :—

(1) Certain mixtures suitable for use as substitutes of fat of cattle or of pigs;

(2) Certain products of the fat of cattle or pigs, imported into the Netherlands from abroad (e.g., neutral lard, premier jus, oleomargarine, etc.).

(3) Animal fats other than cattle and pig fat (e.g., mutton fat, hardened fish oil, etc.).

Margarine may be freely exported in so far as by its preparation with milk and milk products it has been rendered suitable for use as a butter substitute.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, the prohibition does not apply to exports of fat to Dutch oversea Colonies and Possessions, nor to fats for the actual use of passengers on railway trains or ships or boats.

Fecula, and products manufactured therefrom.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, this prohibition applies, inter alia, to potato meal, potato starch, tapioca, sago, arrowroot, dextrine, glucose (grape sugar), manihot, etc.

Fertilisers :—Chile saltpetre, lime saltpetre (nitrate of lime), lime nitrogen (calcium nitride), nitrite of lime (calcium cyanamide), ammonia sulphate, ammonia superphosphate, guano and other nitrogenous fertilisers, superphosphates; crude phosphates.

Flannel (except cotton-flannel) and underwear made therefrom. (See Wool.)
Flax (linen) yarns.
Flying machines and parts thereof.
Flour and meal, of wheat and spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, and maize; also potato flour (including potato sago and potato starch.)
Force feeding cake [see also those specially mentioned in the list], and meal and waste thereof.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, this prohibition does not apply to cocoa husks, cocoa husk meal, copra, groundnut husk meal (finely ground groundnut shells), and linseed husks.

The articles known in the trade as palm-kernel cakes and copra meal or cocos meal are generally obtained by grinding or powdering palm-kernel cakes and copra cakes, or cocos cakes are to be regarded as waste thereof, and thus fall under the prohibition of export applicable to meal and waste of force feeding cakes.

Mowra cakes, the residue from expressing Mowra seeds, come under the prohibition of export of force feeding cakes.

Fuel (see under Benzine, Briquettes, Gas oil, Liquid fuel, Petroleum, Coal, Coal-tar, and Tar colours).
Gas oil.
Gold coin and bullion (bars, rods, etc.).

The prohibition does not apply to gold coins carried by bonâ fide travellers.

Grain waste.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, this prohibition does not apply to Vienna glue or shoemakers' glue made from waste in the manufacture of wheat starch, Molasses cattle feed mixed with grain waste falls under this prohibition. Chaff falls under the prohibition of grain waste or straw.

Grass seeds.
Groats. (For oat groats, see under Cereals.)
Groundnuts, groundnut cake and groundnut meal; almond substitute made from groundnuts.
Guano (see Fertilisers).
Gunpowder. (See under Ammunition.)
Half-woollen (mixed woollen) goods (see under Wool).
Hay.

A notice was published in the "Nederlandsche Staatscourant" for the 22nd April stating that it was intended to grant permits for the exportation of certain parcels of hay which cannot be consumed in the Netherlands in view of the approaching grazing seasons.

Hemp yarns, resembling linen yarns, and destined for weaving (not including hemp for binding twine, manila hemp, sisal, etc.).
Hides and skins. (See also Sheep fleeces.)

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies to all hides and skins, and also to peltry, but not to furriers' wares. In the case of slaughtered calves and other slaughtered cattle, the hides may not be exported with the carcass.

Hogwash, dried.
Horses.
Instruments, surgical.

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to rubber articles for the sickroom, such as air-pillows, ice-bags, etc. No restriction is imposed on the exportation of surgical instruments to the Dutch Indies.

Iron, raw, of all kinds.
Iron and steel wire, and articles made of iron or steel wire; barbed wire; steel iron, tinned (tinplate).
Jute, raw; jute cloth; jute yarns.

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, tailors' linen, consisting of cotton or linen warp with jute weft, does not fall within the scope of the prohibition of jute cloth.

Knitting machine needles.
Lard (see fat).
Lead and its alloys; waterpipes and watermaines of lead or of tinned lead.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, tin solder, consisting of 30 per cent. of lead and 70 per cent. of tin, is prohibited as a lead alloy. Lead ashes, which, besides lead oxide, often contain an appreciable proportion of metallic lead, are also prohibited to be exported.

Leather and articles manufactured therefrom.
Lime, nitrate of (lime saltpetre), nitrite of (calcium cyanamide), lime nitrogen (calcium nitride) (see Fertilisers).

Linen yarns.
Linseed (see Oilseeds), linseed-cake, linseed-meal.
Liquid fuel.
Lubricating and machine oils.

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to Chinese wood oil, (obtained from the seeds of aleuritis cordata), groundnut oil cotton-seed oil, linseed oil, maize oil, oleic acid, palm-kernel oil or soya oil. Solid fat (consistenvet), and other similar lubricating grease, and hydrogenised castor oil (i.e., castor oil hardened by chemical means) fall under the prohibition.

Macaroni and vermicelli.
Magnesium salts.

The "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, contains the following explanations as to the scope of the prohibition of "Magnesium salts".—

Crude carbonate of magnesium or magnesite and refined carbonate or magnesium, called magnesia alba or merely magnesia, fall under the prohibition of the export of magnesium salts.

Magnesium oxide, burnt magnesia, calcined magnesia, or magnesia usta, which, in the unrefined state, is known in the trade as burnt or calcined magnesite, is not really a salt, and therefore does not fall under the prohibition of magnesium salts. Refined magnesium oxide for medicinal use falls under the prohibition of the exportation of medicines.

Maize, maize meal, and all articles produced from maize. (See also under Cereals)
Manures (see Fertilisers).
Meal of pulse; meal and other products of wheat, spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, maize, and rice; meat-meal.
Meat preparations and provisions containing meat, preserved in tins or other airtight receptacles.
Medicines and bandaging articles, and materials for making them.

The "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, contains the following explanations under this heading:—

The prohibition is temporarily withdrawn in respect of the obromine, cinchona bark and products derived therefrom, cocaine, coca, and cubebs. The following articles among others, are not as a rule regarded as being covered by the prohibition:—ammonia, carbonate of ammonia, acetic acid, barium chloride, bleaching powder, blood albumen, cocoa butter, caseine, Chinese wood oil, licorice, corn coffee, gelatine, gypsum, glycerine, Glauber's salts, iris root (rhizoma calami), carraway-oil, linden blossom, sugar of milk, musk, clove oil, paraffin, peppermint, saccharin, sanatogen, star aniseed, vanilline, and silicate of soda, and certain specialities prepared by A. M. Boom, of Arnhem, and other firms.

The following inter alia, are covered by the prohibition:—

Alum, borax, bicarbonate of soda, iodine, iodic acid and other iodine combinations, camphor and camphor acid, creosote and cresol, codliver oil, sugar of lead, magnesia alba, magnesia usta, (pure magnesium oxide), lactic acid, naphthalene, peppermint oil, arsenic, sal ammoniac, thymol, tartaric acid, hydrochloric acid;

opium and its derivatives: morphine, codeine, pantopon laudanum, etc.;

salicylate, aspirine, novaspirine, diaspirine, antifebrine, lactophenine, antipyrine and other medicinal compounds derived from salicylate and aniline;

further, mercury and mercury salts, salvarsan and neosalvarsan, bromine, salts and other bromine compounds, bismuth, carbolic acid or phenol (purified or crude), castor oil, and patent medicines for inducing sleep, such as adaline, veronal, and trional.

Military cloth and clothing made therefrom.
Molasses; molasses cattle food.
Motor cars and parts thereof, including tyres; motor cycles and parts thereof.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July 1915, speedometers are not regarded as coming under the prohibition applicable to parts of motor cars, nor are bodies (koetswerken) for motor cars.

[See under Rubber waste for worn-out motor tyres.]

Needles (knitting machine needles).
Nickel, whether raw or manufactured (unless used as part of any manufactured article of which nickel does not constitute a main component part).

A Royal Decree of the 16th April, 1915, authorised the Minister of Finance to decide (if necessary) whether nickel constitutes a "main component part" of any manufactured article.

Nitrate of lime (lime saltpetre), nitrate of sodium (Chile saltpetre) (see Fertilisers); nitrate of potash (see Potash salts).
Nitric acid.
Nitride of calcium (lime nitrogen) and nitrite of lime (calcium cyanamide) (see Fertilisers).

Oats and all articles produced from oats. (See also under Cereals.)
Offals of cereals.

[See Note to Grain waste.]

Oilcakes (groundnut cake, cotton-seed cake, linseed cake, etc.) (see Force feeding cake).
Oilseeds:—linseed, rape-seed, and other oil seeds, but not carraway seed, mustard seed, and blue poppy seed.

A Notice issued by the Minister of Agriculture, Industry, and Commerce on the 12th July, 1915, states that the prohibition of the export of linseed, colza-seed, rape-seed, and other oil seeds is to apply to the new (1915) harvests of such seeds.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, the following fall under the prohibition of the exportation of oilseeds:—anacardi nuts, cashew nuts, canary seeds (canariumpitten); groundnuts (arachides) and almond substitute made therefrom, hemp seed, illippi nuts, mowra seeds, shea nuts and all other Bassia seeds, kapok seeds, niger seeds, palm kernels, and sun flower seeds. By "canary seeds" (canariumpitten) are meant the seeds of various kinds of canary used in place of almonds, and the term does not therefore apply to canary seeds used as birds' food, which may be freely exported, Bombay kernels (the seeds of prunus bokhariensis), cedar-wood nuts (the seeds of pinus cembra), and myrrha beans (the seeds of pinea l.) are also exempt from prohibition.

Oils:—see under Gas-oil; Lubricating and machine oils; Rape-seed oil; Petroleum: Benzine; Liquid fule; Turpentine.
Peas (see under Pulse).
Petroleum; benzine.
Phosphates, crude.
Pigs, living.
Pocket lamps (electric), parts thereof, and raw materials for the manufacture of the same.
Pork (varkensvleesch), in any form (except that accompanied by a special export certificate).

(See also Bacon, and Meat preparations, etc.)

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies also to sausages and any other form of preserved pigs' meat. The prohibition is not, however, applicable to exports to Dutch oversea Colonies and Possessions.

The same publication states that export certificates may only be used for native (Dutch) products, and that they cannot be used for American bacon or other foreign bacon or meat.

Potash (potassium carbonate), caustic potash (including potash lye), potassium salts.
Potatoes.
Potatoes cut in pieces or mashed, and waste of potatoes; potato flour (see under Fecula).

According to a notice published by the Minister of Agriculture on the 6th May, potato fibre (aardappelvezels) is prohibited under the heading of potato waste. Potato fibre which has been entirely worked up may, however, be exported without permits. Fibre containing, in the dry material, more than 50 per cent. of fecula is not regarded as having been worked up.

Poultry, alive or dead.
Pulp, dried, and sugar pulp.
Pulse and pulse meal; preparations and preserves of pulse-seeds.

According to notices in the Official Gazette of the 20th May and the 4th July, 1915, applications for permission to export green peas, marrow peas, brown and white beans will not be considered unless the applicant has stored in the Amsterdam position a quantity of such peas or beans equal to at least one-third of the quantity to be exported.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, groundnuts and almond substitute made therefrom, vetch seeds, and hop-seeds, fall under this prohibition, but not green unripe pulse seeds which are to be used as vegetables.

A Notice issued by the Minister of Agriculture, Commerce and Industry, on the 12th July, 1915, states that the prohibition of the export of pulse is to apply to the new (1915) harvest.

Pyrites.
Rags, woollen and half-woollen.
Rape-seed (see Oilseeds), rape-cake, rape-cake meal, rape-seed oil.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, butter oil (consisting of refined rape-seed oil) comes under the prohibition of rape-seed oil.

Rennet preparations.
Rice, rice waste, and all products of rice (including rice starch).
Resin.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies only to the product known to the trade as resin (pine resin), and not to products such as gum damar and gum copal. So-called pitch consisting almost entirely of resin, including brewers' pitch, is covered by the prohibition, but real pitch (coal-tar pitch) is not.

Rubber waste; rubber tyres (see under Tyres).

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, motor tyres with worn-out treads (doorgehakte hielen) fall under the prohibition of export of rubber waste.

Rye, rye meal, and all articles produced from rye. (See also under Cereals.)
Sacks, empty.

A notice was published by the Ministers of Finance and Agriculture on the 18th November, 1914, to the effect that sacks which have been imported into the Netherlands filled may be re-exported in an empty condition after the necessary permission has been obtained. In order to obtain this permission it must be proved that an equal number of sacks of the same sort, filled, was previously imported from the country to which the empty sacks are destined.

Salt.
Salted vegetables.
Saltpetre—Chile and lime saltpetres (see Fertilisers); common saltpetre (see Potash salts).
Scythes.
Seeds (grass).
Sheep, living; sheep fleeces.

A Ministerial Decree of the 14th July, 1915, provides that, for the present, permits will be granted for the exportation of live sheep.

Shellac.
Shoddy (artificial wool).
Skins (see Hides).
Soap—all soaps which are not in the form of powder, bar, or cakes (pieces).
Sodium nitrate (Chile saltpetre) (see Fertilisers).
Spades.
Spelt (see Wheat).
Starch (rice starch, potato starch, maize starch, and other kinds).
Steel and iron wire, and articles made of steel or iron wire.
Stomachs of calves.
Straw.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, straw-bands, also straw, used for packing goods, do not fall within the scope of the prohibition. Straw used for covering and protecting potatoes, vegetebles, and fruit, up to a maximum of 300 kilogs. per waggon, is also excepted from the prohibition.

Chaff is covered by the prohibition of the exportation of grain waste or of straw.

Sugar: sugar pulp (see also Syrups); molasses; sugar beets.

On the 23rd September, 1914, the Dutch Government permitted the exportation of 60 per cent. of new season's sugar, beginning September-October. This percentage was reduced to 40 per cent. by a Decree of the 7th June, 1915.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, edible and potable wares prepared with sugar are not prohibited to be exported unless they are covered by some heading, other than sugar, on the prohibited list.

Sulphate of ammonia (see Fertilisers); sulphate of copper.
Sulphuric acid.
Superphosphates (see Fertilisers).
Surgical instruments.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to rubber articles for the sick room, such as air-pillows, ice bags, etc. No restriction is imposed on the exportation of surgical instruments to the Dutch Indies.

Syrups (not including apple syrup).
Tallow.

Denatured tallow (tallow unfit for consumption) is not prohibited to be exported.

Tanning materials and tanning extracts.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to logwood, barium chloride, gall-nuts and extract therefrom, hemlock bark, kino and extracts therefrom, and quercitron bark or fustin.

Tar (coal-tar); tar-dyestuffs, and all substances derived from tar which may be used for the preparation or application of tar dyestuffs.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies, inter alia, to aniline oil, benzol and naphthalene. Dry colours, consisting principally of heavy spar, sodium sulphate, and other cheap materials, coloured with at most 5 per cent. of aniline colour, are not prohibited.

Tinned sheet iron (tinplate); empty tins.
Tinned meats or provisions containing meat.
Toollu.
Turpentine.
Tyres for motors (as parts of automobiles); tyres for cycles, including tyres attached to cycles.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, used tyres on the wheels of cycles used in bonâ fide frontier traffic are not covered by the prohibition of export of cycle tyres. As regards wornout motor tyres, see Note to Rubber waste.

Vaseline.
Vegetables, salted.
Vehicles for horse traction; motor cars and parts thereof.

[See Note to Motor cars.]

Vermicelli and macaroni.
Waste of wool; cotton waste; rubber waste.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, motor tyres with worn-out treads (doorgehakte hielen) fall under the prohibition of the export of rubber waste.

Walnut trees and Walnut wood.
Waste of grain; rice waste; potato waste.

[See Note to Grain waste and to Potato waste.]

Waterpipes and watermains, of lead or of tinned lead.
Weapons (except sporting weapons).
Wheat, wheat flour, and all articles produced from wheat. (See also under Cereals.)
Wire:—barbed wire; iron and steel wire, and articles made of iron and steel wire.
Wood (walnut).
Wool, raw and washed; artificial wool (shoody); wool waste; sheep fleeces; woollen yarns and woollen mixed yarns; woollen blankets and blanket material; woollen or half-woollen goods; flannel (except cotton flannel) and underwear made therefrom. (See also Military cloth.)

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, the prohibition of the export of woollen and half woollen goods is not to be applied to goods in the piece except in the case of those specially named, e.g., flannel, military cloth, and woollen blanket material.

Half-wool, Jaeger cloth or flannel comes under the prohibition of flannel.

Mohair or angora wool, camel hair, and alpaca hair are regarded as wool for the purpose of the export prohibitions.

Carpets (tapijten) do not come under the prohibition of export.

Woollen and half-woollen rags.
Yarns:—see under cotton, jute, hemp, linen, woollen.
Zinc sheets; zinc, whether raw or manufactured (unless used as part of any manufactured article of which zinc does not form a main component part).

A Royal Decree of the 25th June, 1915, empowered the Minister of Finance to decide, if necessary whether zinc constitutes a "main component part" of any manufactured article.

ITALY.

August 17, 1915.

NOTES.

(1) Re-exportation.—The prohibition of exportation covers re-exportation from warehouse or in discharge of "temporary admission" permits.—Decree of August 6, 1914.

(2) Transit.—Merchandise, the exportation of which is prohibited, cannot be re-exported to foreign countries under process of transit or transhipment if it has arrived in an Italian port with bills of lading indicating Italy as the original destination, or if there is no clear indication of destination.

For this purpose, consignments provided with bills of lading "to order," not indicating by name a foreign (non-Italian) destination, and those having only bills of lading "to bearer," will be considered as destined for the internal use of the State (i.e., in Italy).—Decree of November 13, 1914.

(3) Exceptions to the prohibitions of export noted on pages 1476 to 1480 may be made by the Minister of Finance with the approval of the President of the Council of Ministers and of the Ministers of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce.—Decree of August 1, 1914.

(4) A Royal Decree of the 10th June, 1915, prohibited the exportation of articles made wholly or in part from raw material of which the exportation is prohibited or from the products of such materials. His Majesty's Ambassador at Rome reported on the 4th July that the Italian Minister of Finance had issued to the Italian Customs authorities explanatory instructions with regard to this Decree, from which it appears that, while the absolute prohibition of exportation of all products and manufactures which can serve for military equipment (imposed by the Royal Decree of the 1st August, 1914) still remains in force, the Customs authorities are on their own initiative to apply the regulations contained in the

Decree of the 10th June to the products or manufactures which come under the following categories :—

1. Goods of all kinds manufactured with metals of which the export is prohibited (e.g., copper, tin, zinc., etc.);
2. Articles made with gutta-percha and india rubber;
3. Newspaper paper in rolls;
4. Medicines and chemical products any of the ingredients of which are materials of which the export is prohibited, or such products which are in any way prepared by the use of prohibited materials;.
5. Products made from mineral oils, fats, soaps, and fatty and lubricating materials;
6. Colouring material containing aniline colours and salts.

As the necessity arises, the Ministry of Finance will issue instructions to the Customs in regard to goods which are not comprised in the above-mentioned categories, but in regard to which it is considered necessary to apply the principles of the Decree of the 10th June.

(5) Liquid fuels Transport by Sea, etc.—A Decree of the Lieutenant-General, dated the 18th July, 1915, lays down regulations governing the transport of liquid fuels by sea, and providing for Government supervision in respect of stocks of such materials.

Article 1 of the Decree prohibits until further notice the carriage from the ports, roadsteads, and territorial waters of Italy, of the Italian Colonies, and of the territories occupied by Italy, in any ship, boat, steamer, or other craft, under any flag, of the following goods, however prepared or packed, viz., vegetable oils, animal oils, crude and distilled mineral oils, naphtha, petroleum of all kinds, benzine (petrol) nitro-benzine, alcohol, and, in general all spirits capable of being used it motors. No restriction, however, is imposed on the exportation of vegetable oils, so far as such export has been duly authorised in accordance with the regulations now in force.

Certain modifications of this general prohibition are provided for in Articles 2 and 3 (coastwise carriage, replenishing of stocks in Colonies, etc.).

Articles 4—7 of the Decree deal with the measures taken to obtain information as to stocks of liquid fuel, and the measures of surveillance in respect of such stocks.

FRANCE.

By Presidential Decrees of December 21st, 1914, January 9th, February 4th, March 6th and 30th, April 1st and 3rd, May 26th, and July 3rd and 22nd, 1915, the exportation and re-exportation from France (in process of entrepôt, transit, or transhipment) of the articles mentioned in the list on pages 1481-1487 has been prohibited. Exemptions from these prohibitions may, however, be accorded under conditions to be laid down by the Ministry of Finance.

Exportation to Allied Countries, etc.—By a series of Ministerial Decrees the prohibition of the exportation and re-exportation of a number of articles has been abrogated, so far as concerns consignments which are destined for the United Kingdom, the British Dominions, Colonies, and Protectorates (including Egypt), the uninvaded territory of Belgium, Japan, Montenegro, Russia,† Serbia,† or the United States of America.‡ The articles to which this abrogation of the prohibition applies are printed in italic type in the list on pp. 1481-1487.

Exportation to French Colonies.—According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, goods, the export of which from France is prohibited, may be sent to French Colonies, Tunis, or the French zone in Morocco, (subject only to the production of a bond for their due arrival at their destination) except in the case of certain goods (arms, explosives, munitions of war, military stores, rubber, scrap iron, copper, scrap copper, etc., sulphur, etc.), in respect of which special authorisation must be obtained.

Relaxations of Prohibition of Transit.—According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, goods of Swiss or Italian origin, even if of a kind prohibited to be exported from France, may be sent in transit through France when consigned to Allied or neutral countries, and postal parcels from the United Kingdom to Spain may also be sent in transit through France without special formality.

An arrangement between the French and Swiss Governments (concluded in January 1915 and modified in May 1915) provides that certain maximum monthly quantities of petroleum (4,500 tons), petrol (1,500-2,000 tons), lubricating oils and fats (1,300 tons), and special oil for Diesel engines (500 tons) may be allowed to pass in transit through France to Switzerland. The bills of lading in respect of these oils must be endorsed to the "Commissaire des Guerres de l'Armée suisse," and the oils must be landed at a French Mediterranean port, or, if landed elsewhere, this fact must immediately be notified to the French Government.

His Majesty's Ambassador at Paris reported on March 13th, 1915, that the French Government have decided to allow the exportation of seeds from France to Switzerland, and that a general authorisation has also been given for the transit of seeds through France to Switzerland.

* Motor bicycles and their parts do not fall under the prohibition of exportation.

† Under reserve, as regards exports to Russia and Serbia, of the furnishing of a bond to be discharged by the Russian or Serbian Customs authorities. As regards exports to Russia, these bonds must, according to a Notice published in the "Journal Official" of the 13th July, 1915, be discharged within a period of five months.

‡ "Les Etats del' Amérique."

Transhipment in French Ports of Goods for the United Kingdom.—His Majesty's Ambassador at Paris reported, on July 13th, 1915, that he had received a Note from the French Ministry for Foreign Affairs stating that all goods of the kinds prohibited to be exported and re-exported from France may, if destined for the United Kingdom, be transhipped in a French port and allowed to proceed freely to their destination without special authorisation, provided that the goods were shipped on a through bill of lading to the United Kingdom.

Acetic acid and medicinal salts thereof; acetic ether.
Acetone.
Acids (see under the relevant headings—Acetic, Hydrochloric, Lactic, Nitric, Salicylic, Sulphuric).
Aeroplanes and airships and detached parts thereof; rigging, tackle, and equipment for aircraft. (See also Machines.)
Alcohols—amyl alcohol, methyl alcohol, and ethyl alcohol.
Alizarine (see Tar dyes).
Alumina, anhydrous and hydrated, and salts of alumina.
Aluminium, ore and metal, pure or alloyed; articles of aluminium other than jewellery.

In the French Customs Tariff, the term "metal," as applied to aluminium, covers ingots or scrap, rolled, forged, or cast aluminium, aluminium beaten in leaves, and aluminium wire and powder.

Ammonia; ammoniacal salts.
Aniline (see Tar dyes).
Antimony, ore and metal, pure or alloyed.

According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February 1915, this prohibition applies not only to ore, metal and regulus, but also to oxide of antimony.

Antipyrine.
Apparatus, telegraphic; electric apparatus for fire control; surgical apparatus and instruments (including drainage tubes, tubes, gloves of rubber).

See Note to Telegraphic apparatus.

Arms of war, of all kinds.
Arsenic and its salts.
Aspirine.
Asses, mules, horses.
Atropine.
Balata (see under Rubber).
Bamboos.
Barks:—Cinchona bark; tanbarks (see Tanning materials).
Beetroots for the manufacture of sugar; beetroot saline.
Bismuth and bismuth salts.
Blankets, woollen, (see wool).
Boats, river (see under Vessels).
Bran.
Bromine and bromides.
Building timber.
Butter.

According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, butter may be exported freely to Spain, as well as to the Allied countries and to the United States.

Cables and wires, insulated for electricity.
Caffeine.
Calcium cyanamide; calcium carbide.
Camphor.
Camping outfit, military (see Military clothing, etc).
Caoutchouc (see Rubber)
Carbide of calcium.
Carbons for electricity.

According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, this prohibition applies only to electrodes, and not to other carbons prepared for electrical use.

Casein.
Catechu, crude (en masse).
Cattle (Fr: bestiaux).
Celluloid, crude, in lumps, plates, sheets, rods, tubes, sticks, scrap, waste.
Charcoal (wood charcoal).
Charts and maps (geographical or marine).
Cheese, hard-paste.
Chloral.

Chlorates and perchlorates.
Chloride of lime.
Chloroform.
Chronometers, ships.
Chinchona bark.
Clothing, military (see Military clothing, etc).
Cocoa, chocolate.

According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, chocolate banbons and biscuits coated with chocolate may be exported without special permission.

Cocaine.
Codeine.
Coins of nickel, copper, and billon. (For gold coins, see under Gold.)
Coffee.
Collodion.
Colophany, pine and fir resin, pitch of resin, (Fr: brais de résines), oil of turpentine.
Copper, ore or metal, pure or alloyed, boilermakers, wares, and tubes of copper; filings and waste of copper, pure or alloyed. (See also Coins).

According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, cementation copper (a black powder, similar to charcoal powder, but much denser) falls under the prohibition.

In the French Customs Tariff. the term "metal" as applied to copper, pure or alloyed, covers these metals cast in lumps, ingots, slabs, etc., rolled or hammered metal (bars and plates,) wire and bronze powder.

Copper sulphate, etc., (See sulphate of Copper).
Cotton and cotton wastes; wastes of cotton yarns; cotton armure tissues, unbleached or bleached, weighing more than 22 kilog. per 100 square metres.
Creosote (wood creosote).
Cyanamide of calcium.
Detonators.
Diamond dyes, $\frac{15}{100}$ millim, and above, the diamond weighing more than $\frac{1}{2}$ carat.
Digitaline.
Dyes (see Tar dyes).
Dynamo-electric machines.
Earths, infusorial.
Eggs of poultry.
Electric wires and cables, insulated.
Emetic.
Emetine.
Equipment, military (see Military clothing, etc.)
Ethers, sulphuric and acetic.
Explosives (see under Gunpowder).
Fats derived from fishes.

According to a French Customs Circular of the 16th April, 1915, the heading "fats derived from fishes" applies to fish oils properly so-called (cod-liver oil, skate oil, etc.,) to oils or fats derived from cetaceans (especially whale oil, which has been specifically prohibited); to porpoise oil, to dolpin oil, and to cachalot oil.

Fats, animal, other than those derived from fishes (tallow, lard, lanoline, margarine, oleomargarine, and similar substances).
Fats, alimentary, vegetable.
Fecula of potatoes, fecula of maize, and other feculæ.
Ferro-chrome, ferro-nickel, and all ferro-metallic alloys.
Field-glasses (Fr; lorgnettes) other than fancy.

According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, this heading applies to field glasses other than those with mountings of gold, silver, ivory, mother-of-pearl or tortoiseshell.

Fish—dried codfish and fish caught on the West Coast of Africa and dried under conditions similar to those obtaining in the case of codfish, with the exception of codfish weighing under 1 kilog.
Filings and waste of copper, tin, zinc, pure or alloyed.
Flax, raw, stripped, in tow and combed. (For yarns and certain tissues made from flax see under Linen).
Foodstuffs, farinaceous, of all kinds, with the exception of millet, of chestnuts and their flours, of gluten bread, and of seed potatoes in small boxes.

The heading "Farinaceous foodstuffs" (Fr: farineux alimentaires) in the French Customs Tariff covers, cereals and flour derived therefrom, malt ships' biscuits and bread groats, etc., gluten and gluten flour simolina, etc., sago, tapioka; rice and rice flour, pulse and flour thereof, chestnuts and flour thereof, and potatoes.

A French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, states that dari and canary grass are exempted from the scope of the prohibition, as well as millet, chestnuts, gluten bread, etc.

His Majesty's Ambassador at Paris reported on June 12th, 1915, that new potatoes may be exported from France to the United Kingdom when packed in boxes, panniers, or barrels, and also when packed in sacks or when in bulk.

Glycerine.

Gold, unmanufactured in lumps, ingots, bars, powder, and scrap (broken articles), also gold coin.

This prohibition is not applicable to exports, effected by the Bank of France.

Graphite.

Greases (see Fats).

Gunstocks.

Guts, fresh, dry, or salted.

Gutta-percha (see under Rubber).

Gunpowder and similar explosives (pyroxylene, nitrated cotton, nitroglycerine gun-cotton, etc.)

According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, dynamite and picric acid are included under this heading.

Hams, boned and rolled, cooked hams.

Harness, military (see Military clothing, etc.).

Hay, straw, forage.

According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, the exportation of sorted and combed rye straw for industrial use is not prohibited. Bean pods, ground or not, may also be exported.

Hemp, broken or stripped, in tow, or combed; hemp yarns; hemp armure tissues, unbleached or bleached, weighing more than 27½ kilog. per 100 square metres.

Hides and skins :—

Kidskins, raw and dressed.

Raw and dressed hides and skins, other, except lambskins.

Dry foreign hides and skins.

An arrangement has been recently concluded whereby, in return for the exportation from the United Kingdom to France of certain light leathers required for French army boots, the French Government has undertaken to allow the export from France to the United Kingdom of a limited number of ox hides of 35 killog. salted weight and over.

Particulars as to the arrangement referred to above will be seen in the notice on page 24 of the "Board of Trade Journal" for the 1st July 1915.

Horses, asses, mules.

Hoisery, woollen (see Wool).

Hydrochloric acid.

Infusorial earth.

Instruments and apparatus, surgical (including drainage tubes, tubes gloves of rubber).

Instruments of observation, and geodetical and optical instruments.

Instruments, nautical.

Iodine, iodides, and iodoform.

Iron, cast and wrought, and scrap and waste thereof; iron ore.

Jute yarns and sacks; jute armure tissues, unbleached, weighing more than 30 kilog. per 100 square metres.

According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February 1915, jute sacks imported filled may be re-exported in an empty condition to the foreign consigners, subject to satisfactory proof being afforded by the waybill or other documents.

Lactic acid.

Lanoline (see Fats, animal).

Lard (see Fats, animal).

Lead ore ; lead (metal) pure or alloyed, and lead pipes.

His Majesty's Ambassador at Paris reported on the 30th April, 1915, that applications for special permission to export consignments of lead ore to the United Kingdom will be favourably considered.

In the French Customs Tariff, the term "metal," as applied to lead pure or alloyed, covers lumps, pigs, bars, and slabs, and hammered and rolled metal.

Linen yarns ; linen armure tissues, unbleached or bleached, weighing more than 27½ kilog. per 100 square metres.

Live stock (Fr : bestiaux).

Machines and parts of machines suitable exclusively for the manufacture of munitions of war and military arms.

Machines and parts of machines suitable for marine or aerial navigation.

Machines, dynamo-electric.

Machines and apparatus, frigorific.

See Note to Frigorific machines and apparatus.

Machine tools, and detached parts thereof.

Magnesium.

Maps and charts, geographical or marine.

Margarine (see Fats, animal).

Meat, fresh ; meat preserved by frigorific process ; meat, salted ; meat preserves in tins, with the exception of "abats" and of mixtures of meat and other products. (See also Hams.)

Mercury, ore and metal.

Military clothing, camping outfit, equipment and harness ; military and naval material (see under heading for Motor vehicles, etc).

Milk, condensed, with or without sugar added.

Mineral oils (see Oils, mineral).

Molasses.

Morphine.

Motor vehicles, trailers of all kinds, pnematic tyres, and all articles, manufactured or not, appertaining to naval, military, or transport material.

According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, the prohibition of the exportation of motor vehicles applies also to detached parts with the exception of horns (hooters) and lamps. Automobiles of 12 H.P. or less or allowed to be exported without special formalities.

Barbed wire, periscopes, sextants, and telemeters are regarded as articles of naval and military material.

Mules, asses, horses.

Munitions of war (projectiles, and other).

Nautical instruments.

Navel and military material (see under heading for Motor vehicles, etc.)

Nickel, ore and metal, pure or alloyed. (See also Coins).

In the French Customs Tariff, the term "metal," as applied to pure or alloyed nickel, covers cast metal, matties, ingots, crude lumps, hammered or drawn metal, and wire.

Nitrated cotton and nitroglycerine (see under Gunpowder).

RUSSIA.

August 23, 1915.

NOTES.

1. The exportation of certain articles direct to Allied countries, in Russian or Allied vessels, is authorised without special application in the case of each consignment. These articles are : maize, bran, oilcake of all kinds (including colza oilcake), bacon, butter, dead poultry and game, live poultry, eggs, intestines, fish, tobacco of the first quality (certified by excise), wood materials, oilseeds, clover seeds and other forage seeds, furskins, except sheepskins and goatskins.

With regard to the export of these goods to Allied countries direct in neutral ships, special guarantees have to be obtained each time from the neutral Legation in Petrograd, in agreement with the British Embassy (if the articles are going to the United Kingdom direct), that the goods are proceeding to the Allied countries named and will not be re-exported to an enemy country.

The exportation to the United Kingdom of game, poultry (dead), eggs and bacon, is authorised, without special authorisation in the case of each consignment, if the goods are despatched (from the Finland Station, Petrograd) by the "direct oversea Scandinavian route," i.e., viâ Raumo or Montyluoto.

2. Exceptions from the prohibitions of export may be made by the Minister of Finance in favour of Allied and friendly countries on separate application in the case of each consignment, apart from the exceptions already referred to in Note 1.

3. The exportation of goods of all kinds is prohibited from Baltic ports situated in the Governments of Petrograd, Esthonia, Livonia, and Courland. The Gulf of Finland and the Gulf of Riga are closed to oversea (lit., foreign) navigation.

4. The prohibitions of export noted below do not apply to exports to Finland from Russia.

The exportation of goods from Finland to foreign countries is effected in accordance with special regulations in force in the Grand Duchy. The Finnish prohibitions, however, do not affect the export of Russian goods in transit via Finland to places abroad.

Woollen tissues, felt, and other Woollen manufactures.
Woollen yarns (see Yarns).
Xylol (see under Benzol).
Yarns of textile materials.
Zinc ore (see Ores); zinc scoriæ, zinc, its alloys and manufactures, scrap and brack (see Metals).

SWITZERLAND.

August 13, 1915.

NOTES.

1. The Federal Council reserves to itself the right to authorise exceptions to the prohibitions of exportation which have been established in respect of the following goods by successive Decrees of the Federal Council.

2. Notwithstanding the prohibition of export, prohibited goods may be sent in transit through Switzerland in sealed wagons.

3. The importation of cereals (wheat, spelt, barley, rye, oats, maize), of the products resulting from the grinding thereof, including forage meal and bran, as also of all concentrated forage necessary for the feeding of cattle, is reserved exclusively to the Confederation. The re-exportation of such imported products is absolutely prohibited. [Decree of January 7, 1915.]

4. The Swiss prohibitions of export are, in the main, based on the classification of the Swiss Customs Tariff, and the numbers quoted below are the Tariff numbers under which the prohibited goods fall. In the earlier Decrees, however, the prohibitions of export were not drawn up on the basis of the Tariff classification, so that it has not been possible to indicate in all cases the headings of the Tariff under which certain articles fall.

ex 974*b*	Acetanilide (antifebrine).
ex 1051	Acetic acid, crude or purified, having an empyreumatic odour.
	Acetic acid, other, containing more than 12 per cent. of acetic acid. (See under Vinegar.)
ex 1051	Acetone.

ex 974*b*	Acetylsalicylic acid.
	Acids:—see under the respective headings—acetic, acetylsalicylic, benzoic, carbolic, chlorosulphuric, citric, formic, gallic, hydrochloric (muriatic), nitric, phthalic, sulphuric sulphurous, tannic, tartaric, etc.
ex 974*b*	Adrenaline, natural or artificial and other extracts of the suprarenal glands (suprarenine, paranephrine, epirenine, etc).
	Aeroplanes.
	Agar-agar. (See under Chemical raw materials [No. 988).]
ex 894*c*—898*b*, M 9, ex 1164	Airships.
1071	Albumen (egg and blood albumens) and yolks of eggs—for industrial purposes.
125, 1070	Alcohol (absolute), "trois-six," spirits of wine —even if denatured.
ex 1059	Alcohol, methylic (chemically pure wood spirit).
ex 968	Aloes. (See under Pharmaceutical articles.)
1002	Alums.
ex 1041	Alumina—sulphate of, and hydrate of.
	Aluminium and alloys thereof:—
862—865	Raw, or in sheets, bars, wire, pipes.
866—867	Wares of all kinds, including thermite.
	Ammonia, nitrate of, crude. (See Nitrates.)
	Ammunition for portable firearms (included under explosives and pyrogenic articles, q.v.).
1066*a*	Aniline (also crude aniline); aniline oil; aniline salt.
1066*b*	Aniline combinations for the manufacture of colours, such as toluidene, dimethylaniline, etc.
	Anthracene. (See coal tar derivatives.)
ex 875	Antimony ore (sulphuretted antimony).
876	Antimony, native (sulphide of antimony); regulus of antimony.
ex 974*b*	Antiphrine.
ex 971	Apomorpyine.
ex 971	Arecoline and its salts.
various Nos.	Arms and their component parts.
	Artificial manures. (See under Fertilisers.)
	Ash wood. (See under Wood.)
135	Asses. (See also Horses and Mules.)
ex 971	Atropine and its salts.
ex 803—809	Ball bearings, of iron or steel, and detached parts thereof.
ex 968, ex 981	Balsam of Peru, artificial balsam of Peru. [For other balsams, see under Pharmaceutical articles.]
1161	Bandaging and wound-dressing articles.
	Barbed wire. (See under Iron.)
	Bark. (See Tanning woods, etc., Cinchona bark, etc.).
ex 950—951	Batteries, electric.
1065*b*	Benzine, and substitutes for oil of turpentine.
	Benzol, chlorobenzol, benzoic acid, etc. (See Coal tar derivatives.)
ex 946	Binoculars, prismatic and lenticular.
ex 21, ex 102	Biscuits and other fine bakers' wares, with or without sugar (except individual consignments weighing 5 kilogrammes or less).
ex 878, ex 975, ex 974*b*, ex 1048	Bismuth; xeroform (tribromophenate of bismuth); unspecified salts of bismuth, such as airol, dermatol, sub-nitrate of bismuth; nitrate of bismuth (for industrial use).
ex 165	Bones, crude bone dust; also phosphates and phosphorites, not prepared. (See also under Fertilisers.)
190—201	*Boots and shoes of all kinds (whether of leather, tissues, rubber, or any other material), and parts thereof. (See also under Made-up articles.)
1024	Borax.
	Bran. (See under Forage.)
	Brass. (See under Copper.)

* It is understood that only Swiss manufacturers will be allowed to have export licenses, and that no such licenses will be granted to dealers. [June 10, 1915.]

20	Brêad, bread in slices for soup, dog biscuit, etc.
	Briquettes. (See under Fuel.)
1009, ex 1059	Bromine and salt (inorganic or organic) of bromine, not specified elsewhere.
	Bronze. (See under Copper.)
93—97	Butter (including Margarine, artificial butter, cocos butter, and other butter substitutes); cream; other edible fats (lard, oleomargarine, edible suet, etc.).
	Cables, electric. (See under Copper.)
ex 971	Caffeine and its salt.
ex 992, 983, 999, 1052	Camphor, raw, and refined. (See under Chemical raw materials.)
ex 1135—1136	Candles, tallow and wax, of all kinds, except those used for Christmas trees.
	Carbolic (phenic) acid. (See coal tar derivatives.)
ex 627	Carbon stems for electric pocket lamps.
ex 629	Carborundum, crude, also powdered.
	Cartridges and projectiles for infantry and artillery, and detached parts thereof.
255 and ex 787—790	Casks (used) for petroleum and oil—of wood or of sheet iron.
974*a*	Castor oil, colourless, purified (for castor oil, industrial, see under Oils, fats, waxes, etc.).
ex 185	Catgut.
986	Catechu, kino, gambier. (See under Chemical raw materials.)
136—142	Cattle (oxen, bulls, cows, heifers, young cattle).
	Cattle foods. (See under Forage.)
	Cereals (wheat, rye, barley, oats, rice, etc.), maize, pulse:
1—10	In the grain, not crushed, not husked.
11—14	In the grain, pearled, hulled, cleaned or crushed; groats, semolina.
15	Malt.
16—18	Flour.*
ex 224, ex 967	Charcoal (lime-tree charcoal), whole or ground.
98—99†	Cheese, soft or hard-paste.
	Chemical raw materials (raw materials for chemical purposes):—
985	Iceland moss, "psyllium" seeds, etc.
986	Catechu, kino, gambier.
987	Lemon juice.
988	Gums of all kinds; agar-agar.
	Resins for industrial use:
989	Colophany (purified pine resin).
ex 990	Gum copal, gum damar, gum sandarac, and other gum resins, even blanched; distilled resins.
991—992	Soft resins for industrial use (pitch, unmanufactured, dry pitch, turpentine, galipot, pine resin, etc.).
993—994	Sulphur in pieces, lumps, sticks, or powder; flowers of sulphur.
995	Terpentine oil (for substitutes, see under Benzine).
996	Tar of all kinds.
999	Materials of this kind, not specified in the Swiss Customs Tariff.‡
35	Chestnuts, fresh or dried.
	Chicory roots, fresh (see under Forage); chicory roots, dried, etc. (see under Coffee substitutes).
ex 1011	Chlorate of potash.
1013	Chlorine, liquefied by pressure or in the form of gas, in wrought iron or steel receptacles.
ex 976	Chloroform for narcosis.
1037	Chlorosulphuric acid (sulphuric hydrochlorine).

* This does not cover alimentary flour (farinaceous foods) for infants. [Tariff No. 19.]

† A general authorisation to export has been granted in respect of green Glaris cheese (Schabziger) and also in respect of other cheeses in pieces weighing at most 2 kilog. [10-7-15.]

‡ Tariff No. 997 and 998 [not prohibited] relate to dried wine less and crude tar tar.

64*	Chocolate. (See also Cocoa.)
	Chrome, sulphate of. (See under Tanning substances.)
ex 966—967	Cinchona bark. (See under Pharmaceutical articles.)
1050	Citric and tartaric acids.
various Nos.	Clothing and articles of equipment for the use of troops, of whatever material composed.
	Coal and coal-dust. (See under Fuel.)
1065*a*	Coal tar derivatives and auxiliary materials for the manufacture of aniline colours, such as benzol, chlorobenzol, naphthalene, anthracene, carbolic acid (phanol), toluol; benzoic acid, etc. [See also Aniline and Aniline combinations.]
60—63*	Cocoa husks, cocoa beans, cocoa butter, cocoa powder, chocolate paste. (See also Chocolate.)
ex 971	Cocaine and its salts and combinations.
ex 971	Codeine and its salts.
54-57	Coffee, raw or roasted; coffee substitutes of all kinds in a dry state; articles for preparing coffee substitutes —beetroots cut in slices, and similar products.
	Coke and coke dust. (See under Fuel.)
ex 974*b*, ex 1059	Collodion (iodated); collodion prepared with silver bromide.
989	Colophany (purified pine resin).
101—103†	Conserves and articles for consumption (delicacies), other than sugared goods (sucrere).
	Copper and copper alloys:
814	Copper ores, filings, turnings and shavings of copper, scrapings of brass, etc.
	Semi-manufactured wares of copper and copper alloys:—
815	Bars, pigs, slabs, discs, etc.
816	Waste, old bell and gunmetal.
	Hammered, rolled, or drawn:—
817	Bars, plates and sheets; copper solder; washers.
818	Wire.
819	Pipes.
820	Silvered, gilt, twisted round cotton or silk thread.
821	Imitation gold wire (fil leonique).
822	Imitation gold and silver beaten into thin sheets.
823—828	Electric cables of all kinds (including field cables), of copper or copper alloys, whether insulated or not, including insulated electric wires.
829	Metallic tissues and brass or copper gauze.
830	Rivets, screws, pins, nails, tacks.
831—832	Bells of all kinds of copper, copper alloys, or bronze.
833—837	Wares of copper or copper alloys not elsewhere mentioned in the Tariff [including specifically cartridge and shell cases (douilles pour munitions)].
838—839	Wares of bronze not elsewhere mentioned in the Tariff.
	NOTE.—Ex. No. 819, Nos. 820-822 and 829-839 were prohibited (by Federal Decree of the 14th June, 1915) under the heading of "Partly or wholly finished manufactures, including pipes" of copper

* The chocolate factories enumerated in the list sent to the Customs houses have received a general authorisation, valid until further notice, to export:—

(a) Cocoa in powder, in separate consignments, up to 200 kilog. for each consignee.

(b) Chocolate, without restriction as to quantity, but only in pieces, blocks, tablets, packets, rolls or boxes, weighing not more than 500 grammes.

Chocolate in postal parcels weighing up to 5 kilog. (gross), as also chocolate in quantities of up to 2 kilogs. in retail frontier traffic, may be exported without special authorisation until further notice.

The specialities classed in No. 63 (such as liquid chocolate, with milk or cream added, in boxes; oatmeal cocoa; cocoa mixed with milk and oatmeal; cocoa mixed with banana flour; cocoa mixed with vegetable substances; alimentary flour for infants containing cocoa, etc.) are not, until further notice, to be regarded as covered by the prohibition of export. [16-7-15.]

† Specialities (such as Maggi's seasonings, tomato purée, farinaceous foods for infants, ovomaltine) are excepted from the prohibition. A general authorisation to export has been granted in respect of conserves of shellfish. [16-7-15.]

and its alloys. The Decree provided, however, that the prohibition was not to apply to—

Machines, mechanical contrivances and vehicles [Category XII A and B of the Tariff], or to

Clocks and watches, instruments and apparatus [Category XIII A and B of the Tariff],

in so far as these articles were not already covered by the prohibitions of export.

1044 Copper sulphate (copper vitrol); ammoniacal sulphate of copper, "fungivore" products, steatite prepared with sulphate of copper and similar products for combating diseases of plants.

Copra. (See under Oils, fats, waxes, etc.)

Cordage, old, for making paper (see under Rags); cordage, other [see under Flax (Ropes, cables, cordage, etc.)].

ex Category VII A* Cotton:—Articles included in this Category of the Tariff (even if mixed with wool) capable of being used for the clothing or equipment of troops; and bandaging articles.

ex 341-342 Cotton, raw or bleached.

344 and ex 342 and 346 Cotton waste, even if carded or gummed.

345 Cotton wool (wadding), bleached, chemically pure.

Cottonseed (see Seeds); cottonseed oil (see under Oils, fats, waxes, etc.).

ex 1064 Cresol and soapy solutions thereof.

666 Crucibles of graphite.

ex 974*b* Diethylmalonyl urea (veronal, malonal) and its salts.

ex 974*b* Dimethylamidoantipyrine (pyramidon).

Dimethylaniline. (See Aniline combinations.)

ex 971 Dionine.

ex 148a Dogs;—Military and police dogs.

22 Edible pastes.

86; 1071 Eggs; egg albumen and egg yolks—for industrial purposes.

Electric cables (see under Copper); electric batteries (see Batteries); electric pocket lamps (see Pocket lamps; electric transformers (see Transformers).

ex 966-967 Ergot of rye. (See under Pharmaceutical articles.)

1062 Ether, sulphuric (ethyl ether).

1082-1088 Explosives, and pyrogenic articles, including electric mine-exploders.

Fats, edible (lard, oleomargarine, cocoa butter, etc., see under Butter); fats, other (see under Oils, fats, waxes, etc.)

ex 878 Ferrocerium.

Ferro-chrome, ferro-manganese, ferro-tungsten: crude. (See under Iron.)

†Fertilisers:—

167 Potash fertilisers, saline residues of Stassfurt salts.

169 Artificial fertilisers, bone dust, superphosphates, also phosphates and phosphorites: prepared.

[See also under Bones, Nitrates (crude), Phosphates, Sulphuric acid (used).]

Fieldglasses. (See Binoculars.)

Firewood. (See under Fuel.)

88-90 Fish, dried, salted marinated, smoked, or otherwise preserved; [mussels and other shellfish, fresh‡]. [For fish conserves, see under Conserves.]

Flax, hemp, jute, ramie (China grass), Manila hemp, and other similar textile materials:—

ex Category VII B Articles included in this Category of the Tariff (even if mixed with wool) capable of being used for the clothing or equipment of troops; and bandaging articles.

---

* Until further notice, articles of pure cotton (except bandaging articles) may be exported without special authorisation. [16-7-15.]

† Natural manures, compost, ashes, slime, sweepings, etc., and rags for manure and wastes for use in the manufacture of manures, do not come under the prohibition of export. [16-7-1915.]

‡ A general authorisation to export has been granted in respect of fresh mussels and other fresh shellfish. [16-7-1915.]

396	Flax, hemp, jute, ramie (China grass), Manila hemp, and other similar textile materials; also wastes thereof—raw, steeped, stripped or hackled, dressed, bleached, dyed, etc., tow.
397-404	Yarns of the textiles enumerated in Tariff No. 396 and of their wastes:—Unbleached; boiled, lyewashed, creamed, bleached, dyed, printed; twisted; or made up for retail sale, (on reels, in balls or skeins, etc.).
ex 405 413	Jute tissues for use in the manufacture of sacks.
423, ex 425	Ropes, cables, cordage and other ropemakers' wares (except nets), composed of the textile materials enumerated in Tariff No. 396 and of wastes thereof.
426	Sacks.
427	Girths and halters.
	Flour. (See under Cereals.)
	Foodstuffs. (See under the respective headings, and under Conserves, etc.)
212-217	Forage of all kinds (hay, oilcake and oilcake-meal, malt germs, cattle foods, bran, etc.)
ex 220	Forage and seeds; fresh chicory roots.
ex 974b, ex 1053	Formalin (formaldehyde, formic aldehyde formol) and paraformaldehyde, liquid; formaldehyde (formic aldehyde) and paraformaldehyde in liquid solution.
ex 1051	Formic acid.
23-30*	Fruits, edible berries, fresh* dried or drained; juices of fruit and berries, etc.; crushed fruits, etc. (See also Grapes, Chestnuts, Southern fruits.)
101	Fruit preserves of all kinds.
	Fuel:—
ex 219	Vegetable wastes which may be used as fuel.
221-223	Firewood, brushwood, tree bark, peat, tan briquettes.
ex 224	Lime tree charcoal, whole. (For powdered lime tree charcoal, see Charcoal.)
643-646	Coal, coal dust, schist (schisty coal); petroleum residues for fuel; lignite; coke, coke dust; briquettes of all kinds, wood charcoal dust, retort carbon.
	Furs. (See under Hides and skins, and also under Made-up articles.)
1054	Gallic acid, tannic acid, and other similar acids; gallaminic acid.
986	Gambier, catechu, kino.
81-82	[Game (ground or winged game†)]; [for rabbits, see under Rabbits]; preserves of ground and winged game.
ex 719 ex 899	Girders of iron or steel‡.
	Gloves (winter gloves) of leather, for men (see under Leather); other gloves, etc., suitable for troops (see under Made-up articles).
ex 1059, 1074	Glue:—Resin glue; glue for bootmakers (Vienna gum, gluten).
ex 974*b*, ex 982-983, ex 1056	Glycerine, medicinal; glycerine, perfumed; glycerine, purified.
146	Goats.
	Gold, pure or alloyed:
ex 868	Scrap, waste, ashes, filings and refuse.
869 a and d	Unworked; coined.
ex 870	Rolled, in plates or bands.
31-34§	Grapes (fresh grapes and risins).
218	Grape and fruit residue (marcs): liquid wine lees.

* A general authorisation to export has been granted in respect of consignments of fresh fruit not exceeding 100 kilogs. [16-7-15.]

† A general authorisation to exports has been granted in respect of ground and winged game. [16-7-1915.]

‡ Until further notice, the prohibition of export applies only to girders of special iron or special steel having a maximum dimension of 12 cm. or more. [16-7-1915.]

§ A general authorisation to export has been granted in respect of fresh or crushed grapes. [16-7-1915.]

ex 1089, 1090, and 1105	Graphite, even ground, washed, pulverised, compressed, etc.
666	Graphite crucibles.
	Greases for polishing (see Polishes); other greases (See Fats).
	Goats. (See under Cereals.)
ex 988, ex 1159	Gum solution; liquid gum in receptacles of 1 kilog, or more.
	Gums and gum-resins. (See under Resins.)
ex 808	Guncarriages. (See under Iron.)
ex 250, ex 813	Gunstocks, in the rough and finished.
ex 149	Guts and bladders, of animal origin, fresh or dried, even salted.
	Herness. (See under Leather.)
	Hay. (See under Forage.)
	Hemp and certain wares thereof. (See under Flax.)
ex 971	Heroine.
172-176*	Hides and skins (raw, tanned, curried, and roughly sewn together).
71	Honey.
53	Hops.
132-135	Horses :—animals of the equine kind (horses, mules, asses).
	Horseshoes and horseshoe nails and spikes. (See under Iron.)
	Hosiery. (stockings, etc.,) for troops (see under Clothing).
1035	Hydrochloric (muriatic) acid.
ex 938	Instruments and apparatus, medical and surgical.
1009, ex 1059, 1048	Iodine and salts (organic or inorganic) of iodine not specified elsewhere; chloride of iodine.
ex 981	Iodine, tincture of.
ex 975	Iodoform.
ex 966-967	Ipecacuanha and rhubarb roots. (See under Pharmaceutical articles.)
	Iron :—
708-711	Waste obtained in the manufacture of iron (filings, turnings, etc.); scrap iron, and old iron.
709, 710†	Raw iron; ferro-chrome, ferro-manganese, ferro-tungsten: crude.
719	Iron in special shapes (T, U, Z, oval, angle, etc.), rough, having a maximum sectional dimension of 12 centim. or more.
722-724	Round iron, drawn or cold rolled, also barbed wire.
725-727, ex 728, 729-732, ex 787-790, ex 802*b*, ex 879, ex 881, ex 899	Iron and steel sheets, including corrugated, grooved or perforated sheets and rough piping of corrugated sheets: Rough, coated with lead, tinned (tinplate), coated with zinc (galvanised), varnished, etc., even perforated, cut into specified lengths, pierced, hollowed, etc.
ex 728	Round iron wire for the manufacture of teeth for weaver's combs and heddles; cast steel wire for the manufacture of cables.
733-735	Rails and sleepers for railways.
ex 736	Switches and points for railways; portable tracks.
742, 743, ex 744	Pipes of wrought iron and steel, having an internal diameter of less than 40 centim.
775	Horseshoe nails.
ex 776	Iron nails for mountaineering shoes.
ex 787-790	Casks, used, of sheet iron, for petroleum or oil.
ex 788*b*, ex 802*b*	Tinplates, cut, perforated; tinplate, stamped, cut, in washers. (See also under Iron and steel sheets, above.)
ex 802*a*, ex 806-809	Horseshoes, in the rough; horseshoes; spikes (crampons à souder) for horseshoes, unfinished, finished ice-spikes (crampons à glace) for horseshoes.
ex 803-809	Ball bearings, of iron or steel, and detached parts thereof.
ex 808	Gun-carriages.

* Fresh, salted, or dried skins of wild animals, of cats and of rabbits may be freely exported until further notice. [16-7-1915.]

† The exportation of ferro-silicon is permitted. [March 6, 1915.]

ex 881	Recipients, of wrought iron or of steel, for the transport of gasses. (See also under Girders, Lathes, Motors.)
	Jute, jute yarns and certain jute wares (including sacks) (See under Flax.)
ex 609	Kaolin, agalith (magnesium silicate used in the manufacture of paper in place of kaolin).
986	Kino, catechu, gambier.
ex 981, ex 982-983	Lanoline, pharmaceutical; lanoline, perfumed. (See also under Oils, fats, waxes, etc.)
	Lard (see under Butter); lard oil (see under Oils, fats, waxes, etc.)
ex 894-898, M 6 and 9	Lathes, of iron, new and used, even with parts of other materials; detached parts thereof.
840	Lead ores, galena, lead wastes.
	Lead and its alloys:
841	Lead, soft, in bars, pigs, slabs; type metal.
842	Scrap lead.
843	Rolled lead; lead wire; bullets, shot; lead in sheets, pipes.
844-845	Printers' type, old and new.
846-847	Wares of lead, even combined with other materials.

NOTE.—Ex No. 843 and Nos. 844-847 were prohibited (by Federal Decree of the 14th June, 1915), under the heading of "Partly or wholly finished manufactures, including pipes" of lead and its alloys. The Decree provided, however, that the prohibition was not to apply to—

Machines, mechanical contrivances and vehicles [Category XII A and B of the Tariff], or to

Clocks and watches, instruments and apparatus [Category XII A and B of the Tariff], in so far as these articles were not already covered by the prohibitions of export.

ex 1006	Lead nitrate and lead nitrite.
	Leather and leather wares:—
174, 177—184, 186	Unworked leather (including leather waste).
ex 187	Leather cut out for military equipment and harness.
ex 188	Parts (finished) for military equipment and harness; cases for fire arms; rifle straps; ordinary harness; articles of clothing: of leather.
ex 189	Parts and accessories (finished), for ordinary harness, not mounted, not fitted.
ex 202	Winter gloves, of leather, for men. (See also under Boots and shoes.)
	Lignite. (See under Fuel.)
	Lime:—Nitrate of, crude or purified (see under Nitrates); pyro-lignite.
	Linen yarns and certain linen wares (see under Flax.)
	Linseed (see under Seeds); linseed oil (see under Oils, fats, waxes, etc.).
211	Litter of all kinds (straw, peat litter, chaff, etc.).
	Lubricants. (See under Oils, fats, waxes, etc.).
ex 1053	Lysoform.
	Made-up articles of wool (pure or mixed), and other made-up articles for the use of troops (e.g., four articles, boots and shoes, etc., for men, tents, etc.).
ex 625 and 626	Magnesite (natural carbonate of magnesia).
ex 833—837, ex 861, etc.	Magnetos for automobiles.
	Malt. (See under Cereals.)
ex 1021	Manganese (peroxide of manganese), regenerated, ground or in paste.
	Manures. (See Fertilizers.)
	Margarine and other butter substitutes. (See under Butter.)
ex 981, ex 990	Mastic, pharmaceutical; mastic, other (see under Chemical raw materials).

76—80 Meat, fresh and preserved, extracts of meat, pork butcher's goods (sausages, etc.).

ex 938 Medical and surgical instruments and apparatus.

877, ex 974*b* Mercury; bi-iodide of Mercury salts of mercury not specified elseware such as:—bi-chloride (sublimate) chloramide, protochloride (calomel), iodide and iodate, nitrate, oxide, salicylate, sulphate.

ex 1059 Methy alcohol (chemically pure wood spirits).

ex 633 Mica, even in squares or in sheets or slabs, oval or rectangular (mica splittings), rough, not stuck together.

91, 92 Milk, fresh; milk, condensed, sterilised, etc. (See also under Butter.)

Mineral oils (petroleum, petroleum products, etc.). See under Oils, fats, waxes, etc.)

Molasses. (See under Sugar.)

ex 971 Morphine and its salts.

ex 864*c*—898*b* M 3 and 4 Motors (turbine) for torpedo boats.

ex 894*c*—898*b* M 5 Motors (petrol) for automobiles.

Motor cars and component parts thereof. (See under the headings for Vehicles, Motors and Magnetos.)

134 Mules. (See also Horses and Asses.)

51—52 Mustard (in seed, crushed, ground, or prepared).

Nails (horseshoe nails, and nails for mountaineering shoes). (See under Iron.)

ex 1059, ex 1065 Naphthaline. (See Coal tar derivatives.)

Nickel and nickel alloys:—

859 Nickel in cubes, sponges, or cast bars; waste and scrap nickel; German silver in crude pieces.

860 Nickel pure or alloyed, rolled, drawn, in slabs, bars, sheets, wire, and pipes.

861 Wares of nickel and nickel alloys, wares of German silver, alphenide, and alpaca.

NOTE.—Ex. Nos. 860 and 861 were prohibited (by Federal Decree of the 14th June 1915) under the heading of "Partly or wholly finished manufactures, including pipes," of nickel or its alloys. The Decree provided, however, that the prohibition was not to apply to—

Machines, mechanical contrivances and vehicles [Category XII A and B of the Tariff], or to

in so far as these articles were not already covered by the prohibitions of export.

Nitrates:—

ex 163 Crude, such as saltpetre (nitrate of potash), Chile saltpetre (nitrate of soda), lime saltpetre (nitrate of calcium), nitrate of ammonia.

1020 Pure such as saltpetre (nitrate of potash), Chile saltpetre (nitrate of soda), nitrate of calcium.

ex 1006 Nitrate and nitrite of lead.

1034 Nitric acid; mixtures (with) sulphuric or hydrochloric acid.

1026, ex 1006 Nitrite of calcium; nitrite of soda; nitrite of lead.

ex 971 Novacain.

Oils, fats, waxes, etc.:—

72—75 Edible oils (olive oil, edible earthnut oil, edible cottonseed oil, etc.).

Edible fat (see under Butters).

643*b* Petroleum residue for fuel (see fuel.)

Sugar straw (sucre paille).
Chickpeas.
Seeds of Bersime "Tagawi."
Alcohol.
Beer.
Onions.

NOTE.—Instructions were given by the Foreign Office on the 15th June, 1915, that onions may be allowed to go freely to Italian as well as to French ports, provided they are not consigned in transit to Switzerland. No onions with a Swiss destination are to be allowed to be exported pending the formation of the proposed Société de Surveillance Economique. No onions are to be allowed to be exported to other Mediterranean countries without reference to the Foreign Office. Exports of onions for Scandinavia should be consigned via the United Kingdom in order that the ultimate destination may in every case be investigated. Exports of onions for the Netherlands may be allowed, provided they are normal in amount and are consigned to the Netherlands Oversea Trust.

Almonds; dates; bananas.
Citrons and fruits from Alkekange.
Cotton-seed (unlimited export allowed).
Cotton-seed oil.

Four-wheeled vehicles capable of carrying 1 metric ton or more.
Two-wheeled vehicles capable of carrying a load of 750 kilogs. or more.

Wood, building.
Wool and woollen manufactures of all kinds.

NOTE.—The Egyptian Government was instructed by the Foreign Office on the 14th July, 1915, to prohibit the export of all forms of wool and woollen manufactures, except to British destinations. Small quantities may be exported (under license) to Allied Countries.

NOTES.

(i) The above export prohibition list represents the restrictions placed upon the export trade of Egypt by Proclamations or Ministerial decisions only. No mention is made of the administrative measures (such as the requiring of British Consular Certificates of destination) which have been taken by the Customs Authorities to prevent goods reaching the enemy through neutral countries. These measures are in force for all goods exported to neutral countries adjacent to enemy countries. No restrictions are now placed on exports to Italy.

(ii) Instructions were given by the Foreign Office on the 15th June last that the restrictions on the export of onions, as noted on the first page, may be applied equally to all other contraband articles, or articles of potential military value, such as "cotton," provided that these are on the British list of prohibited or restricted exports.

*Firms importing gypsum, plaster, cement, and lime are authorised to re-export sacks which have been used for the importation of such articles.

[Instructions were given by the Foreign Office on the 19th July that the export of empty cement bags should be permitted to Allied Countries.]

The Secretary's Report to the Council.

The Secretary reported to the Council that Mr. Nawab Gulam Ahmed Kalami took his seat as additional Member of the Council :—

Questions and Answers.

1. Mr. M. Chengiah Chetty, B.A., asked.—Will Government be pleased to direct further investigation in regard to the stench emanating from the refuse water of the Tannery and Distillery, which is allowed to flow into the stream close by, as the stench still continues to vitiate the atmosphere of the surrounding villages and the City Extensions, and also to take early steps to put an end to this nuisance ?

Mr. D. M. Narasinga Rao, B.A., B.L., replied.—The report of the Committee appointed by Government to enquire into the sufficiency of the arrangements already made for abating the nuisance is awaited. The matter will engage the earnest attention of Government as soon as the report is received.

2. Mr. M. Chengiah Chetty, B.A., asked.—Will Government be pleased to consider the question of raising the age limit under the Infant Marriage Regulation from 8 to 10 or 11 years with a view to further minimise the number of child marriages and child-widows ?

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya, M.A., M.L., C.I.E., replied.—Without any legislative interference, girls are generally married now at a much older age than that prescribed, viz., eight years. Government will be prepared to undertake legislation if they receive sufficient indications that the public will view the proposal with favour.

3. Mr. B. Narasinga Rao, asked.—Will Government be pleased to lay on the table a statement showing the following particulars for the year 1914-15 and also for the months of July and August 1915 :—

(a) the number of arrack shops licensed in the cities of Mysore and Bangalore and near the Cauvery Reservoir Works ;

(b) the total rental for each of the shops ;

(c) the quantity of arrack supplied to each of the shops from the bonded depots ;

(d) the rate per gallon at which arrack is sold to contractors ; and (e) the rate per gallon at which the contractors are bound to sell arrack in their shops ?

Mr. M. Kantaraj Urs, B.A., C.S.I., replied.—A statement * showing the required particulars is placed on the table.

4. Mr. M. Karnick Krishnamurti Rao, asked.—(a) Will Government be pleased to state whether the Sub-Registrars are Gazetted Officers and what sort of control is exercised over them by the District Registrars and the Inspector-General of Registration?

(b) With a view to exercise efficient control and supervision over these officials, will Government be pleased to consider the advisability of enlarging the powers of the Inspector-General of Registration and of investing him with powers similar to those now exercised by other Provincial Officers over their subordinates?

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya, M.A., M.L., C.I.E., replied.—(a) The Sub-Registrars are not Gazetted Officers in the technical sense of the audit department. The attention of the member is invited to the Registration Regulation and the Rules framed thereunder in regard to the control exercised over them by the Inspector-General of Registration.

(b) The existing powers are deemed adequate.

5. Mr. M. Karnick Krishnamurti Rao, asked.—Will Government be pleased to state whose tenders were accepted in the matter of the supply of "Shell Petrol" rubber tyres, etc., for Government motors through the Water-Supply and Stores Division? How many tenders were offered and what were the rates? Was the lowest tender accepted? If not, what were the special grounds for rejecting the same?

Mr. D. M. Narasinga Rao, B.A., B.L., replied.—The tender of Messrs. F. T. Peters & Co., Agents to the Burma Oil Co., for the supply of "Shell Petrol" was accepted. No tenders were invited for the supply of tyres.

Four tenders were received and their rates were as follows, the quotations being required only for six months:—

	Rate.
	Rs.	a.	p.
(1) The Asiatic Petroleum Company	1	0	3
(If 4,000 gallons were purchased within 12 months)
(2) The Bangalore Automobiles Co.	1	0	3
(3) Messrs. F. T. Peters & Co., Agents to the Burma Oil Co.	1	2	3
(4) The Motor House	1	2	3

The lowest tender could not be accepted as, of the two tenderers whose quotations were the lowest, one required a firm order of 4,000 gallons for 12 months and the other withdrew subsequently.

6. Mr. B. K. Garudachar, asked.—Will Government be pleased to state—

(1) what the rules regulating the grant of remission of land revenue below tanks are;

(2) whether there were any crops below "Hoskote" tank in Bangalore District, and "Badranakere" in Kolar District, during the last two years and what the average yield per acre in annas was under those tanks for the last five years;

(3) whether this state of things required a remission of land revenue; and

(4) whether any remission was actually granted?

Mr. M. Kantaraj Urs, B.A., C.S.I., replied.—(1) Attention is invited to the Government Orders published on pages 343 and 344 of the Revenue Manual.

(2) Yes.

The average yield under the Hoskote tank is reported to be from 5 to 6 annas and under Badranakere, 8 to 16 annas.

(3) No.

(4) No.

7. Mr. H. Narasinga Rao, asked.—Will Government be pleased to state—

(a) what the actual annual surplus income is from the Civil Courts in the State;

(b) whether it is not too much to debit against this income half the salaries of the Amildars and Assistant Commissioners, and ⅔th of the salaries of Deputy Commissioners and also portions of the cost of their travelling allowances and of their establishments;

(c) whether it is not more reasonable to adopt the rule in force in Madras where, if a Revenue Officer does judicial work, ⅕th of his salary is debited against the judicial surplus; and

(d) whether the adoption of the Madras rule will not leave a handsome surplus for being utilized towards a more efficient judicial administration?

Dewan Bahadur Mr. J. S. Chakravarti, M.A., F.R.A.S., replied.—(a) A statement* showing the apparent surplus for five years as calculated from figures given in the Administration Reports is laid on the table.

(b) The surplus is only apparent as account should be taken of the charges classified under other heads such as pensions, public works, stationery and printing, stamp department, etc.

(c) The apportionment of combined Revenue and Judicial Establishment charges between the two departments is fixed in each Province with reference to actual conditions. In some British Provinces the fraction transferred to Judicial is not less than that in Mysore.

(d) Government are not satisfied that the Madras rule is more suitable to Mysore.

8. Mr. H. Narasinga Rao, asked.—(a) Will Government be pleased to state why, in suits for the recovery of possession of assessed lands, the jurisdiction of Civil Courts in which such suits are to be instituted, is made to depend upon five times the annual assessment of the land in suit, although the market value of such land may be as high as Rs. 50,000, while in other suits the actual market value of the subject matter in dispute determines such jurisdiction?

(b) Is it considered that suits for the recovery of assessed lands are not more important and more complex in their nature than other suits? If not, is there any reason for denying to such suits the benefit of a trial by a superior court?

(c) Is it not necessary to amend Section 11 of the Civil Courts Regulation in order to make the market value of assessed lands a criterion for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of a Court?

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya, M.A., M.L., C.I.E., replied.—(a), (b) & (c) The suits referred to are comparatively numerous among those filed for possession of immovable property. The determination of jurisdiction on the simple basis of assessment in such cases avoids intricate questions as to jurisdiction with results beneficial to the litigant public as in British India. The proposal involves increase of expenditure on courts and payment of higher fees by litigants. Government do not therefore consider it necessary at present to amend Section 11 of the Civil Courts Regulation as proposed.

9. Mr. S. R. Balakrishna Rao, B.A., LL.B., asked.—Was the attention of Government drawn to the irregularities and unnecessarily heavy prices alleged to have been paid for certain Railway stores, purchased by the State Railway Department, as detailed in the articles headed "Mysore State Railways, Stores Department" in the Karnataka in its issues of 5th May 1915, and 9th June 1915? If so, will Government be pleased to state whether any and what steps were taken to prevent the recurrence of such irregularities?

Mr. D. M. Narasinga Rao, B.A., B.L., replied.—Government have perused the articles referred to by the member. Due enquiries were made and they showed that no such irregularities have taken place.

---

* Appendix B.

10. Mr. M. Venkatakrishnayya, asked.—Will Government be pleased to revive the practice which obtained for some time prior to 1906, of regularly reporting in the Mysore Gazette the judgments in extenso in all Revenue and other cases before Government involving questions of law and procedure?

Mr. M. Kantaraj Urs, B.A., C.S.I., replied.—The question will be considered.

11. Mr. M. Venkatakrishnayya, asked.—In view of the fact that the police frequently obtain confessions from accused persons after subjecting them to torture, will Government be pleased to amend the Criminal Procedure Code and the Evidence Act so as to exclude from the record all confessions purporting to have been made by accused persons otherwise than during the trial?

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya, M.A., M.L., C.I.E., replied.—The statement that police frequently obtain confessions by torture is in the opinion of Government too broad an assumption. The question whether confessions by accused persons should altogether be excluded in criminal trials received full discussion and consideration in British India, and the conclusion was that an alteration in the law was undesirable. Government agree with that view and do not mean to amend the law.

12. Mr. B. Venkatasamanna, B.A., B.L., asked.—(a) Will Government be pleased to state whether any uniform rate of payment of Aya in kind to the Totis and Talaris has been fixed for the whole State?

(b) If not, what is the standard prevalent in different places?

(c) Are Government aware that great hardship is experienced by the Totis and Talaris? and (d) Will they be pleased to commute the payment in kind into one in cash as in the case of potgi?

Mr. M. Kantaraj Urs, B.A., C.S.I., replied.—(a) No.

(b) Attention is invited to the Notifications of Government on the subject published on pages 208 to 210 of the Mysore Revenue Manual.

(c) & (d) The question is engaging the consideration of Government.

The Bill further to amend the Mysore Land Revenue Code, 1888.

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—SIR,—With reference to the 3rd item in the Agenda standing in my name I beg to state that the matter is not yet quite ready for discussion and I beg leave to withdraw it.

Dewan.—May be treated as withdrawn.

The Bill further to amend the Mysore Municipal Regulation, 1906.

Mr. M. Kantaraj Urs.—SIR,—This is a short Bill to amend the Mysore Municipal Regulation. It consists of three clauses. It was introduced in Council in November last, read in Council and referred to the Select Committee in February last and the report of the Select Committee along with the Bill was considered and adopted in Council in June last. It has now reached the final stage and I have the honor to move that the Bill to further amend the Mysore Municipal Regulation be now passed.

Rajasabhabhushana Dewan Bahadur Mr. K. P. Puttanna Chetty.—SIR,—The merits of the amendment have already been fully discussed and I think it unnecessary to go over them again. I beg to second the motion.

The motion was put to vote and passed unanimously.

743

Bill further to amend the Mysore Civil Courts Regulation, 1883.

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—SIR,—I beg to move that the Bill further to amend the Mysore Civil Courts Regulation, 1883, be passed.

The Bill deals only with two items; the first is the substitution of Rs. 100 for Rs. 50 in Section 16 dealing with the jurisdiction of Courts of Small Causes and the other is the substitution of a new section for Section 21, viz.,

"Subject to such rules as the Government of Mysore may prescribe in this behalf, the ministerial officers of every Court shall be appointed and may be fined, suspended or removed, by the Judge of that Court."

The reasons for these two alterations have already been discussed in this Council and it only remains for me to move that the Bill be passed.

Mr. C. S. Doraswami Iyer.—SIR,—I beg to second the motion.

The motion was put to vote and passed unanimously.

The Bill further to amend the Mysore Mines Regulation, 1906.

Rajamantapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—SIR,—The next item refers to the Mysore Mines Regulation. This consists of adding a new section as Section 36A which is as follows:—

"36A. All fines imposed for the breach of any bye-law made under sub-section (2) of Section 35 shall, when recovered, be credited to the funds of the Sanitary Board constituted under sub-section (1) thereof."

Fines to be credited to the funds of the Sanitary Board.

I beg to move that the Bill further to amend the Mysore Mines Regulation, 1906, be passed.

Dewan Bahadur Mr. C. Srikantesvara Aiyar.—SIR.—I beg to second it.

The motion was put to vote and carried. One member voting against it.

A Bill further to Amend the Mysore Land Revenue Code, 1888.

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H V. Nanjundayya.—SIR,—I beg to move that leave be granted to introduce a Bill further to amend the Mysore Land Revenue Code, 1888.

The Bill consists of the amendment of a single section, namely Section 54.

The paramountcy of Land Revenue as a charge on the holding has been enunciated in Section 54 of the Mysore Land Revenue Code, 1888, which is an almost exact reproduction of Section 56 of the Bombay Code as it stood before it was amended in 1901.

In Balaji Rao alias Balakrishna Rao vs. Sitaramaiya (18, M. C. C. R., 76) the Mysore Chief Court held that a forfeiture under Section 54, while no doubt operating as a resumption of the holding as between the defaulter and Government, does not, unless followed by a sale, extinguish the rights and equities subsisting as between private persons.

In the light of this interpretation by the highest tribunal in the State, under Section 54 as it now stands, it would be open to claimants to prior rights and equities not only to enter on resumed lands, but also to dispute the title of subsequent occupants. It is therefore necessary both in the interest of the public revenue and to afford protection to subsequent interests in land, to amend Section 54.

In Bombay this was effected by providing that the disposal of the forfeited occupancy, whether by sale or otherwise, should, unless the Collector otherwise directed, be deemed free from all previous rights and equities, except those arising in favour of Government. The Collector is, under this provision, vested with a salutary discretion which can be exercised to prevent fraud.

It is therefore considered desirable to amend Section 54 of the Mysore Land Revenue Code, 1888, on the lines of Section 56 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code.

We have made only one alteration, namely, in respect of previous encumbrances that is, that when the occupancy is retransferred to the original occupant, he will not be able to get rid of the previous encumbrances in this manner, a limitation which is necessary in fairness and equity. It must be so in fairness and equity.

The section when amended, will read as follows :—

Land Revenue a paramount charge on land.

"54. Arrears of land revenue due on account of land by any landholder shall be a paramount charge on the holding and every part thereof, failure in payment of which shall make the occupancy or alienated holding, together with all rights of the occupant or holder over all trees, crops, buildings and things attached to the land, or permanently fastened to any thing attached to the land, liable to forfeiture, whereupon the Deputy Commissioner may levy all sums in arrear by sale of the occupancy or alienated holding, or may otherwise dispose of such occupancy or alienated holding under rules or orders made in this behalf under Section 233, and such occupancy or alienated holding when disposed of, whether by sale as aforesaid, or by transfer to another person or otherwise howsoever, except by restoration to the defaulter, shall, unless the Deputy Commissioner otherwise directs, be deemed to be freed from all tenures, rights, incumbrances and equities theretofore created in favour of any person other than Government in respect of such occupancy or holding."

Mr. K. R. Srinivasaiengar.—SIR,—I second it.

The motion was put to vote and carried unanimously.

The Bill to amend the Mysore Land Acquisition Regulation, 1894.

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—SIR,—The next item refers to the Mysore Land Acquisition Regulation. In this Regulation, the term "Deputy Commissioner" is defined as the "Deputy Commissioner of the District or some officer who is appointed to carry out the functions of a Deputy Commissioner." It happens in many cases that when lands, however small the extent and value thereof may be, have to be acquired, it becomes necessary that a Deputy Commissioner himself should take all the steps necessary or another officer has to be specially appointed by a notification in the Gazette as Deputy Commissioner for the purpose. This procedure is quite unnecessary and disproportionate to the importance of the case.

It is therefore proposed to amend the definition of Deputy Commissioner in sub-section (c) of Section 3.

The amended section will then read as follows :—

Amendment of sub-section (c) of Section 3.—In sub-section (c) of Section 3 of the Regulation the words "or an Assistant Commissioner in charge of a Revenue Sub-Division" shall be inserted after the words "of a district."

I beg that leave be granted to introduce this Bill.

Mr. K. R. Srinivasiengar.— SIR,—I second the motion.

Rajasabhabhushana Dewan Bahadur Mr. K. P. Puttanna Chetty.—SIR,—Is it proposed by the amendment to give the power to the Vice-Presidents in the Municipalities of Bangalore and Mysore?

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—SIR,—The amendment is not wide enough to extend to them.

Rajasabhabhushana Dewan Bahadur Mr. K. P. Puttanna Chetty.—SIR,—The Regulation will then have to be amended in this respect.

The motion was put to vote and carried unanimously.

745

A Bill further to amend the Mysore Stamp Regulation, 1900.

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—SIR,—I beg leave to introduce a Bill further to amend the Mysore Stamp Regulation, 1900.

The duties which are leviable on bills of exchange and promissory notes were recently increased in British India by Act VI of 1910 as amended by Act I of 1912, and are now about 50 per cent more than what they are here. Government intend to introduce Hundi Stamp paper into Mysore and take this opportunity to bring the scale of duty into conformity with that prevailing in British India. The Bill has been prepared on the lines of the British Indian Act, I of 1912.

The Schedule as revised will stand as follows:—

		If drawn singly	If drawn in set of two, for each part of the set	If drawn in set of three for each part of the set and for every additional 10,000 or part thereof in excess of 30,000		9 0 0	4 8 0	3 0 0

Dewan Bahadur Mr. J. S. Chakravarti.—SIR,—I beg to second the motion. In matters affecting trade as indeed in all other matters in which there should be full and free intercourse between Mysore and British India it is desirable that the procedure, rates and practices should be the same as far as possible. It is not of course necessary that there should be complete agreement under all circumstances. If any important object is achieved by maintaining a difference, a difference would be justifiable. In this particular case however no such object is gained by maintaining in Mysore rates different from those in British India. The documents stamped in British India are current in this State and those in this State are current in British India. The only result of maintaining a difference in the rates under these circumstances would be to confuse men engaged in trade and business of various kinds, between Mysore and British India and make them liable to occasional mistakes which will be always vexatious and some times embarrassing. There is indeed no object in continuing this difference. It is therefore proposed to make our rates of Stamp duty on Bills of exchange and similar other documents the same as those now in force in British India. The motion is therefore such as should commend itself to the members of this Council and I have no doubt that it will find support.

Mr. S. R. Balakrishna Rao.—Sir,—If the proposal is made with a view to increase the revenue, then I consider that the proposed addition of 50% will not add materially to the stamp revenue. The increase on each document will be only a few annas and the aggregate revenue will increase only by a few rupees per year. As the documents stamped in British India have to be re-stamped in Mysore to gain currency here, I don't see any necessity for a uniformity of rates in Mysore and British India.

Rajamantrapravina, Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—Sir,—No. It is not so. The documents need not be re-stamped in Mysore.

As Mr. Balakrishna Rao said, the measure is not likely to bring in much extra revenue to the State; on the other hand, the burden of the increased duty on the subject will be also insignificant. As Mr. Chakravarti pointed out, there is no end gained in keeping a difference in rates between this State and British India.

I therefore think that permission may be granted without any hesitation.

The motion was put to vote and carried unanimously.

The Indian Soldiers Litigation Bill.

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—Sir,—We have an Emergency Regulation referring to the Indian Soldiers serving under war conditions. When soldiers are absent on war service outside, there may be litigation about their estates. In order to protect their interests, an Ordinance was first drafted and recently it has been converted into an Act in British India. We wish to adopt the same Act here with the necessary changes. With that object, it is proposed to place before you the following Bill.

"Whereas it is expedient to enforce in Mysore the provisions of the Indian Soldiers (Litigation) Act, 1915; His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to enact as follows:—

1. The Indian Soldiers (Litigation) Act, XII of 1915, shall, mutatis mutandis, be enforced in Mysore.

2. It shall also apply to all the members of the Mysore Military Forces (as defined in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911,) on active service in the same way, and to the same extent, as in the case of an Indian Soldier.

3. The Indian Soldiers Litigation (Emergency) Regulation, V of 1915, is hereby repealed."

I therefore beg leave to introduce the Bill in this Council.

Mr. C. S. Doraswami Iyer.—Sir,—I beg to second the motion.

As the members are aware, all Emergency Ordinances, that were current till now, had application only for a definite period of time, beyond which they had no application. The present Regulation will be in force only up to 3rd December 1915.

No more comments are necessary for settling this question and I beg to second the motion.

The motion was put to vote and carried unanimously.

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—Sir,—I beg to move that the ordinary rules be suspended so as to permit of this Bill being taken into consideration and passed.

I take this opportunity to show that the Bill is not a very complicated one. It refers to the Indian Soldiers (Litigation) Act.

The object of the Bill is merely to put off proceedings so as to enable these soldiers to be properly represented in Courts.

Mr. C. S. Doraswami Iyer.—Sir,—I second it.

The motion was put to vote and passed unanimously.

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—Sir,—I beg to move that the Bill be taken into consideration and passed.

Mr. C. S. Doraswami Iyer.—Sir,—I second it.

The motion was put to vote and passed unanimously.

747 The Mysore Lunacy Bill.

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—Sir,—I beg to present the following report of the Select Committee of this Council on the Mysore Lunacy Bill.

"We have examined the provisions of the Bill carefully and have made the following amendments:—

Clauses 11, 29, 30, 33 and 59 and Schedule I.—As necessary action can be taken under clauses 71 and 72 of the Bill to give effect to the present arrangement with the Civil and Military Station authorities to receive their lunatics, civil as well as military, into the Lunatic Asylum, clause 11 has been omitted. Consequent on this omission clause 59, sub-clauses (2) and (3) of clause 30 and the words "in the case of a person detained under a reception order under Section 11, or" in the proviso to clause 29, "and of European Military Lunatics" in the marginal note, "under the provisions of sub-section (1)" in the proviso to sub-clause (1) of clause 30 and "or a lunatic in respect of whom a reception order has been made under section [12] 11" in the proviso to clause 33 and form No. 4 in Schedule I, have been omitted.

Clauses 18, 19, 22, 23 and 64.—As the Bill contemplates only one asylum the words "or in the asylum to which he may be removed in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation" in clause 18, "into which such lunatic is to be admitted" in clause 19 and "which is prescribed for the reception of criminal lunatics" in clause 22 and paragraph (e) of sub-clause (1) of clause 64 have also been omitted and the word "the" substituted for the word "such" in clauses 22 and 33.

Clause 53.—The word "authorised" has been substituted for the words "enumerated from time to time" and the words "by means of a notification published in the official gazette" have been omitted in clause 53.

Clause 61.—As there is now no local authority liable for the cost of maintaining any lunatic, the words "or any local authority liable for the cost of maintenance of such lunatic under any law for the time being in force" have been omitted.

Clause 71.—The word "authority" has been substituted for the word "tribunal" in clause 71.

Clause 72.—The word "regarding" has been substituted for the words "regulating the procedure for" in clause 72.

Clause 73.—Sub-clause (1) of clause 73 has been omitted.

The other changes are merely of a consequential or verbal nature.

We recommend that the Bill as amended by us be passed into law.

As the Bill has not been materially altered, we think it is unnecessary to republish the same, as amended by us, in the Gazette."

You will see that the only important alterations made are—

(i) The omission of clause 11, as the reception of these lunatics will be regulated by agreement with the Civil and Military Station authorities under another provision of the bill and

(ii) In the British Indian Act, there are certain clauses for distinguishing the Asylum for particular lunatics. But in Mysore, it is not necessary to have these separate clauses, as we are to have only one Lunatic Asylum.

There are no other material alterations and most of the provisions of the British Act are kept as they are.

I therefore beg to move that the report of the Select Committee and the Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to Lunacy be considered in Council.

Mr. C. S. Doraswami Iyer.—Sir,—I beg to second it.

The reasons which the members of the Select Committee had for a few alterations proposed by them have been explained by the learned mover and I have very little to add to them.

The motion was put to vote and passed.

748

Rajamantrapravina Mr. H. V. Nanjundayya.—Sir,—I beg to move that the Bill as amended be taken up and passed at a subsequent meeting of the Council.

Mr. C. S. Doraswami Iyer.—Sir,—I second it.

The motion was put to vote and passed unanimously.

The Meeting was adjourned sine die.

By Order,

G. SREENIVASA IYER,

Secretary, Mysore Legislative Council.

S. V. RAMASWAMY IYENGAR, For Sanitary Commissioner.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

READ—

Government Order No. 7332-72—Med. 89-06-57, dated the 24th February 1910, prescribing rules regarding medical attendance on Government Officers, etc., and fees for attendance.

2. Correspondence ending with letter No. G. 305, dated the 27th January 1915, from the Senior Surgeon in the matter of a proposal to levy fees in Hospitals and Dispensaries in the State, from persons who can afford to pay for medical relief.

No. 3820-70—MED. 231-13-4, DATED, BANGALORE, THE 26TH NOVEMBER 1915.

ORDER.—With the growth of population and the recognition by the people of the advantages of skilled medical treatment, there has been an increasing need for a large number of hospitals and dispensaries and for their better equipment, and the expenditure on medical relief has been rapidly growing. The existing practice of providing medical advice and hospital treatment free of charge to rich and poor alike, was introduced at a time when medical institutions were few, and it was necessary to popularize them, and demonstrate to the public the advantages of scientific medical treatment. These reasons no longer exist and an indefinite continuance of the practice would hamper the normal expansion of the Medical Department and injure the interests of the deserving poor, who alone have a claim to gratuitous treatment.

2. The need to modify this practice was felt so far back as 1893, when a set of rules were issued authorising the levy of fees for prescriptions made up for persons who could afford to pay; but for some reason the rules were not generally brought into force. Government are of opinion that the time has arrived for introducing the system of levying fees tentatively in the institutions in the cities of Bangalore and Mysore, especially as this system has been working well in the British Indian Provinces.

3. They are therefore pleased to issue the rules given in the Appendix which will be adopted in all the hospitals and dispensaries in the cities of Bangalore and Mysore, tentatively for a period of three years with effect from 1st January 1916. These rules are not, however, intended to affect those issued with the Government Order of 24th February 1910 read above.

4. The Senior Surgeon is requested to submit at the close of each official year a report on the working of the rules herein prescribed.

D. M. NARASINGA RAO,
Secretary to Government,
General Department.

To—The Senior Surgeon in Mysore.
Other Heads of Departments.
Deputy Commissioners of Districts.
Presidents of the Bangalore and Mysore City Municipal Councils.

APPENDIX.

RULES TO REGULATE THE LEVY OF FEES FROM PATIENTS RESORTING TO PUBLIC HOSPITALS AND DISPENSARIES FOR TREATMENT.

1. Persons whose monthly income from all sources does not exceed Rs. 50 and their depedants will be considered as poor for the purposes of these rules and will be entitled to free medical advice and treatment in all hospitals and dispensaries, whether they are maintained from Provincial, Municipal or Local Funds.

2. Out-patients.—Subscribers to a hospital or dispensary of rupees four per mensem and upwards will be allowed to have medical advice and treatment for themselves and their families free of charge in the Out-patients' Department.

3. Every other person attending a hospital or dispensary for treatment as an out-patient will be charged at the rate of two annas for each attendance—such payment to include charges on account of advice (including a minor operation) and medicine for a day.

4. In-patients.—(1) General wards.—Every person who is not poor and who desires to be admitted and treated in the general wards, should pay at the rate of eight annas for every day he stops in the hospital.

5. Persons wishing to be treated as in-patients free of charge will have to sign a declaration to the effect that their own income or that of the person on whom they depend does not exceed Rs. 50 a month.

6. (2) Special wards.—Every person wishing to be admitted into the special ward will have to pay a fee of Rs. 2 per day, if he is to be treated as a first class patient and given one whole room for himself, or one rupee a day when he will be treated as a second class patient, two second class patients being put in one room.

NOTE.—These rates do not apply to the Victoria Hospital, Bangalore, for which special rates have been prescribed in Government Order 9594-5—Med. 53-08-8, dated 2nd April 1909.

7. For children under 12 years of age, half the above rates will be charged for hospital stoppages.

8. The above rates include all ordinary charges including medical attendance, treatment and dieting. Patients requiring special nursing will have to make their own arrangements.

9. All charges levied under the foregoing rules shall be recovered in advance and credited in full to Government.

10. Emergencies will be attended to free of charge.

Lists of articles the exportation of which is prohibited from the following countries :—

Norway.	The Netherlands.	The French Colonies.	Greece.*	Portugal.
Sweden.	Italy.	Russia.	Roumania.	Egypt.
Denmark.	France.	Switzerland.*	Spain.	Japan.†

NORWAY.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

September 17, 1915.

NOTES.

(1) All articles required for a ship about to undertake a voyage may be exported for the use of the ship, even if they are of a kind the exportation of which is prohibited.

(2) As regards transit, all goods coming to Norway and consigned to a foreign (non-Norwegian) destination, even if they are of a kind the exportation of which is prohibited, may be re-exported without special permission. On the other hand, foreign goods falling within the scope of the prohibition of export, if consigned to a place in Norway, cannot be re-exported without permission, even if they were intended for re-export.

[A Norwegian Customs Circular of the 13th July 1915, explains that it is clearly stated in the actual text of the bill of lading that the goods are intended to be forwarded to some place abroad, the prohibition of export will not apply. It is not necessary to mention the name of the consignee.]

(3) The Norwegian Government reserve to themselves the right to grant, in exceptional cases, permission to export any of the prohibited articles.

Acids :—see Citric acid, Hydrochloric acid, Salicylic acid, Sulphuric acid, Tartaric acid ; and also under Dyes, and under Medicaments.
Alcohol (absolute).
‡ Alloys of antimony ; ‡ alloys of copper (see under Copper).
Alum ; aluminium salts.§
Aluminium, unwrought (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin), scrap aluminium, and aluminium worked up into plates, bands, tubes, rods, rings, wire, and casting.
Ammunition.‖
Aniline (see under Dyes).
Animals, living—cattle, goats, horses, pigs, reindeer, sheep.
Antimony, unwrought or crude, and scrap ;‡ alloys of antimony ; sulphides and oxides of antimony.
Apparatus and instruments for medical, surgical, veterinary, and dental use, and for sick nursing in general.

* These lists have not been reprinted as they are the same as those forwarded with the letter from the Department of Commerce and Industry No. 15891-97—W., dated the 15th October 1915.

† This list has been issued for the first time.

‡ A Norwegian Customs Circular of the 3rd July, 1915, states that metallic alloys are not subject to prohibitions of export unless they are specially mentioned in the prohibitions, as in the case of the export prohibitions regarding antimony and copper. This ruling, however, only applies to cases in which the constitution of the alloy is normal ; and where metallic alloys contain an unusual amount of a metal of which the exportation is prohibited, the export prohibition applies also to the alloy.

§ China clay (kaolin) is not covered by this prohibition. [14-9-15.]

‖ According to a Norwegian Customs Circular of the 9th July 1915 shell cases come under this prohibition.

Arachides (see Margarine, etc.) ; arachides oil or ground-nut oil.
Arms and parts of arms.
Asbestos, crude (except that of Norwegian production and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Asbestos goods, even if mixed or in combination with other material.
Ash, kelp.
Aspen timber.
Automobilies and tyres therefor.
Balata, crude, and partly worked products thereof.
Balsam of Peru.
Barbed wire.
Batteries (dry) for electric pocket lamps.
Benzol (see under Dyes).
Bones, fats and tallow of ruminants ; (except bone-fat produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin) ; bone-oil, bone-dust, sulphuric and other.
Boots (covered by "Hides and skins, and their products").
Bottles, empty.
Brass, bronze and other copper alloys* (see under Copper).
Camphor, purified.
Caps (dynamite percussion caps).
Carbons for search-lights and for arc-lights.
Casein.
Castor oil.
Cattle (living).
Ceresine, mineral wax (ozokerite).
Charcoal.
Cheese.
Chlorate, perchlorate, and chloride of potash (see under Potassium salts).
Citric acid and its salts.
Coal and coke ; peat.
Coal-tar ; coal-tar dyes, etc. (see under Dyes).
Cocos oil or coco-nut oil ; copra.
Collodion.
Copper, and alloys* of copper with common metals :—
- Copper, unwrought (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin) ; alloy* of copper with common metals, unwrought.
- Scrap of copper and of copper alloys.*
- Wholly or partly manufactured wares of copper or alloys* of copper with common metals, viz :—
  - Plates and sheets† : hoops.
  - Bars (rods).
  - Cup-shaped materials for use in the manufacture of cartridges.
  - Bolts, rivets, nails.
  - Tubes and pipes.
  - Shaped pieces (formstykker).
  - Wire, rolled or drawn.
  - Wire twisted into ropes or cables, without insulation ; fitted with mantle, armoured of unarmoured ; also covered with insulating materials of all kinds.
  - Wire gauze.
  - Castings (stopte gjenstande).

Copper sulphate.
Copra.
Cotton, raw ; cotton waste ; cotton wool.
Cotton yarns and thread ; woven cotton goods (with the exception of curtains), knitted (tricot) cotton goods.
Cottonseed oil or cotton oil.
Cresol and cresol preparations, including creolin and lysol (see under Dyes).
‡Crucibles (see under Graphite).

---

* See Note ‡ on page 1607.

† According to a Norwegian Customs Circular of the 13th July, 1915, screen plates of phosphor bronze come under this prohibition.

‡ Graphite crucibles are the only crucibles specifically prohibited. In the case of other crucibles, the nature of the component material determines whether the crucibles are or are not prohibited to be exported. [12-6-15.]

Dental apparatus and instruments (see under Instruments).
Drugs (see Medicaments).
Dyes made from tar and organic bye-products for producing tar-dyes (such as aniline, naphthol, naphthylamines, naphthylaminesulphonic acids, benzol, cresol and cresol preparations, including creolin and lysol, salicylic acid, etc.).
Dynamite percussion caps.
Electrical machinery of all kinds (except machinery manufactured in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Electro-magnetic ignition apparatus for motors, unattached.
Fats :—Fat and tallow of ruminants (with the exception of bone-fat produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin) ; greases containing resin ; wool-fat ; (all kinds) ; palm oil and palm kernel fat. (See also under the headings for Margarine, Oils, Tallow.)
Fertilisers :—37 per cent potash fertiliser (see under Potassium salts) ; fish guano and whale guano; superphosphate ; sulphuric and other bone dust ; Thomas' phosphate ; apatite, and other raw phosphates.
Field-glasses, telescopes, etc. (kikkerter).
Firewood.
*Foodstuffs (except fish and fish products, condensed milk, butter, cheese, berries, game, poultry, eggs, coffee, spices).
*Forage, including meal of herrings, of whale meat, and of liver.
Formaldehyde solution and other formaldehyde preparations.
Fuel :—coal and coke, peat, firewood, mineral oils.
Glue containing resin.
Glycerine, raw, refined, or purified.
Goats (living).
Gold, manufactured and unmanufactured, minted or unminted.†
Graphite, unwrought or crude (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin) ; graphite for use in foundries, including crucibles.
Greases containing resin. (For other greases, see under Fats.)
Ground-nuts (see Margarine, etc.) ; ground-nut or arachides oil.
Gutta-percha, crude, and partly worked products thereof.
Guano (fish guano and whale guano).
Hemp, raw and hackled.
Hempseed oil.
Hides and skins, and their products.
Horses (living) ; horseshoes.
Hydrochloric acid, chemically pure.
Instruments and apparatus for medical, surgical, veterinary, and dental use and for sick nursing in general.
Iodine.
Jute, raw ; jute products and jute waste.
Jute sacking (except sacking used in packing other goods destined for export).
Kainite (see under Potassium salts).
Kelp ash.
Lactose (sugar of milk).
Lard (see Margarine, etc.) ; lard oil (see under Oils).
Lead.
Leather and products thereof.
Linseed and linseed oil.
Lubricants, with the exception of oils of fish and other marine animals, all kinds,
Lysol (see under Cresol).
Machinery, electrical, of all kinds (except machinery manufactured in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Machines intended for the manufacture of ammunition.
Maize oil.
Manures (see Fertilisers).
Margarine, and raw materials, either solid or liquid, for the manufacture of margarine such as oleo stock, lard, etc. (See also under Oil.)
Medical apparatus and instruments (see under Instruments).
Medicaments included in Schedules A and B of the Law of 29th August 1908.‡
Mercury.
Mineral oils. (See also Lubricants.)

* The terms "food stuffs" and "forage" include everything used for nourishing men or animals.
† Gold worked up into jewellery or articles of use may be exported.
‡ For information as to the goods covered by these Schedules, see Note on p. 1611.

Mineral wax (ozokerite), ceresine.
Molybdenum, unwrought or crude; molybdenite (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Motors of more than 15 horse-power, with more than 600 revolutions per minute, and weighing less than 25 kilogs. per horse-power; also motor boats fitted with such motors.
Motor boats. (See under preceding heading.)
Motor cars, and tyres therefor; motor cycles and spare parts thereof; electro-magnetic ignition apparatus for motors, unattached.
Naphthol, naphthylamines, naphthylaminesulphonic acids, etc. (see under Dyes).
Nickel ore; nickel, unworked (except nickel produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Nickel sulphate.
Nitrate of potash (See under Potassium salts).
Oils:—oil of turpentine (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin); resin oil and wood tar oil; vegetable fatty oils, viz., linseed oil, rape-seed oil, olive oil or sweet oil,* hempseed oil, maize oil, soya oil, castor oil, ground-nut or arachides oil, sesame oil, cottonseed oil or cotton oil, palm oil, palm kernel fat, cocos oil, or caco-nut oil; vaseline oil; mineral oils; lard oil.†
Oleo stock (see Margarine, etc.).
Olive oil or sweet oil.*
Ozokerite (mineral wax), ceresine.
Palm oil, palm kernel fat.
Paraffin wax.
Peat, coal, coke.
Percussion caps (dynamite percussion caps).
Petroleum, crude and distillates (see Mineral oils).
Phosphates:—Thomas phosphate, apatite and other crude phosphates, superphosphate.
Pigs (living).
Potassium salts (chloride of potash, 37 per cent potash fertiliser and kainite), and products manufactured thereof, such as chlorate of potash, perchlorate of potash, nitrate of potash (saltpetre), caustic potash or potash lye. [See also Note as to Drugs, etc., p. 1611.]
Rapeseed oil.
Reindeer (living).
Resin; resin oil and wood tar oil.
Rubber (gummi elasticum), crude and partly worked products thereof; rubber waste. [For rubber tyres, see Tyres.]
Sacks, empty.‡
Salicylic acid (see under Dyes).
Saltpetre (see under Potash salts).
Scheelite (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Sesame oil.
Sheep (living).
Shellac.§
Silver, manufactured or unmanufactured, minted or unminted‖
Skins and hides, and their products.
Skis and ski sledges.
Soya oil.
Spelter (see Zinc).
Stearine (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by certificates of origin).
Sulphate of copper; sulphate of nickle; sulphate of alumina (see Aluminium salts).
Sulphur and flowers of sulphur.
Sulphuric acid, chemically pure.
Superphosphate.
Surgical apparatus and instruments (see under Instruments).
Suture materials.

* The prohibition of olive oil does not apply to sardines tinned in olive oil. [16-6-15.]

† The only animal oils not prohibited are whale and fish oils and waste tallow and fat from tanneries and slaughter-houses which could not be used as lubricants or as human food.

‡ Permission to export is granted when the sacks have entered Norway containing goods and are proved to belong to the exporters of such goods and also when the sacks are urgently required by foreign firms who are shipping goods to Norway.

§ Other kinds of lac (e.g., varnish or sealing-wax) are not prohibited. [26-6-15.]

‖ Silver worked up into jewellery or articles of use may be exported.

Tallow, animal.
*Tanning materials.
Tar (coal tar); tar dyes, etc., (see under Dyes); wood tar oil.
Tartaric acid and its salts.
Thomas phoshpates (see under Phosphates).
Tin chloride.
Tin ore; tin, unmanufactured; tin in rolls, bars, sheets and filings.
*Tinplates and parts of tinplates, decorated sheet iron, wares of sheet iron ready-made tin packing.†
Turpentine oil (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Tyres for motor cars and for cycles.
Vanadium, unwrought or crude
Vaseline and vaseline oil.
Veterinary apparatus and instruments (see under Instruments).
Wax:—paraffin wax, mineral wax (ozokerite), ceresine.
Wire, barbed. (For copper and brass wire, see under Copper; for aluminium wire, under Aluminium).
Wolfram, unwrought or crude.
Wolframite (except that produced in Norway and accompanied by a certificate of origin).
Wood—aspen timber; firewood.
Wool and woollen goods (including all sorts of woollen waste).
Wool-fat (all kinds).
Zinc, unwrought and wrought ‡; scrap zinc.

NOTE AS TO DRUGS, MEDICAMENTS, ETC.

The Norwegian Law of the 29th August 1908 (Law relative to the trade in poisons and apothecaries' goods), contained three Schedules (A, B, and C) of drugs, medicaments, etc.

SCHEDULE A contains a list of drugs, etc., which may only be sold in Norway by chemists. It includes poisons, arcana (all simple and compound materials offered for sale as medicines and the composition of which is kept secret), and medicamina (all materials which are used for preventing or curing sickness, without regard as to whether their simple ingredients are or are not articles of general commerce: excluded from this as exceptions are specially-mentioned preparations mentioned in Schedule C, 2, of the Law under collective groups also materials which belong to Schedule C, 1, when these are used as bandages, for disinfecting, in cosmetics, for technical or other non-medicinal purposes, and not as advertisements, circulars. or in any other manner offered for sale or recommended as materials which may be employed for healing sickness). Medicamina are divided into three categories, viz.:—

(a) Medicamina composita (composite medicines and drugs):
[The Law contains a long list, including, inter alia, aquæ destillatæ et extemporaneæ medicinales, chartæ, medicinales, decocta medicinalia, emulsiones medicinales, extracta medicinalia, linimenta medicinales, pastæ, pastillæ, tabulettæ et trochisci medicinales, salia medicinalia mixta, sapones medicinales, solutiones medicinales, tincturæ medicinales, vina medicinalia, etc., etc.]

(b) Medicamina simplicia (simple medicines or drugs):
This is again sub-divided into—
1. Animalium variæ species. (Examples: Cantharides, castoreum, lapis cancrorum.)
2. Præparata chemica.
[A long list is specified, including, inter alia, acetanilide, acetylsalicylic acid and aspirin, benzoic acid, carbolic acid, æther nitrosus spirituosus, etc., alkaloids and their combinations, antifebrine, antipyrine, arsenic and its combinations, chloral hydrate, chloroform, diuretine and theobromine-salicylate of soda, hexamethylen tetramine and urotropine, iodoform and iodol, acetate and tartrate of potash, lysoform, naphthol, nitro-benzol, paraldehyde, pepsine, phosphorus, resorcin, saccharin, veronal, etc., etc.

---

* Waste of tinplates (iron-plates coated with tin) is covered by the prohibition but waste of plates of pure tin is not at present prohibited to be exported. [24-7-15.]

† It is understood that permission to export will be granted in respect of tins (biscuit tins) which have entered Norway containing goods, the procedure being the same as that followed in the case of sacks (see Note ‡ on page 1610).

‡ Until further notice, relaxations of the prohibition will be granted in respect of refined zinc for countries from which the unwrought zinc has been imported. [22-8-15.]

3. Pyrolea.
4. Vegetabilium eariæ species:
[A long list is specified under this head.]

(c) Medicamenum variæ species;
[The list specified under this head includes, inter alia, serums.]

SCHEDULE B contains a list of drugs, etc., which may be sold by chemists and also by specially licensed tradesmen. It covers the following:—

Aloes.
Ammonium bromide; ammonium iodide.
Trichloride of antimony, butter of antimony.
Oxide of antimony.
Barium bromide; barium iodide; barium chlorate, chloric and barytes; barium hydrate (caustic baryta).
Benzinoform.
Lead oxide, sugar of lead; lead nitrate.
Bromine.
Tartar emetic, antimony tartrate.
Potassium bromide; potassium iodide; potassium iodate; potassium oxalate (neutral and acid); potassium perchlorate.
Caustic potash, potassium hydrate (in metal containers of less than 40 kilog.; for quantities of 500 gr. or less the container may be of glass). [See also under Potassium salts on page 1610.]
Caustic lithia (lithium hydrate).
Sodium bromide; sodium iodide; sodium oxalate.
Caustic soda, sodium hydrate (in metal containers of less than 40 kilog.; for quantities of 500 gr. or less the container may be of glass).
Hydrofluoric acid.
Phosphorus, amorphous, red phosphorus.
Iron oxalate, ferrous oxalate.
Iodine.
Cadmium bromide; cadmium iodide.
Calcium bromide; calcium iodide.
Copper acetate, verdigris.
Copper nitrate.
Cobalt chloride.
Chromic acid.
Oxalic acid.
Pyridine.
Zinc chloride.
Strontium bromide; strontium iodate.
Carbon disulphide.
Liver of sulphur.

[SCHEDULE C relates to goods which may be sold practically without restriction. The following articles from Schedule C have been prohibited to be exported, and are included specifically in the list on pp. 1607-1611, viz., absolute alcohol, citric acid and its salts, tartaric acid and its salts, collodion, chemically pure hydrochloric acid, chemically pure sulphuric acid, lactose (sugar of milk), formaldehyde solution and other formaldehyde preparations, balsam of Peru, wool-fat (all kinds), vaseline and vaseline oil].

SWEDEN.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORT OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

October 1, 1915.

NOTES.

(1) A Swedish Royal Decree of the 9th January, 1915, definitively prohibited the transit through Sweden of arms, ammunition, and other war material. The articles to which this prohibition of transit applies are indicated by a cross (×) in the list printed below.

Under the rules at present enforced by the Swedish Government, the transit through Sweden of all goods on the Swedish export prohibition list is also prohibited. Since the 16th August, 1915, this prohibition of transit has been applied also to goods sent through Sweden by parcel post.

(2) As from the 22nd April, 1915, the export is prohibited of goods with regard to which no special prohibition of export has been enforced, but which are manufactured wholly or in part from materials of which the exportation is prohibited, if it appears from the quantity of the material employed or from some other circumstance that the working-up to which the material has been subjected is merely intended to facilitate the exportation of the prohibited materials of which the goods consist.

(3) The numbers and letters quoted below relate to the headings of the "Statistical Index of Goods" under which the prohibited articles fall.

The numbers are the same as those of the Swedish Customs Tariff*; the letters indicate the sub-divisions of the numbers, and are found only in the "Statistical Index"—which is considerably more detailed in classification than the Customs Tariff.

1145 D	Chloride of potassium.
	Chloride of sodium, (see under Salt).
ex 1128 C	Chlorine gas, condensed.
ex 1258	Chloroform. [See under Druggists' wares.]
ex 953*	Chrome, unmanufactured or in the rough, also scrap.
ex 1285-1286	Chronometer watches.
1290	Chronometers, ships'.
ex 1258	Cinchona bark. [See under Druggists' wares.]
ex 1140	Citric acid and tartaric acid.
41 A—K †	Coal—anthracite, gas-coal and coke-coal, steam-coal, and other coal; peat; coke; wood charcoal; briquettes (of coal or peat); other fuel not specially mentioned [not including unmanufactured retort carbon].
	Coal-tar dyes. (See under Tar colours.)
ex 1258	Coca leaves; cocaine chloride. [See under Druggists' wares.]
	Cocoa butter; coconut oil or cocos oil (see under Fats, vegetable).
	Codeine, etc. (see under Opium).
ex 1258	Colchicine; colchicum seeds (semen colchici) and preparations thereof. [See under Druggists' wares.]
	Colophany (see Resin).
1202	Colours for typographic, lithographic, and copper-plate printing, not specially mentioned. (See also Printers' Ink.)
1203	Colours prepared with oil, not specially mentioned.
	Conserves of meat (see under Meat).
	Copper and alloys thereof with zinc, tin, or other non-precious metal, such as brass, bronze, German silver, Britannia metal, etc.; also aluminium, nickel, chrome, and antimony:—
ex 953*
897 A-E and ex F	Unmanufactured or in the rough (with the exception of refined copper produced from raw material (not from scrap) at a Swedish refinery‡).
ex 897 G	Copper anodes, cast, even if with ears, with or without holes.
897 H	Scrap.
	Copper and alloys thereof with zinc, tin, or other non-precious metal, such as brass, bronze, German silver, Britannia metal, etc., also aluminium:—
	Manufactures, viz.:—
	Sheets and hoops:
	Of a thickness of at least 0·2 mm.
898 and 899	Rolled or pressed, even if with sheared edges (rectangular, and other kinds).
900	Hammered, bent, bell-shaped, with turned-up edges, including × cup-shaped materials for making cartridges, etc., provided with holes, polished or otherwise worked, and not falling under No. 901. (The transit through Sweden of cup-shaped materials of copper and brass for making cartridges has been definitively prohibited. See Note 1 on p. 1612.)
901	Less than 0·2 mm. thick; also perforated sheets, including so-called strainer plates.

* No. 953 provides that aluminium, nickel, and metals not specially mentioned in the Index (alone or in compositions) are to be assimilated to copper. At present aluminium and aluminium wares of the kinds specified in Nos. 897-910 and 923 and 924 are prohibited to be exported; but nickel, antimony, and chrome are only prohibited if in the unmanufactured or rough state, or in scrap.

† 41 L [not prohibited] relates to unmanufactured retort carbon.

‡ His Majesty's Minister at Stockholm has been informed that this exception applies solely to copper imported from Norway and refined at Helsingborg. (The quantity refined at Helsingborg in 1913 was about 7,000 tons, and the quantity exported about 1,300 tons.)

902 and 903	Rods (even if in bundles or coils), rolled, drawn, hammered or profile pressed, but not further worked, whatever be the shape of the section.
904	Solder, moulded, crushed, or granulated.
905	Nails and rivets; also bolts, wormed or not.
906 and 907	Pipes and tubes, whatever be the shape of the section, even if turned on the exterior and interior.
908-910*	Wire, rolled or drawn, whatever be the shape of the section including so-called trolley wire (contact wire).
923 and 924	Woven wire (gauze, wire tissue, etc.).
	Copper and alloys thereof with zinc, tin, and other non-precious metal, such as brass, bronze, German silver, Britannia metal, etc.:
912	Wire twisted into cords or cables, not insulated.
913-914	Wire furnished with sheath of lead or other metal, with or without armouring, even if in combination with other materials; also electric cables or lines with similar sheaths, with or without armouring.
915-918	Wire insulated with rubber, gutta-percha, etc., even if in combination with other materials; also electric cables, lines and cords insulated in this way.
919-920	Wire insulated with textile materials, paper, asbestos, or varnish, even if in combination with other materials; also electric cables, lines, and cords insulated in this way.
921	Wire, electric cables, lines, and cords, insulated in any other way.
1164	Copper sulphate.
474†	Cotton, uncarded (even if bleached, dyed, or chemically cleaned).
476†	Cotton waste, including unpicked cotton (trassel).
	Cotton-seed cake (see under Oilcake); cotton-seed oil (see under Oils, vegetable, fatty).
	Cresol and metacresol (see under Carbolic acid); cresol soap solution (see Lysol).
ex 660	Crucibles of graphite composition.
	Degras (see under Fats, animal).
ex 1258	Diethylmalonylurea (veronal) and its salts. [See under Druggists' wares.]
ex 1258	Digitalis leaves and preparations thereof, such as digalin and digitotal. [See under Druggists' wares.]
140	Dripping (rendered fat).
1258	Druggists' wares, not specially mentioned in the Statistical Index, simple or compound, including saccharine and other artificial sweetening substances. [Note.—Certain druggists' wares coming under No. 1258 were prohibited by Royal Decrees of October 22, 1914, and March 3, 1915, and the wares so prohibited are indicated specifically in alphabetical order in this List. On August 3, 1915, the prohibition of export was extended to all druggists' wares classified under No. 1258.]

	Earthnuts and earthnut cake (see under Oilcake); earthnut oil (see under Oils, vegetable, fatty).
142 A	Eggs.
ex 1087 D	Electro-magnetic igniting apparatus for motor ignition, detached.

* No. 911 [not prohibited] relates to gilt or silvered wire.
† No. 475 [not prohibited] relates to carded cotton.

ex 1160	Emetic salt (tartras stibico-kalicus).
1100 C	Engine and cart grease.
ex 1258	Epinephrine and salts and preparations thereof. [See under Druggists' wares.]
ex 1258	Epirenine and salts and preparations thereof. [See under Druggists' wares.]
ex 1258	Ethyl chloride and methyl chloride. [See under Druggists' wares.]
ex 1258	Eucaine. [See under Druggists' wares.]
	×Explosives [see under Gunpowder.]
1109 F-I	Fats :—Animal fats * not specified elsewhere in the Statistical Index, such as spermaceti, blubber of marine animals, bone-fat ; wool-fat, also lanoline ; degras (tanners' fat). (See also under Dripping, Tallow, Oleomargarine, Margarine.)
1108 A-D	Fats :—Vegetable fats, such as palm oil, palm-nut oil, cocos oil or coco-nut oil, cocoa butter, Japan wax, and other vegetable fatty substances, which under ordinary temperatures do not as a rule assume a liquid form.
105 A-D	Feeding stuffs (cattle foods), not specially mentioned, such as brewers' grains and wash; gluten food, meal of maize cakes and of other oil-cakes and maize-germ meal, even if with admixture of animal substances. (See also Oil-cake.)
707 B and C	Ferrochrome ; ferromanganese and spiegeleisen.
	Fertilisers, artificial :
1227 A	Chile saltpetre (nitrate of soda).
1227 B-E	Stassfurt salts, even if refined [potash manure, 37 per cent. potash ; potash salt, 20 per cent. potash ; kainite, 12 per cent. potash ; and other].
1227 F	Thomas phosphate, and so-called Thomas slag, not ground.
1227 G	Norwegian saltpetre (nitrate of lime).
1229	Superphosphate.
1230 A	Bone meal and horn meal.
ex 1265 A and C	†Fieldglasses, telescopes, and binoculars (kikare), and parts thereof.
	×Firearms (see Weapons.)
231 A and B	Firewood (pine, fir, and other kinds.)
417 A-B, ex G, H	Flax, hackled or not ; flax waste ; flax tow.
	Flour of cereals and of arrowroot, etc. (see under Cereals, ground) ; rice flour (see Rice).

DENMARK.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

September 13, 1915.

NOTES.

1. As regards goods in transit and transhipment goods (in the Copenhagen free port and all other Danish harbours), all such goods, if of a kind prohibited to be exported from Denmark, are covered by the prohibition unless they are on a through bill of lading to a port in a foreign (non-Danish) country.

The prohibition is therefore applicable in cases where the goods are either shipped to a Danish port "to order," or where the goods are redestined to another port than the one originally mentioned in the bill of lading (unless it is only a question of redestination to another port in the same country).

(20928.)

2. According to an official notice published in the "Berlingske Tidende" of the 12th February, 1915, permissions to export granted by the Ministry of Justice are valid only for one month from the day on which permission was granted, unless other conditions are determined in the permit itself.

* The following tissues are specially mentioned in the index, and are therefore excepted from the prohibition, viz., press cloth; machine-felt, endless or woven round for factory use [393]; carpets mats, and rugs [394-9], velvet and plush [400]; tissues shaped in manufacture not specially mentioned [except woollen blankets of this kind] [401]; double-mounted tissues, not combined with other textile materials, unbleached or bleached, weighing 100 grammes or less per square metre [402]; dress cloths weighing 300 grammes or more per square metre, containing threads wholly or partly of silk, the silk not exceeding 3 per cent of the total weight of the tissue [403].

* One copy of this Decree is on file at the Board of Trade (12049); and one copy at the War Trade Department (38368 W. O. 2).

†The Danish Minister for Foreign Affairs states that practically all animal fats are now prohibited to be exported, but animal fats, such as horse fat, goose fat, and ducks' fat can still be exported and also herring and whale oil (in so far as not covered by the terms Lubricants and Medicinal oils). The prohibition of export applies to Danish products, but the Danish Government reserve the right of granting exemptions from the prohibition in respect of Danish fats. [29-7-15.]

‡ All the preparation covered by the expression "mineral oils and motor spirit." distillates of mineral oils, such as petroleum liquid, fuel gas oil, etc., come within the scope of the prohibition. [December 4, 1914].

§ Travellers may carry with them gold and silver coins not exceeding 200 kroner in value.

|| No dispensation from this prohibition have been granted for the exportation of binder twine, and it is not proposed that any such dispensations should be granted. [20-6-15.]

¶ The prohibition applies also to hides which, when trimmed, would fall within the specified weight limits.

 This prohibition does not apply to Danish-produced lard for human consumption, packed fastened, and marked in a special manner, nor to Danish-produced lard for technical uses (i.e., lard not suitable for human consumption, but used for technical and industrial purposes, such as soap-making, etc., packed in a special manner and marked "inedible, etc."

Leather.
Leather wares:—leather goods, not fully worked, including all semi-manufactured leather goods which are merely cut out, stuck or sewn together; leather driving-belts; all kinds of saddlemakers' wares in the production of which the workers' wage does not, in the opinion of the Ministry of Justice, amount to at least 30 per cent of the value of the leather employed.
Leaves, barks, roots, and seeds for medicinal use.
Lentils (see Fodder-stuffs).
Linseed; linseed oil (included under Vegetable oils, q.v.); linseed oil varnish.
Lubricants (including lubricating oils, vaseline, glycerine, and bonefat, bone-grease and bone-oil).
Macaroni.
Magnesium and its compounds.
Maize (included under Cereals); maize meal (see Flour, etc.); maize starch (see Starch).
Malt; malt-germs (see Fodder-stuffs).
Manganese and manganese ore; ferromanganese.
*Manures:—manufactured artificial manures, including superphosphates, blood manure, bone dust, sulphate of ammonia, and raw materials for the manufacture of manure, including raw and calcined bones, and gas water. (see also under Potash.)
Margarine.
Materials, raw, for building or repairing iron or steel ships, as also for the manufacture of arms or ammunition [including aluminium and manufactures thereof; antimony, asbestos, lead of all kinds, old and new, tinned or galvanised iron plates, and waste of tinned plates; galvanised iron nails for ships' use, copper of all kinds, old and new, (including, e.g., copper tubes); all brass, old and new, gun-metal of all kinds; unwrought nickel, nickel wire, seamless steel tubes (boiler and steam tubes), tin of all kinds, old and new,; vanadium ore; wolfram ore; zinc in blocks and sheets, metal scrap—of brass, copper, gun-metal, tin and lead].
Materials, raw, for making powder and explosives (including sulphur, sulphuric acid, saltpetre, including Chile saltpetre, nitric acid, and glycerine).
Meal and flour (including maizena and bread of all kinds).
Medical specalities (e.g., atophan); medical hand syringes and thermometers.
Medicaments and medicinal stores (see Drugs)
Medicinal parts of plants (barks, leaves, roots and seeds).
Mineral oils, etc., (see Fuel-stuffs).
Motor vehicles and motor cycles (including their component parts, also tubes and tyres); motor spirit (see Fuel-stuffs).
Mustard, ground.
Needles—knitting-machine needles.
Nickel ore; ferronickel; unwrought nickle and nickle wire (see Materials, raw); nickel compounds.
Nitrate of potash (see Potash salts); nitrate of soda (Chile saltpetre) [see Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Nitric acid [see Explosive (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Oats including rolled oats (included under Cereals).
Oil-cake (see Fodder-stuffs).
Oils for fuel (see Fuel-stuffs); oil of turpentine, rectified and unrectified.
Oils and stearines, vegetable, for the manufacture of margarine (also compound lard).
Oils, volatile.
Oilseeds and other oleaginous products, viz., copra, sesameseed, cottonseed, earthnuts, soya beans, plam kernels, and linseed.
Oleo stock, (premier jus), oleo oil, (oleo and oleomargarine), oleo stearine. (See also Tallow).
Onions, edible.
Ores:—chrome ore, copper ore and slag derived therefrom, haematite iron ore, manganese ore, nickel ore, tin ore, vanadium ore, wolfram ore.
Palmkernels (see Oilseeds, etc.).
Paraffin †; paraffin candles.
Peas (both cooking and fodder peas) and beans (see Food-stuffs).
Petroleum of all kinds; petrol.
Pig iron (haematite).
Pigs, live.

* Raw and pulverised manurial lime are not included within the scope of the prohibition.
† This prohibition covers paraffin wax. [13-7-15.]

Pigskins.
Potash salts such as kainite, potash manure, and chloride of potash, potash lye, chlorate and perchlorate of potash, nitrate of potash.
Potassium and its compounds.
Potatoes; potato starch (see Starch).
Premier jus (oleo stock), oleo oil (oleo, oleomargarine), and oleo stearine. (see also Tallow).
Pyrites ("svovlkis" and "jernkis").
Rags (woollen and half-woollen), and shoddy.
Raw materials for building or repairing iron or steel ships, or for the manufacture or repair of arms or ammunition (see Materials, raw).
Resins, gums, and balsams.
Rice; rice groats (see Groats); rice starch (see Starch).
Rontgen apparatus and appurtenances.
Roots, barks, leaves, and seeds for medicinal use.
Rubber goods—cycle inner tubes and covers* and other goods principally made of rubber.
Rubber, raw (including rubber solution); reclaimed rubber; rubber waste.
Rye (included under Cereals); rye flour, etc. (see Flour).
Sacks, empty (cotton and jute); sackcloth of jute.
Saddlemakers' wares of all kinds, in the production of which the workers' wage does not, in the opinion of the Ministry of Justice, amount to at least 30 per cent of the value of the leather employed.
Saltpetre, and Chile saltpetre [see under Potash and Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)].
Scrap brass, scrap copper, scrap gun-metal, scrap lead, scrap tin (see Materials, raw).
Seeds, barks, leaves, and roots for medicinal use; oleaginous seeds (see Oilseeds).
Sesame-seed (see Oilseeds, etc.).
Shellac.
Shoddy.
Silver and gold coin† or bullion (including foreign coins†), silver in plates.
Skins:—lamb and sheep skins, prepared or not prepared, pigskins; calfskins (ses under Hides.)
Sodium and its compounds.
Soya beans, crushed (see Fodder); soya beans (see Oilseeds, etc.).
Starch (maize starch, rice starch, potato starch, sago starch, and wheat starch).
Stearines and oils, vegetable, for the manufacture of margarine (also compound lard).
Straw (see Fodder-stuffs).
Strontium and its compounds.
Sugar ‡
Sulphate of ammonia (see Manures); sulphate of copper (copper vitriol).
Sulphur and sulphuric acid [see Explosives (raw materials for their manufacture)]; sulphur compounds.
Superphosphates (see Manures).
Swedes (see Fodder-stuffs).
Syringes, (hand) and thermometers, for medical use.
Tallow (both beef and mutton tallow). (see also Oleo stock, etc.)
Tanning materials.
Tapioca.
Tar (coal tar); tar colours and organic ingredients for producing tar colours, including specially, aniline and aniline combinations, benzol, cresol, and metacresol.
Thermometers and hand cyringes for medical use.
Tin of all kinds, old and new, and scrap tin (see Materials, raw); tin ore; chloride of tin; oxide of tin.
Tinned or galvanised iron plates and waste of tinned iron sheets (see Materials, raw).
Turpentine (see Resins); terpentine oil, rectified and unrectified.
Tyres (covers) and tubes (see under Rubber, and Motor Cars).
Vanadium ore (see Materials, raw); ferrovanadium.
Varnish (linseed oil varnish).
Vaseline (see Lubricants).

---

*The prohibition applies alo to the export of cycles with tubes and covers fitted on, with the exception of cases in which travellers bring cycles for their own use, provided these cases are not made an excuse for evasion of the prohibition.

† Travellers may carry with them gold and silver coins not exceeding 200 kroner in value.

‡ Licenses to export sugar will only be granted to sugar factories and refineries already established in Denmark, and only for such quantities of sugar as the coming harvest can justify. [4-9-15].

Vegetable oils and stearines for the manufacture of margarine.
Wastes:—white waste (cleaning waste); cotton waste; rubber waste; waste of tinned sheets (see Materials, raw).
Weapons of all kinds including sporting guns, and distinctive component parts thereof.
Wheat (included under Cereals); wheat flour, etc. (see Flour); wheat starch (see Starch).
Wire, barbed.
Wolfram ore (see Materials, raw); ferrotungsten.
Wood, in blocks, beams, and boards.
Wool (sheep and lambs).
Woollen and half-woollen rags and shoddy.
Woollen yarn, whatever be the percentage of wool cotained therein.
Woollen goods—woven and knitted woollen tricotage goods, whatever be the proportion of wool contained therein; all woven woollen goods (with the exception of curtain and furniture stuffs and passementerie) (the prohibition including wholly or partly made up articles of clothing).
Yarns—woollen (see Wool); cotton; hemp; jute; cocoanut.
Zinc in blocks and sheets (see Materials, raw).

NETHERLANDS.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORT OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

September 29, 1915.

NOTES.

(1) The Crown reserves to itself the right to grant exceptions in certain cases from the prohibitions of export established by Royal Decree, and (by Royal Decree of 28th August, 1914) the Netherlands Minister of War is authorised in special cases to grant exemptions from any prohibitions to export specified goods which had then been issued or which might in future be issued.

A Notice of the Ministry of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce published in the "Nederlandsche Staatscourant" for the 11th July, 1915, lays down regulations concerning export licenses, Inter alia, it is prescribed that export licenses will only be issued for definitely described quantities of goods, and are to be valid only for a period of one month from the date of issue, unless a shorter period is fixed in the license.

(2) A Netherlands Law of the 9th July, 1915, prohibits the loading into, or transport in, fishing vessels, of goods of which the exportation is prohibited, in so far as such goods are not required for use on board exclusively. The Minister of Marine is empowered to grant exemption from this prohibition in special circumstances.

(3) Special bureaux [centraal bureau] have been established by the Netherlands Government for the regulation of the exportation of certain commodities [butter, cheese, pork]. The commodities in question may only be exported from the Netherlands when accompanied by a special export certificate [uitvoerconsent] issued by the respective bureau.

[The notes printed in small type under certain headings in the list below are in the nature of explanations of the scope, etc., of the prohibitions to which they refer. The majority of such explanatory notes are translations of Notes appended to the list of prohibited goods which are printed from time to time in the official Dutch paper the "Handelsberichten," and it should be borne in mind that they are in the nature of decisions on the part of the authorities administering the prohibitions, and appear to be liable to alteration or modification as the result of later decisions.]

Acetone.
Acids—nitric, sulphuric. (See also under Medicines, etc.)
Aeroplanes, etc. (See under Flying machines).
Ammonia sulphate, ammonia superphosphate (see Fertilisers).
Ammunition, gunpowder, and parts thereof.
Arachides, arachides cake, and arachides meal; almond substitute made from arachides.
Arms, except sporting arms.
Automobiles and parts thereof (including tyres), and motor cycles and parts thereof.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, speedometers are not regarded as coming under the prohibition applicable to parts of automobiles, nor are bodies (koetswerken) for automobiles.

[See under Rubber waste for worn-out motor tyres.]

Bacon (spek), fresh, salted, dried, and smoked. (See also under Pork and Meat.)

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, the prohibition does not apply to exports to Dutch oversea Colonies and Possessions, nor to bacon in railway trains and on ships and boats and intended solely for the use of the persons in such trains or vessels. [See also Note to "Pork, etc.

Bandaging articles and materials therefor (see under Medicines).
Barbed wire (see Wire).
Barley, barley meal, and all articles produced from barley. (See also under Cereals.)
Beans (see Pulse).
Beef (cattle flesh).

According to a notice by the Minister of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce, published in the "Nederlandsche Staatscourant" for the 11th August, exemptions from the prohibition of the export of cattle flesh will only be allowed in respect of:—(a) dried, frozen, and salted organs; and b, cured cattle flesh which, mixed with pig's meat, is exported in the form of sausages, and is accompanied by an export permit (consent).

Beets (sugar beets).
Benzine (petrol).
Biscuits, etc. (see under Bread).
Blankets and blanket material, woollen (see under Wool, etc.).
Bones; bone-meal (see under Fertilisers).
Brass, bronze, etc. (see Copper and alloys thereof).
Bread, ship and other biscuits, cakes, etc. (all articles produced from wheat and spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, and maize).

A Royal Decree of the 1st January, 1915, empowered the Dutch military authorities to allow the export of certain quantities of bread for supplying the daily requirements of the inhabitants of foreign territory in the immediate vicinity of the Dutch frontier, if such inhabitants are unable to obtain bread in their own country, or can only do so under very onerous conditions.

Briquettes (except charcoal briquettes).
Buckwheat and all articles produced from buckwheat. (See also under cereals.)
Butter (except butter accompanied by a special export certificate).
Cabbage (white cabbage).
Calcium acetate; calcium cyanamide (nitrite of lime) and calcium nitride (lime nitrogen) (see Fertilisers).
Carbonate of potassium, caustic potash (including potash lye), potassium salts.
Carts and carriages for horse traction; motor cars and parts thereof.

[See Note to Motor cars.]

Cattle, living.

A notice of the Ministry of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce, published in the "Nederlandsche Staatscourant" for the 24th August, 1915, provides that as from the 13th September, pedigree cattle and cows in calf will (subject to compliance with the regulations established by the notice) be allowed to be exported by sea from Amsterdam and Rotterdam and by rail from Nieuweschans, Oldenzaal, Winterswijk, Zevenaar, Venlo, Roermond, and Roosendaal.

Cereals and articles produced therefrom.

A Notice issued by the Minister of Agriculture, Commerce, and Industry on the 12th July, 1915, states that the prohibition of the export of wheat, rye, oats, barley, and buckwheat is to apply to the new (1915) harvests of these cereals.

The "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, contains the following explanations as to the scope of the prohibition under the heading "Cereals":—

The following are prohibited:—buckwheat, barley, barley meal, goats, oats, maize, maize meal, rye, rye meal, wheat, wheat meal (flour), and all products derived from buckwheat, barely, oats, maize, rye, spelt and wheat.

Beer, yeast, gin, maize oil, and malt wine do not fall under the prohibition, but the following, products do:—(biscuits including ship's biscuit, dog's biscuit, and other biscuits,) cakes, porridge, gingerbread, macaroni, malt coffee, wafers, pudding powder prepared with grain meal, racahout, triscuit, vermicelli, waffles, and similar articles.

Oat flakes which have been specially prepared for sufferers from diabetes may, however, be freely exported.

Cheese (except cheese accompanied by a special export certificate).

His Majesty's Minister at the Hague reported on the 26th April, 1915, that the State Central Bureau for the Export of Cheese had determined that on and after the 1st May certificates would be granted in respect of 80—90 per cent. of the cheese purchased or produced in the Netherlands—the percentage varying according to the Province and the description of the cheese.

Chicory in any form (including chicory roots), and coffee substitutes made from various roots (peekoffie).

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, coffee syrup (burnt molasses) does not fall under the prohibition of export.

Chile saltpetre (see Fertilisers).
Cloth, military, and clothing made therefrom. (See under Wool.)
Coal; coal-tar; coal-tar dyes (see under Tar dyestuffs).

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, bunker coal may be exported in any ship in a quantity sufficient to carry the ship to its next port of destination.

Cocoa beans, raw; cocoa paste; cocoa in the lump.

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, the prohibition of cocoa beans applies also to shelled and broken cocoa beans, to cocoa dust, and to roasted cocoa beans. As regards cocoa husks and meal thereof, see under Force feeding cake.

Coffee substitutes made from various roots (peekoffie) (see under Chicory).
Copper and alloys thereof, whether raw or manufactured (unless used as part of any manufactured article of which copper or copper alloy does not constitute a main component part).

A Royal Decree of the 3rd March, 1915, provided that the Minister of Finance shall decide whether copper or copper alloy constitutes a "main component part" of any manufactured article.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, electric incandescent lamps may be exported, as copper does not constitute the main component. This does not apply to unserviceable incandescent lamps, which are prohibited as scrap copper.

Copper sulphate; copper oxide.
Cotton, raw; cotton waste; cotton yarn.
Cotton seed (see Oilseeds), cotton-seed cake, cotton-seed meal.
Diuretinum.
Dyestuffs (tar dyestuffs) (see under Tar dyestuffs).
Earthnuts, earthnut cake, and earthnut meal; almond substitute made from earthnuts.
Electric pocket lamps, parts thereof, and raw materials for the manufacture thereof.
Engine (machine) and lubricating oils.

[See Note under Lubricating oil.]

Ether.
Fat—all melted or unmelted animal fats, mixtures of these fats with each other, or mixtures thereof with vegetable oils or fats. (See also Tallow.)

A Notice published by the Ministry of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce on the 7th June, 1915, explained that this prohibition is intended to prevent entirely the export of unmixed fat of cattle and pigs. The exportation of the following articles to a limited extent, under export licenses, will be permitted:—

(1) Certain mixtures suitable for use as substitutes of fat of cattle or of pigs;

(2) Certain products of the fat of cattle or pigs, imported into the Netherlands from abroad (e.g., neutral lard, premier jus, oleomargarine, etc.).

(3) Animal fats other than cattle and pig fat (e.g., mutton fat, hardened fish oil, etc.).

Margarine may be freely exported in so far as by its preparation with milk and milk products it has been rendered suitable for use as a butter substitute.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, the prohibition does not apply to exports of fat to Dutch oversea Colonies and Possessions, nor to fats for the actual use of passengers on railway trains or ships or boats.

Fecula, and products manufactured therefrom.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, this prohibition applies, inter alia, to potato meal, potato starch, tapioca, sago, arrowroot, dextrine, glucose (grape sugar), manihot, etc.

Fertilisers:—Chile saltpetre, lime saltpetre (nitrate of lime), lime nitrogen (calcium nitride), nitrite of lime (calcium cyanamide), ammonia sulphate, ammonia superphosphate, guano and other nitrogenous fertilisers, superphosphates; crude phosphates.
Flannel (except cotton flannel) and underwear made therefrom (see under Wool).
Flax (linen) yarns and tow yarns, and goods manufactured wholly or in part therefrom, suitable for military purposes.
Flying machines and parts thereof.
Flour and meal, of wheat and spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, and maize; also potato flour (including potato sago and potato starch).
Force feeding cake [see also those specially mentioned in the list], and meal and waste thereof.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to cocoa husks, cocoa husk meal, copra, groundnut husk meal (finely ground groundnut shells), and linseed husks.

The articles known in the trade as palm-kernel cakes and copra meal or cocos meal are generally obtained by grinding or powdering palm-kernel cakes and copra cakes, or cocos cakes, or are to be regarded as waste thereof, and thus fall under the prohibition of export applicable to meal and waste of force feeding cakes.

Mowra cakes, the residue from expressing Mowra seeds, come under the prohibition of export of force feeding cakes.

Fuel (see under Benzine, Briquettes, Gas oil, Liquid fuel, Petroleum, Coal, Coal-tar, and Tar colours).

Gas oil.

Goats, live, and goat flesh.

Gold coin and bullion (bars, rods, etc.).

The prohibition does not apply to gold coins carried by bonâ fide travellers.

Grain waste.

According ot the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to Vienna glue or shoemakers' glue made from waste in the manufacture of wheat starch. Molasses cattle feed mixed with grain waste falls under this prohibition. Chaff falls under the prohibition of grain waste or straw.

Grass seeds.

Groats. (For oat groats, see under Cereals.)

Groundnuts, groundnut cake and groundnut meal; almond substitute made from groundnuts.

Guano (see Fertilisers).

Gunpowder. (See under Ammunition.)

Half-woollen (mixed woollen goods) (see under Wool).

Hay.

A notice was published in the "Nederlandsche Staatscourant" for the 22nd April, 1915, stating that it was intended to grant permits for the exportation of certain parcels of hay which cannot be consumed in the Netherlands in view of the approaching grazing season.

Hemp yarns, resembling linen yarns, and destined for weaving (not including hemp for binding twine, manila hemp, sisal, etc.).

Hides and skins. (See also Sheep fleeces.)

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies to all hides and skins, and also to peltry, but not to furriers' wares. In the case of slaughtered calves and other slaughtered cattle, the hides may not be exported with the carcass.

Hogwash, dried.

Horses.

A Ministerial Decree of the 25th August, 1915, temporarily permits the exportation, as from the 30th August, of geldings and stallions under 20 months. The export may be effected by sea from Rotterdam, or by train from Nieuweschans. Oldenzaal, Winterswijk, Zevenaar, Venlo, and Simpelveld.

Instruments, medical and optical; surgical instruments.

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, the prohibition of the export of "surgical instruments" does not apply to rubber articles for the sick-room, such as air-pillows, ice-bags, etc. No restriction is imposed on the exportation of surgical instruments to the Dutch East Indies.

Iron, raw, of all kinds; profile iron, tool steel, scrap cast iron.

Iron and steel wire, and articles made of iron or steel wire; barbed wire; sheet iron, tinned (tinplate).

Jute, raw; jute cloth; jute yarns.

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, tailors' linen, consisting of cotton or linen warp with jute weft, does not fall within the scope of the prohibition of jute cloth.

Knitting machine needles.

Lard (see under fat).

Lead and its alloys; waterpipes and watermaines of lead or of tinned lead.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, tin solder, consisting of 30 per cent of lead and 70 per cent of tin, is prohibited as a lead alloy. Lead ashes, which, besides lead oxide, often contain an appreciable proportion of metallic lead, are also prohibited to be exported.

Leather and articles manufactured therefrom.

Lime, nitrate of (lime saltpetre), nitrite of (calcium cyanamide), lime nitrogen (calcium nitride) (see Fertilisers).

Linen yarns and tow-yarns, and goods manufactured wholly or in part therefrom, suitable for military purposes.

Linseed (see Oilseeds), linseed-cake, linseed-meal.

Liquid fuel.

Lubricating and machine oils.

According to the "Handelsberichten" of the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to Chinese wood oil (obtained from the seeds of aleuritis cordata), groundnut oil, cotton-seed oil, linseed oil, maize oil oleic acid, palm-kernel oil or soya oil. Solid fat (consistenvet), and other similar lubricating grease, and hydrogenised castor oil (i.e., castor oil hardened by chemical means) fall under the prohibition.

Macaroni and vermicelli.

Magnesium salts.

The "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, contains the following explanations as to the scope of the prohibition of "Magnesium salts":—

Crude carbonate of magnesium or magnesite and refined carbonate or magnesium, called magnesia alba or merely magnesia, fall under the prohibition of the export of magnesium salts.

Magnesium oxide, burnt magnesia, calcined magnesia, or magnesia usta, which, in the unrefined state, is known in the trade as burnt or calcined magnesite, is not really a salt, and therefore does not fall under the prohibition of magnesium salts. Refined magnesium oxide for medicinal use falls under the prohibition of the exportation of medicines.

Maize, maize meal, and all articles produced from maize. (See also under Cereals)

Manures (see Fertilisers).

Meal of pulse; meal and other products of wheat, spelt, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat, maize, and rice; meat-meal.

Meat (see under Bacon, Beef, Goat-flesh, Mutton, Pork): meat preparations and provisions containing meat, preserved in tins or other airtight receptacles.

Medical and optical instruments.

Medicines and bandaging articles, and materials for making them.

The "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, contains the following explanations under this heading:—

The prohibition is temporarily withdrawn in respect of the obromine, cinchona bark and products derived therefrom, cocaine, coca, and cubebs. The following articles among others, are not as a rule regarded as being covered by the prohibition:—ammonia, carbonate of ammonia, acetic acid, barium chloride, bleaching powder, blood albumen, cocoa butter, caseine, Chinese wood oil, licorice, corn coffee, gelatine, gypsum, glycerine, Glauber's salts, iris root (rhizoma calami), carraway-oil, linden blossom, sugar of milk, musk, clove oil, paraffin, peppermint, saccharin, sanatogen, star aniseed, vanilline, and silicate of soda, and certain specialities prepared by A. M. Boom, of Arnhem, and other firms.

The following inter alia, are covered by the prohibition:—

Alum, borax, bicarbonate of soda, iodine, iodic acid and other iodine combinations, camphor and camphor acid, creosote and cresol, codliver oil, sugar of lead, magnesia alba, magnesia usta, (pure magnesium oxide), lactic acid, naphthalene, peppermint oil, arsenic, sal ammoniac, thymol, tartaric acid, hydrochloric acid;

opium and its derivatives: morphine, codeine, pantopon laudanum, etc.;

salicylate, aspirine, novaspirine, diaspirine, antifebrine, lactophenine, antipyrine and other medicinal compounds derived from salicylate and aniline;

further, mercury and mercury salts, salvarsan and neosalvarsan bromine, salts and other bromine compounds, bismuth, carbolic acid or phenol (purified or crude), castor oil, and patent medicines for inducing sleep, such as adaline, veronal, and trional.

Military cloth and clothing made therefrom; goods suitable for military purposes, manufactured wholly or in part of linen yarns and tow-yarns.

Milk, and all products of milk.

Molasses; molasses cattle food.

Motor cars and parts thereof, including tyres; motor cycles and parts thereof.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, speedometers are not regarded as coming under the prohibition applicable to parts of motor cars, nor are bodies (koetswerken) for motor cars.

[See under Rubber waste for worn-out motor tyres.]

Mutton.

Needles (knitting machine needles).

Nickel, whether raw or manufactured (unless used as part of any manufactured article of which nickel does not constitute a main component part).

A Royal Decree of the 16th April, 1915, authorised the Minister of Finance to decide (if necessary) whether nickel constitutes a "main component part" of any manufactured article.

Nitrate of lime (lime saltpetre), nitrate of sodium (Chile saltpetre) (see Fertilisers); nitrate of potash (see Potash salts).

Nitric acid.

Nitride of calcium (lime nitrogen) and nitrite of lime (calcium cyanamide) (see Fertilisers).

Oats and all articles produced from oats. (See also under Cereals.)

Offals of cereals.

[See Note to Grain waste.]

Oilcakes (ground-nut cake, cotton-seed cake, linseed cake, etc.) (see Force feeding cake).

Oilseeds:—linseed, rape-seed, and other oil seeds, but not carraway seed, mustard seed, and blue poppy seed.

A Notice issued by the Minister of Agriculture, Industry, and Commerce on the 12th July, 1915, states that the prohibition of the export of linseed, colza-seed, rape-seeds, and other oil seeds is to apply to the new (1915) harvests of such seeds.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, the following fall under the prohibition of the exportation of oilseeds:—anacardi nuts, cashew nuts, canary seeds (canariumpitten), ground-nuts (arachides) and almond substitute made therefrom, hemp seed, illippi nuts, mowra seeds, shea nuts and all other Bassia seeds, kapok seeds, niger seeds, palm kernels, and sunflower seeds.

By "canary seeds" (canariumpitten) are meant the seeds of various kinds of canary used in place of almonds, and the term does not therefore apply to canary seeds used as birds' food, which may be freely exported, Bombay kernels (the seeds of prunus bokhariensis), cedar-wood nuts (the seeds of pinus cembra), and myrrha beans (the seeds of pineal.) are also exempt from prohibition.

Oils:—see under Gas-oil; Lubricating and machine oils; Rape-seed oil; Petroleum: Benzine; Liquid fuel; Turpentine.

Optical and medical instruments.

Peas (see under Pulse).

Petroleum; benzine.

Phosphates, crude; superphosphates (see Fertilisers).

Pigs, living.

Pockets lamps (electric), parts thereof, and raw materials for the manufacture of the same.

Pork (varkensvleesch), in any form (except that accompanied by a special export certificate). (See also Bacon, and Meat preparations, etc.)

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies also to sausages and any other form of preserved pigs' meat. The prohibition is not, however, applicable to exports to Dutch oversea Colonies and Possessions.

The same publication states that export certificates may only be used for native (Dutch) products, and that they cannot be used for American bacon or other foreign bacon or meat.

Potash (potassium carbonate), caustic potash (including potash lye), potassium salts.

Potatoes; potatoes cut in pieces or mashed, and waste of potatoes; potato flour (see under Fecula).

According to a notice published by the Minister of Agriculture, Industry, and Commerce on the 6th May 1915, potato fibre (aardappelvezels) is prohibited under the heading of potato waste. Potato fibre which has been entirely worked up may, however, be exported without permits. Fibre containing, in the dry material, more than 50 per cent of fecula is not regarded as having been worked up.

Poultry, alive or dead.

According to the "Handlesberichten" for the 5th August, 1915, the Minister of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce has decided to allow the exportation of old fowls (alive or dead) as from the 9th August, and under certain conditions.

Pulp, dried, and sugar pulp.

Pulse and pulse meal; all runner beans (even if dried), French beans (even if dried), and Heinrich Reesen beans; preparations and preserves of pulse-seeds.

According to notices in the Official Gazette of the 20th May and the 4th and 24th July, 1915, applications for permission to export brown and white beans will not be considered unless the applicant has stored in the Amsterdam position a quantity of beans of the 1914 harvest equal to at least one-third of the quantity to be exported. No green peas or marrow peas will be allowed to be exported after the 31st July, 1915.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, ground-nuts and almond substitute made therefrom, vetch seeds, and hop-seeds, fall under this prohibition, but not green unripe pulse-seeds which are to be used as vegetables.

A Notice issued by the Minister of Agriculture, Commerce and Industry, on the 12th July, 1915, states that the prohibition of the export of pulse is to apply to the new (1915) harvest.

Pyrites.

Rags, woollen and half-woollen.

Rape-seed (see Oilseeds), rape-cake, rape-cake meal, rape-seed oil.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, butter oil (consisting of refined rape-seed oil) comes under the prohibition of rape-seed oil.

Rennet preparations.

Rice, rice waste, and all producers of rice (including rice starch).

Resin.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies only to the product known to the trade as resin (pine resin), and not to products such as gum damar and gum copal. So-called pitch consisting almost entirely of resin, including brewers' pitch, is covered by the prohibition, but real pitch (coal-tar pitch) is not.

Rubber waste; rubber tyres (see under Tyres).

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, motor tyres with worn-out treads (doorgehakte hielen) fall under the prohibition of export of rubber waste.

Rye, rye meal, and all articles produced from rye. (See also under Cereals.)

Sacks, empty.

A notice was published by the Ministers of Finance and of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce on the 18th November, 1914, to the effect that sacks which have been imported to the Netherlands filled may be re-exported in an empty condition after the necessary permission has been obtained. In order to obtain this permission it must be proved that an equal number of sacks of the same sort, filled, was previously imported from the country to which the empty sacks are destined.

Salt.
Salted vegetables.
Saltpetre—Chile and lime saltpetres (see Fertilisers); common saltpetre (see Potash salts).
Sauerkraut.
Scythes.
Seeds (grass).
[Sheep, living]; sheep fleeces.

A Ministerial Decree of the 14th July, 1915, provides that, for the present, permits will be granted for the exportation of live sheep.

Shellac.
Shoddy (artificial wool).
Skins (see Hides).
Soap—all soaps which are not in the form of powder, bar, or cakes (pieces).
Sodium nitrate (Chile saltpetre) (see Fertilisers).
Spades.
Spelt (see Wheat).
Starch (rice starch, potato starch, maize starch, and other kinds).
Steel and iron wire, and articles made of steel or iron wire; tool steel.
Stomachs of calves.
Straw.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July 1915, straw-bands, also straw, used for packing goods, do not fall within the scope of the prohibition. Straw used for covering and protecting potatoes, vegetebles, and fruit, up to a maximum of 300 kilogs. per waggon, is also excepted from the prohibition.

Chaff is covered by the prohibition of the exportation of grain waste or of straw.

Sugar: sugar pulp (see also Syrups); molasses; sugar beets.

On the 23rd September, 1914, the Dutch Government permitted the exportation of 60 per cent of new season's sugar, beginning September-October. This percentage was reduced to 40 per cent by a Decree of the 7th June, 1915.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, edible and potable wares prepared with sugar are not prohibited to be exported unless they are covered by some heading, other than sugar, on the prohibited list.

Sulphate of ammonia (see Fertilisers); sulphate of copper.
Sulphuric acid.
Superphosphates (see Fertilisers).
Surgical instruments.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to rubber articles for the sick room, such as air-pillows, ice bags, etc. No restriction is imposed on the exportation of surgical instruments to the Dutch East Indies.

Syrups (not including apple syrup).
Tallow.

Denatured tallow (tallow unfit for consumption) is not prohibited to be exported.

Tanning materials and tanning extracts.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition does not apply to logwood, barium chloride, gall-nuts and extracts therefrom, hemlock bark, kino and extracts therefrom, and quercitron bark or fustin.

Tar (coal tar); tar dyestuffs, and all substances derived from tar which may be used for the preparation or application of tar dyestuffs.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, this prohibition applies, inter alia, to aniline oil, benzol and [illegible]phthalene. Dry colours, consisting principally of heavy spar, sodium sulphate, and other cheap [illegible]rials, coloured with at most 5 per cent of aniline colour, are not prohibited to be exported.

Tinned sheet iron (tinplate); empty [illegible].
Tinned meats or provisions containing meat.
Toluol.
Tool steel.
Tow yarns (see under Linen yarns).
Turpentine.

Tyres for motors (as parts of automobiles); tyres for cycles, including tyres attached to cycles.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, used tyres on the wheels of cycles used in bonâ fide frontier traffic are not covered by the prohibition of export of cycle tyres. As regards worn-out motor tyres, see Note to Rubber waste.

Vaseline.

Vegetables, salted.

Vehicles for horse traction; motor cars and parts thereof.

[See Note to Motor cars.]

Vermicelli and macaroni.

Waste of wool; cotton waste; rubber waste.

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, motor tyres with worn-out treads (doorgehakte hielen) fall under the prohibition of the export of rubber waste.

Walnut trees and Walnut wood.

Waste of grain; rice waste; potato waste.

[See Note to Grain waste and to Potato waste.]

Waterpipes and watermains, of lead or of tinned lead.

Weapons (except sporting weapons).

Wheat, wheat flour, and all articles produced from wheat. (See also under Cereals.)

Wire:—barbed wire; iron and steel wire, and articles made of iron and steel wire.

Wood (walnut).

Wool, raw and washed; artificial wool (shoddy); wool waste; sheep fleeces; woollen yarns and woollen mixed yarns; woollen blankets and blanket material; woollen or half-woollen goods; flannel (except cotton flannel) and underwear made therefrom. (See also Military cloth.)

According to the "Handelsberichten" for the 1st July, 1915, the prohibition of the export of woollen and half-woollen goods is not to be applied to goods in the piece except in the case of those specially named, e.g., flannel, military cloth, and woollen blanket material.

Half-wool, Jaeger cloth or flannel comes under the prohibition of flannel.

Mohair or angora wool, camel hair, and alpaca hair are regarded as wool for the purpose of the export prohibitions.

Carpets (pijten) do not come under the prohibition of export.

Woollen and half-woollen rags.

Yarns:—see under Cotton, Jute, Hemp, Linen, Wool.

Zinc sheets; zinc, whether raw or manufactured (unless used as part of any manufactured article of which zinc does not form a main component part).

A Royal Decree of the 25th June, 1915, empowered the Minister of Finance to decide, if necessary, whether zinc constitutes a "main component part" of any manufactured article.

ITALY.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

September 13, 1915.

NOTES.

(1) Re-exportation.—The prohibition of exportation covers re-exportation from warehouse or in discharge of "temporary admission" permits.—Decree of August 6, 1914.

(2) Transit.—Merchandise, the exportation of which is prohibited, cannot be re-exported to foreign countries under process of transit or transhipment if it has arrived in an Italian port with bills of lading indicating Italy as the original destination, or if there is no clear indication of destination.

For this purpose, consignments provided with bills of lading "to order," not indicating by name a foreign (non-Italian) destination, and those having only bills of lading "to bearer," will be considered as destined for the internal use of the State (i.e., in Italy).—Decree of November 13, 1914.

(3) Exceptions to the prohibitions of export noted on pages 1639 to 1643 may be made by the Minister of Finance with the approval of the President of the Council of Ministers and of the Ministers of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce.—Decree of August 1, 1914.

(4) A Royal Decree of the 10th June, 1915, prohibited the exportation of articles made wholly or in part from raw material of which the exportation is prohibited or from the products of such materials. His Majesty's Ambassador at Rome reported on the 4th July that the Italian Minister of Finance had issued the Italian Customs authorities explanatory instructions with regard to this Decree, from which it appears that, while the absolute prohibition of exportation of all products and manufactures which can serve for military equipment (imposed by the Royal Decree of the 1st August, 1914) still remains in force, the Customs authorities are on their own initiative to apply the regulations contained in the Decree of the 10th June to the products or manufactures which come under the following categories :—

1. Goods of all kinds manufactured with metals of which the export is prohibited (e.g., copper, tin, zinc., etc.);
2. Articles made with gutta-percha and india rubber;
3. Newspaper paper in rolls;
4. Medicines and chemical products any of the ingredients of which are materials of which the export is prohibited, or such products which are in any way prepared by the use of prohibited materials;
5. Products made from mineral oils, fats, soaps, and fatty and lubricating materials;
6. Colouring material containing aniline colours and salts.

As necessity arises, the Ministry of Finance will issue instructions to the Customs in regard to goods which are not comprised in the above-mentioned categories, but in regard to which it is considered necessary to apply the principles of the Decree of the 10th June.

(5) Liquid fuels Transport by Sea, etc.—A Decree of the Lieutenant-General, dated the 18th July, 1915, lays down regulations governing the transport of liquid fuels by sea, and providing for Government supervision in respect of stocks of such materials.

Article 1 of the Decree prohibits until further notice the carriage from the ports, roadsteads, and territorial waters of Italy, of the Italian Colonies, and of the territories occupied by Italy, in any ship, boat, steamer, or other craft, under any flag, of the following goods, however prepared or packed, viz., vegetable oils, animal oils, crude and distilled mineral oils, naphtha, petroleum of all kinds, benzine (petrol) nitro-benzine, alcohol, and, in general, all essences (essenze) capable of being used in motors. No restriction, however, is imposed on the exportation of vegetable oils, so far as such export has been duly authorised in accordance with the regulations now in force.

Certain modifications of this general prohibition are provided for in Articles 2 and 3 (coastwise carriage, replenishing of stocks in Colonies, etc.).

Articles 4—7 of the Decree deal with the measures taken to obtain information as to stocks of liquid fuel, and the measures of surveillance in respect of such stocks.

Acetic acid and acetates. [See also Note 4 on page 1638.]
Acetone. [See also Note 4 on page 1638.]
Acids :—See under the respective headings, viz.: Acetic, Carbolic, Nitric, Picric, Salicylic, Sulphuric, and also under the heading Medicines. [See also Note 4 on page 1638.]
Acorns (see Fodder).
Aeroplanes, and parts thereof (see Vehicles).
Alcohol (see Spirit, pure).
Alums (chrome and potash alums). [See also Note 4 on page 1638.]

Coffee.‡
Coin.
Colophany and other resins.
Copper ; copper sulphate. [See also Note 4 on page 1638.]
Copra. [See also Note 4 on page 1638.]
Cotton and cotton waste, bleached and unbleached.
Cylinders for compressed gas.
Dirigibles and spare parts thereof. (See Vehicles.)
Donkeys.
Dyes, aniline. [See also Note 4 on page 1638.]
Edible pastes, such as macaroni and vermicelli.
Eggs.
Equipment and clothing for troops, as well as prepared hides, cloths, and, generally, all materials required for the manufacture of such articles.†
Explosives (included under Munitions of war, q. v.).
Feculæ.
Ferro-alloys (see under Iron).
Fertilisers (manures), chemical.
Fish, fresh, in brine, or preserved in any way.
Fish oils and fish grease.
Flour and meal.
Fodder :—Acorns, olive-husks and all other products suitable for feeding animals (including offals of cereals, chaff, rice husks and grape kernels).
Food preserves prepared with or containing any proportion of articles of which the export is prohibited. (See also Foodstuffs.)

* Cheese, hard—export up to 2,000 tons allowed—(September 27, 1914.)

† This prohibition was imposed by Royal Decree of the 1st August, 1914. According to a Customs Circular of the 8th August, 1914, it does not apply to tissues of all kinds for women's clothing, fancy stuffs for men's clothing, silk tissues, velvets, plushes, printed cotton tissues, and such coloured cotton tissues as cannot be used for military clothing. On the other hand, bleached or unbleached cotton tissues suitable for the manufacture of men's body linen or bed linen, cloths for military uniforms, tissues for tents, sacks, and tissues for making them, packing cloth of all kinds, and articles of body linen and knitted wares which can be used for military purposes are prohibited to be exported.

His Majesty's Ambassador at Rome reported on the 23rd August, 1915, that the Italian Government have issued instructions to the competent authorities to prohibit the exportation of all woollen manufactures other than light woollen cloths weighing less than 400 grammes per square metre, tissues for embroidery, and fine hosiery of combed wool. The exportation of these goods is permitted only to Allied countries and to countries situated beyond the Straits of Gibraltar and the Suez Canal.

‡ The exportation of coffee lying in free deposit has been authorized up to 15 per cent of the amounts now stored, and to 50 per cent of any future quantities deposited.—(October 23, 1914.)

Foodstuffs—all fresh or preserved foodstuffs.

[NOTE.—The various foodstuffs specified in this list, e.g., bacon, eggs, flour, meat, etc., have been definitively prohibited by Royal Decrees. On the 10th June, 1915, the prohibition was extended to cover all fresh or preserved foodstuffs which had not hitherto been prohibited.]

FRANCE.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

September 10, 1915.

By Presidential Decrees of December 21st, 1914, January 9th, February 4th, March 6th and 30th, April 1st and 3rd, May 26th, July 3rd, 22nd, and 31st, and August 5th, 20th, and 25th, and September 3rd, 1915, the exportation and re-exportation from France (in process of entrepôt, transit, or transhipment) of the articles mentioned in the list on pages 1644-1650 has been prohibited. Exemptions from these prohibitions may, however, be accorded under conditions to be laid down by the Ministry of Finance.

Exportation to Allied Countries, etc.—By a series of Ministerial Decrees the prohibition of the exportation and re-exportation of a number of articles has been abrogated, so far as concerns consignments which are destined for the United Kingdom, the British Dominions, Colonies, and Protectorates (including Egypt), the uninvaded territory of Belgium, Japan, Montenegro, Russia,‡ Serbia,‡ or the United States of America.§ The articles to which this abrogation of the prohibition applies are printed in italic type in the list on pp. 1644-1650.

Exportation to French Colonies.—According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, goods, the export of which from France is prohibited, may be sent to French Colonies, Tunis, or the French Zone in Morocco, (subject only to the production of a bond for their due arrival at their destination) except in the case of certain goods (arms, explosives, munitions of war, military stores, rubber, scrap iron, copper, scrap copper, etc., sulphur, etc.), in respect of which special authorisation must be obtained.

Relaxations of Prohibition of Transit.—In virtue of a decision of the 3rd July 1915, goods of Italian origin, even if of a kind prohibited to be exported from France, may pass in transit through France, without special authorisation, when consigned to Allied countries; as regards Italian goods consigned to neutral countries, transit through France will be allowed provided that the goods are accompanied by a permit issued by the Italian Customs authorities showing the actual destination of the consignment. According to a French Customs Circular of the 19th February, 1915, postal parcels from the United Kingdom to Spain may be sent in transit through France without special formality. According to a decision of the 3rd July, 1915, cotton destined for Switzerland will not be allowed to pass in

* Permission to export tanning materials extract from Italy cannot at present be granted on account of military requirements, but it is probable that small quantities will be allowed shortly. [26-6-15.]

† Motor bicycles and their parts do not fall under the prohibition of exportation.

‡ Under reserve, as regards exports to Russia and Serbia, of the furnishing of a bond to be discharged by the Russian or Serbian Customs authorities. As regards exports to Russia, these bonds must, according to a Notice published in the "Journal Official" of the 13th July, 1915, be discharged within a period of five months.

transit through France except in virtue of a permit issued by the "Commission Interministérielle des dérogations aux prohibitions de sortie."

An arrangement between the French and Swiss Governments (concluded in January, 1915 and modified in May, 1915) provides that certain maximum monthly quantities of petroleum (4,500 tons), petrol (1,500-2,000 tons), lubricating oils and fats (1,300 tons), and special oil for Diesel engines (500 tons) may be allowed to pass in transit through France to Switzerland. The bills of lading in respect of these oils must be endorsed to the "Commissaire des Guerres de l'Armée suisse," and the oils must be landed at a French Mediterranean port, or, if landed elsewhere, this fact must immediately be notified to the French Government.

His Majesty's Ambassador at Paris reported on March 13th, 1915, that the French Government have decided to allow the exportation of seeds from France to Switzerland, and that a general authorisation has also been given for the transit of seeds through France to Switzerland.

Transhipment in French Ports of Goods for the United Kingdom.—His Majesty's Ambassador at Paris reported, on July 13th, 1915, that he had received a Note from the French Ministry for Foreign Affairs stating that all goods of the kinds prohibited to be exported and re-exported from France may, if destined for the United Kingdom, be transhipped in a French port and allowed to proceed freely to their destination without special authorisation, provided that the goods were shipped on a through bill of lading to the United Kingdom.

Acetic acid and medicinal salts thereof ; acetic ether.
Acetone.
Acids (see under the relevant headings—Acetic, Hydrochloric, Lactic, Nitric, Salicylic, Sulphuric).
Aeroplanes and airships and detached parts thereof; rigging, tackle, and equipment for aircraft. (See also Machines.)
Alcohols—amyl alcohol, methyl alcohol, and ethyl alcohol.
Alizarine (see Tar dyes).

RUSSIA.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

October 1, 1915.

NOTES.

1. The exportation of certain articles direct to Allied countries, in Russian or Allied vessels, is authorised without special application in the case of each consignment. These articles are : maize, bran, oilcake of all kinds (including colza oilcake), bacon, butter, dead poultry and game, live poultry, eggs, intestines, fish, tobacco of the first quality (certified by excise), wood materials, oilseeds, clover seeds and other forage seeds, furskins, except sheepskins and goatskins), tar pitch, flax, hemp, tow, and spirit.

With regard to the export of these goods to Allied countries direct in neutral ships, special guarantees have to be obtained each time from the neutral Legation in Petrograd, in agreement with the British Embassy if the articles are going to the United Kingdom direct), that the goods are proceeding to the Allied countries named and will not be re-exported to an enemy country.

1Exportation et reexportation prohibees sulement de l'Algerie.

The exportation to the United Kingdom of game, poultry (dead), eggs and bacon, is authorised, without special authorisation in the case of each consignment, if the goods are despatched (from the Finland Station, Petrograd) by the "direct oversea Scandinavian route," i.e., viâ Raumo or Montyluoto.

2. Exceptions from the prohibitions of export may be made by the Minister of Finance in favour of Allied and friendly countries on separate application in the case of each consignment, apart from the exceptions already referred to in Note 1.

3. The exportation of goods of all kinds is prohibited from Baltic ports situated in the Governments of Petrograd, Esthonia, Livonia, and Courland. The Gulf of Finland and the Gulf of Riga are closed to oversea (lit., foreign) navigation.

4. The prohibitions of export noted below do not apply to exports to Finland from Russia.

The exportation of goods from Finland to foreign countries is effected in accordance with special regulations in force in the Grand Duchy. The Finnish prohibitions, however, do not affect the export of Russian goods in transit via Finland to places abroad.

NOTE.—An export supertax of 20 escudos per 100 kilogs. is levied on unwashed wool exported from Portugal.

EGYPT.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORTATION OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED OR RESTRICTED IN VIRTUE OF PROCLAMATIONS OR MINISTERIAL DECISIONS.

September 15, 1915.

Aeroplanes, balloons, and dirigibles, and component parts thereof.
Alimentary products in general, with the exception of the following articles :—
- Alcohol.
- Beer.
- Earthnuts (arachides).
- Eggs.
- Quails, living.
- Cereals [unlimited export is allowed of maize, millet, beans, lentils, wheat (1915 crop)].

[With regard to the free export of wheat, information has been received through the Foreign Office from the Egyptian Government to the effect that export is practically confined to the United Kingdom and Marseilles. The export of wheat may also be allowed to Spain and Portugal and to neutrals outside Europe if the shipment presents no suspicious circumstances, but not to Scandinavia or the Balkans.]

* The exportation of these articles does not seem to have been definitely prohibited, although the re-exportation, transit, and transhipment have.

† The re-exportation of these articles does not seem to have been specifically prohibited

‡ The prohibition does not apply to the export and re-export of such articles from Portugal and the adjacent islands to Portuguese oversea provinces or from such oversea provinces to Portugal and the adjacent islands.

§ Licences may be granted by the Portuguese Government for the export of tin ore to the United Kingdom, France, Italy, Spain, Netherlands (Oversea Trust), and extra-European destinations. [23-6-15].

Sugar—up to 10,000 metric tons until the end of August last (by the Société des Sucreries et de la Raffinerie d'Egypte).
[No later information received.]
Cane sugar molasses [i.e., molasses used for distilling purposes, but not liquid sugar known as "dark honey" (miel noir)].
Sugar straw (sucre paille).
Tea (unlimited export allowed).
Chickpeas.
Seeds of Bersime "Tagawi."
Onions.

NOTE.—Instructions were given by the Foreign Office on the 15th June, 1915, that onions should be allowed to go freely to Italian as well as to French ports, provided they are not consigned in transit to Switzerland. No onions with a Swiss destination are to be allowed to be exported pending the formation of the proposed Société de Surveillance Economique. No onions are to be allowed to be exported to other Mediterranean countries without reference to the Foreign Office. Exports of onions for Scandinavia should be consigned via the United Kingdom in order that the ultimate destination may in every case be investigated. Exports of onions for the Netherlands may be allowed, provided they are normal in amount and are consigned to the Netherlands Oversea Trust.

Alimentary products (continued) :—
Exceptions (continued)— Almonds.
Bananas.
Citrons and fruits from Alkekange.

NOTE.—It is understood that the following are allowed to be exported by permission of the Ministry of Finance :—
Opium.
Datura stramonium.
Henbane.

Colocynth.
Hemlock.
Caustic soda.
Natural salt.
Common soap.
Natural phosphates.
Gum Arabic.
Senna.

Equipment (military), uniforms, and camping requisites.
Explosives (gunpowder and all other explosives).
Gunpowder and all other explosives.
Military equipment, uniforms, and camping requisites.
Motor cars—see under Vehicles.
Petroleum and petrol (bensine).

NOTE.—Partial exportation is permitted on the advice of the Petroleum Commission.

Sacks, empty.*
Sacks for coal.
Uniforms, military equipment, and camping requisites.
Vehicles:—

Engines and lorries, internal combustion, capable of carrying a load of 1,250 kilogs. or more, and component parts thereof.
Four-wheeled vehicles capable of carrying 1 metric ton or more.
Two-wheeled vehicles capable of carrying a load of 750 kilogs. or more.

Wood, building.
Wool and woollen manufactures of all kinds.

NOTE.—The Egyptian Government was instructed by the Foreign Office on the 14th July, 1915, to prohibit the export of all forms of wool and woollen manufactures, except to British destinations. Small quantities may be exported (under license) to Allied Countries.

NOTES.

(i) The above export prohibition list represents the restrictions placed upon the export trade of Egypt by Proclamations or Ministerial decisions only. No mention is made of the administrative measures (such as the requiring of British Consular Certificates of destination) which have been taken by the Customs Authorities to prevent goods reaching the enemy through neutral countries. These measures are in force for all goods exported to neutral countries adjacent to enemy countries. No restrictions are now placed on exports to Italy.

(ii) Instructions were given by the Foreign Office on the 15th June last, that the restrictions on the export of onions, as noted on the first page, may be applied equally to all other contraband articles, or articles of potential military value, such as "cotton," provided that these are on the British list of prohibited or restricted exports.

NOTE.—The following articles are excepted from the general prohibition, and may be exported without special permission, viz.:—

Acetic acid;
Alcohal;
Aluminium sulphate;
Alum, alumen exsiccatum;
Ammonium sulfoichthyolicum;
Aqua pruni macrophyllae;
Arsenic acid;
Calcium chloride, carbonate (precipitated), oxide.
Camomile flowers;
Camphor, camphor oil;
Capsicum
China root;
Cod-liver oil;
Copper sulphate;
Cottonwool, medicated; medicated lint;
Diastase;
Drugs, Japanese and Chinese, other than those specified in this list (except reagents specified in the Japanese Pharmacopœia).

Goods which may be exported without special permission.

Ether;
Ferric chloride (ferrum sesquichloratum);
Ferric sulphate;
Gallnuts;
Gentian root and its preparations:
Ginger;
Ginseng;
Hydrochloric acid;
Iodine, medicines made with iodine, iodine compounds;
Lint, medicated; medicated cottonwool;
Magnesia usta (or oxide), magnesium carbonate, bicarbonate, dioxide, sulphate;
Menthol crystals;
Naphthalene;
Orange peel, orange-peel oil;
Peppermint oil;
Roots of captis teeta;
Serums;
Sesame oil;
Silver nitrate, fused silver nitrate in sticks;
Sodium sulphate;
Sulphuric acid;
Star anise;
Talc;
Valerian roots and preparations thereof;
Zedoario roots;
Zinc chloride, oxide, sulphate.

Phosphorus, yellow or red.
Potash, chlorate of and chloride of.
Rubber, raw; articles manufactured of rubber.
Soap containing more than 20 per cent of impurities (starch, grain, flour, clay, or other matter).
Soda ash; caustic soda: borate of soda.
Tin and tin manufactured goods.*

Carriages and mountings for cannon and other ordnance, and for machine guns and parts thereof;

Cartridges, charges of all kinds, and their component parts;

Celluloid;

Chemicals, drugs, dyes and dye-stuffs, medicinal and pharmaceutical preparations, and tanning extracts, namely:—

- Aceto-celluloses;
- Acetone;
- Acetylsalicylic acid (aspirin);
- Alcohol, methylic;
- Ammonium nitrate, perchlorate and sulphocyanide;
- Amyl acetate;
- Anthracene oil and green oil;
- Antipyrine (phenazone) and its derivatives;
- Anti-tetanus serum;
- Belladonna, its alkaloids and preparations, including belladonna plaster;
- Benzol;
- Caffeine and its salts;
- Calcium acetate and all other metallic acetates;
- Cantharides and its preparations;
- Carbolic acid;
- Carbon disulphide;
- Chloral and its preparations, including chloramid;
- Chlorates, perchlorates, and nitrates all metallic;
- Coal tar distillation products, being the fractions of the distillation products of coal tar between benzol and cresol;
- Coal tar products for use in dye manufacture including aniline oil and aniline salt;
- Colladion;
- Cresol, and all preparations of cresol (including cresylic acid) and nitro-cresol (except saponified cresol);
- Cyanamide:
- Diothylbarbituric acid (veronal) and veronal sodium;
- Dimethylaniline;
- Dyes and dye stuffs manufactured from coal tar products;
- Emetin, and its salts;
- Ergot of rye, not including liquid extract or other medicinal preparations of ergot;
- Eucaine hydrochlor;
- Fusel oil (amyl alcohol);
- Gentain and its preparations;
- Glycerine, crude and refined;
- Henbane and its preparations;
- Hydroquinone;
- Indigo, natural;
- Ipecacuanha root;
- Manganese, peroxide of;
- Methylaniline;
- Neo-salvarsan;
- Nitric acid;
- Nitrotoluol;
- Novocain;
- Opium and its preparations and alkaloids;
- Paraffin, liquid medicinal;
- Paraformaldehyde and trioxymethylene;
- Paraldehyde;
- "Peptone Witte";
- Phenacetin;
- Picric acid and its components;
- Potash, caustic;
- Potassium cyanide;
- Potassium permanganate;
- Protargol, not including silver proteinate;
- Pyridine;
- Saccharin (including "saxin");
- Salicylic acid, methyl salicylate, sodium salicylate, and theobromine sodium salicylate;
- Salol;
- Salvarsan;
- Santonin and its preparations;
- Sulphonal;
- Sulphur, and spent oxide of sulphur;
- Sulphur dioxide, liquified;
- Sulphuric acid;
- Tanning, extracts for use in, the following:—
  - Chestnut extract;
  - Oakwood extract;
- Thorium, oxide and salts of;
- Thymol and its preparations;
- Toluol and mixtures containing toluol;
- Trephenyl phosphate;

Trional;
Valonia;
Coal tar, crude;
Compasses, other than ships' compasses;
Copper and brass solid drawn tubes;
Cotton fabric, suitable for aircraft;
Cotton waste of all descriptions;
Diamonds rough; suitable for industrial purposes, including Brazilian carbon;
Explosives of all kinds;
Field glasses and telescopes;
Firearms, rifled, of all kinds, and their compomet parts;
Flax fabric, suitable for aircraft;
Flax, raw;
Forage and food which may be used for animals, namely:—
Hay;
Offals of corn and grain, including:—
Bran and pollard;
Sharps and middlings;
Straw;
Glass for optical instruments;
Gold beaters' skin;
Grindery, the following articles of, used in the making of boots and shoes:—
Brass rivets, for use by hand or machine;
Cutlan studs, for use by hand or machine;
Heel attaching pins, for use by hand or machine;
Lasting tacks or rivets, including iron shoe rivets, for use by hand and machine;
Steel bills, for use by hand or machine;
Heel tips;
Heel tip nails;
Hobnails of all descriptions;
Protector studs;
Screwing wire;
Harness and saddlery which can be used for military purposes, including metal fittings for such harness or saddlery;
Heliographs;
Hemp, other than Manila hemp;
Hides of cattle, buffaloes and horses, and calfskins;
Iron pyrites;
Iron ore, Cumberland hæmatite;

Acetanilide;
Aconite and its preparations and alkaloids;
Ammonia and its salts, whether simple or compound, other than ammonium nitrate, perchlorate and sulphocyanide;
Ammonia, liquefied;
Ammonia liquor;
Antimony, sulphides and oxides of;
Benzoic acid (synthetic) and benzoates;
Bromine and alkaline bromides;
Calcium carbides;
Carbon tetrachloride;
Caustic soda;
Chlorides of sulphur;
Chloride of tin;
Chlorine (including liquefied chlorine);
Chromium, compounds of except chromium acetate, chromium chlorate and chromium nitrate (the exportation of which is already prohibited to all destinations) and bichromate of soda [the exportation of which is and remains only prohibited to all foreign countries in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas other than France, Russia (except through Baltic ports), Italy, Spain and Portugal].

Coca and its preparations and alkaloids;
Copper iodide;
Copper, suboxide of;
Copper sulphate;
Cresol (saponified);
Formic aldehyde;
Hexamethylene tetramin (urotropin) and its preparations;
Hydrobromic acid;
Hydrochloric acid;
Magnesium chloride and sulphate;
Mercury, compounds and preparations of (other than nitrate of mercury);
Oxalic acid;
Oxides and salts (other than chlorates, perchlorates, and nitrates) of the following metals:—
Cobalt;
Nickel;
Tungsten;
Phosphorus and its compounds;
Potash salts (except potassium chlorate, cyanide, nitrate (saltpetre), perchlorate, and permanganate;
Prussiate of soda;
Sodium;
Sodium hyposulphite (thiosulphate);
Tartaric acid, cream of tartar, and alkaline tartrates;
Urea and its compounds;
Zinc chloride and sulphate;
Coal, all kinds, and coke, but not including coal allowed by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to be shipped as bunker coal.
Coal sacks;
Deer skins, dressed and undressed;
Draw plates, jewelled, for drawing steel wire, and diamonds prepared for use therein;
Electros for printing purposes, composed of lead, antimony, and copper;
Ferro alloys, including:—
Ferro-chrome;
Ferro-manganese;
Ferro-molybdenum;
Ferro-nickel;
Ferro-titanium;
Ferro-tungsten;
Ferro-vanadium;
Spiegeleisen;
Ferro-silicon;
Forage and food which may be used for animals, viz.:—
Beans, including haricot beans, Burma and Rangoon beans;
Cakes and meals, the following, namely:—
Compound cakes and meal;
Cottonseed cake, decorticated and undecorticated, and cottonseed meal;
Rice meal (or bran) and dust.
Lentils;
Linseed cake and meal;
Maize;
Malt dust, malt flour, culms, sprouts or combings;
Patent and proprietary cattle foods of all kinds;
Forges, portable;
Fustic (chips and extract) and logwood (chips and extract, including hæmatine crystals and other logwood preparations);
Goat skins, dressed and undressed;
Graphite, including foundry (moulding) plumbago and plumbago for lubricating:
Guanos;
Hemp, the following manufactures of:—
Cloth;
Cordage and twine, not including cordage or twine of Manila hemp or reaper or binder twine;
Horse shoes;
Hosiery needles;
Jute, raw and carded;

Aluminium, manufactures of aluminium, and alloys of aluminium;
Antimony and alloys of antimony, including anti-friction metal;
Bauxite;
Chrome ore;
Cobalt;
Copper, unwrought and part wrought, all kinds, including alloys of copper (such as brass, gun metal, naval brass and delta metal, phospor copper, phosphor bronze, and solder containing copper), copper and brass circles, slabs, bars, ingots, scrap, rods, and plates, and also wrought copper of the following descriptions:—Copper and brass pipe sheets, condenser plates, copper wire, brass wire, bronze wire, perforated brass sheets, perforated brass linings, and copper foil;
Lead, pig, sheet or pipe (including solder containing lead);
Lead ore;
Manganese and manganese ore;
Molybdenum and molybdenite;
Nickel and nickel ore;
Scheelite;
Selenium;
Steel containing tungsten or molybdenum or both, and any tools or other articles made from such steel;
Tin and tin ore;

Tungsten;
Vanadium;
Wolframite;
Wulfenite;
Zinc ore;

Mica (including mica splittings and mica chimneys and micanite;

Mineral jellies;

Mines and parts thereof;

Oil, blast furnace (except creosote and creosote oil);

Oil fuel, shale;

Oil fuel, but not including any such fuel allowed by the Commissioners of Customs Excise to be shipped for use on board the Exporting Ship;

Fish meal and concentrated fish; ground nut or earth nut cake and meal;
Gluten meal or gluten feed;
Maize germs and maize germ meal;
Maize meal and flour;
Mill dust and screenings of all kinds;
Hempseed cake and meal;
Husk meal;
Locust bean meal;
Meat meal;
Palmnut cake and meal;
Poppyseed cake and meal;
Rapeseed or colzaseed cake and meal;
Sesame seed cake and meal;
Soya bean cake and meal;
Sunflower seed cake and meal;
Chick peas, pigeon peas, gram or dhol;
Dari;
Millet;
Grindstone, carborundum wheels, and emery wheels;
Gums resins, balsams, and resinous substances of all kinds, except such as contain caoutchouc;
Hair, animal, of all kinds; and tops, noils and yarns of animal hair;
Implements and apparatus designed exclusively for the manufacture of munitions of war, for the manufacture or repair of arms or of war material for use on land or sea, namely, plant for cordite and ammunition factories, viz.:—
Cordite presses;
Dies for cartridge cases;
Gas carbon;
Gauges for shells or cartridges;
Incorporators;
Lapping machines;
Rifling machines;
Wire winding machines;
Intrenching tools and intrenching implements namely, pick-axes and grubbers, whether of combination pattern or otherwise; spades and shovels of all descriptions; helves and handles for pick-axes and grubbers, spades and shovels; and machinery for trenching and ditching;
Kapok hempen fibre;
Lacs of all kinds, including shellac, gum lac, seed lac, stick lac, and other forms of lacs, but not including lac dye;
Lignum vitæ;
Linen close canvas;
Linen duck cloth;
Machinery, metal working;
Mahogany;
Mess tins, and water bottles for military use;
Metals and ores namely:—
Copper ore;

Iron ore (except Cumberland hæmatite iron ore, the exportation of which is prohibited to all destinations).
Iron, hæmatite pig;
Monazite sand;
Motor vehicles of all kinds, including motor bicycles, and their component parts, and accessories;
Packings, engine and boiler (including slag-wool);
Pepper;
Ply wood of all kinds, except ash three-ply wood (the exportation of which is already prohibited to all destinations).

BANGALORE,
4th December 1915.

T. LAKSHMINARASIMHA RAO.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

READ—

Government Order No. 7332-72—Med. 89-06-57, dated the 24th February 1910, prescribing rules regarding medical attendance on Government Officers, etc., and fees for attendance.

2. Correspondence ending with letter No. G. 305, dated the 27th January 1915, from the Senior Surgeon in the matter of a proposal to levy fees in Hospitals and Dispensaries in the State, from persons who can afford to pay for medical relief.

No. 3820-70—MED. 231-13-4, DATED, BANGALORE, THE 26TH NOVEMBER 1915.

ORDER.—With the growth of population and the recognition by the people of the advantages of skilled medical treatment, there has been an increasing need for a large number of hospitals and dispensaries and for their better equipment, and the expenditure on medical relief has been rapidly growing. The existing practice of providing medical advice and hospital treatment free of charge to rich and poor alike, was introduced at a time when medical institutions were few, and it was necessary to popularize them, and demonstrate to the public the advantages of scientific medical treatment. These reasons no longer exist and an indefinite continuance of the practice would hamper the normal expansion of the Medical Department and injure the interests of the deserving poor, who alone have a claim to gratuitous treatment.

2. The need to modify this practice was felt so far back as 1893, when a set of rules were issued authorising the levy of fees for prescriptions made up for persons who could afford to pay; but for some reason the rules were not generally brought into force. Government are of opinion that the time has arrived for introducing the system of levying fees tentatively in the institutions in the cities of Bangalore and Mysore, especially as this system has been working well in the British Indian Provinces.

3. They are therefore pleased to issue the rules given in the Appendix which will be adopted in all the hospitals and dispensaries in the cities of Bangalore and Mysore, tentatively for a period of three years with effect from 1st January 1916. These rules are not, however, intended to affect those issued with the Government Order of 24th February 1910 read above.

4. The Senior Surgeon is requested to submit at the close of each official year a report on the working of the rules herein prescribed.

D. M. NARASINGA RAO,
Secretary to Government,
General Department.

To—The Senior Surgeon in Mysore.
Other Heads of Departments.
Deputy Commissioners of Districts.
Presidents of the Bangalore and Mysore City Municipal Councils.

APPENDIX.

RULES TO REGULATE THE LEVY OF FEES FROM PATIENTS RESORTING TO PUBLIC HOSPITALS AND DISPENSARIES FOR TREATMENT.

1. Persons whose monthly income from all sources does not exceed Rs. 50 and their dependants will be considered as poor for the purposes of these rules and will be entitled to free medical advice and treatment in all hospitals and dispensaries, whether they are maintained from Provincial, Municipal or Local Funds.

2. Out-patients.—Subscribers to a hospital or dispensary of rupees four per mensem and upwards will be allowed to have medical advice and treatment for themselves and their families free of charge in the Out-patients' Department.

3. Every other person attending a hospital or dispensary for treatment as an out-patient will be charged at the rate of two annas for each attendance—such payment to include charges on account of advice (including a minor operation) and medicine for a day.

4. In-patients.—(1) General wards.—Every person who is not poor and who desires to be admitted and treated in the general wards, should pay at the rate of eight annas for every day he stops in the hospital.

5. Persons wishing to be treated as in-patients free of charge will have to sign a declaration to the effect that their own income or that of the person on whom they depend does not exceed Rs. 50 a month.

6. (2) Special wards.—Every person wishing to be admitted into the special ward will have to pay a fee of Rs. 2 per day, if he is to be treated as a first class patient and given one whole room for himself, or one rupee a day when he will be treated as a second class patient, two second class patients being put in one room.

NOTE.—These rates do not apply to the Victoria Hospital, Bangalore, for which special rates have been prescribed in Government Order 9594-5—Med. 53-08-8 dated 2nd April 1909.

7. For children under 12 years of age, half the above rates will be charged for hospital stoppages.

8. The above rates include all ordinary charges including medical attendance, treatment and dieting. Patients requiring special nursing will have to make their own arrangements.

9. All charges levied under the foregoing rules shall be recovered in advance and credited in full to Government.

10. Emergencies will be attended to free of charge.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

READ—

Government Order No. 7332-72—Med. 89-06-57, dated the 24th February 1910, prescribing rules regarding medical attendance on Government Officers, etc., and fees for attendance.

2. Correspondence ending with letter No. G. 305, dated the 27th January 1915, from the Senior Surgeon in the matter of a proposal to levy fees in Hospitals and Dispensaries in the State, from persons who can afford to pay for medical relief.

No. 3820-70—MED. 231-13-4, DATED BANGALORE, THE 26TH NOVEMBER 1915.

ORDER.—With the growth of population and the recognition by the people of the advantages of skilled medical treatment, there has been an increasing need for a large number of hospitals and dispensaries and for their better equipment, and the expenditure on medical relief has been rapidly growing. The existing practice of providing medical advice and hospital treatment free of charge to rich and poor alike, was introduced at a time when medical institutions were few, and it was necessary to popularize them, and demonstrate to the public the advantages of scientific medical treatment. These reasons no longer exist and an indefinite continuance of the practice would hamper the normal expansion of the Medical Department and injure the interests of the deserving poor, who alone have a claim to gratuitous treatment.

2. The need to modify this practice was felt so far back as 1893, when a set of rules were issued authorising the levy of fees for prescriptions made up for persons who could afford to pay; but for some reason the rules were not generally brought into force. Government are of opinion that the time has arrived for introducing the system of levying fees tentatively in the institutions in the cities of Bangalore and Mysore, especially as this system has been working well in the British Indian Provinces.

3. They are therefore pleased to issue the rules given in the Appendix which will be adopted in all the hospitals and dispensaries in the cities of Bangalore and Mysore, tentatively for a period of three years with effect from 1st January 1916. These rules are not, however, intended to affect those issued with the Government Order of 24th February 1910 read above.

4. The Senior Surgeon is requested to submit at the close of each official year a report on the working of the rules herein prescribed.

D. M. NARASINGA RAO,
Secretary to Government,
General Department.

To—The Senior Surgeon in Mysore.
Other Heads of Departments.
Deputy Commissioners of Districts.
Presidents of the Bangalore and Mysore City Municipal Councils.

APPENDIX.

RULES TO REGULATE THE LEVY OF FEES FROM PATIENTS RESORTING TO PUBLIC HOSPITALS AND DISPENSARIES FOR TREATMENT.

1. Persons whose monthly income from all sources does not exceed Rs. 50 and their dependants will be considered as poor for the purposes of these rules and will be entitled to free medical advice and treatment in all hospitals and dispensaries, whether they are maintained from Provincial, Municipal or Local Funds.

2. Out-patients.—Subscribers to a hospital or dispensary of rupees four per mensem and upwards will be allowed to have medical advice and treatment for themselves and their families free of charge in the Out-patients' Department.

3. Every other person attending a hospital or dispensary for treatment as an out-patient will be charged at the rate of two annas for each attendance—such payment to include charges on account of advice (including a minor operation) and medicine for a day.

4. In-patients.—(1) General wards.—Every person who is not poor and who desires to be admitted and treated in the general wards, should pay at the rate of eight annas for every day he stops in the hospital.

5. Persons wishing to be treated as in-patients free of charge will have to sign a declaration to the effect that their own income or that of the person on whom they depend does not exceed Rs. 50 a month.

6. (2) Special wards.—Every person wishing to be admitted into the special ward will have to pay a fee of Rs. 2 per day, if he is to be treated as a first class patient and given one whole room for himself, or one rupee a day when he will be treated as a second class patient, two second class patients being put in one room.

NOTE.—These rates do not apply to the Victoria Hospital, Bangalore, for which special rates have been prescribed in Government Order 9594-5—Med. 53-08-8, dated 2nd April 1909.

7. For children under 12 years of age, half the above rates will be charged for hospital stoppages.

8. The above rates include all ordinary charges including medical attendance, treatment and dieting. Patients requiring special nursing will have to make their own arrangements.

9. All charges levied under the foregoing rules shall be recovered in advance and credited in full to Government.

10. Emergencies will be attended to free of charge.
